Chapter 3683

Harvey York showed an attentive look when he stared at Zoe Garcia's back.

"We can still talk about this if this isn't enough for you, Maiden Garcia!

"I'll give you as much as you want!

"If a hundred and fifty million isn't enough, I can even give you 1.5 billion!

"As long as you give me a chance, I'm willing to give you everything I have in Flutwell!"

Zoe staggered as soon as she heard those words. She was panicking when she ran away...

She knew that those words would make her a target for her people.

Even when everyone knew that Harvey intended to cause infighting, the top talents still showed weird stares when they glared at Zoe.

On the one hand, Harvey looking up to Zoe that much was the same as him belittling everyone else.

Even if they actually won the battle, Zoe's name would be known worldwide.

On the other hand, the price Harvey offered was just too high.

The others would definitely take the money without any hesitation.

They only wondered how overwhelmed Zoe's heart was at that moment.

"You shameless b*stard!"

Axel Garcia was an experienced man.

He could tell that the top talents, who were stuck together like glue, were starting to form their own opinions after hearing Harvey's words.

Zoe was forcefully isolated because of this.

After all, even Axel was utterly moved by the money that Harvey offered, let alone Zoe, who had never even seen the outside world.

"This is no good, Axel!

"We work for different people, but martial arts crosses all boundaries!

"So what if I admire Maiden Garcia? What does this have anything to do with you?

"Compared to a woman destined to become a master of India's martial arts, who else am I going to admire? A Demon Monk like you?

Harvey returned to his resting area with a playful expression on his face.

"Are you scared of your position being threatened when the young ones grow up to take your place?

"Oh, I'm sorry. There are only two of you left now. Of course, you'd feel vulnerable."

Harvey wasted no time going for the people's hearts again.

The top talents showed weird looks after hearing that statement.

"Your sharp tongue won't work here!

Axel knew that Harvey had malicious intent...

But there was no way to explain the situation. He would only make things worse by doing that!

"This is a battle of strength!

"When you people really lose the fight, I do want to see how you'll show off again!"

Axel quickly went back to his resting area while panting heavily.

The Indians' dominant attitude was completely gone after being toyed around by Harvey.

Rachel Hardy sat beside Harvey with a faint smile.

"You already won without even pulling a single muscle, Sir York!

"Cracks are already showing on them."

"All part of the plan," replied Harvey.

"Those people came all the way here to disrespect me. I can't just greet them with a warm smile. now, can I?"

Harvey squinted at Zoe, not far away from him, before showing a warm smile.

"Besides, we're all fighting for different sides. This is war, after all.

"Zoe's one of their top talents. Taking out one of them is the same as breaking one of their limbs. It's good that we managed to do just that by talking. Am I wrong?"

Chapter 3684

Rachel Hardy smiled without saying a word.

Harvey York was playing tricks in the face of his enemies. This was a lot different compared to underhanded tactics.

If Zoe Garcia were forced into limbo because of this, then that would be her problem.

She was the one who got herself into the situation anyway.

When fighters from both sides arrived, a member of the Far East Martial Arts Alliance stepped on the platform and announced the rules.

Since there were eighteen top talents who came from India, Longmen could also have eighteen. fighters in total.

That said, the participants would have to be the ones who joined the Longmen Summit.

Longmen's strongest fighters were all excluded because of this.

That said, the Indians came to fight Longmen anyway. This was only natural.

After assembling all fighters, three battles would be held every single day.

Whoever defeated the opponent inside the ring or forced them out would be considered victorious.

The winning side could choose to keep fighting or wait until the next day.

The losing side would be permanently eliminated. They would have no right to participate in the fight anymore.

Simply put, this was an endurance battle.

Even if one side could defeat their opponents consecutively, six whole days would be needed to defeat everyone on the other team.

The rules were made this way because the Indians wanted to figure out what Amber Levine and the others were capable of so they could devise a plan to deal with them.

That was why they suggested the idea to the Martial Arts Alliance.

The three Martial Arts Alliance were already quite biased. Under such circumstances, they would naturally agree to the suggestion.

After announcing the rules, the referee, who came in as the host, exclaimed, "Round one! Pick a fighter to go inside the ring!"

Harvey calmly glanced behind him.

Besides Amber and the others, Longmen also brought fourteen fighters for the cause.

However, they were all quite fearful when looking at the Indians.

Clearly, they were the provincial champions who had lost against the Indians before.

They were already traumatized by the fights from before.

Harvey could not help but heave a sigh.

Longmen seemed to be at a disadvantage; there were eighteen fighters, but in reality, only Harvey and the three young talents could actually fight.

On the other side, the Indians all seemed full of energy. After being provoked by Harvey, their unity was completely crushed...

But even so, their dominance was still unparalleled.

While Harvey was feeling disappointed, both sides picked out their first fighter.

"Longmen! Philip Steele!"

"India! Camilo Myers!"

Soon after, two young fighters walked out from both sides.

"Whoa! That Indian looks so strong! He seems impressive!"

"I heard that he's also half Northern European! He was the one who took down two of Longmen's champions before!"

"Sigh! His opponent looks like a wuss! What an innocent-looking young boy! Obviously, he's not match against him!"

"Right! He must've trained in martial arts from his mother's womb, but he doesn't have enough. experience in actual combat!"

Chapter 3685

"Longmen's about to lose this!"

"Harvey York was talking big before! Why doesn't he just fight the first battle himself?!"

"The first fight will decide the rest of the team's morale! He's probably not that confident in himself!"

Gossip could be heard throughout the place when Philip Steele and Camilo Myers walked to the center of the ring.

People were debating who would win the first fight...

The crowd was dead silent when the host declared the fight to commence.

Camilo showed a faint smile before he wore a pair of silk gloves.

He then calmly hooked his finger toward Philip..

A simple movement was enough to show Camilo's extreme confidence.

Bryce Kennedy and the others frowned when they saw the sight.

They could tell that Camilo was a formidable opponent.

"Let me introduce everyone..."

