

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1451

Chapter 1451

He wanted to ask, 'Didn't the Iridescent Sect say that Celeste was raised as a successor and would not marry?

'Why was her virginity taken by a man?

'Are you looking down on me or the Simmons family?'

Nek sullenly arrived at the door of the Iridescent Sect.

Nek was about to go in as he looked at the majestic and grand colorful magic gate in front of him, which was composed of seven colors: red, orange, yellow, green, blue, indigo, and violet.

Immediately, he was stopped by the gatekeepers of the Iridescent Sect.

Those who stopped him were two beauties who were both eight out of tens. One of them was older than the other.

One was about forty years old, the age when she would still have her charm.

The other was in her twenties, the prime of her life.

The women had to be at least sevens to be able to enter the Iridescent Sect, and they had to have outstanding talent.

Both of these traits was indispensable.

Therefore, in the Iridescent Sect, there were absolutely no ugly women.

"May I know who you are? Why's your business with the Iridescent Sect? If you didn't receive any invitation from us, please leave. The Iridescent Sect doesn't receive men casually," the older woman said.

"Go and tell your head of sect that Nek from the Simmons family has come to ask the Iridescent Sect for an explanation," Nek said blankly.

'Nek from the Simmons family?'

The two women were shocked.

Their gazes were filled with infinite admiration and respect when they looked at Nek now.

Nek was Star Kingdom's newest giant.

He was also the only person in Star Kingdom who had broken past Eternal Realm in the last 5000 years.

This was a great man.

For people of the lowest level like them, one look at him was like a luxury.

It was said that the other party took a fancy to Elder Red, the head of the last seven high priestesses of the sect.

'He wanted to take Elder Red as his wife.

'Unfortunately, this was rejected by both the sect and Elder Red.

'Could it be because of this matter that the other party came directly to ask for an explanation?

'However, that happened thousands of years ago, why did he come again now?

'And even if Nek broke past Eternal Realm and became the giant of Star Kingdom, wouldn't it be too arrogant for him to come to the Iridescent Sect alone to ask for an explanation?

'Doesn't he know the power of the Iridescent Sect?

'Even if the entire Simmons family was mobilized, the Iridescent Sect could annihilate all of them.'

Forget it, these were not things they should consider. Since Nek was here, it was better to leave it to the Sect.

"Lord Simmons, please wait a moment, I will report this to the sect."

After she finished speaking, the older woman took out a sound transmission stone and reported the situation to the sect.

The young woman kept staring at Nek.

Many people would never get the chance to see someone who was beyond Eternal Realm in their lifetime.

She should take a good look so she could go back and brag to her friends.

When the senior management of the Iridescent Sect heard that it was Nek, the newly emerged giant, they immediately arranged for someone to come out and bring Nek into the drawing room of the sect, and then reported it to the head.

Soon, seven young women who were at least 9.5 and above came out from the gate wearing skirts of seven colors. They walked up to Nek and said respectfully, "Lord Simmons, sorry for the long wait. Please follow me."

Nek was led by the women through the Iridescent Gate, into the Iridescent Sect, and finally to the drawing room.

Deploying the Iridescent Fairies was the highest level reception the Iridescent Sect would provide.

However, Nek, who was beyond Eternal Realm, had the qualification to receive this.

Chapter 1452

The seven fairies were very special in the Iridescent Sect.

Needless to say, they were all above 9.5, and their bodies and appearances were outstanding. However, unfortunately, they were not talented enough,

If they were more talented, they might have become one of the seven high priestesses.

Since they were not talented enough, they could only make good use of their faces and figures to practice some dancing and receive VIPS for the Iridescent Sect.

There was only a two-word difference between the seven high priestesses and the seven fairies.

However, their statuses were vastly different.

The seven high priestesses had the opportunity to become go beyond Eternal Realm, and they had the appearance, talent, and wisdom.

On the contrary, it was even more difficult for the seven fairies to step into Eternal Realm. They would be fine as long as they had good looks.

The former was the key object of training for the sect.

The latter were just performers for the sect to receive distinguished guests. Their status was higher than that of ordinary disciples, but they could not catch up with the core and personal disciples.

This was the awkward position of the seven fairies.

When one saw the seven high priestesses, they would see that the envy in their eyes was pretty pitiful.

The seven fairies were not talented enough. If they wanted to step into Eternal Realm to live forever and stay young forever, they could only use countless treasures from heaven and earth.

