Chapter 3627

A cold gaze could be seen in Harvey York's eyes after hearing Lucca Bauer's words.

He glared at Lucca indifferently and said, "What did you say? I can't really hear you."

"I'll repeat it!

Lucca chuckled coldly.

"If anything happens to me, not only will you have to die, your wife, friends, and family will have to join you! Your ancestors will also be dug up!

"We'll make sure they all burn to a goddamn crisp!

"What? Are you mad? Then, hit me!

"Come on!"

Lucca kept leaning toward Harvey with an arrogant look on his face.

Slap!

Harvey swung his palm across Lucca's face without wasting a single second. Lucca was completely stunned.

"This one's for you disrespecting your master!

Slap!

"This one's for you disobeying the damn law!

Slap!

"This one's for you being so arrogant that it's stupid!

"You don't even know who I am, and yet you're here standing up for someone else?"

"What?"

"Do you think you're impressive?"

"Do you think I won't hit you?"

Harvey kept swinging his palm across Lucca's face, completely dazzling him.

When he came to his senses again, his face was already as swollen as a pig.

Lucca was getting extremely desperate at this very moment.

"How dare you hit me, you b*stard?!"

"Listen to my orders! Point your swords at this b*stard!"

"Kill him right now!"

"It doesn't matter if I live or die!"

Naturally, Lucca's head was completely drowned in rage.

The subordinates held their weapons tightly while showing slight hesitation.

"Steward..."

Lucca's face darkened in an instant.

"Do it! Anyone who doesn't will be punished by the family rules!"

The subordinates had no choice but to raise their weapons. The helicopter mid-air also brought out heavy weapons.

Lucca showed a wretched smile as he glared at Harvey.

"You have exactly one minute, Harvey!

"If you don't surrender by then, we'll have to die together!"

Slap!

Harvey calmly slapped Lucca across the face again.

"Do you want to die with me? Who do you think you are?"

"You..."

Engines could be heard roaring from outside before a dozen Range Rovers charged forward.

Heavy weapons were strapped all around the cars. At this moment, the firepower of the cars was no worse than Lucca's.

Right when Lucca slightly changed his expression, the voice of a dignified woman could be heard.

"I am Arya Johnson of the Longmen Warband!

"I belong to the Eldest Young Master Bauer himself!

"He told us that the keepsake Harvey had was real!

"Nobody is allowed to disrespect him!

"The family knows everything about Joseph!

"Longmen, the Bauer family, and the government of Flutwell will investigate the matter together!

"We'll know the truth of the matter soon enough!

"But before that, the people involved are not allowed to fight each other, nor are you allowed to leave!"

"From now on, Sir York will be under the Longmen Warband's protection!"

"Let him go this instance! If you have opinions about this, you can report this directly to the Law Enforcement of Longmen!"

"Disobeying orders will mean challenging Longmen, the Bauer family, and the government of Flutwell's authority!"

Chapter 3628

The Range Rovers immediately stopped as soon as the distant voice echoed out.

A large group of men in robes appeared after the car doors opened.

The men instantly surrounded Lucca Bauer, Harvey York, and the others around them. Harvey squinted. He did not expect that Jeff Bauer would use the Longmen Warband's authority.

He only heard about half of Longmen's branch leaders, along with the Inner and Outer Halls supporting Jeff...

But after seeing the sight, he finally understood just how immense Jeff's authority was. Without a doubt, Jeff's power would definitely be on another level if he decided to go all out. Someone like Joseph would not even be able to compare.

While Harvey was curiously watching the sight, a young woman in a black robe walked out of the passenger's seat of the car in front.

Not only did she have an attractive figure, but her cool expression also showed off her heroic figure.

More importantly, an unspeakable sense of calmness and confidence could be felt when she exclaimed.

It would not be wrong to call her arrogant and domineering.

No matter how people looked at her, she seemed like a nun of the royal palace, condescendingly reading the royal decree while taking control of everyone's lives.

That said, Lucca and his subordinates could not be bothered about Arya's tone at all. They were all showing horrible expressions as they looked at the sight before them.

Arya's status was immensely high!