Axel Garcia stood up and smiled at the people around him.

"Camilo came from India's Celestial Temple. He had been training since he was seven! When he was seventeen, he was already a King of Arms!

"In the next five years, he had been training on his own to accumulate his strength steadily.

"Five years later, he broke through and created his own Silk Boxing technique!

"I'm not exaggerating!

"Camilo managed to carve his path by creating his very own form of martial arts!

"Many people here came from sacred martial arts training grounds and families of martial artists!

"You should know just how terrifying a man like this truly is!

"It wouldn't be embarrassing for you to lose this fight, Vice Master Kennedy!

"This is fate, after all!"

Axel showed a proud look on his face.

He knew that Camilo was an impressive man. This was why he wanted Camilo to go first.

His goal was to crush Philip completely without holding back so he could ruin Longmen's already-low morale.

The corner of Bryce's mouth twitched before he coldly scoffed.

"Enough talk already, Axel!

"You can't talk your way out of this!"

Axel coldly chuckled.

"No need to go easy on them, Camilo!"

Camilo nodded.

He furiously stomped the ground before a huge tile on the ring was split apart.

At the same time, he leaned down, steadily gathering his aura.

The people who did not know martial arts were all frozen by the sight.

Everyone believed that Camilo was the true expert here. He was the one with overwhelming power.

Many even planned to learn under the Indians if they were to open up Budokans in Flutwell.

Camilo's actions were terrifying, but Philip seemed indifferent when he saw the sight. It seemed like he was actually the one looking down on Camilo.

Camilo felt utterly enraged after seeing the sight.

He knew that Philip was a challenging opponent. That was why he did not hold back at all. He lunged forward and appeared right in front of Philip before throwing a punch.

Philip frowned before instinctively taking a step back, dodging Camilo's move while swinging his palm forward.

A resounding echo could be heard throughout the place.

Camilo did not move a single inch...

But Philip took a few steps back.

Chapter 3685

Philip frowned before instinctively taking a step back, dodging Camilo's move while swinging his palm forward.

A resounding echo could be heard throughout the place.

Camilo did not move a single inch...

But Philip took a few steps back.

Chapter 3686

Many people from Country H went speechless after seeing the sight.

They knew Philip Steele was one of the three young talents from Longmen's Eight Inner and Outer Halls.

He was one of the strongest people to participate in the fight...

And yet he was at a disadvantage after the very first move! Longmen also had high hopes for him!

The people just could not accept that fact.

Even Fisher Bennett and Damian Steele could not help but feel slightly anxious.

While sitting in the eastern resting area, Rachel Hardy frowned when she saw the sight.

"Looks like Camilo Myers is pretty impressive, Sir York.

"Silk Boxing looks a little intimidating too.

"Aren't you afraid of Philip losing?"

"It's pretty impressive for young people to invent their own martial arts!

"Camilo's definitely one of the best in India...

"But that doesn't matter.

"As long as I'm here, it doesn't matter if Philip and the others win or lose.

"Besides, I have nothing to worry. They're the ones fighting in the ring."

Rachel bitterly chuckled after hearing Harvey's words...

But after remembering that Harvey had always been this dominant, she did not say another word. "Right..."

Rachel suddenly recalled something.

"After we went against the Golden Palace in the Martial Hall, I was waiting for them to come and ask for a statement..."

"Maybe even send people to tear down the whole place."

"After all, they wouldn't allow their reputation to be tarnished."

"That said, not a single thing happened. That's a little odd."

"I even sent people out to investigate the matter, but it seemed like the Golden Palace didn't know about the incident at all."

"This isn't like Koen Bierstadt, nor does this fit with the Golden Palace!"

"We should be wary about this..."

Harvey froze.

"The Golden Palace is a sacred martial arts training ground. Why would they pay Longmen this much respect?"

"They know that we're at war. Maybe that's why they didn't want to do anything rash to discredit themselves..."

Rachel shook her head. She did not understand anything that had transpired.

After pondering the situation for a moment, Harvey put the thought in the back of his mind for the time being.

If the Golden Palace were willing to bury the hatchet, he would be completely fine with it.

Nobody could actually out-match him anyway. It did not matter to him.

"Forget about it. Let's watch the spectacle for now."

Harvey squinted at the ring.

Camilo and Philip had already exchanged a dozen moves by then.

The two were fighting at the center of the ring...

But Philip was forced to the edge in just a short while. It seemed like he was about to fall off at any moment.

The people from Country H showed horrible expressions as they witnessed the sight.

"What is this joke?! Why would you even fight if you're this bad?!"

"Doesn't this kid know the importance of the first fight?!"

"Why would he just embarrass himself like this?!"

"Is he trying to go easy on the opponent or something?!"

The Indians were showing playful looks on their faces.

"I thought Longmen's top talents were supposed to be impressive!"

"They don't seem capable at all!"

"Go harder, Young Master Myers! Slap him off the ring already! Don't go easy on him!"

Chapter 3687

Camilo Myers moved faster after being cheered on. He relentlessly threw his punch without fail.

The people from Country H were frantically twitching their eyes after seeing the sight. They were extremely anxious when they saw Philip Steele being slowly forced back.

Bryce Kennedy could not help but stand to watch whatever was happening inside the ring. He was afraid that this would be their very first loss...

Rachel Hardy looked at Harvey York and said, "Sir York, the fight's about to finish..."

"What's going to happen next?"

Harvey squinted at Philip before he cracked a faint smile.

"Fighting spirit lies in the very first move..."

"Silk Boxing is quite something. Every single punch is faster and stronger than the previous one.

"There's no way to counter it once it's started.

"That's why the simplest way to deal with it is to wait until an opportunity shows itself.

"If Philip can see through this, Camilo will surely lose!"

On the ring, Camilo threw his final consecutive punch.

Right as he was about to dish out a different move with a wretched smile on his face...

Philip instantly lunged forward before swinging his palm.

Slap!

