Chapter 1541

Three days later, in the Iridescent Sect on the Iridescent Continent in Star Kingdom...

Ding dong!

The bell rang continuously in the sect.

Upon hearing this voice, all disciples of the Iridescent Sect who were not on duty would go to the main hall.

Today was the day for the head, Nova, to hold her disciple acceptance ceremony.

Hence, no one dared to dilly-dally.

However, this time, only the Iridescent Sect's own disciples participated in the ceremony.

Compared with the acceptance ceremony of the four reputable elders that was to take place in three months, the scale and influence of this event was much smaller.

The Iridescent Sect invited all the top forces in the entire Star Kingdom to participate in the disciple acceptance ceremony in three months.

The two ceremonies were not at the same level at all.

This time, it was Nova, the head of the Iridescent Sect and a peak Eternal, who was accepting disciples.

Three months later, the four Saint Realm reputable elders were the ones accepting their disciple.

The gap between the two was completely incomparable.

Of course, if Nova wanted to make a big deal of it, she could also invite most of the forces in Star

Kingdom.

After all, she was the head of the Iridescent Sect.

She could also be considered one of the top figures in Star Kingdom.

However, even if she wanted to make a big deal, the people who attended would definitely not be of the same level as those who would come three months later.

Besides, Nova did not dare to steal the spotlight from the reputable elders, and with her personality, she would not make things too high-profile.

Even if there was no ceremony for the reputable elders three months later, she might still keep a low profile.

David was also present at this time.

He was attending as a guest of honor in the Iridescent Sect.

After looking around, David found that although there were a lot of people at the scene, there were only a handful of men even when the main hall and the square outside the main hall were filled.

Apart from him, there were only a few dozen men.

Plus, they had a separate area arranged for them.

It seemed that the Iridescent Sect was exactly as Celeste said.

This was a sect that only accepted female disciples.

Even if there were men, they were either here for business or as guests.

After all, the female disciples of the Iridescent Sect also had family and friends, so it was normal for the men to visit them occasionally.

Nova sat on the seat exclusively reserved for the head of the sect.

When a woman next to her announced Selena's name, Selena came out, knelt in the middle of the hall, and bowed to Nova.

"Selena King, your disciple greets you, Master!" Selena said respectfully.

"Tea!"

Someone next to her immediately came up and handed Selena a cup of tea.

After Selena took it, she got up and walked to Nova, offering the tea in both hands.

"Master, please have the tea."

After Nova took the tea, she took a sip and said, "From now on, you are my personal disciple. In the future, your words and deeds will not only represent yourself but also represent me and the Iridescent Sect. I hope you will think twice about everything before you do it. Don't cause trouble for me and the sect, and at the same time, you must work hard to cultivate."

"I understand!" Selena bowed her head and said respectfully.

What followed was a series of tedious procedures.

They had to pay respect to the founder of the sect, the dead grandmasters of the Iridescent Sect, and some grandmasters who had made great contributions to the development of the Iridescent Sect.

Chapter 1542

Moreover, she would also need to get to know the seniors who held various important positions in the sect.

David watched patiently.

After today, he would leave this place.

Only then could he complete his plan with peace of mind after watching Selena and the others settle down.

At this time, there were many voices of discussion in David's ears.

"Lady Dream has not accepted disciples for so many years, and now, she announces the acceptance of her new disciples so suddenly. Where did Lady Dream find such an excellent personal disciple?"

"Who knows? The disciple that the reputable will be accepting in three months also showed up out of nowhere! I wonder who is so lucky to be favored by the reputable elders and make the four reputable elders come out of seclusion to accept her at the same time. This is the first instance in the history of the sect."

"Right? Since she's so valued by the four reputable elders, she will definitely become an important figure in the Iridescent Sect in the future. I want to meet this mysterious woman to see who she is."

"It seems that we have found all the seven high priestesses. If Selena can become Lady Dream's personal disciple, she must be able to occupy a spot among the seven high priestesses. In addition to the mysterious woman that the reputable elders want to accept, we have found the seven high priestesses of this year.”

“That’s for sure! The seven high priestesses only have these two positions to fill and countless women in the Star Kingdom are fighting for a spot. I didn’t expect the spots to be snatched away by two women who appeared out of nowhere. I wonder how many people will cry themselves to sleep at night.”

“The seven high priestesses are the disciples with the highest status in our sect. Who wouldn’t want to be one of them? This is the best chance to become famous in the Star Kingdom.”

