

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1455

Chapter 1455

If the mind seed could only determine Celeste's location and safety, then how did he determine that Elder Red lost her virginity?

However, Nova was not in the mood to pursue this at the moment because she had more important things to do, mainly determine whether the fact that Elder Red lost her virginity was true or not.

This was very, very important to the Iridescent Sect.

It might even affect the plans of the Iridescent Sect.

"Lord Simmons, do you mean that you discovered that Elder Red has lost her virginity to a man through the mind seed planted in her body?" Nova asked in a slightly hasty tone.

"Exactly!" Nek replied.

"Are you sure?" Nova continued to ask, her tone improving significantly.

"Of course I'm sure! I, Nek Simmons, will be responsible for what I say," Nek said seriously.

After receiving an affirmative answer from the other party, Nova did not speak anymore.

However, the monstrous waves in her heart were hidden by her calm face.

Elder Red lost her virginity to a man?

'Then does it mean her alluring body was also lost?

'W-What should we do?'

Celeste was the next key training object of the Iridescent Sect and was currently the most promising candidate in the sect set to surpass Eternal Realm.

In addition, she also had an alluring body, one of the most special physiques in the universe.

Nova did not know much about the specific situation of the alluring body.

She only knew that once Celeste lost her virginity to a man, the consequences would be disastrous.

Not only would her alluring body be destroyed, resulting in a huge decay in the speed of her cultivation, but there would also be a sharp drop in her chance of breaking through. At the same time, a huge desire would also continue to grow in her body.

The main factor was that this desire could not be completely eliminated, and it would accompany her throughout her life until she died.

Elder Red would need to spend most of her energy constantly suppressing it.

In other words, Celeste's chances of breaking through Eternal Realm had plummeted, and her combat power would also be greatly reduced from now on.

This was not a good thing for the Iridescent Sect.

It was for this reason that the Iridescent Sect sternly rejected Nek's marriage proposal and told him that Celeste would not marry outside.

This matter was beyond the ability of Nova, the head.

She had to report it to the four reputable elders as soon as possible.

She needed them to decide how to deal with it.

'Sigh.'

Nova had already thought about how disappointed they would be when she told the four reputable elders about this matter, especially Elder Red's teacher.

She had invested a lot of effort into Elder Red.

She watched Elder Red move forward step by step in the direction everyone expected.

Unexpectedly, such an accident occurred.

Now, they could only hope it was a misunderstanding and Nek's reading was inaccurate.

However, the possibility of this was very small. Since Nek dared to come directly to the Iridescent Sect to say such a thing, then he had to be sure.

Otherwise, wouldn't he be shooting himself in the foot?

At that time, the Iridescent Sect would not be the one giving him an explanation, but he would have to give the Iridescent Sect an explanation.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1456

Chapter 1456

Nova still could not figure it out!

It was impossible for Celeste to not know her own situation.

Once her alluring body had intercourse with a man, it would definitely harm others and herself.

It stood to reason that she would not have genuine feelings for a man, and then lose her virginity.

As for whether she was forced, this was even more impossible.

This time, Celeste was sent by the sect to perform her duties as a Universe Enforcer.

It seemed that she also brought the younger head of Star Mansion.

They were only going to mid and low-level civilizations.

She was a Sovereign Ranker, so who could force her?

Sovereign Rankers were also among the top in Star Kingdom, let alone in the mid and low-level civilizations.

In the face of absolute strength, any conspiracy was futile.

Unless there was someone beyond Eternal Realm like Nek who was secretly targeting Celeste.

They did not dare to do anything in Star Kingdom, so they followed her after she left Star Kingdom.

This was not impossible, but the chances were very low.

Someone who was beyond Eternal Realm would not take such a huge risk for a woman.

They could have all the women they wanted, so they did not need to do this.

Nova racked her brain and still could not figure out what was going on.

If she wanted to know the truth, she could only wait for Celeste to come back.

“Lord Simmons, since you planted a mind seed in Elder Red’s body, you must know where Elder Red is now, right?” Nova asked.

"I knew it at first, but recently, the mind seed I planted has been removed, so I don't know where Celeste is now," Nek said truthfully.

Nova was taken aback when she heard the news.

'The mind seed planted by Nek was removed?

'Is there really someone beyond Eternal Realm following Elder Red?'

"Removed? Impossible! Lord Simmons, who can get rid of the mind seed planted by you, someone who's beyond Eternal Realm?" Nova obviously did not believe it.

"Lady Dream, as I said before, the mind seed I planted for Celeste is not malicious. It only has a little bit of my mind power. Even with your current mind power, it can be easily removed. Therefore, it's not surprising if someone with slightly more mind power removed it."

Nova was not going to discuss this topic anymore, nor did she want to continue going back and forth with

Nek.

She wanted to tell the four reputable elders the news as soon as possible and ask them to make a decision.

"Lord Simmons, we can't jump to a conclusion based on your one-sided opinion on this matter. We need to wait for Elder Red to come back to confirm. You can live in the Iridescent Sect for a while. I will report to the reputable elders immediately, and then issue a recall order to Elder Red so that she'll come back as soon as possible. If everything is as you said, I will definitely give you a satisfactory answer."

"Okay, then I'll wait here! Let's see what Celeste will say when she comes back."

Nova arranged for Nek to live in the VIP area of the Iridescent Sect.

Then, she rushed to the forbidden area of the Iridescent Sect without stopping.

It was also the place where the four reputable elders beyond Eternal Realm lived in seclusion.

Nova took her warrant, went through many formations, and came outside a valley.

She did not immediately step into the valley.

Instead, she stood outside the valley and shouted respectfully, "The current head of the Iridescent Sect, Nova Dream, needs to see the four reputable elders."

Soon there was a voice in the valley.