

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2764

Chapter 2764

Hazel's face flushed with a 'swish': "Second brother, I don't think I have that ability."

"You will have the ability to lead." Robert thought that Hazel was calm and logical, which made her a great leader.

Hazel was actually very confused.

After all, before this summer, her goal in life was only to have a decent job that could support her in the future.

She never thought that she could study her favorite major in university without considering future employment, let alone that she could now think about whether to be a boss in the future.

"You are hesitating." Robert said, "It means you are willing in your heart. I am different from you. If you ask me if I want to be a boss in the future, I will definitely not."

"Then what do you want to do in the future?" Hazel asked back.

"If I told you that my ultimate dream is to eat soft food for a lifetime, would you laugh at me?" After Robert said this, his face turned red, "Maybe I was spoiled by my parents, and I want to have someone for my whole life to take care of me like this."

Hazel thought that Robert's idea was very...very beautiful.

Who wouldn't want to live such a life if they could rely on the love of others for the rest of their lives?

"Elder brother may be able to support you for a lifetime." Hazel thought about this possibility seriously, and then said this sentence, "If I can make a lot of money in the future, I can also support you for a lifetime."

Robert listened to Hazel's words, he was completely moved.

"Little sister, I think so, but I won't do it. Although I want to eat soft food, I don't want to be a waste." Robert said, "It would be a waste if my clever mind is left unused."

Hazel: "Second brother, have you ever been in love?"

"Why did you suddenly ask this question?" Robert blushed even more.

Hazel didn't know why she asked such a question suddenly.

Hazel: "I don't think you are the same as elder brother. I wouldn't ask elder brother this question. I think you like girls. And there must be many girls who confess to you..."

Robert couldn't help laughing: "Do you think elder brother doesn't like girls?"

"I don't know. I can't see it." Hazel said sincerely, "Don't you think elder brother is tall and unpredictable?"

"I wish I knew him better. He strikes me as unpredictable. He had this personality as a child; he was very cold, and he didn't like to talk, let alone talk to strangers. He was quieter than my father. But he is a total actionist. He prefers to do things in silence, despite the fact that he does not speak. He is, in fact, a gentle and delicate man." Robert praised his eldest brother, and he did not hesitate to use any compliments.

"Do you believe elder brother prefers boys or girls, then?" Hazel asked.

Robert: "Brother, he will undoubtedly feel hurt inside if he hears you say this. Hahaha! Being a traditional man, he must enjoy dating girls."

"Okay! But brother doesn't talk to strangers, how can he find a wife?" Hazel was a little worried.

Robert: "He doesn't think about finding a wife at all now. When he wants to find a wife, he will naturally find a wife."

Hazel: "It seems that I am worrying too much. I still think about how to become an intern host."

Robert heard the key words, and immediately asked: "What kind of intern host?"

"I heard from my classmates that the TV station recruits intern hosts from our university every winter and summer vacation. The internship period is determined according to the performance of the internship period. It's a great opportunity to practice." After eating the rice, Hazel took a spoon to fill a bowl of soup, and continued, "But the places for intern hosts are usually given to juniors or seniors. I'm definitely not qualified now. When I'm in my junior or senior year, I want to put a lot of effort into my studies in order to become an intern host."

Robert nodded immediately after hearing Hazel's words: "Little sister, you can definitely do it."

He almost said later, 'This matter is on me'.

Even if he couldn't handle it, he could ask his father to help her.

A little trainee host, the little girl wanted it so much, so of course she had to give it to her.

Chapter 2765

For Robert, it was an honor for any TV station to allow Hazel to work.

There were so many TV stations in the country, but Hazel only had this one.

Elliot received a call from Layla at 2 o'clock in the afternoon, so he went to Eric's parents' house.

The reason why Layla called Elliot was because something happened.

During the meal, Mr. Santos drank some wine.

As a result, Mr. Santos spoke out because he was a little drunk after lunch.

Mr. Santos wanted to donate his heart to his son.

Layla was horrified at this.

First of all, no nation permitted heart donation. Only those who have agreed to donate their organs after death may.

After Elliot arrived, he persuaded him for a while, and finally dispelled Mr. Santos's idea of donating his heart.

"Didn't it mean that my son's lungs are failing too? I can give my lungs to my son." Mr. Santos blushed, but his eyes were very calm and sober. "I consulted a doctor with my wife. Living people can Lung donation. As long as my wife and I each donate a lung lobe, it will be fine! There have been such successful examples before..."

Layla was influenced: "Even if I want to donate, I will donate! If you donate your lungs, use mine."

Mr. Santos: "Layla, you're still young! Of course you can't use yours! Your aunt and I have already buried half of our bodies in the ground, and we're fine with half of our lungs missing... You still have a long way to go..."

Layla: "It is because I am young that I can bear it. You and auntie are so old, I would never agree to let you do this."

Elliot was dizzy when he heard them arguing.

So a video was sent to Avery, wanting her to preside over the overall situation.

With Eric's parents, he was not as important as Avery.

The time in Bridgedale was early morning.

After Avery received the video, he saw clearly that he was at Eric's parents' house, and immediately sat up from the bed.

After hearing Elliot explain what happened, Avery went to the bathroom with her phone and washed her face.

"You don't need to donate your lungs. There are suitable lungs here that can be transplanted to Eric. We didn't give him a lung transplant immediately, but we hoped that he could keep his own lungs through drug treatment." Avery said calmly, "Don't be too pessimistic. Give us some time."

Mr. Santos and Mrs. Santos calmed down instantly.

Layla also calmed down.

After Elliot hung up the video, he asked Mrs. Santos for tea, and then started making tea.

Mr. Santos drank too much and needed tea to sober up.

They drank tea and chatted. After chatting for more than an hour, Mrs. Santos went to the kitchen to prepare dinner, leaving the father and daughter for dinner.

Elliot and Layla had dinner at Santos's house, and when they were about to leave, Elliot suddenly remembered something, so he explained to the two elders.

"The heart needs to be matched. Not everyone's heart can be transplanted. You must not do stupid things just to donate a heart to Eric."

The two elders of the Santos family were stunned.
