

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2742

The lunch box Avery was carrying fell to the ground with a 'bang'!

Hayden's voice spread louder than before: "Is there Layla?! Layla should be with him!"

The rescuers above carefully moved Eric's body and saw Layla lying inside.

"I found her! Boss Tate, I found your sister!" The rescuer said excitedly, and reached out to check Layla's breath.

The temperature on the mountain was very low.

Layla's face was cold, but there was a distinct warm breath on her neck.

The rescuers' hands were trembling, and they seemed to feel Layla's breath, but they didn't seem to...

Even if Layla still had breath, her breath should be relatively weak.

"Boss Tate...I'm not sure if your sister is still alive!"

"Get the people down first!" When Hayden was speaking, he wished he could climb up to see how his sister was doing but he couldn't.

He took the binoculars from his assistant and checked the situation above.

After he looked at it for a few seconds, Elliot brought the telescope over, looked at it himself, and then showed it to Avery.

"My daughter should be alive...Avery, our daughter must be alive..." Elliot's voice was tense with hope, and hope with anxiety.

Avery's mood was much sadder than Elliot.

Rescuers said that Eric was dead.

It must be that Eric was not breathing anymore.

Avery couldn't accept her daughter leaving, nor could she accept Eric leaving.

The two of them climbed the snow mountain together, why can't they survive together?

How would Avery face Eric's parents?

Since she rescued Eric, Eric's energy for her and her children had long outweighed the so-called life-saving grace.

Eric didn't owe her a long time ago, nor did he owe anyone else.

But now Eric died like this.

Helicopter transported Eric and Layla directly to the hospital.

When the helicopter flew away from the snow mountain, Hayden immediately took the whole family into the car and headed to the hospital.

"I will compensate his parents." Seeing Avery's depression, Elliot knew what she was feeling, "No matter what they ask, I will satisfy them."

Avery had tears in her eyes: "You have met his parents, you should know that his parents are very kind and open-minded elders. What do you think they will ask of us?"

Elliot didn't know how to answer.

If Eric died, then the inheritance left by Eric should be enough for the two elders to live comfortably for the rest of their lives.

"Avery, an avalanche is a natural disaster, not a man-made disaster." Elliot wanted Avery to calm down a little.

"If Layla doesn't call Eric, do you think Eric will come here for no reason?" Avery asked back.

"Layla called him, and he can refuse. Since he didn't refuse and went up the snow mountain with Layla, then you can't blame Layla." Elliot frowned and expressed his opinion, "Layla couldn't predict it either that there will be an avalanche, if she can predict it, she will never put herself and others in such danger."

"I don't blame my daughter. I'm just in pain! Eric shouldn't die!" Avery's voice overshadowed Elliot's voice just now.

The three children saw their parents arguing, and no one dared to interrupt them.

This matter was beyond the scope of their ability to persuade a fight.

Eric really didn't deserve to die.

But it was true that Layla did not do this on purpose.

When the car arrived at the hospital, Layla and Eric had already been sent to the emergency room.

The family waited anxiously outside the emergency room.

“Is Uncle Eric still alive?” Hazel asked in a low voice, “If he is dead, there is no need to go to the emergency room for rescue?”

Chapter 2743

Hazel’s words brought a glimmer of hope to Avery’s eyes again.

If the doctor determined that the injured person was dead, no further rescue would be performed on the deceased.

There was no need to save the deceased if he was not breathing and his pupils were dilated.

Hayden’s cell phone rang. It was Mike who sent him some pictures.

Mike went up to find Layla with the rescue team. After discovering Eric and Layla, he took a few photos.

Now Mike had gone down the mountain. He felt compelled to send them the pictures.

Hayden opened up the photo and took a closer look. In the photo, Eric’s face was black and blue, he had no coat on his body, only a thin sweater.

It was impossible for him to climb the snow mountain wearing a sweater.

Hayden immediately clicked on the second photo.

Layla’s expression was much more normal than Eric’s.

She was like falling asleep.

She was wrapped in a thick men’s down jacket... This should be Eric’s coat.

Hayden immediately understood what happened when the avalanche happened.

“Uncle Eric gave Layla his coat.” Hayden said, and handed the phone to Avery.

Avery immediately took the phone and clicked on the photo.