She was also here to protect Harvey!

This meant that the keepsake was genuine!

Not only was Harvey an important guest of Jeff, but he was also likely to be an important member of the entire family!

The experts instinctively lowered their weapons. They would not dare go against Harvey any longer.

After all, they would have gotten themselves into a battle way out of their league.

Lucca's face darkened before he heaved a huge sigh.

Arya strutted toward Harvey and Lucca and looked down at them before she saw the business card on the ground.

"Lucca Bauer, you're Grandma Bauer's trusted subordinate, but you completely ignored the master's authority and even destroyed his keepsake! This is a heinous crime!

"According to the rules, we should be taking you down!

"But for the sake of your accomplishments, and that you only made such a mistake for the first time, we'll give you a second chance!

"You won't be receiving your salary for the next six months!"

Arya decisively set the tone of the situation and gave Lucca an appropriate punishment.

Lucca showed a confused look before he replied, "I understand!

"Come on, Sir York.

"Young Master Bauer's waiting for you at the banquet!

"He said that he wants to drink with you till sunrise for accomplishing such a feat!"

Arya looked at Harvey with disdain, as if he was a small fry who only managed to cling to Jeff.

'A man always has their uses...

'And yet this one decides to cling onto Young Master Bauer.

'He won't be of much use. All he can do is look good.'

Because of this mentality, Arya's decision was quite biased toward Lucca.

"Hurry. Release Lucca and follow me.

"Don't waste my time..."

Chapter 3629

"This guy kept slandering me for no reason, claiming I forged your master's keepsake. He pointed his weapon at me. He's even planned to kill my entire family and burn my ancestors to a crisp...

Harvey York seemed indifferent.

"And all you did was cut his pay for six months?"

"As Jeff Bauer's subordinate, are you just going to ignore me like that?"

"Can you sleep at night like this?"

Arya's face immediately darkened after hearing Harvey's doubts.

Lucca let out a cold chuckle.

"Who do you think you are, you b*stard?!"

"We don't need you to teach us how to do things!"

"Do you think you can take me down just because you have Eldest Young Master Bauer by your side?"

"Let me tell you something! I also belong to the Bauer family."

"We all have the same blood, even if I'm just a relative!"

Lucca showed a wretched smile.

"It's already good enough for you that I'm not getting paid!"

"Lowly people like you have no right to even be mentioned in front of me!"

"I'll let you go for Arya's sake..."

"But I'll find another chance to deal with you!"

"Not only will I kill you, but I'll also take your wife and family with you!"

"Right! I probably wouldn't kill your wife first. After all, she's so beautiful!"

"I'll make sure to enjoy her before that happens!"

"She would most definitely taste real good!"

Obviously, Lucca knew there was no way for him to deal with Harvey then...

But he still wanted to talk big at Harvey just to vent.

After all, his face was completely covered with palm prints after being slapped around nonstop.

"Enough! Stop embarrassing yourself!

"What's the point in this?!

"The outsiders will only make fun of us more!"

Arya showed a fierce glare to keep Lucca from lashing out.

Then, she glanced at Harvey and said, "This is enough, Sir York! Let him go!

"I don't have much patience!"

"You think this is enough, but not me," replied Harvey calmly.

"I demand a fair statement about this."

"A fair statement?"

Arya scoffed before her beautiful face turned gloomy.

"I already cut his pay for six months! What else do you want?"

"Besides, you're just a small fry doing work for Young Master Bauer! Who do are?"

"You're asking for a fair statement?"

you think you

"Let me tell you something! I don't care if you're taking advantage of everyone in Flutwell using Young Master Bauer's authority!

"I also won't mention how you used his power to take Joseph down!

"But don't forget! You're still just his lackey!

"You can bark at anyone, but you better stay put in front of the master!

"These are my rules, Young Master Bauer's rules, Flutwell's rules!

Arya showed a disdainful look.

"Don't think you're impressive just because you're being indulged!

"You hear me?!"

"I'm Jeff's lackey?

Harvey merely chuckled.

"Who told you that? He did?

"Are you really his trusted subordinate?

"Did he not tell you I don't bow to anyone?