Camilo, who had been acting extremely arrogant, was spinning in the air before he slammed into the ring.

Philip clapped his hands and walked out of the ring without even bothering to check for Camilo's vitals.

"Huh?"

"What happened here?!"

The crowd was completely shocked.

Camilo obviously had the advantage! How did he get sent flying that easily?!

Bryce and the others looked at each other.

They did not know what to say when they saw Philip walk out of the ring with his arms crossed.

Axel Garcia coldly chuckled.

"How naive! Doesn't he know that walking out of the ring counts as a loss if his opponent is still up?"

"What a show-off..."

"I'll slap the crap out of every single one of you if you keep acting like this!"

The host quickly ran to the ring.

He put his finger in front of Camilo's nostril before he changed his expression.

"Camilo is out! Philip wins!"

Axel, who was showing a condescending expression, instantly darkened his face.

The top talent who fought fiercely in the ring passed out after taking a single slap?!

Nobody could accept such a thing.

The crowd was stunned.

Nobody expected that Philip was actually this terrifying.

The top Indian talents were showing horrible looks on their faces. Their domineering aura was crushed in an instant.

Philip had been dodging Camilo's attacks because he most likely saw through his weaknesses. He was only waiting for the right moment to strike.

Safe to say that someone like Philip would at least be on par with Zoe Garcia and the other two top Indian talents.

The others would only be giving out free wins at this point.

Axel took a deep breath to calm himself down.

After all, it was his plan to gauge Philip and the others' strength using the weaker top talents.

Chapter 3688

Rachel Hardy felt a little sluggish when she saw the sight happen in the ring.

"If I didn't know that the kid only stayed with you for a week...

"I would've thought that you were the one who taught him that," said Rachel with admiration showing on her face.

"You say that like I only know how to slap people around.

Harvey York let out a chuckle.

"Philip Steele was highly confident in his strength.

"He also knows that this is an important fight for us.

"Not only did he have to win, but he also had to win with ease.

"He wasn't half-bad. 1

"Unless the Indians send out Danny Burton and the others, nobody else would be able to go against Philip.

Harvey could not see the future, but as the Chief Instructor of the generation, he could gauge how strong everyone was with just a single gaze.

There was no need to watch the entire process for him to know that the Indians had almost no chance of winning the first fight.

It was not because Camilo Myers was bad. Philip was just way beyond his league.

Harvey waved at Zoe Garcia while he was speaking before he made a gesture that he would pay as much money as needed to get her to change sides.

After seeing the sight, Zoe almost broke a tooth, gritting her teeth.

She was utterly confused as she glared at Harvey.

She had no idea if Harvey was just trying to provoke her. She was still struggling to make a decision in her heart.

Danny saw the two being lovey-dovey and was boiling with anger. Clearly, he was in love with Zoe for quite some time. He immediately stood in between the two, so they would not be able to make eye contact.

At the same time, he even scolded Zoe relentlessly, making her feel extremely horrible.

Rachel could not help but be impressed after seeing the sight.

"Your move was much more exciting than I thought, Sir York.

"Danny obviously likes Zoe, but he hasn't shown that for the longest time.

"He couldn't help scolding Zoe after seeing you two exchanging looks like that.

"He doesn't know that girls this age are pretty rebellious.

"Zoe might just be leaning toward you after Danny's good scolding."

Harvey let out a chuckle.

"I shouldn't be guessing what she's thinking is what you're saying?"

Rachel smiled.

"More or less. At the end of the day, this was all a part of your master plan.

"Even I'd be moved by all that money, let alone Zoe."

Rachel burst out laughing.

Harvey showed a faint smile. He knew that Rachel was joking, but this was also a hint from her.

If all Harvey did was buy people off with heaps of cash, it would be bad to keep them under control if someone else were to treat them better.

A light-hearted joke made Harvey understand just how good of a help Rachel was.

Right as Harvey was thinking of ways to treat his subordinates better, the workers had already cleaned up the ring.

The host then announced the second fight to start.

"India! Kenna Park!"

"Longmen! Amber Levine!"

Amber and an Indian woman wearing a yoga outfit walked to the ring.

The woman was quite beautiful. Her facial features were extremely exquisite. Her figure wrapped in her clothing was enchanting as well, but she lacked a certain aura compared to Amber.

Chapter 3689

Simply put, Amber Levine's heavenly aura was seeping out even when she was only standing still. People would mistake her for an actual fairy in this case.

Kenna Park was a beautiful and confident woman, but she was missing a certain aura. Compared to Amber, she was just an ugly duckling at that moment.

A cold expression could be seen on Kenna's face.

She squinted at Amber before she said, "You better admit defeat right now, kid."

"I'm a master of the Thousand Hands. I specialize in hidden weapons!

"I wouldn't be able to control my own power!

"If I kill you by accident, you better not haunt me after."

Kenna showed a playful look on her face.

Naturally, the Indians had no intention of going easy after seeing Camilo Myers' loss.

Kenna was planning to go all out. It would not matter to her even if someone were to die from that.

After hearing her words, the rest of the Indians regained their confidence.

After all, they knew exactly how terrifying Kenna's Thousand Hands were.

It was said that she managed to hit dozens of targets in just a single move. She was considered to be invincible.

Many people were shocked when they heard those words.

Clearly, everyone must have heard of such a move before this.

Only the sacred martial arts training ground, the Council of Myth's Royal Flush technique could be considered on par with that move.

The people could not help but be impressed by such an impressive feat from Kenna!

'As expected from India's top talents!'

Bryce Kennedy and the others did not believe that Kenna had such a terrifying move...

But after seeing her playful expression, they could not help but feel terrified.

Were the Indians about to win this fight?

Rachel Hardy froze.

"This woman knows the Thousand Hands?"

"Legends say this is a secret from India's Thousand Temple. They wouldn't teach the move to anyone besides their core disciples."

"She learned such an impressive move at such a young age?"

"It doesn't matter. Don't forget; Amber was brought up by the Dark Hall."

