

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1527

Chapter 1527

The scene was a mess.

Nova and the middle-aged attendant, as well as the seven fairies, remained in the shield.

They were not harmed in any way.

It seemed that the bead that Nova took out was also a rare treasure.

Celeste rushed out of the rubble in a panic.

Her condition was much worse than that of Nova, who had been in the shield.

Her clothes were tattered, revealing the delicate skin underneath.

There was also blood on the corner of her mouth.

After Celeste came out, she quickly looked at Nek and David before she had time to check on herself.

She knew that David was definitely dead now, but she could not stop herself from hoping for a miracle

When she saw the two of them, there was a look of surprise in her eyes for an instant.

David was not dead yet.

The two were still their original position.

“Um...”

Celeste was not the only one showing a surprised expression.

Nova in the shield was also beaming.

‘Indeed!’

She knew David was not a simple guy since Elder Red valued him so much.

He was just a beginner Ruler Ranker and yet he faced a Pre-Saint head-on twice.

This was no longer something an Eternal could achieve.

Even Nova, a peak Sovereign Ranker, would die if she faced Nek, a Pre-Saint.

No matter what tactics David used, what he created were simply unprecedented miracles.

The other people in the shield all showed incredulous expressions.

Nek, the strong Saint, failed to kill David twice.

Sure enough, the ones who could enter the VIP Hall of the Iridescent Sect were all extraordinary.

David was able to stand up to Nek, the Saint, at a young age, so his future must be limitless!

The seven fairies looked at David.

Although Nek was grabbing him by the top of his head and he could not move, David's calm expression was extremely respectable in the hearts of the seven fairies.

They even felt that David would not die today.

He would be the first Ruler Ranker to survive a Saint's attack.

Nek was also shocked at this time.

He used 30% of his strength as a beginner Pre-Saint, but he could not crush David's head and kill him.

This was really unacceptable.

'When did a Ruler Ranker become so hard to kill?

'Has the world changed?

'Or am I too weak?'

Nek had some self-doubt.

He then glanced around.

The aftermath of his attack alone leveled the room of the Iridescent Sect, so it proved that there was no problem with his strength.

The VIP Hall of the Iridescent Sect was no ordinary building.

Not only was it built using the strongest wood, but it also had several powerful defensive formations carved into it.

However, David, who was at the center of attack, was unscathed.

Nek's eyes fell on David, and he looked at David's calm expression.

There was a cold light in his eyes.

'This brat is the problem!'

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1528

Chapter 1528

The VIP Hall of the Iridescent Sect was razed to the ground and was in ruins.

The loud noise also alarmed the members of the Iridescent Sect.

Countless figures flew towards the scene quickly.

Many space cracks appeared as well, with senior members of the Iridescent Sect coming out of them.

"Lady Dream! What's going on here?" A senior member asked.

Nova walked out of the shield, looked at the senior members who had arrived, and said to the ordinary members who were approaching, "You should all retreat first. Stop the others and don't let anyone approach."

"Lady Dream..." Someone still wanted to ask.

"Do as I say, get out!" Nova shouted.

"Yes, Lady Dream!"

The senior members of the Iridescent Sect retreated quickly to stop the other members who were flying over.

Nova did this because she was afraid that if Nek went crazy and did this again, the Iridescent Sect would suffer heavy casualties.

“David, I don’t know what technique you used, but you think you can survive just by doing that? You are too naïve. I will crush your head today!” Nek spat through gritted teeth.

In reality, if he changed his technique after he failed for the first time, David would not be able to resist.

However, Nek did not want to, and he could not.

He insisted on killing David in this way.

“Nek, I have to say that you’re very talkative. There is a saying in my hometown that villains die because they talk too much. If you talk so much nonsense today, you are destined to suffer in the future,” David said calmly.

“You’re asking to die!”

“My ears are already calloused from hearing you spout so much nonsense, but I am still alive now.”

Nek stared at David and stopped talking.

Every time he was the first to speak, he ended up seething.

On the other hand, David still looked calm and collected.