"This guy here wants my family dead, and you want me just to let him go?

"Get Jeff here! See if he can do anything about this!"

Harvey swung the back of his palm forward.

Slap!

Lucca was instantly sent flying. After spinning in the air a few times, his body slammed right into the wall.

Blood spurted out right from his mouth. He was struggling to get back up with a wretched look on his face, about to bellow at Harvey...

Chapter 3630

Harvey York did not even give him a chance to speak.

He threw the blade in his hand right through Lucca Bauer's throat.

Pfft!

Blood spurted out of Lucca. Constant gargling could be heard at that moment. It was obvious that Lucca was on the verge of death.

After seeing what had happened...

Joseph Bauer, who was trembling on the ground after being crippled, was filled with complete shock. He could not believe the sight before him.

He did not expect Harvey to be this domineering.

Crippling Joseph was nothing...

But he even took Lucca's life right before Arya without showing respect toward Jeff Bauer!

Everyone could tell that even God would not be able to save Lucca's life this time.

At this moment, all that was left on his face was resentment, rage, and disbelief.

He thought that Arya's arrival would give him an out despite the fact that Harvey would get away unscathed. That way, he would at least be able to prepare himself before dealing with Harvey again...

But he did not think Harvey would just take his life after slapping him aside!

'I only wanted to play with your wife and kill your family, and this is what you do to me?!

'I belong to the Bauer family! My blood is royal!

'How dare an outsider like you kill me?!

'And in front of Arya of all people!

'How arrogant can you get?!'

Lucca was filled with disbelief. After struggling for a few seconds, his head tilted to the side with a wretched expression. He died on the spot.

Everyone froze.

Harvey's actions completely went against both Harold Bauer and Jeff!

Along with the fact that he also crippled Joseph...

At this point, he was going against the entire Bauer family!

Where did he get such courage?

"You b*stard!"

Lucca's subordinates froze before they burst out in anger. They instantly unsheathed their swords and pointed them toward Harvey!

A fight was about to break out!

Harvey was completely outnumbered...

But all he did was show a calm smile before gesturing to everyone so they would shift their gazes toward Arya.

"What? Are you planning to go against Young Master Bauer?"

"You're not just disobeying orders at this point. You're risking your lives here!"

"Are you sure you're using your brains right now?"

"Back off! Every single one of you!"

Arya's subordinates came to their senses after being reminded of their duties. They unsheathed their swords, forcing the experts of the Bauer family back.

They were completely enraged after seeing Harvey being this disrespectful toward Jeff...

But they had orders to keep Harvey safe no matter the cost.

That was why they had to take action.

Both sides were at a standstill. The whole place was in an uproar.

"Looks like Grandma Bauer's men really do care about Harold...

"No wonder everyone's saying that he can only rise to power with Grandma Bauer's love," said Harvey calmly.

"Do you think these people are disrespecting you, Arya? Or are they disrespecting your young master?"

"Or rather, does he not have any respect at all in the first place? All he has is a bit of authority within the family. Am I right?"

"That just won't do. Authority is one thing, but he'd need the elders to acknowledge him too

"Unless he's planning for a mutiny.

"Though, that'll be quite difficult. It might just ruin the relationship between Longmen and the Bauer family..."

Harvey casually pointed out the situation to give Arya a lesson.

At the same time, he even said things that should not have been told in the first place. Everyone kept changing their expressions after hearing those words.

'Does this b*stard not have any fear?!

Chapter 3631

"Harvey York! You b*stard!"

Arya Johnson came to her senses then.

She did not believe that Harvey would take Lucca Bauer's life right before her.

After all, she had been giving warnings, saying that this was her rule, Jeff Bauer's rule...

But Harvey could not be bothered.

Arya was boiling with anger at that moment.

That said, she had no other choice but to accept the truth.

She was mad at Harvey for running his mouth however he pleased. If word about this incident spread, Jeff and Harold Bauer's conflict would be exposed to the public!

The conflict between the two would escalate because of this!

Harold would even think that Jeff was intentionally provoking him!

Jeff would most definitely not benefit from the situation if it escalated this way.

