Chapter 1437

However, after thinking about it, she still could not let David look at her body.

That was why she asked David to close his eyes and that she would take the lead.

“David, next... Don't talk, don't open your eyes, just feel,” Celeste whispered in David's ear with endless temptation.

As soon as David opened his mouth, it was immediately sealed by Celeste's red lips.

“Hmm...” David let out a pleased nasal sound.

Then, he slowly put his hands on Celeste's back and wrapped them around her.

Their movements became more and more intense, and David's hands began to grow restless.

Finally, David and Celeste fell on a big red bed under Celeste's lead.

David closed his eyes, completely passive.

Celeste was like a queen.

With a grunt, the desire in Celeste's body exploded in the fantasy.

It began to clash against the two's bodies in the fantasy, trying to escape.

At this time, David's powerful mind power came into play.

No matter how much that desire jumped around, it could not break through their fantasy.

Gradually, a harmonious pattern was generated.

The desire in Celeste's body gradually lost its momentum, and finally returned to her body and became quiet.

David was still enjoying it, but suddenly, the supple body in his arms was gone.

He suddenly opened his eyes and found that he had returned to his room and was lying on the bed alone.

Celeste's voice followed, "David, thank you. I've already controlled the energy in my body. I think it won't create any chaos for this short time. You should rest well."

At this moment, David was in between laughter and tears.

Celeste was abandoning her benefactor upon achieving her goal.

She had reached her goal, so she just ignored David.

As he recalled the supple body he touched in the fantasy, David was wondering when he could teach Celeste, that gorgeous woman, a lesson.

He wanted to see if it would be the same as his fantasy.

'Forget it! Forget it!'

David shook his head.

'If I did that, I will be letting Celia down.'

'This doesn't count.'

'I was forced to do this, and I just wanted to save everyone.'

'We'll all be doomed if Celeste were controlled by her desire.'

Even though David felt indignant, he still replied respectfully, 'Celeste, you don't have to thank me. This is what I should do. If you need anything in the future, just tell me.'

"Yeah, alright."

"By the way, Celeste, I have a question."

"What is it?"

"Now that you can control that energy, can Celia and I.."

David did not finish his sentence, since he believed Celeste would understand.

"No!" Celeste refused directly.

"Why not?" David was puzzled.

He felt unwell now.

He was fine before that.

After Celeste teased him, his desire had been fully awakened.

“David, it’s not that I don’t want you to be intimate with your little lover, it’s that the energy generated by the alluring body is beyond your imagination. We can control it this time, but that may not be the case when it explodes next time. Now, for the sake of everyone’s safety, bear with it! You can do whatever you want when we get to Star Kingdom.”

Chapter 1438

Celeste also knew that it was a bit too much for her to forbid David from getting intimate with his little lover.

However, she had no choice. She finally managed to control herself temporarily, so she did not want it to make a comeback in the blink of an eye.

This situation was something Celeste never expected.

Her master had been telling her since she was a child that she was different from other women so she could not be with a man.

Otherwise, not only would she harm the other party, but she would also harm herself.

So Celeste only secretly fell in love once when she was an ignorant girl. Then, when her master noticed the signs, her love life was directly cut off.

After that, she never thought about this again and devoted herself to cultivation.

Originally, Celeste thought that it was impossible for her to interact with men again in her life.

Unexpectedly, when she went to a low-level civilization, she met David, a pervert with low strength but great mind power.

In the end, this was the result.

At the same time, it also disrupted the path that Celeste’s master had worked so hard to forge for her.

She did not know how to explain this to her master when she returned.

Although she was still a virgin, her alluring body had been aroused.

Meanwhile, her alluring body should never have been aroused in the plan that her master made for her.

This was the condition, but it was broken now.

“Sigh,” Celeste, who had returned to her normal state, sighed silently.

Now, she could only wait to see what Master had to say when she returned to the Iridescent Sect.

With the help of David’s powerful mind power, the desire triggered by Celeste’s alluring body had reached a balance and a harmonious point.

However, this was only temporary.

Her alluring body was one of the most special physiques in the universe, so how would it be so easy to deal with?

With her alluring body, Celeste not only became the head of the seven high priestesses of the Iridescent Sect but also reached the last rank of the Eternal Realm, Sovereign rank, in less than two thousand years.

It could be seen that the strength of the alluring body was by no means comparable to that of an ordinary physique.

Once this physique was successfully stimulated, the consequences would also be very serious.

Celeste still had a long, long way to go if she wanted to completely eliminate that desire in her body.

After her alluring body was aroused, this desire would continue to grow over time.

Even if Celeste returned to the Iridescent Sect, with the help of a powerhouse beyond the Eternal Realm, it could only be suppressed for a while, but not for a lifetime.

Unless Celeste’s strength continued to improve and grew faster than this desire, then only could she firmly control the desire.

However, this was simply impossible.

As her realm got higher and higher, the growth of her strength would also become slower and slower.

Celeste crossed Star Realm, Universe Realm, and reached Eternal Realm Sovereign Rank in less than two thousand years.

She had crossed eight ranks, so her progress was extremely fast.

She was also top-notch in a high-level civilization like Star Kingdom.

She could not achieve this with hard work alone, as most of this was also thanks to her alluring body.

However, Celeste's growth would be very slowly over the next period.

At the same time, she would also come across the second obstacle of her life.

The first was going from Star Realm to Eternal Realm.
