Chapter 1566

"Okay, very good. Great, I love a fiery woman like you," Boss said gloomily.

However, he was used to it.

He was often cursed out when he was killing people these years.

Once the other party saw see no hope of survival, they would hurl all kinds of vulgarities.

Over time, he had slowly gotten used to it.

"I won't let you get away with it!" Marlee yelled.

"Really? Let's wait and see. Attack!"

Dozens of space pirates surrounding the merchant ship acted immediately, but Marlee was not weak either.

Although this was a merchant ship for transporting goods, after the transformation, its offensive and defensive were not too weak.

Many accidents were bound to happen during the long distance from the Jung family to the Central Sacred Continent.

Therefore, they would still need some means to deal with these simple problems.

After Boss the space pirate ordered his people to attack, Marlee immediately ordered in a deep voice, 'Everyone, attack!'

Boom boom boom!

All the cannon barrels on the merchant ship fired energy cannons at the space pirates rushing over.

However, these space pirates were all at Universe Realm. Most of them were Cosmos Rankers and Celestial Rankers, and there were nearly ten Infinity Rankers.

Hence, the energy cannons would not work on them.

At most, it would just slow down their approach.

As the energy cannon continuously fired, the space pirates also constantly approached the merchant ship.

The fastest ones were naturally the Infinity Rankers, and then Celestial Rankers.

The Cosmos Rankers were slightly more affected by the energy cannon, so they could only approach slowly.

“Miss, what should we do? The opponent is too strong, and our attacks won’t have much effect. The stronger ones can avoid our cannons easily, and they are almost on the edge of the ship,” Fraser asked, wiping the cold sweat off his brow.

Marlee clenched her teeth and looked at the space pirates approaching all around them.

She did not have any solution at this moment.

If the dozens of space pirates who were not even peak Infinity Rankers were the strongest among them, Marlee could still fight them with her peak Infinity Ranker strength alongside Fraser, a late Infinity Ranker, and the several beginner and mid-Infinity Rankers she paid a lot of money to hire.

However, the leaders of the other party still had not come down from their battleship.

They were the most dangerous figures.

Even if Marlee and the others could eliminate the guys surrounding them, they were still not the opponents of the leaders.

Marlee figured this group of space pirates had at least one partial Eternal, and there was a high probability that it was the so-called Boss.

As for how many peak Infinity Rankers there were, it was hard to say.

If the other party dispatched all of their power, they could kill Marlee and the others instantly.

The only thing Marlee could do now was buy time.

She would delay as long as she could.

Even if it did not work, this was still the only option.

“How long can we last if we increase our defense as much as possible and allow these people to attack?” Marlee asked.

“There are nearly ten Infinity Rankers on the other side, and the rest are Cosmo and Celestial Rankers. If we dodged that blow just now, we could last for half an hour. Now, we can only hold on for ten to fifteen minutes at most. It will still depend on whether those guys will attack us with full force,” Fraser said.

“What if we use energy cannons to interfere with them?”

“We can definitely last longer, but it won’t be too long.”

“What should we do?”

“But Miss, this won’t solve any of the problems at all. They will still breach our defense in the end and we will still have no escape.”

“Do as I say!”

“Yes, Miss!”

Chapter 1567

Nearly ten space pirates at Infinity Rank first came to the side of the merchant ship to attack the defense of the merchant ship.

Then, the space pirates at Celestial Rank also arrived, and finally the space pirates at Cosmos Rank.

Dozens of space pirates at Universe Realm began to attack the merchant ship continuously.

Marlee ordered the merchant ship to continue to interfere with these space pirates with energy cannons, but it did not have much effect.

Energy cannons were inanimate after all, while humans were alive.

Moreover, the level of the energy cannon equipped on the merchant ship of the Jung family was too low, and it would not work well for the powerhouses at Universe Realm.

However, Marlee decided to do it anyway just so they could hold on for a little longer.

David was in the room. He first released a trace of mind power to go out to investigate the situation.

Although Celeste told him to avoid using mind power as much as possible before he had the strength to protect himself, she also said that mind power was something only Eternal Realm Sovereign Rankers possessed.

David did not think that a Sovereign Ranker would come to rob the Jung family's merchant ship that did not even have an Eternal.

A powerhouse of this level was also an elder in the Iridescent Sect.

How would they commit such a shameless act?

It would really be overkill.

As long as he did meet someone with mind power, David's mind power would not be exposed, and he could use it with confidence.

The space pirates kept attacking the merchant ship while avoiding the energy cannons.

The defense of the merchant ship was also continuously declining.

If this continued, in about twenty minutes, the defense of the merchant ship would be completely broken.

The core of this group of space pirates gathered to watch this unfold from the battleship.