Without a second thought, Arya really wanted to strangle Harvey at that very second.

"Did you not hear what I just said?!" she exclaimed furiously.

"I told you to let Lucca go!

"We're supposed to deal with him when he gets back! You have no right to get involved! "Don't you even know who he is?!"

"How dare you slap him aside before killing him?!"

"Do you think all this is a joke?!"

Arya's pretty face was filled with unbridled rage.

"Why does this even matter to me?"

Harvey chuckled.

"You punish your lackeys. I kill the people I want.

"At this point, we're all just doing our own thing.

"What? Are you mad?

"Come at me then!

"But before that, you better ask Jeff if he has the courage first!

"After all, he knows full well that I can take him down if I wanted to!

"I can keep the incident at Charity Garden a secret for him...

"But if he keeps being irresponsible and disrespects me, I wouldn't mind letting the world know just what kind of man he really is.

"He means nothing to me anyway.

"Come at me already.

"You don't actually think that I won't get out of here alive without your help, right?"

Harvey stepped forward before a violent aura burst out from him.

All the experts trembled frantically. They even accidentally dropped their weapons out of pure panic.

"You..."

Arya retreated a few steps back after being overwhelmed by Harvey's aura...

But she was completely infuriated when she came back to her senses.

She was Jeff's trusted subordinate, a senior of the Longmen Warband!

Even she could not handle Harvey's aura!

This was just embarrassing!

How would she have the face to stay in Flutwell after this?

'This b*stard's being so cocky! Is he really that strong?

'Is he really someone who Young Master Bauer is trying to win over?'

Arya could not quite figure out the relationship between Harvey and Jeff...

But after getting first-hand experience with Harvey's aura, she realized that Jeff would at least respect him on the surface.

Without a second thought, Arya gritted her teeth when she exclaimed, "Come! Escort Sir York out of here!"

"Young Master Bauer will thoroughly investigate the situation! We'll make sure that everyone gets a fair statement!"

"Anyone who stands in our way will be killed without hesitation!"

Chapter 3632

Dozens of experts from the Longmen Warband instinctively raised their weapons after hearing Arya Johnson's orders.

All of them were showing fierce looks when they screamed at the experts of the Bauer family, forcing them to retreat.

Some of Lucca Bauer's trusted subordinates wanted to block the path, but they were immediately slapped aside by the Longmen Warband.

Even if the experts were completely infuriated, they had no other choice but to make way.

Three minutes later, Harvey York casually sat in his Toyota Prado before he made a gesture, signaling Arya's men to send Lilian Yates to the hospital.

Arya's veins were bulging out of her forehead before she instinctively walked over.

"What do you think you're doing, Harvey?!"

"Did you not hear what I just said?!"

"Young Master Bauer prepared a banquet just for you!"

"Go back and tell him something..." replied Harvey while he started his car.

"Everything that happened just now was completely different than expected.

"I don't feel this sincerity right now.

"If he wants to see me so badly, he can come to the Martial Hall instead."

Then, Harvey stepped on the pedal.

Arya was both furious and anxious at the same time. She instinctively raised the crossbow in her hand...

But before she could even do anything, Harvey instantly flicked his finger.

A leaf flew out before knocking out the crossbow from Arya's hand.

At the same time, her hand felt extremely numb. An unspeakable thought came into her mind.

She did not expect that Harvey was actually this capable.

No wonder he had no fear, even when going against Jeff Bauer.

While Arya was still in shock, Harvey drove away while making a few calls.

After that, he tenderly looked at Mandy Zimmer lying in the back seat before stepping on the pedal.

At dusk, Rudolph and his team had already arrived when the car was parked in front of the Martial Hall.

They immediately prepared a wheelchair after seeing Harvey carrying Mandy out of the car.

Mandy was not that badly injured at the moment. More than anything, she was more in shock than injured.

Harvey did not bother sending her to the hospital because of this. Instead, he asked Rudolph and his team to help.

On the one hand, the Martial Hall was quiet enough to operate in.

On the other hand, there were just too many things that happened that day.

Harvey feared that Mandy would get dragged into the situation, so he decided to take her here instead.