However, they would not have such an opportunity in the Iridescent Sect.

There were too many disciples in the Iridescent Sect, and there were also many talented ones.

Hence, it was impossible to waste too many resources on them.

In addition, the seven fairies were willing to stay here because the Iridescent Sect gave them a platform that no other place could.

Only the absolute bigwigs were eligible to be distinguished guests of the Iridescent Sect.

When the seven fairies receive these distinguished guests and were taken a fancy by some of them, they could be taken back to be concubines.

As long as they took good care of the big shots and convinced the big shots to use all kinds of treasures of heaven and earth to cultivate them, there might be a chance for them to step into Eternal Realm in the future.

Although the odds were low, someone had indeed succeeded this way.

This was what they had been working towards as well.

Therefore, they even worked hard for the position of the seven fairies.

How big was Star Kingdom?

How

many beautiful and untalented women were there?

Not everyone could become the seven fairies of the Iridescent Sect who specialized in receiving distinguished guests.

“Lord Simmons, please wait a moment, the head will be here soon. First, let us dance for you to relieve your fatigue.”

After the seven fairies finished speaking, they began to dance gracefully in the drawing room.

Each one of them was like a fairy from heaven, and they were really pleasing to the eye.

Then, some women carrying all kinds of snacks, wine, and precious food entered the drawing room. They placed the plates in front of Nek for him to eat.

Nek also unceremoniously drank some wine and ate the snacks while admiring the dance of the seven fairies.

These seven women were really good.

Their bodies and appearances were all stunning.

Nek figured it would be good to bring two back to be his concubines after his work here was done.

Nek had taken dozens of concubines in the past thousand years.

After the dance, the seven fairies bowed to Nek and exited the drawing room.

Before leaving, they looked at Nek with intense allure in their eyes.

It made Nek, a seasoned pervert, a little tempted.

Chapter 1453

He wanted so badly to pull them over to pamper them.

It was a pity that he was in the Iridescent Sect, not a place where he could mess around.

Not long after the seven fairies left, a beautiful woman walked in. She looked like she was in her forties at first glance, but upon closer inspection, she was only in her thirties.

Behind her were two beautiful women in their forties or fifties.

This was Nova Dream, the current head of the Iridescent Sect.

As for the two behind her, they were the two elders of the Iridescent Sect, both of whom had the same status as Celeste.

“Lord Simmons, you’re here. You should have notified me first so that I could prepare well. The Iridescent Sect neglected you this time. Please forgive me, Lord Simmons,” Nova said politely as soon as she entered the door.

Although she was the current head of the Iridescent Sect, she had a very high status. She ranked very high in Star Kingdom.

However, Nek was ultimately still the only new giant in Star Kingdom for thousands of years.

He was beyond Eternal Realm while Nova was just an Eternal Realm peak Sovereign Ranker.

Even though the gap between them seemed small, this small gap could stop ninety-nine percent of peak Sovereign Rankers.

It was hard to say whether Nova could cross this gap in her lifetime.

Even so, Nova did not bow down to Nek, the new giant.

She had a special status, and she was not allowed to do this.

“Lady Dream, you’re being modest. This time, I came to the Iridescent Sect on a whim. Please forgive me for disturbing you,” Nek also replied politely.

The current him was not as arrogant as he was just now outside the gate of the Iridescent Sect.

At that time, he was only facing two gatekeepers of the Iridescent Sect, so he naturally had to show the demeanor befitting of a big shot.

Now, he was facing Nova, the current head of the Iridescent Sect.

Although his opponent strength was inferior to him, behind her was the entire Iridescent Sect.

Furthermore, there were four people beyond Eternal Realm in the forbidden area of the Iridescent Sect. One of them was Celeste's master.

Nek did not dare to act recklessly in front of such a powerful sect.

However, he did come with reason on his side.

"I wonder why Lord Simmons came to the Iridescent Sect this time. I heard from the disciples that you came to ask for an explanation. Did we do anything wrong? Please point it out to us, Lord Simmons. We must correct it," Nova went straight to the point.

They had done all that needed to be done.

They sent the seven fairies to receive Nek and had already given him a lot of respect.

She also did not want to continue the courteous conversation.

She still needed to deal with a lot of things from the Iridescent Sect.

"Lady Dream, I'm here this time because I really want to ask for an explanation from you," Nek said seriously.