In Harvey's eyes, even if Kenna was impressive, Amber was not just for show either.

After all, the Dark Hall specialized in assassinations and hidden weapons.

As the Dark Hall's top talent, why would Amber even be scared of her opponent?

As expected, Amber was not scared at all. She curiously looked at Kenna before she asked nicely, "Since you also use hidden weapons, why don't we have a gentlemen's agreement? We'll only use hidden weapons to fight. How does that sound?"

Kenna chuckled coldly. She was waiting for those exact words.

"Fine! Whoever uses anything else will be counted as a loss!"

"The host will be our witness!"

The host looked at the juries before they nodded back in agreement.

"Since we have a deal between you two, then we'll abide by those rules! Begin!"

Kenna's emotions instantly dissipated.

She furiously waved her hand. A silver needle let out a loud bang, revealing countless more flying right toward Amber.

Chapter 3690

The needles completely swarmed Amber Levine like a puddle of blood.

At the same time, a shriek could be heard from the swarming needles.

Both the speed and the sound were extremely terrifying.

The crowd was utterly shocked when they saw the sight.

No wonder Kenna Park was so confident. The move alone was completely on another level!

That said, Amber was still quietly observing the needles flying toward her.

Kenna froze for a moment before she coldly chuckled.

"Did you realize how inferior you are compared to me? Is that why you're just going to sit there and die?"

"Smart move! You'll die a clean death as long as you don't resist!"

Damian Steele was panicking as well.

"Do something, Amber! Dodge the attack if you can!" he exclaimed instinctively.

Rachel Hardy frowned.

"What's Amber trying to do, Sir York? She'll lose if she gets hit by those needles!"

"Doesn't she know how to counter that move?"

Harvey frowned. He also could not fathom what Amber was doing.

Right when the crowd was getting anxious...

Amber furiously waved her hand!

Needles could be seen flying out!

Clink clink clink!

The needles collided midair with the ones Kenna threw!

Countless needles instantly fell to the ground.

The move was completely flawless! Everyone was shocked by Amber's skill, but everything also seemed quite familiar...

"The Thousand Hands?"

Kenna's expression changed in an instant.

"How do you know that move?!" she asked coldly.

The crowd could not believe what had just happened.

Most of the spectators here generally had some martial arts knowledge.

The inexperienced ones would just watch the spectacle, while the experienced ones would analyze the fights.

Everyone soon realized that Amber's move was none other than Kenna's Thousand Hands..

'Did Amber also study under the Thousand Temple before?'

'How is that even possible?'

Axel Garcia, one of the Demon Monks, stood up furiously.

"Impossible! This is impossible!" he exclaimed.

"The Thousand Temple would never bring in disciples with lowly statuses! There's definitely no chance that something like that can even get in!"

"She was never a disciple..." replied Kenna with a horrible expression, as if she had just realized something.

"She's learning my move on the spot!"

"She's fighting back with the same move!"

The crowd was shocked.

Amber managed to learn Kenna's move in just a single instant!

Strength and talent like this would be considered blasphemous!

And yet, there was still something more shocking.

After the needles collided, there was one more that flew out.

A streak of blood could be seen where the needle flew past Kenna's face.

The crowd became extremely sluggish.

Even Kenna did not expect Amber could throw one more needle than her.

It may seem like just a needle, but she would need at least a few months even to have this kind of progress! 2

Chapter 3691

Kenna Park was on the verge of coughing out blood. She wanted to cry so badly at this moment.

Since she was a child, she had always treated herself as an unprecedented genius of hidden weapons the world had never seen before. She truly believed that her skills were unparalleled.

But after meeting Amber Levine, she knew what it meant to make a fool out of herself in front of a true expert.

Amber did not even need to pull out her best moves. All she did was copy her opponent to beat Kenna. Kenna was utterly embarrassed by the fight.

Axel Garcia, who was being extremely confident, crushed the teacup in his hand to dust with horrible expression on his face

"I could've pierced your head with that needle."

Amber showed a warm smile before walking out of the ring.

Kenna's face had lost all color

She knew that Amber was not merely joking.

If Amber wanted to, she could have killed Kenna with ease.

She could not afford to be stubborn when the opponent spared her life.

Besides, there was no point in playing other tricks when so many experienced martial artists were watching.

Kenna and the Thousand Temple would be utterly embarrassed if she continued fighting.

She let out a long sigh before she exclaimed, "I lost!"

Then, she walked out of the ring with a horrible expression.

Axel slapped her in the face soon after

The Indians felt extremely powerless at that moment.

It was good that they had some time to rest at noon according to the rules.

Axel gave a gesture, moving his thumb across his throat while staring at Harvey York from afar before he took the others to the resting room.

Harvey did not mind the gesture at all. He even smiled when he took everyone out for lunch before they came back at three o'clock in the afternoon.

As soon as they returned, they saw many more people seated in the VIP seats.

Not just Colton Torres, Nelson Torres, and Ansel Torres, but there were also many prominent- looking figures from India.

At the same time, two strange men in yellow robes were there.

Harvey squinted. After thinking for a moment, he soon realized that the two were from the Golden Palace.

Naturally, the higher-ups were already informed about the fights before. Everyone showed up to watch the show soon after.

Harvey did not greet Colton and the others. Instead, he looked in the other direction and saw a familiar face.

It was Princess Wright, Sienna Wright herself.

Harvey was surprised. He was curious to know if Sienna came on behalf of the Wright family or if this was just a coincidence.

He did not talk to Sienna either; after showing a light nod, he returned to his resting area.

When it was almost time for another fight, the host walked on stage and said, "Please send both. fighters to the ring."

Axel made a gesture before a young man covered in gold paint walked out.

The man was Niko Burton!

He was a top talent who came from India's Iron Temple!

At such a young age, he had already mastered the Golden Shield and the Iron skin, the temple's secret technique!

His body was built like a tank. He was an extremely terrifying man!

Simply put, ordinary people would not be able to break through his defenses even though he might not be able to win fights.