There were as many as seven people.

Three of them were partial Eternals, while four were peak Infinity Rankers.

Their strength was far beyond Marlee's imagination.

She thought that the group of space pirates consisted only of Boss, a partial Eternal.

"Boss, this is too slow. Why don't I go over and break the opponent's defense?" A middle-aged man said. "No, they can't escape anyway. Orion, don't you think it's very enjoyable to make them suffer in despair?" Boss asked with a smirk.

"But Boss, I'm afraid that they can't bear this kind of despair and commit suicide. If that happens, we would have done this in vain. It'll be such a waste of time. We finally ran into women, so we can't let them die like this."

“Don’t worry! They won’t commit suicide, otherwise, they would have done it already. Why bother resisting so stubbornly? As long as there is a glimmer of hope, no one will want to die. Committing suicide requires a certain amount of courage.”

“Okay then, I shall listen to you.”

Boom boom boom!

Bang bang bang!

Pow pow pow!

Time passed amidst various chaotic attacks.

Five minutes later, the merchant ship had 30% of its defensive power left.

Ten minutes later, the merchant ship had 20% of its defensive power left.

Fifteen minutes later, the merchant ship had 10% of its defensive power left.

As Marlee watched the dwindling defenses, she gave up hope.

The merchant ship’s defense would be breached in five minutes.

What could they do in five minutes?

It was just enough for her to say a few words to her daughter.

“Uncle Fraser, tell everyone to persevere and not give up hope. I’ll see how Peggy is doing.”

Marlee turned and left the control room without waiting for Fraser to answer.

She had been focusing on space pirates and had not noticed that another light spot had appeared on the merchant ship’s sensor at some point.

Moreover, this light spot was already very close.

In ten minutes or so, it would arrive at the scene.

However, could the ship’s defense last for more than ten minutes?

It obviously could not.

In another five minutes, the defense of the merchant ship would be breached by dozens of space pirates at Universe Realm.

At that time, the entire ship would be exposed to the opponent's attack.

None of them noticed that an object was approaching rapidly, including the space pirate on the opposing battleship.

David spread out his mind power bit by bit.

Chapter 1568

He finally understood the situation clearly.

Immediately he breathed a sigh of relief.

There was not even a Ruler Ranker, let alone a Sovereign Ranker.

There were just three partial Eternals with a bunch of people at Universe Realm.

As long as David cast the Eternal Golden Body, all of them would be killed in a slap.

He got rid of the Nine-Headed Serpent Clan and the five partial Eternals of Sangruil with just a slap in the Milky Way last time.

Partial Eternals were just ants in front of Eternals.

They were only slightly stronger than people at Universe Realm.

After finding out the specific situation, David was no longer in a hurry.

He started teasing the little girl Peggy again.

"Peggy, where's your dad? Is he on this ship?" David asked curiously.

He felt with Marlee's beauty and charm, the man she chose would surely not be that bad.

However, David had been on the ship for so many days, and he had never heard Peggy calling for her dad.

David was confused.

How could a man let his wife and daughter do such a dangerous job?

If he were not on board today, Marlee and the others would surely have died if they had to face the space pirate gang led by three partial Eternals with their measly strength.

All plots and tricks were futile in the face of absolute strength.

Furthermore, David did not think that Marlee had any secret plans to deal with this group of space pirates.

Once she was caught by this group of space pirates, one could only imagine the fate of this beautiful woman named Marlee.

“No!” The little girl shook her head and said.

“So, your dad is at home?” David asked again.

“No!” The little girl continued to shake her head.

“Then where is he?” David was even more curious now.

“Mister, I don’t have a father,” the little girl said aggrievedly.

“No father? How is it possible? Where did you come from if you didn’t have one?”

“My mother said that my father died before I was born, so I never had a father, and I never saw what he looked like.”

David froze for a moment.

‘Died?’

‘I see!’

‘No wonder Marlee took her daughter out to do such a dangerous job.’

‘It turns out that her husband was already dead.’

‘I knew it.’

‘Which man would not cherish Marlee after marrying a woman like her? How would he let her come out to do such a dangerous job with such a lovely daughter?’

‘They would never return if they ran into a situation as dangerous as this.’

“I’m sorry, Peggy. I shouldn’t have mentioned something that will make you sad,” David said with a little apology.

“It’s okay, Mister. Although I don’t have a father, I have the best mother in the world,” the little girl said proudly.

David could not help but sigh in his heart.

This little girl was so sensible.

He also wanted a daughter like this in the future.

“Peggy, you’re such a good girl. If you can think like this, your mother will be so pleased.”

“Mister, I want to ask you something,” the little girl looked at David and said seriously.

