Chapter 2768

“No. She won’t tell anyone about her private affairs. She won’t tell me either. But I just know Anyway, don’t speak ill of her behind her back like other students. I treat her as a friend.” Xiomara confessed to the girl.

“I know! I have no grievances with her, and I won’t talk nonsense. I also hate the kind of people who speak ill of others behind their backs. By the way, how did you and Hazel know each other? I think she is alone.”

Xiomara: “I took the initiative to find her.”

The girl: “Oh. She is not in our class.”

Xiomara: “I know. We are all in the same department, and we are all classmates.”

“Xiomara, you said her family is very Rich, how rich is it? Is it richer than your family?”
The girl asked curiously.

Xiomara thought for a while: “To be honest, I don’t know how much money my family has at all, and it’s even more impossible for me to know what’s going on with Hazel’s family. Don’t pay attention to these. You should study hard and try to get into a TV station in the future!”

The girl: “Has Hazel signed up?”

Xiomara: “Should have done so! I sent her a registration template.”

The girl: “Oh!”

...

After Hazel came out of school and got in the car, Mr. Cooper drove the car towards the restaurant.

Hazel was a little nervous, so she sent a message to Robert, asking him who the teacher he hired was, but Robert refused to tell.

After the car stopped outside the hotel, Hazel got off.

Robert was waiting at the entrance of the hotel.

Seeing Hazel coming out, Robert immediately waved to her.

“Second brother, why are you at the door? Where is the teacher you invited?” Hazel remembered that Robert said that the teacher had arrived.

“In the private room.” Robert put one hand on Hazel’s shoulder, leaned closer to Hazel’s ear, and whispered, “Dad is here too.”

Hazel’s heart suddenly jumped violently nervously.

“Why is dad here? Second brother, didn’t you say that you can solve such a trivial matter?” Hazel’s nervous face also turned red.

Robert cleared his throat: “When I helped you find a teacher, I wanted to find the best one for you, so I asked Dad’s assistant for help, and then Dad’s assistant told Dad about it. It’s okay, Dad knows It doesn’t matter. The teacher I hired for you is the director of our city’s TV station. He is a very experienced host of that TV station, and he is very good at hosting.”

Hazel’s footsteps stopped suddenly, and she couldn’t walk.

“Second brother, why did you find such a good teacher for me? I don’t know what to do...I’m too nervous.” Hazel’s breathing was a little short, afraid of herself that she couldn’t meet the teacher’s requirements, and she couldn’t meet her father’s expectations.

“Don’t be afraid. Just let nature take its course. The director is willing to teach you.” Robert said with a smile, “It’s not that we don’t give you money.”

“Oh...Second brother, next time Before you tell Dad about the matter, you can tell me first, so that I can prepare myself mentally in advance, okay?” Hazel was really taken aback.

Originally, this was just a trivial matter, but now Elliot actually came to eat with others because of her affairs.

“It’s really an accident this time. Don’t be too nervous, that teacher is very good. It’s Hector Joly, the host of ‘Daily News’...”

“Ahh! Second brother! You actually let him be me My teacher!” Hazel felt that she was going crazy.

She knew Hector Joly.

She had been listening to Hector’s broadcast recently, learning his pronunciation.

Hector was a well-known host in Aryadelle.

“Isn’t it good for him to be your teacher? I heard he’s better.” Robert scratched his head.

Hazel: “He is very powerful and talented...”

Chapter 2769

“Don’t be nervous, my dad and I are here! It will be the weekend for make-up classes, and we will also be at our house.”

Hazel took a deep breath, and followed Robert into the private room.

“Dad,” Hazel called his father first, then looked at Hector, and bowed respectfully, “Hello, Teacher Joly.”

“With a kind smile, Hector responded to her greeting: “Hi Hazel. You just finished class! I also came from Nantah University.

“You’re very good in hosting.” Hazel said shyly.

Elliot beckoned to Hazel and asked her to sit between him and Hector.

Hazel immediately walked over, put down her schoolbag, and sat down.

“I just chatted with Hector. He has worked in the TV station for many years, and now he does not host other programs except ‘Daily News’. Because he is now the director of the news broadcasting department, he does more behind-the-scenes work ” Elliot said to Hazel, “He taught you, I think it’s not bad. What do you think?”

Of course Hazel didn’t dare to say bad.

After all, Hector was present.

“I’m afraid of delaying Teacher Joly’s time...” Hazel said bluntly.

Hector immediately said: “No. I can try it with you this weekend and see what you think. If you think it’s good, then continue. If you think it’s not good, I can also recommend other hosts to teach you.”

Hazel was flattered: “Thank you, Teacher Joly. I’m flattered that you are willing to teach me.”

Seeing his daughter so happy, Elliot asked, “Are you hungry? Let’s eat first!”

Hazel nodded.

After a meal, Hector exchanged contact information with Hazel.

"I'll send you some information, you can take a look when you're free. I'll come to you tomorrow morning." Hector drank some wine and talked more than before.

Hazel: "Teacher Joly, did you come here by car?"

"I picked him up. I'll just take Teacher Joly back." Robert said, "Little sister, you go back with Dad."

"Okay." Hazel responded and waved to Hector, "Teacher Joly, see you tomorrow."

After watching Hector leave, Hazel followed his father into the car.

The car drove towards home.

"Dad, I actually didn't expect my second brother to find me such a good teacher... I didn't want to bother you either." Hazel was a little excited, but also a little embarrassed.

"Everything about you is not a trivial matter. If you have something to tell your father, he will help you solve it. Your second brother is still in school, so his ability is limited." Elliot took advantage of his youngest son's absence, so he didn't have to worry about his son's face.

Hazel could feel her father's love.

Hazel: "Dad, I have nothing else to do next."

"Do you want to go to a TV station for an internship?" Elliot asked this question casually, "Hector told me that their TV station recruits some students for internships every year."

Hazel: "Dad, I'm not qualified yet."

"As long as you are not dumb, you are qualified." Elliot looked at Hazel indifferently, "After Hector teaches you for a while, you should be fine. When the winter vacation comes, you can go to the TV station to practice. Maybe after you pass The host's addiction, you will find that you don't like this job that much then you can learn other things."

Hazel: "..."

"If you really like being a host, Dad won't stop you. It's just that Dad wants you to have a better future." Elliot expressed his expectations.

Hazel: "Dad, do you want me to be the boss like my sister?"

Elliot: "It depends on your own interests. You can start your own company, or go to your sister's company, your brother's company, or come to Dad's company, it doesn't matter."
