

Almighty DG 861

Chapter 861

Maxine sighed and shook her head exasperatedly. Then, she walked over to James and crouched down.

“Go away..”

James raised his arm and tried to swat her away. All he did was aggravate his injuries further and ended up coughing out more blood

The door slowly creaked open and Tobias walked into the room dressed in a suit.

“Grandpa.” Maxine raised a hand in greeting.

Tobias made a small nod of acknowledgment. He took a seat on a nearby chair and regarded James curled up in pain on the floor.

James righted himself with no small amount of difficulty and sat limply on the ground. This alone depleted so much of his stamina A coppery taste lingered in his mouth and his chapped lips were tinged red with blood.

When he saw Tobias. James’ face turned black. “Was it you who burned my home to the ground ten years ago?”

“Yes,” Tobias made no attempts to deny it.

nonchalant response only enraged James further. James’ body stiffened as he tried to lunge for Tobias but could not find the strength to stop. “Calm down, boy. Use those ears

had a murderous

Tobias’ hands. No one would have faced such a painful and miserable end if it was not for

as the traitor of the Tobias mumbled softly.

possessed tremendous potential. However, he chose to walk down the wrong path and was led astray. Not only did he steal the family’s treasure scroll, but he

James’ nostrils flared as he

no trust

what his own

remembered was a friendly and kind-hearted man. Not only that, but he was also a philanthropist who donated a great sum of his wealth to rural areas

was definitely

Caden blood runs through your veins. Did you know how much the Cadens are risking just by saving you? A single misstep will cause all hell to break loose in Sol." Tobias left after saying his

James could do was glare at muttered, "Whatever grievance you have against us can wait

walked over to James and helped him