After losing two fights in a row, the Indians decided to take the rest of the fights slowly and steadily

Chapter 3692

After seeing Niko Burton's back, Axel Garcia showed a stern look on his face.

"India's reputation is in your hands now, Niko! Give it all you've got! We cannot afford to lose this!"

"Don't worry, Master Garcia! I will not dishonor our name!" replied Niko with a cold tone.

Then, he walked to the center of the ring before coldly glaring at Harvey York and the others.

"I'll handle this one!"

Even before Harvey could say anything, Albus Robbins showed a faint smile before he took off his shirt, revealing his bronze skin as he stepped into the ring.

He then squinted at Niko.

"Since you're also a brute-force learner..."

"I won't go too hard on you.

"I'll let you throw three punches at me for free! If I even take a step back, you win!"

'What the f*ck?!

The host was flabbergasted.

What's wrong with this kid?!

"Why would you start running your mouth even before I explain the rules?!

"You're letting your opponent throw three punches at you?"

"How much of a show-off can you be?!"

Rachel Hardy and the others from Longmen froze. They showed weird stares on their faces when they looked at Albus.

Was the kid really that confident in his strength? Or was he just pretending?

Bryce Kennedy coughed before he said, "Enough of this, Albus! You should just properly fight when you're in the ring!"

"You're disrespecting the Indians for saying things like this!"

Axel froze before he burst out laughing.

"Nonsense, Vice Master Kennedy!"

"Since this young man here is that confident, surely we can't just decline his offer!"

"Don't hold back, Niko! Go all out!"

"If you can't move him after three punches, we'll take the loss!"

"You're playing with fire, kid!"

Niko squinted at Albus.

He showed a disdainful look when he saw Albus doing his Iron Step.

The move was one of the main fundamentals of martial arts, but that was just about it.

Niko thought that Albus had some terrifying move that he learned.

It seemed to him like Albus had turned into an idiot after training his muscles too hard.

"Since Master Garcia said so, I'll play with you then!"

"I'll use fifty percent of my strength this time! You better hope you can take it!"

Niko stepped forward and took a deep breath before throwing a punch right at Albus' chest.

Bam!

A loud sound echoed while the impact of the punch reverberated throughout the place.

The tiles around Albus formed cracks resembling spider webs.

Niko was quite satisfied by the sight.

"You were still playing with dirt when I was training in the Iron Temple!

"You're a little too young to be playing with me!

"Alright! Don't hold it in anymore! Just spit the blood out of your mouth already!

"You lost!"

Albus remained as still as a rock.

In reality, he did not even so much as let out a breath when he curiously looked at Niko.

"You really don't have to hold back, my friend.

"I can take it. Come at me."

Niko froze after feeling extremely prideful. His expression changed immediately after.

He thought Albus was ready to give up after he threw such a strong punch...

But he did not expect that he would still stand there as if nothing had even happened.

Chapter 3693

"What? Did nothing happen to the kid?"

"He can speak as usual! That punch clearly didn't do anything!"

"Look at the replay!"

"The kid didn't even sway one bit, let alone take a step back!"

"People who didn't know might just think that the Indian was tickling him or something!"

"If that were actually the case, the Indian must be pretty useless then!"

"He showed off this hard, yet this is all he can do?!"

"How is he not embarrassed?! He's so weak!"

The crowd was gossiping out a storm. They were constantly throwing insults at Niko Burton without pause

Niko's expression instantly worsened.

He took a deep breath without saying a single word before throwing another punch at Albus Robbins.

At this moment, he was using all of his might.

He knew that the Indians could not afford to be embarrassed again.

Bam!

Along with the loud sound, Niko's punch came in contact with Albus' chest.

But before he could show a prideful look on his face, his body shuddered before he was sent flying away. Soon after, he slammed right outside of the ring.

"Guh!"

Niko's face had completely lost all color before he coughed out blood.

Then, he struggled to raise his hand before he said, "You. You snuck up on me... That's unfair."

Albus showed an innocent look after hearing Niko's accusations.

He did not do anything. Niko was just sent flying by his own impact!

The Indians were instantly shocked after seeing the sight.

"He lost?!"

Albus did not even lift a finger for Niko to be sent flying.

What was the point of even fighting anymore?!

The host showed an odd look on his face for a long while

"The two had a deal before, but Niko flew out of the ring and lost all strength to compete

"The judges have decided! Albus wins!"

The Longmen higher-ups were all delighted when they heard the announcement.

No matter the case, this was a good start.

After winning three rounds in a row, Longmen's reputation was more or less reclaimed.

The citizens of Country H were on the verge of tears.

Not only did Longmen win all of their matches, but they also regained the people's trust in their top talents.

Harvey York smiled at Axel Garcia and the others before leaving with the three young talents without joining in with the crowd.

"B*stards!

"I gave you a fair chance to fight, yet you're here disrespecting us?!"

Axel's face instantly darkened after seeing Harvey and the others leave.

Then, he showed a wretched look before glaring at Danny Burton and the others behind him coldly.

"We cannot lose again tomorrow!

"Since those people are this ignorant, there's no need for us to go easy on them either!

"Stick to the plan!"

That night, people were all gathered inside the Martial Hall.

Layne Naiswell and the others were fully prepared for the occasion so that everyone could enjoy the joy of victory.

Amber Levine and the others were top talents, but they were extremely modest. Since their statuses were quite immense in their specific organizations, they had never attended such a gathering in their entire lives.

They were not used to it before but gradually eased into it.

Chapter 3694

Longmen also showed their appreciation.

Bryce Kennedy, who was in charge of daily necessities, sent over a lot of elixirs along with other expensive gifts.

On the one hand, this was a reward for today's battle. On the other hand, he wished for Harvey, York and the other young talents to continue crushing the Indians as usual.

After all, the Indians were already trampling all over them in the first place.

Not only did the higher-ups from Longmen feel extremely relieved after the fights, Longmen's reputation had also mostly been reclaimed.