“Peggy, tell me. As long as I can do it, I will definitely fulfill it for you,” David promised, patting his chest.

In his opinion, he was an Eternal, so wouldn’t it be easy to fulfill the request of a seven or eight-year-old girl?

“Mister, I want you to be my father, is that okay? From now on, me, you, and Mom will be one family and we will never be separated,” the little girl said with a smile on her face.

‘Um...’

David was stunned when he heard this request.

I’m A Quadrillionaire chapter 1569

Chapter 1569

“Um... Uh... Peggy, I can’t be your father,” David came back to his senses and said helplessly.

“Why? Do you not like Peggy?” The little girl pouted and asked sadly.

She was obviously not satisfied with David’s answer.

“I like Peggy very much, but I can’t be Peggy’s father!”

“Why is that?” The little girl did not understand.

“Well... Because... Because your mother won’t agree.” David did not know how to explain it, so he could only blame Marlee.

He really liked Peggy and he really wanted to have such a sensible daughter, but he would work hard to have one with the person he loved.

Although a mature woman like Marlee was very attractive to men, David could not accept this buy-one-get -one-free deal.

No matter how attractive Marlee was, she was still far behind Celeste.

Therefore, her effect on David was also limited.

“No! Mister, don’t worry! Mom will definitely agree. She likes me and Mister Dad also likes me, so from now on, the three of us will never be separated.” The little girl narrowed her eyes into two lines and smiled.

She did not know what the word ‘Dad’ meant yet.

She lacked fatherly love since childhood.

In addition, the children of the Jung family always bullied her. They would call her a fatherless child and an illegitimate child.

It made the little girl yearn for a father in her heart.

She would not be bullied or scolded if she had a dad.

If she had a dad, he would protect her and her mother.

Now she had met David, a man who treated her well and whom she liked very much, so naturally, she wanted him to be her father.

After Marlee left the control room, she came to David’s room. When she was about to knock on the door, she heard the conversation between David and her daughter Peggy inside.

She knew her daughter had always wanted a dad, but she never mentioned this to outsiders.

Unexpectedly, her daughter made such a request after meeting David.

It seemed that she really liked David.

Marlee had to create a chance for them to escape when the defense of the merchant ship was breached.

Even if she had to experience hell, she would not hesitate.

Marlee had been watching David these days.

From her judgement, David was not a bad person. He had a good personality and his image was impeccable.

He was a very fine young man.

Therefore, if her daughter followed him, Marlee would also be relieved.

Chapter 1570

At the same time, after hearing David's answer, she could not help but think again.

'Have I fallen to this point now?

'Can I not even attract a young man like David?

'Otherwise, why would he keep rejecting Peggy?'

As she thought about this, Marlee did not forget to look down at her proud figure.

She figured she should not have gotten much worse, right?

Her figure did not go out of shape after giving birth to Peggy. Even if she did, she only became more mature and plumper.

Compared with the youthfulness of the past, she was the most attractive in her current state.

This was what most men liked.

In the past few years, Marlee had received private letters from many people, hoping to develop a secret relationship with her.

If she had agreed, the Jung family would be safe.

Marlee refused all of them without mercy, which was why the Jung family was where it was today.

At this time, David's voice came from the room again.

"Peggy, you're still young, and you'll understand some things when you grow up. You can't call someone dad so indiscriminately. Your mother needs to like the man as well."

"As long as you agree, my mother will definitely like you, Mister," Peggy said without hesitation.

“It won’t count if you say it. Besides, not only must your mother like me, but I also need to like your mother. That is to say, we must like each other.”

“Do you not like my mother?” The little girl asked sadly.

Before David could answer, she continued, “Mister, my mother is the most beautiful woman in the world. When many disgusting men see my mother, they won’t want to look away. It’s like they wish they could eat her alive.”

“Peggy, your mother is indeed very beautiful, but it has nothing to do with whether she is beautiful or not. It mainly depends on the feeling. You don’t necessarily need the person to be beautiful or excellent to like them. You will only feel fondness if there’s mutual attraction after getting to know each other better,” David patiently explained.

This was the first time he had explained to a seven or eight-year-old girl what attraction was.

“Then what do you want to know about my mother? I can tell you. I have been with my mother since I was a child, so I know her best,” the little girl asked.

David forced a smile and shook his head.

He really did not know how he should explain this.

Who could clearly explain to an adult what attraction was, let alone to a seven or eight-year-old girl?

One man’s meal was another man’s poison.

Everyone had different tastes.

Relationships needed to be cultivated slowly after two people got to know each other.

The probability of success for love at first sight was extremely low.

A person would usually only be attracted to the other party’s appearance the first time they met.

However, if two people wanted to be together for a long time, character was often the most important factor.