Numerous members of the sect were whispering among each other.

David heard everything but he ignored them.

He did not care about the seven fairies or the seven high priestesses.

He could rest assured as long as Selena, Celia, and others were safe.

He would let them live here temporarily.

When he was strong enough, he would protect them by himself.

Because of the incident surrounding Celeste, David did not have the slightest affection for the Iridescent Sect and the four Saint Realm reputable elders, especially Celeste’s teacher.

Obviously, her apprentice Celeste was the one who was humiliated by Nek in that matter, but in the end, Celeste was sent to the ice cavern to accept the most severe punishment.

‘Is this how a teacher should be?’

‘Shouldn’t the teacher protect her disciple’s shortcomings and protect them from being bullied?’

‘That old hag is not worthy of being a teacher at all.’”

If it were not for the fact that Nova gave David a good impression, and that with his current strength, he could not protect Celia and the others, David would have directly taken Celia and the others away.

Although Nova was the head, she could not make decisions for the Iridescent Sect.

Therefore, David planned to take the women away from the Iridescent Sect after he was strong enough to rescue Celeste.

The ceremony in the main hall was still going on in an orderly manner.

Soon, Selena finished the whole process and stepped aside.

Then, the woman next to Nova continued to call out.

“Celia Young, Pearl Warner, Mia Concord, Astrid Barlowe, Julia Stefani, Amelia Hahn, Ava Snowden, Goldie Rogers, and Sandy Luther.”

All nine names were called out.

Celia and others also went to the middle of the hall and knelt one after another, forming a beautiful scenery.

Each of the nine women had her own merits.

Among them, Mia and Astrid were the most beautiful, and they were not inferior to the seven fairies. This was quite rare.

“Your disciple greets you, Master!” The nine said respectfully at the same time.

Then, they had to go through the same process as Selena.

The difference was that Selena was Nova’s personal disciple, while Celia and the other eight were just disciples in name.

The gap between personal disciple and disciple in name was very large.

Their status and resource allocation were not at the same level.

After accepting Selena, Nova continued to accept nine more people as her disciples in name.

This shocked countless disciples of the Iridescent Sect.

This happened so suddenly.

They always thought that Nova was only taking a personal disciple.

One must know that Nova had never accepted any disciples before.

Chapter 1543

After the ceremony was over, Nova made an announcement publicly.

Her personal disciple Selena would become one of the seven high priestesses of the Iridescent Sect.

So far, six of the seven slots for the seven high priestesses of the Iridescent Sect were filled.

They would gather all seven with one more.

As for the last position, everyone knew that it was reserved for the mysterious woman who was about to learn from the four reputable elders.

In addition, this mysterious woman would be the head of the seven high priestesses.

In other words, the new seven high priestesses of the Iridescent Sect were all gathered.

Their names would be famous in Star Kingdom and would be known by countless people in three months.

Then, the disciples of the Iridescent Sect dispersed in an orderly manner.

David also returned to his residence.

He immediately contacted Nova to tell her that he was going to leave. Before he left, he also wanted to see Selena and others.

He had no time to waste.

He had to get to the Central Sacred Continent as soon as possible to implement his spending plans.

If he stayed in the Iridescent Sect, he would not be able to increase his strength by even a little.

Nova tried to convince him to stay, but after seeing that David had made up his mind to go, she stopped persuading him.

She knew that David was going to find a way to save Elder Red.

However, in Nova's opinion, there was no way he would succeed.

The Iridescent Sect with four Saint Realm reputable elders would only show respect to Sacred Saints and no one else.

Before long, David would realize that it was impossible for him to save Elder Red.

Nova arranged for an attendant to take David to the residence of Selena and others to let them have a chat alone.

In the small courtyard where Selena and the others live.

“David, you said you were leaving?” Celia asked, staring at David.

The other women also turned their attention to David.

“Yeah,” David replied.

“When?”

“I’m here to say goodbye to you.”

“Are you in such a rush? Can’t you stay a few more days?” Celia asked reluctantly.

“Yeah, Dave, please stay a few more days!” Sandy pleaded with a pout.

“I’m sorry, Celia, Sandy. I still have important things to do, so I have to leave as soon as possible.” David explained.

“Then where are you going? When will you come back to see us?”

“I will go to the Central Sacred Continent. As for how long it will be until I see you again, I am not sure. In any case, I will come back as soon as possible.”