They even found many ghostwriters to publicize what happened today.

After a good meal, Harvey brought Amber Levine and the others to the backyard garden.

While they were fighting in the ring, George Zabel, Kayden Balmer, and the others were not slacking off either

They used all their sources and a lot of money to find information about Danny Burton and the others.

Harvey brought over documents of the top Indian talents and got Amber and the others to read. them.

After all, those three were the most troublesome ones.

It would be extremely challenging to win the battle if they did not crush them.

During the next four days, Amber and the others fought again.

Even without Harvey doing anything, the top Indian talents were all beaten to a pulp.

Along with the first three matches, the Indians had lost fifteen consecutive matches. Only three people were left to fight.

That said, none of the three top talents even fought yet.

And on Longmen's side, Harvey and the others did not even need to take action. They were only watching Amber and the others the entire time.

The Longmen higher-ups were exhilarated. The ghostwriters arranged in advance were fully prepared to upload clips of the matches everywhere online.

Safe to say that Longmen was finally getting a good reception after the embarrassment they had to deal with.

The martial arts world of Country H was in an uproar. They were highly impressed by Amber and the others' talent and strength.

People also considered the three to be Longmen's pride.

While everyone was excited about what was to come, Axel requested to postpone the fight for two days after having his pride trampled on repeatedly. He wanted the others to get some rest. before they fought again.

This was not a reasonable request, but the Europe, Far East, and South Sea Martial Arts Alliance felt it was completely fine. Even though people from Country H strongly opposed the idea, they had no choice but to go along with it.

Since Longmen could not do anything else about it, they decided to hire another wave of ghostwriters to make Amber and the others more well-known.

In just three days, the three became more popular than ever.

The third day seemed like the calm before the storm. At this moment, Harvey got a phone call. Then, he called a cab before coming to the Asan Hotel, located in the center of Flutwell.

It was almost evening then. The Indian-style hotel was fully booked.

A woman in a gown had been waiting for a while.

She was an exotic beauty. Not only was the makeup on her face extremely exquisite, but her teeth were also as white as ivory.

The exposed slender legs were also pulling people's heartstrings. Any man would drool over such a sight.

The gown was perfectly fitted to such a beauty. She seemed utterly flawless.

After getting out of the cab, Harvey smiled when he saw the enchanting beauty.

"What a stunning beauty! No wonder the kings of Country H used to head west all the time!

"I'd go and visit the Maiden too, if I had the chance."

"That said, if you're planning to meet me at such a crucial time when it's already this late.

"Then, this must be a honey trap, right?"

Chapter 3695

"I wouldn't mind sacrificing for my country if you're my target."

Zoe Garcia showed a faint smile before gesturing, leading Harvey York into the box that had been prepared ahead of time.

Harvey sat down and picked up a teacup before returning the smile.

"I'm a good man, Maiden Garcia. That's a little disrespectful, don't you think?"

"The honey trap won't work."

"Whether it'll work or not depends on your attitude," replied Zoe.

"My attitude?"

Harvey showed a playful look

"So, it won't be easy for me to have a meal here?"

This is obviously a trap for me...

"So, what do you want from me exactly?"

"There's no need to hold anything back. Why don't you tell me everything instead?"

Zoe heaved a sigh with a helpless expression on her face.

"Don't you realize why I brought you here?"

"You set me up on the very first day, breaking me off from the other Indians. They've been doubting and isolating me since then!

"And now, after fifteen straight losses, all of them are directing their anger toward me!

"They're all saying I ruined India, and you already bought me off!

"I know they're all just using me to vent. The same goes for Master Garcia..

"But this isn't even my fault in the first place!

Then, Zoe held Harvey's hand with tears beading around her eyes.

"Aren't you supposed to take responsibility for this?!

"Aren't you supposed to take care of me?!"

Harvey showed a faint smile.

"I see. You're telling me that a few words were enough to cause you this much distress?

"We work for different people, so I don't think I can give you a statement about this.

"Of course, I can still think of a way to help for the sake of the free meal you got me, Maiden Garcia.

"If

you get away from India and join Country H along with the Martial Hall, everything I said the other day will still be in effect!

"One billion and five hundred million dollars worth of annual salaries and forty percent shares. You can't get this treatment even if you fight for eight different lifetimes in India!

"What do you say?"

Zoe let out another long sigh.

"I really do want to join you. I trust that you never go back on your word.

Zoe showed a tender expression on her face.

"That said, you should know I can't just do whatever I want!

"I can join you without any hesitation. The Indians can come for me however they want! You're the man who killed off Cody Garcia! It'll be easy for you to protect a weak woman like me.

"But my family still lives in India.

"If I work under you, the Indians will surely eliminate them.

"I can't afford to be that selfish. I can only thank you for your generosity!"

Zoe showed a helpless look on her face. She did seem like she felt bad for not being able to join Harvey.

Harvey calmly smiled.

"If that were the case, then what's the purpose of this meal?"

Chapter 3696

"I'll get to that."

Zoe Garcia showed a warm smile before bringing a golden box from under the table and pushing it toward Harvey York.

Her jacket slipped away from her, revealing her tender-looking shoulders while pushing the box.

Then, she leaned over, as if she did not realize anything that was happening.

"Sir York, India's royal family wishes you to join our ranks!" said Zoe in a soft tone.

"The royal family will make you a Brahmin if you do!

"The future generations of your family will have the same treatment!"

Harvey squinted after hearing those words.

These people are quite something...

The Indians knew that Harvey was not short of money. That was why they were using the title as a bargaining chip.

Zoe, Axel Garcia, Cody Garcia, and Frankie Garcia were only Kshatriyas..

And yet they offered Harvey a higher position than all of them.

Simply put, if Harvey agreed to the deal, he could make anyone in India kneel!

He would even be on par with the prince of India. The future generations of his family would be able to be married into the royal family!

Ordinary people would not be able to resist such a title...

Typically speaking, if one were not born with the title, it would be impossible for them to earn it their entire lives.

