

Chapter 5303

“Charlie conquered the Su family and Cataclysmic Front?!”

Hearing this, Ethan said in shock, “Miss... this... this is a bit exaggerated...”

“The strength of the Su family is stronger than that of the Wade family.”

“And the strength of Cataclysmic Front cannot be measured by money,”

“They have tens of thousands of mercenaries, and now it is said that they have built their own permanent base in the Middle East,”

“How could this kind of organization be conquered by Charlie?”

Maria said lightly: “Charlie’s strength is far from what Cataclysmic Front can match,”

“Otherwise, when the Su family and Cataclysmic Front went to Waderest Mountain together,”

“There would have been no way for Charlie to survive, although we don’t know what happened that day.”

“But we can see from the results that Charlie was not affected in any way,”

“Which is enough to prove that the Su family and Cataclysmic Front completely failed on Waderest Mountain that day.”

After a pause, Maria continued Said: “As I said just now, the enemy in Charlie’s eyes is Warriors Den.”

“He is the same as me, and he has a mortal hatred against Warriors Den, but he is much stronger than me.”

“I am still in the process of hiding from Warriors Den.”

“It is chasing and killing the Middle East and hiding in Tibet, exhausted, but he has already launched a real attack on the Warriors Den in the dark.”

“From this point of view, how can the Cataclysmic Front be able to stop him?”

“If he is willing, On Waderest Mountain, could directly kill the number one person in Cataclysmic Front!”

Ethan pondered for a moment, then frowned and said: “In this way,”

“It is rumored that the Wade family ceded half of their assets to Cataclysmic Front. It is a smoke bomb!”

Maria nodded, and said seriously: “To be precise,”

“It should be the smoke bomb released by Charlie!”

After finishing speaking, Maria suddenly remembered something,

And asked the two of them: “By the way, after Waderest,”

“Is there any special news or changes from the Su family and Cataclysmic Front?”

“Changes?” The two looked at each other, and Larry said,

“I don’t know the situation of the Su family, but Cataclysmic Front I have heard of it.”

“Their situation in Syria suddenly became very active,”

“And they soon joined forces with ISU Shipping to monopolize the armed escort in the Gulf of Aden,”

“And they wiped out a pirate organization before, scaring the pirates in the Gulf of Aden at once.”

“They have lost the courage, and since then, as long as the merchant ships escorted by the Cataclysmic Front are armed, no pirates dare to approach.”

Maria nodded: “This transformation is not unsightly, and I think there should be expert guidance behind it.”

Ethan thought for a while and said, “It’s strange to say that the news came out that day that the Su family and Cataclysmic Front were in Yemen.”

“After the big victory in Waderest, the Su family suddenly kept a low profile.”

“Some people said that they made a fortune in silence,”

“But I always felt that they were very high-profile before they won Waderest.”

“There is no reason to do anything after winning. Making a fortune in silence,”

“Isn’t that the same as stealing one’s ears and stealing one’s bell?”

“That’s why I was always surprised by this incident.”

“Later, the Su family quickly changed the head of the family.”

“The previous head Chengfeng Su retired,”

“And passed on the position of the head of the family to his 24-year-old eldest granddaughter, Zhiyu.”

“Passed to the eldest granddaughter?” Maria muttered with a puzzled expression,

“Why do you want to choose a grandchild from another generation to directly inherit the position of head of the family?”

“Shouldn’t you choose a son in the middle for transition?”