“David, are you trying to save Celeste?” Selena interrupted suddenly.

David looked at Selena. Then, he frowned and asked, “You know about Celeste?”

“Yeah, I heard from people in the sect and word about it has spread recently. Celeste was punished by her teacher to go into the ice cavern to face the wall and think about her mistakes. She can only come out after a hundred years.”

“We have also heard that the ice cavern is a very scary place. Only those who have made serious mistakes in the sect will be sent there. What crime did Celeste commit? Why did her teacher ask her to go in and face the wall for a hundred years?”

“Celeste is such an amazing person. Her teacher is too mean!”

“That’s right! Celeste is such an amazing person, so she shouldn’t have made any big mistakes. She must have been framed. David, you must find a way to rescue Celeste!”

“That’s right, Dave! You must find a way to get Celeste out, and you can’t let her suffer in the ice cavern.”

Everyone spoke at the same time.

In their eyes, David was omnipotent.

Back then, David saved Earth, then when he went to the Milky Way, he saved the entire Milky Way and became the Master of the Milky Way.

Thus, they believed the same would happen in Star Kingdom.

They had a sense of blind trust in David.

No matter what shocking things David did, they would think it was normal.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1544

Chapter 1544

“Don’t worry, everyone! I will definitely rescue Celeste, so I must leave as soon as possible now. If I leave one day earlier, it might mean Celeste will suffer one less day of torture.”

Although David said this, there was a bitter smile in his heart.

‘It’s not easy to rescue Celeste!’

As he looked into everyone’s extremely trusting eyes, David did not want to tell them the truth and make them worry.

“David, are you sure? Don’t put too much pressure on yourself,” Selena said worriedly.

Her strength was the highest among these women.

Since she was a child, she grew up in the King family, the number one hidden family on Earth.

Therefore, she was more knowledgeable.

Naturally, she knew that it would not be so easy to rescue Celeste from the hands of the reputable elders of the Iridescent Sect.

Although she also knew how extraordinary David was, this was Star Kingdom.

A high-level civilization with so many powerful people.

David had to start from scratch here.

How could he possibly rescue Celeste in such a short time?

“Don’t worry! Celeste has done so much for us, so I will definitely rescue her,” David said seriously.

“Do you need me to talk to Master and see if she can do anything?” Selena said.

“That’s right! How could I forget that Master is the head of the Iridescent Sect? She has such a good relationship with Celeste. I think we can ask her,” Sandy said excitedly.

Her mind was the purest.

She did not even think about the complexities of this.

After hearing this, David smiled bitterly in his heart again.

‘If Nova could save Celeste, I wouldn’t have to go through so much trouble.’

Since this involved a reputable elder who was also a True Saint, only those who were stronger than a True Saint would have a chance to rescue Celeste.

Even Nova, the head of the Iridescent Sect, was helpless.

She was only a peak Eternal after all.

“Stop worrying. Your master is the head of the Iridescent Sect and she needs to consider the overall situation. This matter involves Celeste’s teacher who’s also a reputable elder. Therefore, she also has her own concerns. You have just become her disciple, so don’t add to the chaos,” David directly refused.

Everyone figured he was right

The head of a sect sometimes needed to consider issues from the perspective of the overall sect.

She could not do whatever she wanted just like others.

“David, you must be careful no matter what. Your safety is the most important thing.”

“I know! Don’t worry! If I was able to start from a small planet like Earth and get to the top of the Milky Way step by step and become the Master of the Milky Way, I believe I can also do the same in Star Kingdom. I can definitely save Celeste.”

“David, we trust you!”

“Yes, I believe in you! You can definitely do it.”

Everyone expressed their support.

David bid farewell to them as Celia and the others looked at him reluctantly.

He then contacted Nova and said he was leaving immediately.

Nova came by herself and sent David out of the Iridescent Sect.

She handed a memory stone to David and said, “David, this memory stone contains the galaxy map of the known regions of the Star Kingdom. It will be helpful for you as you move around in the Star Kingdom in the future.”

“Thank you, Nova!” David thanked her as he took the stone.

This was exactly what he needed right now.

“Then I won’t see you off. Have a smooth journey. If you encounter any unsolvable problems, you can contact me at any time.”

“Thanks, Nova! I understand bye!”

“Bye!”

Nova stayed put.

It was obviously impossible for David to rescue Elder Red, yet for some reason, Nova had a glimmer of expectation in her heart, hoping that a miracle would happen.