At this point, accepting the Indians' offer was no different than being reborn.

"Other than that, to make sure that you live the rest of your life without worry, we'll also give your ten billion dollars worth of settlement fees.

"In addition, we'll have three hundred acres worth of land in the country's prime area under your name

"The Three Great Temples of India: the Celestial Temple, the Thousand Temple, and the Iron Temple will hire you as their Dharma Elder!

"Your status will surpass the Three Demon Monks soon enough!"

Zoe leaned forward, revealing her cleavage as she spoke in a tender and loving tone. "You'll be able to do whatever you want in India..."

"Fame, status, riches, women. Anything you want!"

"Just like you said, I can't even make fifteen million dollars my entire life in India!"

"But you can't have a title like this in Country H either..."

Then, Zoe slowly opened the box before a golden badge labeled "Brahmin" was shown inside.

She slowly caressed the badge with a fascinated expression on her face.

If

you just nod, you can be a new Brahmin of India!"

"You even brought this over?"

Harvey squinted at the badge

He did not reject the offer outright. He merely looked at Zoe curiously.

"I'm curious. What's the point of offering all this to me?"

"You didn't just pay such a huge price to have me on your side, right?"

"Why don't you tell me exactly what you want?"

"I'm interested in your offer, but I won't be doing any killing."

Zoe showed a faint smile before she touched the back of Harvey's palm

"You underestimate yourself, Sir York!"

"You should be more confident in yourself!

"For us, talents like you are the greatest wealth we can have..."

Chapter 3697

"Your strength and abilities are definitely worthy of those rewards!"

Zoe Garcia showed a sweet smile.

"Of course, to show that you're willing to become one of us, I'll need a little proof from

"After all, all 1.3 billion people in India are dying to be Brahmins.

you

"Since India's willing to sacrifice so much for you, you should at least make them understand that you're worth this much, right?

"If not, how are you going to please the crowd?

"Proof?"

Harvey York showed a faint smile

"Don't tell me it's about tomorrow's fight

"Smart man, Sir York. You got me.

Zoe smiled.

"Master Garcia said that if Amber Levine and the others lose their fights tomorrow.

"We'll give you the money and the badge on the spot!

"Your other rewards will be prepared immediately after

"At the same time, we'll prepare a private jet for you to travel to our mighty country!

"If you want to bring your friends and family along, we can arrange that as well!

"We'll ensure that you live comfortably for the rest of your life!

"If you don't want people to know about this, we'll also keep quiet!

"Everyone will only think of Longmen and Country H as inferior!

"They won't know about your achievements if that's what you wish for!"

Zoe's cleavage was getting closer and closer to Harvey at this moment.

"Sir York, it'll be easy for you to do whatever you want to Amber and the others since they trust you fully

"As long as you nod, I'll be yours for the night!"

"Are you only asking me to deal with Amber and the others?" asked Harvey curiously.

"You must be forgetting something

"I can deal with them all I want, but I haven't been inside the ring either!

"I can take out every single one of your top talents myself after reaping your benefits."

"You're joking."

Zoe cracked a smile as she stared at Harvey, full of admiration.

"As long as you take out those three, you'll be one of us.

"Why even fight us at that point?

"You won't get anything out of it anyway.

"Of course, if you're going to do just that, we'll blame ourselves for being unlucky.

"But based on my observation, I know you're not that narrow-minded!

"After all, ten billion dollars and the title of Brahmin are the most important things, are they not?"

Zoe showed a tender look, as if she completely trusted Harvey.

It was as if she would give up her body as long as Harvey agreed to the deal.

Harvey showed a faint smile without giving an answer

He knew full well that those people would not just trust him, considering their despicable attitude.

The so-called meeting was also just a setup.

After squinting at the enchanting woman, Harvey's eyes lit up before he showed a faint smile.

"Since you're being this generous, I'll accept your offer!

"I'll put Amber and the others out of commission tomorrow!

"But first, let me have what I want

Harvey quickly held onto Zoe's hand before he caressed it.

"You wouldn't mind that, would you?"

Chapter 3698

Zoe Garcia froze.

Harvey York's words startled her In her mind, Harvey would have firmly rejected the offer.

She quickly regained her smile before quietly replying, "Of course!

"That said, I'm still not ready yet. Why don't we get some time after tomorrow, Sir York?"

Harvey seemed a little annoyed after hearing Zoe's words.

"Are you going back on your word now?" asked Harvey coldly after taking a deep breath.

"You're making me work without me getting anything in return?"

"Of course, I need something good first before getting to work!"

"If you don't want to do it right now, we can do this another way!"

"Here's my card. Give me my money first!"

"You don't have to worry about me running away either!"

"After all, I'm more interested in you!"

"I'm craving for your body already!"

Harvey pulled out his bank card before slipping it into Zoe's hand.

Zoe's smile instantly froze. Everything that Harvey did had completely caught her off guard.

In her mind, Harvey would decline the offer entirely, maybe even be utterly enraged.

But instead, the man in front of him was greedy and perverted.

"It's... a little late for that."

"It'll also be hard for us to move that much money under such short notice."

Zoe forced a smile on her face.

"But don't worry! As long as you do as you're told, we'll get you the money immediately after!"

"You won't get a single dime less!"

Harvey's smile disappeared from his face.

"Do you think I'm a three-year-old child or something?"

"If mighty India is planning to give me the title of Brahmin, then you're obviously trying to get me to your side.

"And yet you're not willing to spend the night with me..."

"Nor are you going to transfer me the money!"

"Do you think you can just reap the benefits without paying the price?"

"You're not planning to sell me out after I do your job for you, right?"

Zoe's eyes twitched before she forced her smile harder

"What are you saying, Sir York? We're trustworthy people

"Trustworthy?"

Harvey smirked

"If that were the case, you wouldn't have prepared something like this in the first place"
Harvey reached out and pulled the brooch off Zoe's gown before lightly pinching it

Electronics fell out of the brooch after it was snapped in half. It was a pinhole camera

After turning the electronics to dust, Harvey casually took Zoe's phone from the table and snapped it in half

"You're pulling all these tricks in front of me

"But you're only planning to frame me, aren't you?"