After looking at the two photos, Avery held the phone, leaned on Elliot's shoulder and began to cry.

Elliot put his arm around her, and took the phone from her with the other to look at the photos.

When he saw Eric's frozen blue face in the photo, Elliot said in his heart that it would be a lie not to be touched.

He protected Layla on the inner side of the mountain and gave Layla his coat to wear, which was enough to show his determination to protect Layla at the cost of his life.

Robert and Hazel were also curious about the photos in their brother's phone, so they walked up to their father and stared at the photos together.

After a few seconds, Robert's eyes were a little red, and his voice was a little choked up, "In this kind of danger, most people only think about how they can survive... they don't care about other people's lives. But Uncle Eric gave my sister to wear his own clothes. He wears so little clothes, even if there is no avalanche, he will freeze to death. Uncle Eric is so stupid!"

Hazel and Robert were in the same mood.

At the same time, Hazel also felt that Layla did not love the wrong person.

Layla said that she liked Eric not entirely because Eric was famous and handsome, but more importantly, being with Eric was very relaxing, Eric gave her a sense of security.

This sense of security was given to her by Eric since she was a child.

At that time, Hazel didn't understand deeply.

Now seeing the photo in front of her, Hazel deeply understood.

Eric could give up his life to protect Layla, and he would have no regrets in this life if he could receive such love from someone in this life.

Avery fainted from crying before the door of the emergency room opened.

Just in the hospital, Elliot sent her to see a doctor directly.

After seeing her condition, the doctor told Elliot not to worry.

She fainted because she was extremely tired and emotional.

She could wake up normally as long as she slept well.

“You can send her home to rest. She can also rest in the hospital. If she rests in the hospital, you need to go through the formalities.” The doctor said.

Elliot wanted to stay in the hospital to wait for the results of Layla and Eric, and also wanted to take care of Avery, so he chose to let Avery rest in the hospital.

Chapter 2744

“Dad, I’ll stay here and look after Mom!” Hazel took a chair and sat beside the hospital bed.

She saw that there were still tears in the corners of her mother’s eyes.

She knew that her mother must be very sorry.

She regretted that she didn’t agree with her sister and Eric to be together.

If they had been agreed to be together at that time, they would have started planning the wedding, and they would have been so busy that they would never have gone on a business trip to the Northland, let alone go to see the snow-capped mountains.

Elliot took Avery’s hand and let go: “Hazel, tell me when your mom wakes up.”

“Okay.” Hazel said obediently, “If sister comes out of the emergency room, tell me too.”

“Yes.”

Time passed very slowly.

After Hazel wiped away the tears from the corners of her mother’s eyes with a paper towel, she sat on the edge of the hospital bed and began to be in a daze.

Her head had a lot of thoughts suddenly flashing through her head, but when she thought carefully about what thoughts popped up in her mind, she couldn’t remember anything.

After much deliberation, she only hoped that her sister and Eric could wake up properly.

If Layla woke up and Eric had an accident, it would be a huge blow to both mother and sister.

This blow might last a lifetime.

It was quiet in the ward, but Hazel's heart was hard to be at peace.

She wanted to talk, but now everyone in the family was sad.

She had no friends and didn't know whom to confide in.

She took out her mobile phone, clicked on the address book, and found Lucas's number.

This was Lucas's number in Thopiavelle before.

After moving to Eozambiulle, Lucas got a new phone number. But he did not tell her the new number.

So she didn't know Lucas's current contact information.

In fact, she really wanted to find Lucas, and she could.

Whether it's Dad or Uncle Mike, they could help her find Lucas.

But she didn't want to disturb them, and she didn't know how to face Lucas with her current identity.

So, she decided to write him a message.

–Young Master, how are you doing now? Hope you are doing well.

–guess who I am? Guess where I am texting you right now? Let me tell you! I am in Northland now. It is far away from Thopiavelle and Eozambiulle. I'm really sad right now. I was so sad when my mother-in-law passed away last year. My sister and someone she likes had an accident and they're both in the emergency room now and don't know what's going on. Because of this incident, my father's hair turned gray from anxiety, and my mother also fainted from crying. I can't do anything but be with them. I feel so small and wish I had superpowers to keep my family safe.

