

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1467

Chapter 1467

Judging from her trembling eyelashes, it was clear that the other party was extremely nervous at that moment.

She had a blush on her face. Her supple pink skin was rosy, she looked so attractive that one would not be able to stop themselves from taking a bite of her.

If other people in Star Kingdom saw this, their jaws would definitely drop.

Celeste is one of the elders of the Iridescent Sect and a Sovereign Ranker.

However, she was showing such a shy expression.

It was simply mind-boggling and shocking.

However, although Celeste was nearly two thousand years old, she was still chaste after all.

Therefore, it was normal for her to behave like this.

Inside the Iridescent Sect.

After Nova and Celeste finished talking, Nova determined Celeste's location and quickly came outside the forbidden valley.

The reputable elder had said that Nova should notify them immediately once there was news about Celeste.

Nova dared not go against the reputable elder's order.

Therefore, she rushed over immediately after she had news about Celeste.

"Reputable Elder, Elder Red has arrived in Star Kingdom. I have contacted her just now, and she is rushing back to the sect at full speed," Nova stood outside the valley and said loudly.

In the valley, Eira was sitting cross-legged in the cabin.

After hearing Nova's voice, she immediately opened her eyes.

There was a twinkle in her eyes.

Then, she said, "I see, you can leave now."

"Yes, Reputable Elder, I'll be heading back now."

After Nova finished speaking, she exited respectfully and returned to the Iridescent Sect.

In the wooden cabin, Eira closed her eyes again. She used the connection between her and Celeste to detect the other's position.

She could not wait to see her darling disciple.

Celeste's alluring body could not be ruined, otherwise, the plan of the Iridescent Sect would be ruined.

If she were forced, then it was something she could not control.

She had no choice.

Eira would find the instigator and make him pay the price he deserved.

If she did this voluntarily, Celeste was disobeying her teacher's orders in doing so.

It would be a waste of Eira's painstaking training after so many years.

Eira had told Celeste more than once to not be emotional and not to interact with men.

Once something happened, it would hurt her and others.

Celeste was also very obedient these years.

Although many men pursued her openly and secretly, and there were even many chosen ones and powerful people from major forces among them, Eira never heard of Celeste having too much contact with any man.

Now, she had lost her virginity after going out to carry out her mission. This is something Eira could not accept no matter what.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1468

Chapter 1468

After a while, Eira opened her eyes suddenly.

She had sensed Celeste's position.

Then, with a light swipe of her finger, a pitch-black space crack appeared, and Eira got into it, moving quickly toward Celeste.

As someone beyond Eternal Realm, Eira moved much faster than an Eternal.

The enormous tortoise was very slow compared to her.

Before long, she would be able to stop Celeste mid-journey.

Above the enormous tortoise, David and Celeste opened their eyes at the same time.

Celeste's face was still a little flushed.

Meanwhile, David felt like the pores all over his body were open.

David enjoyed that feeling so much. It was not any inferior to reality.

Perhaps she knew they would not have a chance to do this anymore in a while, as Celeste was no longer the same as before, instead, she was very active and enthusiastic.

At first, she closed her eyes, not daring to look at David.

Later, she was no longer shy and reserved, so she opened her eyes directly.

Celeste sat up in the red room. When she recalled what happened in the fantasy, her face turned red again.

After a while, she murmured to herself, "You punk, I will come to you again when I have solved my physical problems and am no longer a danger to men. You have to wait for me obediently. If you dare to forget me, I will teach you a lesson."

At this moment, Celeste had forgotten that her master had told her not to have feelings for men.

She just wanted to find a solution for her body so that she would not hurt men again.

Celeste genuinely just wanted David to help her improve her mind power at first.

It was too difficult for her to improve her mind power, and now she finally found a unique solution, so she did not want to give up.

Despite this, as she spent more and more time with David and the two kept having intercourse in their fantasies, her feelings for David gradually changed.

Even two people who did not like each other or look down on each other would change after spending a long time together day and night.

Besides, Celeste did not hate David at all.

She admired this young man who had such a powerful mind power just after stepping into Eternal Realm.

That was how they ended up with their current relationship.

However, if her alluring body were not stimulated, Celeste would not go this far.

She also would not want to do this with David.

She thought that her teacher's warning was just to prevent any stimulation to her alluring body so as not to cause serious consequences.

However, the alluring body had been stimulated uncontrollably from the very beginning.

This was something no one could solve.

Therefore, Celeste thought that even if her teacher knew, she would forgive her.

If Celeste had to select the person who treated her the best in this world, Celeste would choose her teacher Eira without any doubt.