Hence, Nek continued to increase the strength of his hands.

This time, to make sure nothing went wrong, Nek planned to kill David directly with 80% of his strength.

However, at this moment, the air suddenly froze.

Nek was taken aback, and his hand also stopped.

Then came a cold voice from all directions.

“Nek, this is the Iridescent Sect. How long are you going to mess around? Do you really think no one in the Iridescent Sect can subdue you?”

Upon hearing this voice, Celeste burst into tears of joy.

“We’re saved!”

Celeste knew this voice.

Although this was not her teacher Eira, she was still one of the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect at Saint Realm.

With her around, Nek would not dare to do anything.

Celeste was not the only one who was overjoyed, Nova and others were very happy to hear this voice as well.

The reputable elder finally showed up.

They were saved at last.

“Reputable Elder, I have something to say! I didn’t cause the current situation because I was causing a scene. Instead, it’s because someone has gone too far. One can’t insult a Saint in Star Kingdom, but I have been greatly insulted here today. You are also a Saint, so I believe you can understand me. If you were in my shoes, you would do the same as me,” Nek explained loudly.

Judging only by the other person’s voice, he knew that this person was definitely not his opponent.

The strength of these older Saints, who had accumulated their power for tens of thousands of years, was truly unfathomable.

“They can’t insult you, but you can insult us? You hurt our people and demolished our buildings. Aren’t you insulting us by doing so?”

“Reputable Elder, let’s be reasonable! You haven’t asked for the details of the matter clearly, so it’s not appropriate for you to be so arbitrary!”

“Reasonable? Is Star Kingdom a place for reasoning? This is a place for powerful people. Whoever is the strongest makes the rules. How about we have a duel and whoever wins shall make the rules?”

“Reputable Elder, you must be joking. How could I, a junior, fight you? Won’t I be asking to be abused?” “Since you don’t dare to fight me, then I’ll give you a month to restore this place to its original state. You are not allowed to use any resources from the Iridescent Sect. If you can’t do it, my sisters and I will make a trip to your family.”

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1529

When Nek heard that the four reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect were going to visit the Simmons family, he panicked.

He could not even beat one of them, let alone four.

Even if he asked the grandmaster's help, they still could not win.

He could not let them go to the Simmons family.

However, Nek refused to immediately bow his head and admit defeat.

It was stipulated in the Universe Convention that Saints could not act at will in Star Kingdom.

Especially if it were between two Saints as the destructive power would be too great.

Once the two sides fought for real, it would cause immeasurable losses to Star Kingdom.

Back then, two Saints fought too intensely during their battle and the aftermath alone destroyed a continent inhabited by hundreds of millions of people.

It caused the continent to shatter, and more than 9.9% of the life on the continent died.

That battle was described as a catastrophe.

People on the continent had also experienced what seemed to be the end of the world.

Countless lives died in fear and despair.

From then on, in order to avoid a repeat of that horrible situation, the Universe Convention added one more regulation.

Saints were not allowed to take action in Star Kingdom.

Otherwise, they would be punished collectively by all the Saints of Star Kingdom.

If they wanted to fight, they should leave Star Kingdom and fight in the void outside. No one would care if they did that.

Of course, this was not absolute.

Nek managed to restrict his power to a small range and did not cause any damage, so everyone also turned a blind eye and did not pay too much attention to it.

Saints should have the rights they deserve.

Otherwise, they would not be able to fight back if they were scolded.

There was probably no Saint that would agree to that.

Everyone had almost died going through untold hardships and worked hard to become a Saint just to be superior to others and enjoy the respect and admiration of countless people.

If the result they got after all that was more restrictions, no one would accept this.

Furthermore, all life in the Star Kingdom, whether it was human or other races, would be added to an organization automatically once they reached Saint Realm.

The name of this organization was the Saints Association.

The Universe Convention was made by the Saints Association.

All Saints in Star Kingdom were managed by the Saints Association.

However, the Saints Association did not have various strict rules and regulations like other forces in Star Kingdom.

The Saints Association was actually a very relaxed organization.