At least he would be able to keep her safe this way.

When Mandy dozed off after taking sedatives, Harvey calmly walked to the main hall after assigning a few guards to her.

Rachel Hardy, Kayden Balmer, Dillon Lee, and the others were there.

They were all filled with admiration when they saw Harvey walk out.

After all, nobody thought that Harvey could decisively deal with so many problems in just a single day.

Not only did Harvey take down Joseph Bauer in the stock market, but he also crippled him entirely!

This incident would surely cause an uproar throughout Flutwell...

Nobody knew what was going to happen after sunrise.

Rachel and the others had been waiting for Harvey to give them their orders.

“What should we do now, Sir York?”

Kayden’s eyes were filled with a burning passion.

Safe to say that this was the most intense battle he had ever participated by far.

Chapter 3633

“Joseph Bauer’s completely crippled. Harold Bauer’s trusted subordinate was killed as well

“Jeff Bauer must be ecstatic at this point, right?

“Because of this, Harold and I are forced to go against each other.

“If I manage to cripple Harold because of this, Jeff can win the battle for the throne without even lifting a finger.

Harvey York squinted with a calm look on his face.

“Do you think that Harold meant to do all this? Or did Jeff trick him into doing this instead?” Rachel Hardy and the others looked at each other.

Harvey was right.

The entire incident seemed coincidental, but this was still a little too much.

Both Lucca Bauer and Arya Johnson’s appearances seemed a little too deliberate.

If this was all part of Jeff’s plans, then he was a lot more scheming than everyone thought.

Rachel frantically twitched her eyes.

“So, what should we do next, Sir York?” asked Rachel quietly.

“Should we continue with Secretary Xavier’s acquisition plan?”

“Of course. Why shouldn’t we?”

Harvey smiled calmly.

“It’s good to be careful, but we have fought so hard for all we have now. We can’t just sit here and do nothing to protect them, right?”

“Yvonne Xavier can’t be here right now. I’ll leave it up to you to buy off the properties of Flutwell’s business alliance, Kayden Balmer.

“Remember, be fast and decisive about it.

“Rachel, you’re in charge of keeping my wife and her family safe. I don’t want things like this to happen again.”

Rachel and Kayden nodded lightly after hearing Harvey’s orders before they carried out their mission.

And after handling the rest of the problems, Harvey sat back and relaxed.

Other than giving Layne Naiswell and the others some pointers to handle the students’ problems...

Harvey occasionally went to the backyard to check on Mandy Zimmer, who was still unconscious at that moment.

Harvey felt relieved when Xynthia Zimmer packed her stuff and moved to the Martial Hall.

Soon after, the night passed.

Kayden brought good news.

With

Ansel Torres’ connections, all of Flutwell’s business alliance’s properties would be transferred to Harvey according to the procedure.

Harvey only told Kayden to establish a group under the Martial Hall and integrate all of the resources that way.

Harvey’s first step was to buy off every single chain Budokan in Flutwell.

He was planning to send off Layne and the others to take care of each Budokans.

That way, not only would it be convenient for them to treat the sick students Joseph had deceived, Martial Hall's name would rise to fame without much effort.

Xynthia, who had nothing to do, overheard Harvey's conversation while he was on the phone. She quickly pestered Harvey, saying she wanted to get acquainted with business-related activities.

Harvey had no choice but to let Xynthia get involved. At least she could gain some experience from this event.

At ten o'clock in the morning, Xynthia showed a curious look when she walked into Flutwell's business alliance's chain Budokans with dozens of workers temporarily transferred from Buckwood and Mordu.

Flutwell's business alliance was already bankrupt, but the workers could still work there as usual due to the asset disposal process.

When Xynthia and the others walked inside, a staff immediately came forward.

"We're closed for the next few days, everyone. Please come again next time."

Chapter 3634

While the staff spoke, a few men in security uniforms came over with cautious looks when they glared at Xynthia Zimmer and the others.

"We're here to take over the chain Budokans originally from Flutwell's business alliance.

"We couldn't inform you ahead of time because of time constraints...

