Chapter 1459

"No, I went to look before I came here. I also asked the gatekeeper. Elder Red's Life Flame is still burning brightly. It didn't weaken at all."

"That means... she's not in danger and has only lost her virginity."

Eira felt as if she could not suppress the fire in her heart anymore.

Celeste was not in danger, nor was she forced.

Did it mean she did this voluntarily?

Eira watched Celeste grow up and this whole time, she was also the one who educated Celeste.

Back then, Celeste knew about the special circumstance surrounding her alluring body.

From Eira's perspective, the possibility of Celeste getting with a man because she was desperate was small.

However, as someone beyond Eternal Realm, it was even more impossible for Nek to joke about such things.

Unless his family wanted to have a complete fallout with the Iridescent Sect.

The Simmons family did not have the strength to do this yet.

Even if Grandmaster Simmons, who was recovering from his injuries, eventually recovered, the Simmons family still would not be able to compete with the Iridescent Sect.

Eira, who had surpassed Eternal Realm nearly a hundred thousand years ago, was also in doubt at this moment.

"What is the truth?"

'Was it voluntary? Or was it forced?'

'Or is Nek lying?'

"Reputable Elder, this matter is strange. It's unlikely that Elder Red is unaware of her situation. You know her. I think the possibility of her doing such a thing is almost non-existent."

“Are you saying that Nek lied? What’s his reason for lying?”

“I don’t think he lied. He wouldn’t have the guts to do that. There may be some misunderstanding that led to this result. If you want to know the truth of the matter, you should immediately issue an emergency recall order to Elder Red. Everything will be clear when she comes back.”

Eira felt that what Nova said made sense.

Rather than speculating, it was better to just ask Celeste to come back.

Celeste was the only one who knew the truth now.

“Okay! Immediately send an emergency recall order to Red, and ask her to come back as quickly as possible. If you have any news, please contact me at any time. This matter is related to the future plans of the sect. It is very important, so we have to tackle it quickly.”

“Yes, Reputable Elder!”

“Alright, you should leave first. Get everything done as soon as possible.”

“Yes, Reputable Elder, I’ll leave now.”

After Nova finished speaking, she exited the valley respectfully, passed through layers of formations again, and returned to the Iridescent Sect.

Since Celeste was not in Star Kingdom, but in other mid and low-level civilizations an endless distance away, Nova would not be able to contact her via any normal means.

Only by using the sect’s special means could there be a chance to pass the news to Celeste.

However, this might not work too.

If Celeste was trapped in some formation relics, she might not be able to receive the message.

Nova, together with several other elders, cast a secret method and issued an emergency recall order to Celeste from the Iridescent Sect.

All disciples who received this emergency recall order from the sect had to rush back to the sect as quickly as possible.

Afterward, an illusory blood-colored token shot out from the Iridescent Sect after absorbing some energy from Celeste’s Life Flame.

It broke free from the shackles of this space and headed directly toward Celeste.

This illusory red token was so fast that it was completely free from the constraints of space. Even someone beyond Eternal Realm like Nek could only look at it in awe.

Chapter 1460

Eira did not return to the cabin after Nova left.

This valley was not so much the place where the four of them lived in seclusion, but rather the place where they watched over the Iridescent Sect.

Whenever there was something in the Iridescent Sect that the heads could not decide on, they would come here to find them.

Just like what happened this time.

Although this kind of thing rarely happened, to avoid a situation where no one could resolve a situation, the four reputable elders would take turns watching over while the other three would retreat to a top- secret place.

The fact that Celeste's alluring body was destroyed this time was very important as it was related to the plan made by the four of them.

The other three had to be notified of this.

If it were true then, they needed to find a way to make up for it.

Eira's body slowly disappeared into the valley.

When she appeared again, she had arrived at a huge cave.

There were nine stone pillars around the cave, and a lifelike five-clawed golden dragon was engraved on each stone pillar.

If one did not look carefully, one would think there were nine real five-clawed golden dragons wrapped around the stone pillars.

In the middle of the cave was a pool, and the water in it was chilling.

Nine chains stretched out from the nine stone pillars and went deep into the cold pool.

Eira stood in the cave and said, "The plan has changed, Red's alluring body may have been ruined."

After she said that, immediately, a distraught voice sounded in the cave.

“What? Red’s enchanted body was ruined? Who did this?”

As soon as the person finished speaking, three figures appeared in the cave.

Like Eira, these three figures all looked like old women, and it was one of them who spoke.

“It’s not clear who did it. We can only find out after Red comes back. Nova has sent her an emergency recall order from the sect so I believe she will be back soon,” Eira replied.

“This is not a small matter. Eira, are you sure?” Another old woman asked.

“Although it is not completely certain, it is at least half possible. Let’s prepare for the next step first.”

“Prepare? How? How many years have we waited? We were so close to success. How could this happen? I don’t know how long we will have to wait for the next chance,” the last old woman said.

Her face at the moment looked a little malicious, and ordinary people would definitely shudder when they saw her.

However, the other three did not feel anything, and it was as if they were used to it.

“Giada, calm down. You said that we have been waiting for so many years, so it’s okay to wait longer. Also, we’re not sure yet, right? Then let’s make sure before we make any plans. Eira, you should go out and wait for the news, and let us know of any updates.”

“Okay,” Eira replied.

Then the four figures disappeared from the cave.

Meanwhile, Eira returned to the valley to quietly wait for Nova’s news.

As Marin said, they could only arrange for the next step after confirming Celeste’s situation.