Their biggest role was to gather all the Saints in the Star Kingdom when Star Kingdom encountered a crisis and work together to resist the crisis together.

At the same time, it would also limit a Saint's misconduct in Star Kingdom to avoid serious internal friction in Star Kingdom.

As for other trivial matters, the Saints Association would not bother with them.

"Reputable Elder, you are going too far! After all, I am also a Saint, and in the Star Kingdom, a Saint cannot be insulted. This is recognized by everyone. This kid David directly scolded my family. Shouldn't I fight back? As for what I did, I was blinded by rage. So please, Reputable Elder, forgive me," Nek said with a frown.

"Are you saying it's right to act so recklessly in the Iridescent Sect because you're mad? Let me tell you, Nek, fortunately, today's incident didn't cause any casualties. Otherwise, you wouldn't be able to get out of here safely. We sisters haven't come out for so long and everyone has almost forgotten about us. Don't force us to use you as a way to show our strength," the reputable elder of the Iridescent Sect said in a hostile tone.

During this period, their plans were temporarily shelved because Celeste's alluring body was activated

As a result, the four sisters were in a horrible mood.

Then, Nek coincidentally stirred up trouble.

If Celeste had not brought back Lorraine to ease the reputable elders' mood, Nek would have suffered today.

The Saints Association would not allow Saints to fight within the Star Kingdom because they were afraid that the aftermath of the battle would cause huge casualties and repercussions.

However, as long as things were kept to a small scale, the Saints Association would not care.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1530

Chapter 1530

If the sisters wanted to teach Nek a lesson, would they give him a chance to resist?

Obviously not

Even if Nek was also a Saint, compared with the four reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect, he was still far behind

Nek was very angry when the other party did not show him any respect at all.

However, he could not do anything.

If a fight broke out, it might be over before he even did anything to the four Saints of the Iridescent Sect, who might even be True Saints.

"Senior, if you say that, then I, Nek Simmons, will admit defeat today, but I will reserve the right to appeal to the Saints Association."

"Whatever," a disdainful voice said.

The four sisters were senior figures in the Saints Association, and their status in the Saints Association was not low.

Would they be afraid of the appeal of Nek, a new Saint?

How ridiculous!

“Okay. I will admit defeat and I will do what you asked me to do, but I want to take David away. He insulted my family and must accept the most severe punishment.”

“Nek, you are not in any positions to bargain with me. If you are sensible, get out and don’t make me change my mind, or I will definitely force you to leave something here today.”

“You...”

*Nek froze in place.

His right hand was still holding David’s head.

He did not want to leave, but he could not stay.

Clearly, he would be unwilling to let David go like this.

However, what could he do if he refused?

To be honest, Nek would not dare to kill someone in the VIP Hall in front of the reputable elders of the Indescent Sect.

There was still a gap between the Simmons family and the Iridescent Sect.

The two sides were not on the same level.

Even if the grandmaster of the Simmons family were healed, he and Nek were still no match for the Iridescent Sect.

Moreover, the grandmaster was still seriously injured.

“Reputable Elder, David is not from the Iridescent Sect. Do you really want to have a fallout with the Simmons family over him?” Nek asked unwillingly.

“This is a matter of principle. If this kid were not here, I wouldn’t care about him, but since he is in the Iridescent Sect, you can’t take him away. Otherwise, the Iridescent Sect will become the butt of jokes in Star Kingdom. As for a fallout, do you think I, the Iridescent Sect, am afraid of your family?”

David let out a sigh of relief when he heard this.

‘I survived!’

He could see that Nek was afraid of the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect.

There should be a certain gap between the strengths of the two sides.

Now that the reputable elder had spoken, Nek probably would not dare to kill him.

Even if he dared, as long as David could endure and not be killed in an instant, the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect could still save him.

David would be lying if he said he was not nervous about facing the crisis of death just now.

However, he knew that feeling nervous and fearful was useless since he had reached this point.

Even though David was on his knees begging for mercy, Nek still would not spare him. Besides, if David did that, it would only please Nek.