"Lord Simmons, go on."

"I don't know if Lady Dream can remember that more than a thousand years ago, I had just broken through and came to you. I met Celeste in your sect and wanted her to be my first wife, but I was firmly rejected by the noble clan."

"Of course, I remember! Elder Red is the head of the last seven high priestesses in the sect. She is extremely talented. She only took a little more than a thousand years to reach the Sovereign Ranker. The sect also planned to train her as a successor, so we won't marry her out," Nova replied.

"That is to say, you will not betroth Celeste to me, nor will you betroth her to anyone else?" "That's for sure! I told you, Elder Red will not marry out and she will stay in the sect forever." "Then did some man take Celeste's virginity?" Nek asked with a hint of anger.

Chapter 1454

'What?'

Nek's words startled Nova and the two elders of the Iridescent Sect behind her.

'Elder Red's virginity was taken by a man?

'How can that be?

'Wasn't she sent out on a Universe Enforcer mission?

'How could she let someone take her virginity?

'Something is wrong!

'Elder Red is not in Star Kingdom, so how did Nek know she's not a virgin anymore?'

Nova looked at Nek suspiciously.

She saw calmness on the other party's face.

This made Nova somewhat unable to determine the truth of the matter.

With Nek's identity and strength, he would never say anything that he was not sure about.

Otherwise, it would be self-inflicted humiliation.

Since he came here to voice his dissatisfaction, then it must be true.

'However, Elder Red is indeed not in Star Kingdom.

'Is there some misunderstanding here?'

"Lord Simmons, Elder Red was sent out by the sect to carry out a mission, so she is not in the Star Kingdom now. Is there some misunderstanding?" Nova expressed her doubts.

"Misunderstanding? There is no misunderstanding! Lady Dream, since I, Nek Simmons, dare to say this, I am sure of it. I just want to ask you about it. In the beginning, you sternly rejected me, saying that Celeste would not marry outside, but now she lost her virginity to another man. Why? Do you look down on me or the Simmons family?"

Nek sounded displeased.

As the new giant of Star Kingdom and someone beyond Eternal Realm, Nek would not be afraid to show his strong demeanor when he needed to.

Even if his opponent was the head of the Iridescent Sect.

“Lord Simmons, the authenticity of this matter is still open to question. It’s not that we don’t believe you, but we need proof. Unless you present convincing evidence today, you can only wait for Elder Red to come back to confront her face-to-face. Don’t worry, as long as your words are true, the Iridescent Sect will naturally give you a satisfactory explanation. We won’t allow you to lose face in Star Kingdom,” Nova said, neither obsequious nor supercilious.

Facing Nek, someone beyond Eternal Realm, Nova showed the Iridescent Sect’s attitude of neither being neutral in the face of trouble.

‘Since you say the iridescent Sect has humiliated you, fine, show me convincing evidence. ‘Otherwise, you are just looking for trouble, and are not taking the Iridescent Sect seriously.’

Nova’s words were watertight, and Nek could not find any faults in them.

However, since he dared to come, he had to be confident, even if his approach was a bit disgraceful.

“Lady Dream, first of all, I want to apologize to the Iridescent Sect. Because I like Celeste so much, when I first met her, I quietly planted a mind seed on her without her consent, but I guarantee on my own reputation that I had absolutely no intention of hurting her. I just wanted to protect her.”

As soon as Nek said this, a cold light shot out of Nova’s eyes immediately.

She stared at Nek with some hostility in her eyes.

How dare he plant a mind seed on an elder who held an important position in the Iridescent Sect? This was no small matter.

Even if the opponent was Nek, someone beyond Eternal Realm, it was still forbidden.

No matter how powerful Nek was, he was only one person. Even with the grandmaster of the Simmons family who was recuperating from his wounds, there were only two of them.

‘How dare he do this to the elder of the Iridescent Sect?’

Nek might also feel that what he did was a little unethical.

He continued to explain, “Lady Dream, even though I was rejected by the Iridescent Sect, I have not voiced any dissatisfaction over the past thousand years, and I fully respected your choice. Furthermore, the mind seed is not what you think and it can’t serve as a surveillance function anytime and anywhere. It can only roughly determine Celeste’s location to see if she’s safe. That’s all.”

When Nova heard that, she naturally would not believe Nek's nonsense.

If what he said was true...
