

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1521

Chapter 1521

Nova was also surprised by what Celeste said.

She watched Celeste grow up, so she knew Elder Red's temperament very well.

Celeste had always been very stubborn, and no one could change her mind about anything she was sure about.

Thus, when Celeste said she would not explain herself to Nek, Nova did not continue to persuade her.

She knew it was useless to even try.

Elder Red would not listen to her at all, and it was impossible to change her mind.

Nova might as well do it herself.

Even so, Elder Red bowed her head and apologized to Nek at this moment.

In Nova's opinion, this was a miracle.

One must know that it was difficult to change someone's character.

As the saying goes, a leopard could not change its spots.

Furthermore, Celeste had lived for nearly two thousand years, and it was even more impossible for her to change.

Moreover, with the backing of the Iridescent Sect and the four reputable elders at Saint Realm, Nek would not dare to do anything to her.

'So is Elder Red lowering herself and apologizing for David's sake?'

Nova wondered.

'What is this kid's background?'

'How can he make Elder Red endure this humiliation to apologize to Nek?'

Nova was now curious about David's identity.

After today, she wanted to get to know this kid well and see what was so special about him.

Celeste endured the humiliation. After apologizing, she originally thought that today's matter would be over and Nek would back off.

David would also manage to escape from this.

As long as David could survive, this would all be worth it.

However, Celeste was destined to be disappointed because Nek had no intention of letting David go.

He said with a sinister smile, "Tsk tsk tsk... Celeste, don't you think it's too late to apologize now? Do you think I'll let David go if you apologize? You're so naive. The more you care about him, the less likely I am to let him go. I will make you regret this for the rest of your life. This is the price of insulting a Saint."

"Nek, I've already apologized to you, what the hell do you want?" Celeste asked through clenched teeth.

She was also looking for a way out.

However, no matter how much she racked her brain, she could not find any solution.

It was too easy for a Pre-Saint at Saint Realm to kill an Eternal Ruler Ranker.

Even if Celeste and Nova, the two Sovereign Rankers, wanted to protect David, they would not have enough strength.

If Nek had not been afraid of accidentally injuring Nova who suddenly appeared in front of him just now, thus alerting the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect, he would have already gotten David under his control.

His fate was firmly in Nek's hands.

Now, Nek was ready.

It was obviously impossible for Nova to stop the other party now.

Just now, she caught Nek off guard and Nek was afraid of hurting her, so she achieved her goal.

"What do I want? I want David to die, and I want you, Celeste, to regret this forever."

After Nek finished speaking, his Saint Realm energy erupted again.

"Oh no! Elder Red, go to the back and protect David," Nova shouted.

Although she did not know David's specific identity, there had to be a reason for Elder Red to protect this kid so much, even at the expense of enduring the humiliation herself.

It was possible this kid had a special identity.

Furthermore, they were in the Iridescent Sect VIP area, so it was impossible for Nova to just watch Nek kill someone here.

Otherwise, once word about this got out, the reputation of the Iridescent Sect would also be greatly damaged.

As the head, Nova could not escape the blame.

At the same time, Nova's peak Eternal energy also burst out.

A Peak Eternal was naturally far worse than a Saint, and the difference between them was like a lake and the sea.

However, because Nek did not exert his full force, it still worked, and she was not completely overpowered.

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1522

Chapter 1522

Nova was relying on her status as the head of the Iridescent Sect. She only dared to do this because she knew Nek did not dare to hurt her.

After Celeste heard Nova's voice, she stretched out her hand and grabbed the clothes on David's chest. She pulled hard while her feet started moving.

In an instant, she changed places with David and put David between herself and Nova.

The energy of an Eternal Realm late Sovereign Ranker exploded from her body.

She and Nova were now shielding David in the middle.

At this time, David was like a weak ant that was being protected by two powerful ants.

Nek was like a giant.

If he used all his strength, these three ants would be trampled to death with just one stomp.

However, to avoid trouble, he did not want to hurt Nova and Celeste right now.

If he just wanted David to die, it would be a test of his technical ability.

How should he crush David, the little ant, without hurting Celeste and Nova?

As he was standing in the middle, David felt two huge energies chasing a vast ball of energy.

They would have destroyed the ball of energy earlier if it was unwilling to fight head-on with them.

David knew that the other party's target was himself.

However, at this time, he had no choice.

Even with the system, the cheat code, he could not change the current situation.

He did not even dare to make the slightest physical movement.

If Nek spotted a small flaw, David would die right here.

The only thing David could do now was to concentrate his mind power on several of his vital parts to protect himself and avoid being killed with just one hit.

He did not even have a chance to react now.

David did not expect that he would one day be protected by two women, and he would not be able to do anything.

Now, he could only wait for the result of their battle.

If Nek won, he would die.

If Celeste won, he would live.

This feeling of powerlessness in which his life and death were in the hands of others was really horrible.

David swore he would never want to experience this feeling again in his life.

How he wished that he could stomp his foot now to reveal his domineering energy and let his invincible energy that was countless times stronger than Saint Nek's explode from his body.

He wanted to make Nek feel his strength, kneel, call him daddy, and beg him to spare his life. However, he would not be moved at all. After he said some pretentious words, he could slap Nek to death under Nek's terrified gaze.

The thought of killing a Saint with his own two hands was amazing.

It was a pity that he could only dream about it now.

If he wanted to achieve it, he had to get through this catastrophe safely.

Otherwise, everything would return to zero.

Over time, David felt that Celeste and Nova were about to lose their hold.

He felt a chill on his bare skin several times, meaning Nek had almost touched him.

Once the other party got in contact with him, even if it was just skin, his body would not be able to bear even a trace of a Saint's strength.