"But don't worry. This is just a normal transfer of property rights. We won't affect your work."

Xynthia obviously did her homework. She seemed like an experienced woman as soon as she spoke.

"My name is Xynthia. Please tell your management about this so we can make a transfer."

Then, Xynthia's assistant behind her handed over official documents for the staff to read.

"You're taking over the chain Budokans?"

The staff seemed quite surprised, but she also knew what had happened the day before. She nodded before turning back inside without saying another word.

Soon, a dozen people in traditional clothing walked out with an elegant-looking woman.

The woman was none other than Jeff Bauer's seventeenth mistress, Audrey Lopez herself.

She was wearing a business suit with her hair tied up. Along with the exquisite makeup on her face, she looked extremely enchanting.

That said, she was clearly showing a bossy look when she looked down on Xynthia and the others.

"That's them, CEO Lopez. They said that they're taking over the chain Budokans."

"Hello. I'm Xynthia Zimmer from the Martial Hall. It's quite sudden, but we'll be taking care of this place from now on.

Xynthia handed over a business card. She certainly looked the part at that moment.

"And you are?"

Audrey was filled with disdain after seeing Xynthia's polite and harmless demeanor.

"You're here to take over?"

Audrey let out a cold chuckle, as if she did not see Xynthia handing out a card.

"Who gave you the right?"

Xynthia showed a cold look before she took a deep breath and retracted her hand.

"We bought off all the properties of Flutwell's business alliance through official sources.

"We're here today to take over.

"These are our documents."

Xynthia gestured to the assistant to produce the documents.

"Documents? What documents?"

Audrey slapped the stack of documents to the ground with a playful expression on her face.

"Who do you think you are? What right do you have to take over the properties of the Bauer family?"

"Are you people dumb or something?"

"Don't you know whose properties these are?!"

"Let me tell you something! All this previously belonged to Flutwell's business alliance. The chain Budokans, office buildings, and shopping malls included!"

"They're all under Young Master Bauer's name now!"

"Joseph Bauer signed the contract last night!"

"Young Master Bauer is the real owner here!"

"Do you think you can just take his properties with these stupid papers?"

"Have you ever thought of the consequences of doing such a thing?"

Xynthia's expression suddenly changed.

"There's no way!"

"You must be tricked!"

"Joseph's has been declared bankrupt! What's the point of him even signing a contract?!"

"We have official documents right here!

"I suggest you call Young Master Bauer now not to cause any unnecessary misunderstandings between us.

"After all, Young Master Bauer and my brother-in-law are good friends."

Chapter 3635

"Enough talk!"

Audrey Lopez instantly cut off Xynthia Zimmer with an annoyed look.

"There are no misunderstandings, nor are there any friends here!

"I don't need to call anyone!

"This is now Young Master Bauer's property!

"You people better get out of here right now! Stop affecting our business!

"If not, I'll tell Young Master Bauer to teach Harvey York a lesson he won't forget!

Audrey then waved her hand with a cold expression.

"Come! Get them out of here!"

A dozen security guards furiously rushed forward with firearms in hand.

It was Xynthia's first time seeing such a sight. After hesitating for a moment, she decided to comply for the time being.

"We're leaving!"

Xynthia resentfully went back to the Martial hall,

"Jeff Bauer bought every single property of Flutwell's business alliance?"

Harvey's eyes lit up after hearing Xynthia's explanation.

"There's no rush. Let me make a phone call."

Harvey then gave Ansel Torres a call.

Ansel froze. He immediately contacted the government before getting back to Harvey.

"Jeff got us this time, Sir York.

"Joseph owed him billions of dollars. He even has an IOU to prove it.

"While the government was seizing the properties of Flutwell's business alliance, he forced Joseph to sign a contract and bequeath him everything!

"I heard that Joseph also did it willingly.

"And because of the timing, the government didn't have enough time to seize the properties.

"We're basically giving him the properties on a silver platter..."

"I get it now.

Harvey cracked a smile.

"No wonder Young Master Bauer sent Arya Johnson to help us without showing up himself last night.

"He was doing business after all!"

