

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1515

Chapter 1515

Nova glared at Nek.

Her ample breasts heaved violently, obviously annoyed by the other party's expression.

She had been the head of the Iridescent Sect for so many years and this was the first time she was so angry.

Nova took a deep breath to temporarily calm down the anger in her heart.

It would be useless for her to be angry now.

Even if she was the head, she could not do anything after a scoundrel like Nek the Saint did that.

She just wanted this guy to get out of this place quickly.

"Nek, take the women you have chosen and leave the Iridescent Sect immediately. The sect doesn't welcome you anymore," Nova said in a deep voice.

"Lady Dream, you are not right for doing this. All visitors are guests. I, Nek Simmons, am also a Saint. No matter where I go in the Star Kingdom, I will always be treated as the most honored guest. Isn't it a little unreasonable for you to chase me away like that?"

Nek was a little pissed.

He was going to leave, but he refused to be driven away by Nova like this. Otherwise, how would he show his face in public in the future?

"You..." Nova was rendered speechless.

It was indeed wrong for her to drive away a Saint like this.

However, she made such a low-level mistake because Nek angered her so much.

"I can leave immediately if you want, but I have one condition," Nek said again.

"What else do you want? Nek, don't go too far," Nova said through gritted teeth.

She thought he was going to take the opportunity to blackmail her again.

“Don’t worry, I don’t want people or things this time.”

“Then what do you want?”

“I want an apology!”

“An apology? What apology?”

“An apology from Celeste, of course. She’s made me lose face, so shouldn’t she do something about it? As long as she apologizes to me in public, I’ll leave immediately,” Nek said as a matter of course.

At this time, they all heard a voice.

“Nek Simmons, you must be dreaming! Why should I apologize to you? You caused this incident in the first place.”

It was Celeste.

She initially did not want to give this scoundrel any attention. However, she had to say something now.

The other party had already dragged her into this, and he was now asking her to apologize.

He was being an intolerable bully.

Not only did this scoundrel not feel guilty about planting a mind seed in her, but instead, but he also became worse and asked her to apologize in public.

Celeste could not accept this at all.

It was clearly Nek’s fault, but in the end, he shifted the blame onto her.

Did he think he could do whatever he wanted just because he was a Saint?

“How presumptuous!” Nek barked

He released his Saint Realm’s energy again.

However, he did not release it to everyone in the room like just now.

Instead, it was directed only at Celeste.

Celeste’s actions after she came back made Nek want to cause trouble for her.

Now he finally had his chance.

It was an insult for an Eternal Realm to call a Saint by his name.

‘Since Nova is the head of the Iridescent Sect, I can still turn a blind eye toward her.

‘But Celeste is just an elder, so how dare she call me by name?

‘She really has a death wish.’”

Even if Celeste’s teacher came here, Nek would be in the right.

Nek used to be polite to Celeste because he wanted her to be his wife.

Now that he knew it was impossible, he had nothing to worry about. Furthermore, Nek could feel the hate in Celeste’s eyes.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1516

Chapter 1516

Since he caught this opportunity, he would naturally not let it go easily.

The huge energy released by the Saint directly sent Celeste flying before she had time to react.

In the process, David was also affected since he was standing right behind Celeste.

He was hit by Celeste who was flung back and the two flew backward together before hitting the wall of the room.

Thud! Thud!

“Pfft!”

After two loud thuds in succession, one could hear the sound of the two vomiting blood.

This scene shocked everyone in the VIP hall, including Nova.

She also did not expect Nek to act so suddenly, not to mention the middle-aged attendant and the seven fairies.

They stared at the scene dumbfounded.

Their minds had also completely stopped functioning.

At this moment, Nek's voice said again, "Celeste, you are an Eternal. Who gave you the courage to call me by my name? Don't you know that you can't insult a Saint in Star Kingdom? This time, for the sake of your teacher, I will give you a small lesson. If you dare to call me by my name again, I will destroy you directly, even if your teacher comes to me, I will still be in the right."

At this moment, Nek was no longer as casual as when he lectured Nova just now.

He finally showed a demeanor befitting of a Saint.

Saints belonged to the small group of people who stood at the top of the pyramid in Star Kingdom, and they could participate in the formulation of the rules in Star Kingdom.

There had always been a saying in Star Kingdom.

That was, one should not insult a Saint.

This sentence meant that people below Saints could not insult them.

It did not matter if you were a peak Sovereign Ranker or a partial Saint.

It did not matter who you were, you should not insult a Saint.

Only Saints could insult other Saints.

As a late Sovereign Ranker, Celeste directly called Nek, a Saint, by his name, so she was insulting him.

Due to this, Nek dared to act directly.

Even if Celeste's teacher Eira came, she would not say anything.

Of course, Nek knew when to stop.

He did not exert his full power.

His intention was just to teach Celeste a lesson.

After all, the other party's teacher was a Saint.

If he really killed Celeste, Nek would also suffer in the future.

Celeste's teacher might even find an excuse to kill him.

For someone with such a strong background, they would just be taught a lesson even if they insulted a Saint.

Alternatively, the insulted party would go directly to the elders of the other party to ask for an explanation.

On the other hand, if people without background dared to insult a Saint, they would only end David did not expect Nek to suddenly attack as well. up dead.

So, he could not react in time.

David only realized what was happening when Celeste bumped into him.

When their bodies were about to hit the wall, he quietly wrapped their bodies with mind power, eliminating most of the damage.

Therefore, neither of them suffered any injuries in the final collision.

However, they were pretty shocked.

As for the blood, they forced it out of themselves.

David and Celeste only had one thought in their minds. Now that Nek had chosen to take action, he would definitely not stop if his actions did not achieve the desired effect.