"You'd still upload the conversation online whether I accept your offer or not

"All you need to do is just cut up the footage and do some voice-overs before I turn into the most hated man in all of Country

"You people are really sly!

"Not only are you trying to make me lose the battle, but you also want my reputation to be ruined for years to come

Harvey quickly pulled off a few elegantly disguised cameras around Zoe's body

Zoe was showing a horrible look on her face when the final camera was pulled off

Chapter 3699

"Alright. That's enough for today, Maiden Garcia.

"Go back and tell Axel Garcia something for me

"Schemes don't work like this. If he wants to make empty promises, at least show the real stuff first "People aren't stupid nowadays.

"I have had no interest in your offer since the beginning, but I am interested in you.

Harvey York held Zoe Garcia's hand quietly before taking back his card with a profound smile

"Maiden Garcia, some of the things you're promising me are just too good to be true. Those things are simply out of reach.

"But not the Martial Hall

"We'll still welcome you with open arms when you're ready!

"I don't go back on my word.

Then, Harvey chuckled before walking away.

Zoe's mouth twitched when she was utterly enraged. She quietly put her hand back in her bag Soon after

A card slipped out without a sound.

Right when Harvey retrieved his card, he snuck another into Zoe's hand.

Zoe glanced at the Black Card in the corner of her eye with a hesitant look.

After completely ignoring Zoe's struggle to make a decision, Harvey left the Asan Hotel. He gave Fisher Bennett a call to report his meeting with her to prevent anyone from making a big fuss about this

Safe to say that Harvey had no interest in anything the Indians were offering.

If he did, Axel would already have him by the throat.

Not only would Harvey not get anything in the end, but his reputation would also be completely ruined for good.

After what happened that night, Harvey was a bit more cautious toward the Indians' intelligence-gathering skills.

The offers Harvey had gotten were all specifically tailored to him.

This meant they had sources within Country H to gather such details.

Without a second thought, Harvey sent George Zabel a text so he could look into the situation.

He then texted Queenie York in Hong Kong and Las Vegas to go to India with Yoana Mendoza.

He only wanted to provoke Axel using Zoe so the infighting could continue a little while longer. But since Axel played dirty, Harvey would not mind winning Zoe over to infuriate him.

When Harvey was done arranging things, he received another call.

Layne Naiswell was the one who called. Her anxious tone could be heard as soon as Harvey picked up.

“This is bad! Something happened to Amber and the others!”

Harvey's eyes twitched.

“What happened?” asked Harvey instinctively

“I’m not sure! They passed out while they were having their dinners!

Layne’s voice was extremely shaky at this moment.

“I asked Mr. Rudolph to bring his team as soon as possible, but even they couldn’t figure out what happened

“Mr Rudolph said that they’re in a deep sleep!

“Nothing can wake them up!”

Layne was showing a horrible expression.

This was the most crucial moment of the battle between Longmen and the Indians.

Longmen only needed three more wins to chase the Indians away.

But Amber and the others were in trouble all of a sudden.

This meant that they were most likely unable to fight.

If that were the case, the Indians would have a chance to make a comeback.

After all, nobody knew just how strong the three top talents were since they had never shown their strengths before

Chapter 3700

Harvey York frowned. He could tell that this was the Indians doing without even doing any investigation

Safe to say that they were extremely scheming, carrying out two underhanded tactics simultaneously

That said, Harvey knew Axel Garcia would not dare kill off Amber Levine and the others to prevent the people of Country H from cursing him. After all, this would be too obvious.

That was why Harvey was not that worried

"Did anyone suspicious go to the Martial Hall today asked Harvey after giving a thought about the situation

"Not really, but those troublemakers from the Golden Palace did.

"Though, they weren't here to cause trouble. They came to apologize to Amber and the others

"The mean woman even groveled right in front of the three

"The Golden Palace"

Harvey frowned. He instantly knew that something was wrong

After all, they picked such a peculiar time to visit

Harvey quickly called a cab before heading back to the Martial Hall.

Harvey arrived before thirty minutes passed. The air here was extremely tense. Even the disciples of Longmen's Law Enforcement who were in charge of guarding the place showed serious expressions on their faces.

They knew there would be no chance of winning the fight the next day if Amber and the others stayed in deep sleep.

Harvey lightly nodded at everyone before quickly heading to the backyard

Rudolph and his team set up an emergency room there. The entire place was filled with constantly blinking equipment.

Amber and the others lay in their sickbeds while Rudolph showed a serious expression.

"Sir York, they're all in deep sleep! We can't wake them up at all exclaimed Rudolph after seeing Harvey's arrival

"I used every piece of advanced instrument to confirm that their body readings were normal.

"if there are no accidents, they'll continue sleeping...

"For the rest of their lives."

Harvey frowned and waved his hand before walking toward Amber and the others.

The three seemed quite peaceful. Nothing odd could be seen on them. Ruddy complexions were also showing on their faces.

Harvey felt like he had seen symptoms like this before.

Shock was showing on his face after a moment.

"The Celestial Temple's Life Elixir?"

"Life Elixir?"

Everyone nearby was confused. They had no idea what that thing was

Harvey took a deep breath

"The Life Elixir isn't poison. The Celestial Temple spent thousands of years creating a potion that could prolong life

"The potion has no taste. It's not harmful either

"But the people who ingest it would fall asleep instantly. Their body would function on a minimal level as if they were hibernating

"According to the Celestial Temple, people who drink the potion would be able to live a dozen years longer. The benefits of this are boundless.

said, there is a huge price to pay Whoever drinks the potion becomes a vegetable

"It's said that the monks from India would drink this before they die turning themselves into this state before they're painted gold

The crowd was shocked after hearing Harvey's explanation

"Why does something like this exist? This is no different than being dead!

"Rather this is way worse?