"Sir York, Jeff knew you were doing all the work. You should be the one reaping the benefits in the first place!

"Instead, he robbed you of your spoils! How nasty can he get?!"

A hint of rage could be felt in Ansel's tone.

Harvey calmly smiled.

"It's fine. I wanted to share with him anyway.

"But since he wants to play dirty, I'll play along."

Soon after, Harvey hung up the call.

Kayden Balmer showed a horrible expression when he heard the conversation.

"What should we do now, Sir York?

"We won't just let that b*stard get away with this, right?

"You fought for all this!"

Xynthia seemed anxious even though she did not say a single word.

Harvey smiled and gestured to Xynthia to leave before snapping his fingers. Soon after, Rachel Hardy walked out.

When everyone was here, Harvey said with a smile, "Everything should've been over after what happened last night..."

"But since Young Master Bauer has a death wish, we'll have to oblige!

"There are a few things I'll have you do right now.

"Number one: spread word on the internet. Say that the two young masters of the Bauer family had been doing whatever it took to rise to power, even to the point of conspiring against Harold Bauer!

"Jeff getting ahold of Flutwell's business alliance's properties is proof of that!

"Number two: contact all the people involved, including the victims of the chain Budokans and their families, to sue Joseph for his crimes!"

Chapter 3636

"Tell everyone that Joseph Bauer used such heinous tactics to earn money because Jeff Bauer pulled the strings!

"Then tell them that to cover up the truth, Jeff abused his authority and sent his subordinates to kill one of Harold Bauer's men!

"Harold is a just man, trying to expose the entire thing to the public!

"Make up a few more versions of this story!

"Make it as exaggerated as you can...

"In any case, everyone needs to know that Jeff and Joseph are in the same boat!

"And Harold had been constantly targeted because of his righteousness!

"The Bauer family's infighting starts with Jeff...

"We'll give them utter chaos!"

Kroom!

While Rachel Hardy and Kayden Balmer were carrying out their missions outside, thunder broke out from the sky.

All of Flutwell was hot and humid. A storm was brewing...

In the evening.

Inside a private golf course on the outskirts of Flutwell.

The sun was shining brightly. The wind was blowing gently.

After the rain, it was the perfect time to relax while playing some golf.

Jeff was walking around with Audrey Lopez and his other mistresses at the moment.

Countless people were staring at the handsome and beautiful people...

But they instantly lowered their heads out of fear after looking at Jeff's fearsome look.

They were worried they would be slapped to death if they stared at the mistresses a couple more times.

Jeff completely ignored the bystanders. He was filled with admiration as he walked around.

"Not bad.

"I only kept quiet previously since Harvey was beneficial to me.

"I only wanted him to take out Harold and Joseph!

"And now that Joseph's completely crippled...

"Now that Harold's trusted subordinate is dead...

"They'll be destined to pit against each other!

"Harvey won't be able to do anything about it when I reap all the spoils!

"That is unless he wants to be attacked from all sides! He'll die without a doubt if that's the case!

"If not, he has no choice but to keep quiet!

Jeff showed an arrogant expression on his face.

"Do you understand now?

"A real man knows when to stand down.

"Sometimes showing your weakness to the enemies is the best move.

"That way, you'll reap the most benefits!"

After hearing Jeff tooting his own horn, his mistresses would not dare pop his bubble. They were showing admiration toward Jeff, as if he was Einstein reincarnated.

Audrey chuckled timidly.

"Don't worry, Young Master Bauer! I handled everything properly, just as you asked!

"I'll take good care of your properties!

"You own all of it in the first place! Even Harvey won't be able to take this away from you if he comes, let alone some random b*tch!

"Besides, we did everything legally! Nobody in Flutwell can do anything against us!

"That b*stard was also such a softie! He crippled Joseph all by himself, yet he still wouldn't deal the final blow! What right does he have to go against you anyway?"

"You're right about that!

Jeff laughed out loud.

"You grow up fast, Audrey. As long as you keep up the good work, I'll ensure you're treated well!"

Audrey sheepishly chuckled while covering her mouth.

"It's all thanks to your teaching, Young Master Bauer..." 2