Not only did Eira save her from the chaos and raise her, but Eira also taught herself such a skill.

It could be said that without her teacher Eira, Celeste would not be where she was today.

Of course, these were what Eira told her since she was a child.

For as long as she could remember, Celeste had been staying in the Iridescent Sect. Under the guidance of Eira, she worked hard every day to get to where she was today.

Celeste had no idea that her teacher Eira cultivated her so meticulously not just because she liked her as a disciple, but also because there was another purpose.

As for what plan the four reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect had that would need Celeste's alluring body to surpass Eternal Realm, no one in the Iridescent Sect knew except for the four of them.

There might not be a fifth person who knew even in the entire Star Kingdom.

It was definitely a great pursuit if the four women who were beyond Eternal Realm regarded it so highly. After Celeste finished talking to herself, she closed her eyes to check her mind power.

It seemed to have grown a lot, and it was more than ever before.

'Is it because we did it without restraints?'

'If only I had known sooner, I would have done this from the start.'

If she could get more mind power by doing it like this, the total amount after doing it so many times would be sizeable.

If that were the case, the total amount of mind power she possessed now would definitely be a lot greater.

Unfortunately, they were already in Star Kingdom.

She had no idea when the next opportunity would be.

Celeste opened her eyes and sighed silently.

For the first time in her life, Celeste was reluctant to go back to the Iridescent Sect so soon.

David was also in his room at the moment, reminiscing about what happened with Celeste just now in the fantasy.

He also did not expect that Celeste would become so crazy this last time.

However, David had to come back to reality now.

They were in Star Kingdom now.

Next, he would go to the Iridescent Sect, and watch Celeste take care of Celia and the others properly. After that, he would start thinking about how he could survive in Star Kingdom.

How could he spend a large amount of Star Dollars and obtain a large number of lavish points to improve his strength without attracting the attention of the powerhouses of Star Kingdom?

When he first reached the strange place that was Star Kingdom, the situation David faced was even more severe than when he first got the system on Earth.

At that time, he had lived on Earth for at least 22 years, so he knew it very well, and he had many friends and acquaintances.

Only by knowing one's path could one gradually become stronger.

The current situation was that David did not know Star Kingdom at all. Even if Amadi told him so much about Star Kingdom, these were still other people's experiences.

David had not lived here, so he would never understand.

Except for Celeste and Amadi, David did not know anyone else in Star Kingdom.

Star Kingdom was a high-level civilization, and there were many powerful people there.

David's current beginner Ruler Rank strength was far from enough.

If he were careless and targeted by Immortal Rankers or Sovereign Rankers, he would not even have the strength to fight back.

David's first consideration was how to solve this.

If nothing else worked, he could only join Star Mansion.

Although he would be restricted and bound by the rules of Star Mansion, at least he would have a backer!

With that, he would still have support if ever targeted by someone powerful.

However, David did not want to join any forces unless it was absolutely necessary.

It was also a form of self-protection.

Nobody else could learn about the power of the system.

If there was even the slightest possibility of this happening, David would crush it.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1469

Chapter 1469

Celeste thought about a lot of things, but as she was faced with the current situation, she had no better solution.

Hence, she could only go back to the Iridescent Sect first to see if Master Eira could help her solve her physical problems.

Then, she would think about the future.

At this moment, a space crack suddenly appeared in her room.

Celeste looked over with a serious expression.

Human beings and all other creatures in the universe lived in three-dimensional space, and the entire universe was also a three-dimensional space.

What everyone saw with the naked eye was also a three-dimensional space.

Eternals could tear three-dimensional space apart, walk into four-dimensional space, and greatly shorten the distance between two points in three-dimensional space.

Therefore, Eternals were traveling faster than the speed of light when they tore through space.

The higher the spatial dimension, the closer the distance between two points.

For example, in three-dimensional space, it would take ten thousand years to cross the distance between two places at the speed of light. In four-dimensional space, it might only take an hour, and in five-dimensional space, it would only take one minute. In six-dimensional space, one might reach in a second, and so on...

If it were a seven-dimensional or eight-dimensional space, the time required would be shorter.

Of course, this was not absolute but just a metaphor.

In short, the higher the spatial dimension and the closer the distance, the shorter the time required. This was recognized by all creatures in the universe.

However, the higher the dimension, the tougher the space as well.

Tearing apart a high-dimensional space required stronger combat power.

The enormous tortoise was now traveling in four-dimensional space.

However, right now in Celeste's room, someone could actually tear apart the four-dimensional space and come out of the more advanced five-dimensional or even six-dimensional space.

Celeste had to pay attention to this.