–Forgot to tell you, I am Siena. But I am not called Siena now. My name is Hazel Foster now. Everyone calls me Hazel. It's the name an uncle gave me after I was born. I adore my new name, and I adore my family. Like my mother-in-law, they treat me very well. They even doted on me more than my mother-in-law. Whatever I want, they buy it for me. But now, our family is very sad because of the accident between our sister and Uncle Eric.

–Bless my sister to wake up quickly. Bless Uncle Eric is still alive.

After the message was sent out, there was no reply.

Lucas no longer used this number.

Hazel didn't intend for Lucas to see the message, but there was really no response, and she was still a little disappointed.

The next day.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2745

Chapter 2745

Hazel opened her eyes and woke up, and saw herself sleeping on a hospital bed.

Seeing Robert guarding her in the ward, Hazel immediately said, "Second Brother, why am I sleeping here? Where's Mom? What time is it?"

Robert said, "It's 9 o'clock now. You stayed with your mother last night, probably too sleepy, so you fell asleep lying on your mother's bedside. Seeing that you fell asleep, I got you a ward."

"Is mother awake?" Hazel sat down stand up.

She slept through it last night and felt much better now.

After asking her mother, she immediately thought of Layla and Eric.

Hazel: "Where are my sister and Uncle Eric? How are they?"

Robert: "My sister is not in danger. But my sister has not woken up yet. Uncle Eric...he is not dead, but his condition is very bad. This hospital couldn't cure him... so the elder brother arranged for a plane to send him to Bridgedale. The elder brother also went to Bridgedale. After all, Uncle Eric saved my sister's life, so he must be trying to save Uncle Eric back.."

Hazel heaved a sigh of relief.

Fortunately, they were still alive.

"Mom woke up at 7 o'clock in the morning. After she woke up, she read Uncle Eric's inspection report last night, and then she didn't say a word... I guess the situation is really bad." Robert sighed, "Little sister, are you hungry? I'll buy you something to eat."

"Second brother, I'm not hungry." Hazel wanted to go and see Layla, "Can you take me to see our sister?"

“Let’s take you to eat something first! Otherwise, what if you faint from hunger later?” Robert picked up her schoolbag, “Sister hasn’t woken up yet, the doctor told us not to disturb her. We’ll talk about it when she wakes up.”

Hazel: “Oh. Then let’s go see our sister when she wakes up.”

Robert: “Yes.”

“Where are father and mother?” Hazel asked.

“They’re waiting outside sister’s ward. But mom wants to go to Bridgedale, so she can’t worry about Uncle Eric.” Robert said, “When sister wakes up, mom should go to Bridgedale.”

“Well, second brother, Are you asleep yet?” Hazel looked at Robert worriedly.

“I slept for a while.” Robert took Hazel to the ward last night, and slept on her stomach on the table next to her for a while.

Hazel: “Did Dad sleep?”

“He should have slept in Mom’s ward for a while.” Robert said, “After the doctor said that sister’s life was not in danger, the tension in Dad’s heart was also relaxed.”

Hazel: “That’s good.”

“I heard that sister is the only survivor in that avalanche.” Robert told Hazel the gossip he heard.

Hazel frowned immediately: “Isn’t Uncle Eric still alive? Why do you say that my sister is the only one? Uncle Eric will also get better.”

Robert: “They think Uncle Eric can’t live. Because Uncle Eric was sent to the hospital, at that time, he was in shock and was not breathing. After being sent to the emergency room for rescue, he was breathing weakly again...Anyway, Uncle Eric’s condition is very bad. I am really worried that Uncle Eric will not be able to hold on.”

Hazel : “No. Uncle Eric will definitely be able to hold on. Doesn’t it mean that Uncle Eric had an accident before, but did he recover later? Uncle Eric’s willpower must be extremely tenacious, otherwise he would not be so successful. I read before It was written in a book that successful people are those with strong willpower.”

Robert: “Indeed. Those who can succeed are those who can withstand high pressure.”

Intensive care ward.

Layla woke up after being in a coma for a day and a night.

“Layla.” Seeing her daughter waking up, Avery trembled with excitement, “Layla, you finally woke up.”

Layla’s eyes were a little distracted.

She kept looking at her mother’s face, trying to recall why she was lying here in her mind.

After a little hard thinking, she remembered everything.
