Chapter 1493

"What can we do aside from letting him get away?" Celeste said grudgingly.

Nova looked at Celeste.

She felt that something was wrong with Celeste's behavior.

Thus, she asked, "Elder Red, why do I feel that you are not angry at all? This man activated your alluring body, causing you to go from a genius to an ordinary person. Shouldn't you hate him, scold him, curse him, or even chop him into pieces?"

Celeste panicked.

She knew Nova could tell something was wrong from her attitude, but it did not show on her face.

"Lady Dream, it's been so long, and I've been angry long ago. If I can't get over this for such a long time, how am I going to continue living my life? I also want to find this punk, but it's a pity even Master can't do anything, so what can I do?"

Celeste still sounded very reasonable.

At least, it dispelled some of Nova's doubts.

If she could never get over this and was always living in anger, then Celeste would not be in her current state.

"Elder Red, what are you going to do next?" Nova asked.

"Master said that although my alluring body was damaged, my foundation is very solid. Because of this, she asked me to train in seclusion, and said I will still have a chance to get to Saint Realm in the future. That was why I entrusted Selena and the others to you and have them acknowledge you as their teacher. Otherwise, I will have to accept them myself," Celeste replied.

"Then you should listen to the reputable elder and go to seclusion with peace of mind! You don't need to worry about the sect's affairs and you should put it aside for now. You have the best chance to become a Saint in the Iridescent Sect, and you can't let down the sect."

"That's before, I don't think I can now."

“Elder Red, don’t be discouraged. Be more optimistic”

“I know. Lady Dream, don’t worry, if it was impossible, then I won’t be how I am now.”

“By the way, Elder Red, there is one more thing I want to tell you,” Nova said suddenly.

She only remembered now why she was so anxious to see Celeste.

The new Saint, Nek of the Simmons family, was still living in the VIP area of the Iridescent Sect, waiting for Celeste to come back!

“What is it?”

“Not long ago, the Simmons family’s new Saint, Nek, came to us and he has been living in the VIP area until now.”

“Nek? The one who said a thousand years ago that he wanted to take me as his wife?”

“Exactly!”

“What is he doing in the Iridescent Sect? Did he come here to propose marriage again?”

“He didn’t come here to propose marriage this time.”

“Then what is he doing here?” Celeste asked suspiciously.

“Elder Red, you see...”

Nova explained Nek’s purpose for coming to the Iridescent Sect.

Celeste’s expression became more and more unpleasant the more she heard it.

She finally knew who had left the mind seed in her body.

It turned out to be Nek.

No wonder she did not find it after so long.

With Nek’s Saint Realm mind power, Celeste naturally could not detect it with her lower mind power.

“This guy planted a mind seed in my body to monitor me without my consent, and now he dares to come to the Iridescent Sect to ask for an explanation? Where did he get the courage?” Celeste had a murderous look on her face.

No one would be happy to have someone secretly monitoring them by using despicable methods.

“I think he’s sure that you have lost your virginity so that’s why he dared to come here to ask for an explanation. As a Saint, Nek is also a prominent figure in Star Kingdom. He felt that it was unacceptable and humiliating that you lost your virginity immediately after you rejected his proposal, so that’s why he did this,” Nova explained.

“So what? Can Saints do whatever they want? Can they use despicable means without the consent of others? How shameless! Nek has really refreshed my understanding of Saints,” Celeste cried angrily.

“Elder Red, be careful with your words. You can’t offend a Saint! No matter how much we look down on Nek, he is a Saint. Even the four reputable elders are unwilling to provoke him so casually.” Nova hurriedly stopped Celeste.

Chapter 1494

She was afraid that Celeste would say something inappropriate again.

It would be fine if she did it in this hall since there was no one else here.

Besides, Nova would not tell others about it.

If Celeste said it in front of Nek, she would offend Nek the Saint.

The Iridescent Sect was strong, but they did not want to offend a Saint.

“Does Master know about this?”

“When Nek first arrived, I already reported it to her.”

“What did she say?”

“At that time, she only said we should wait for you to come back, and then make a decision after confirming the situation. However, she came to me again not long ago, probably after seeing you, and asked me to tell you to explain the matter to Nek clearly. After all, Elder Red, you didn’t really lose your virginity, so I believe Nek will understand.”

“What? Master asked me to find this rascal and explain myself to him?” Celeste asked loudly.

Apparently, she struggled to believe what Nova said.

Nek planted a mind seed in her and was a victim, but now, she needed to go to him and explain herself.

Celeste would never accept this kind of thing.

They would be dreaming if they wanted her to go explain herself.

“The reputable elder did mean that,” Nova replied.

At the time, she did not quite believe that the reputable elder would make such a decision as well.

After all, Elder Red was the reputable elder’s favorite personal disciple and the one with the most potential to break through Saint Realm.

However, facts were facts, so Nova had to believe them.

It could only be said that a Saint’s deterrence was indeed great.

Or perhaps Elder Red damaged her alluring body and went from a genius to an ordinary person, resulting in so many years of painstaking efforts going to waste. Hence, that was why the reputable elder lost confidence in Elder Red and made such a decision.

Although it was not Elder Red’s fault, no one would feel happy about nearly two thousand years of their painstaking efforts went to waste.

Nova thought this was more likely.

Otherwise, even if Nek was a newly promoted Saint, the reputable elders would not go through so much trouble for him.

After all, the Iridescent Sect had four reputable elders at Saint Realm, and each one had lived far longer than Nek.

“I don’t believe it! I’m going to ask Master to clarify this.”

After Celeste finished speaking, she was ready to turn around and look for Master Eira.

She was not going to explain herself to Nek.

If she wanted to go to Nek, she would ask him why he planted a mind seed to monitor her without her consent.

He planted a mind seed in her for no reason and she was the one who needed to go explain herself to him?

Was Celeste such an easy target for bullying?