Even a Sovereign Ranker like her could not tear apart the four-dimensional space and enter fifth-dimensional space.

If one wanted to tear apart the four-dimensional space, one's strength had to surpass Eternal Realm, and be at partial Saint Realm.

In other words, this person was stronger than her and they were at least a partial Saint. 1

This powerful existence would definitely be famous in a level 7 civilization like Star Kingdom. Most likely, Celeste knew them too.

Celeste stared carefully at the space crack.

Then, she saw an old figure walking out from inside.

This old figure was none other than Eira, one of the four reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect.

At the same time, she was also Celeste's teacher.

"Master!" Celeste's eyes lit up. She immediately stood up and cried happily.

"Red, you are back, thank you for going out this time," Eira forced a smile.

"Master, it's no trouble. This is my job. By the way, Master, why are you here?"

Celeste was puzzled.

Her teacher, Eira, was one of the four reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect and a Saint Realm powerhouse.

She had been living in seclusion in the forbidden area of the sect all year round.

Yet, she was now here.

What happened to the sect that could get her to come out of seclusion?

“I’m here to ask you something.”

“Master, if you have any questions, just ask directly! As long as I know the answer, I will definitely tell you,” Celeste said seriously.

In fact, as soon as Eira entered the room, she began to observe Celeste.

However, she did not see any difference from before.

‘Red wouldn’t be like this if her alluring body was ruined.

‘Did Nek make a mistake?’

Eira had no idea that during these three months, Celeste had been maintaining harmony with David every day.

The desire in her body that was aroused by her alluring body had been completely suppressed.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1470

Chapter 1470

None of it leaked out, so Eira could not see anything.

“Red, how is your alluring body now?” Eira went straight to the point.

This was her biggest concern.

If Celeste’s alluring body had not been damaged, then everything would be fine.

The plan could still go ahead.

“Master... Master, d-did you find out?” Celeste’s heart tightened, and she said unnaturally.

Her teacher was indeed a Saint.

The desire in her body had been completely suppressed and nothing leaked out from it. Unexpectedly. she was still discovered.

Eira frowned when she heard Celeste. Then, she looked over like lightning.

Celeste felt uncomfortable when she was being looked at like this.

She knew that Master was waiting for her explanation.

However, how should she explain how her alluring body was activated?

At this moment, Celeste was very troubled.

Should she be honest?

If she did, David's secret would be revealed.

He was a kid who just entered the Eternal Realm, and he was also just an Eternal Realm beginner Ruler Ranker who was born in the Milky Way, a low-level civilization, but unexpectedly possessed extremely great mind power.

Celeste believed that even Eira, a Saint, would be shocked if she knew about it.

This was because it was completely out of the norm.

Everyone knew that mind power could only be cultivated by a Sovereign Ranker.

Now, a brat who just entered Eternal Realm had it, and in large quantities at that.

Therefore, he must have gotten it through a very rare adventure.

Celeste did not know if her teacher could stop herself from asking David about the source of his mind power after she learned about it.

Everyone had their secrets, and she never asked David about his.

If Master could not help but ask, David probably would not answer since his privacy was involved.

Then, it was likely that a gap would form between the two.

Celeste did not want her teacher to have conflicts with David, and she could not be sure if her teacher would use force.

After all, mind power was very important after reaching Sovereign Rank.

It was said that whenever one reached Saint Realm, one's mind power had to reach a certain standard in order to achieve the next breakthrough.

Therefore, even a Saint could not resist the temptation to rapidly increase mind power.

If Eira decided to use force, David was only a beginner Ruler Rank, so how could he resist a Saint?

He was from a low-level civilization. Firstly, he had no background, and secondly, he had no strength, so he would surely face a miserable ending.

Although Amadi was very optimistic about David, he had not joined Star Mansion yet after all.

At that time, even if Celeste and Amadi persuaded Eira together, it would still be useless.

Even if Amadi's father, the head of Star Mansion, came forward, Eira would not talk to him, let alone the two of them.

The gap between the two sides was too great.

They would stand no chance unless the grandmaster of Star Mansion himself stepped forward.

However, this was clearly impossible.

The grandmaster of Star Mansion would not offend Eira, a Saint, for David, who had not yet joined Star Mansion.

Of course, all this was just speculation in Celeste's mind.

It was possible her teacher would place a high value on David after finding out.

However, Celeste did not want to gamble.

It would be good if she won, but if she did not, then she would ruin David.

At this moment, Celeste might have to lie to Master Eira because she did not want to reveal David's secret and put David in a dangerous situation.

Although it was only a possibility...