

Almighty DG 860

Chapter 860

The events at the Johnstons had also reached the ears of Mr. Gabriel.

Mr. Gabriel now knew with surety the God King Palace was affiliated with the Cadens and that Maxine Caden was the one who demanded James' release.

Mr Gabriel had a similar plan to Mr. Lee's. He also planned to visit the Cadens and discern Tobias Caden's thoughts on the recent events.

At the Cadens

Tobias had left the room after using his True Energy to treat James' injuries.

Not long after, James slowly regained consciousness

The moment he woke up. all he could feel was excruciating pain throughout his body.

He felt as if his heart had been pierced by a thousand swords. James' face was twisted into an agonized grimace as he tried to bear the pain

To make matters worse, the Gu venom within his body was actively moving around. He was keenly able to feel the sensation of numerous bugs squirming around his body and slowly eating away at him from the inside.

body throbbed and his skin became slick

lady in a white dress with long curly black

bowl of medicine

you're finally

and saw

James remembered that it was he found that he could not exert any strength at all. Even the smallest movement sent excruciating pain coursing through his bed and gently caressed James' hand. "You're gravely injured.

at Maxine and opened his mouth. His words were carried by got it wrong. I wasn't the one that saved

"H Hub?"

to clarify things with her. "Wasn't it incident occurred. Someone impersonated me and saved you from the Johnstons. Then, they left you at our front door. It was my grandfather who used his True Energy to save

I at his body away abruptly. He wanted to get up. He wanted to leave the

the destruction of his family ten years ago