Chapter 2776

Robert thought about it for a while, and then said: “How about going to the cafeteria of Dad’s company? I heard that the food in the cafeteria is delicious, but I haven’t eaten there.”

Hazel: “Okay! Will others let us in?”

Robert was amused by Hazel’s words: “I can brush my face.”

“Do everyone in Dad’s company know you?” Hazel was shocked.

Robert laughed straight away: “Of course not. The facial recognition I’m talking about is real facial recognition. The access control system at the door can use access control cards or face recognition. Dad recorded all the faces of our family.”

“Oh! I thought all the employees in Dad’s company knew you!” Hazel breathed a sigh of relief.

“Do you know how many employees Dad’s company has? Hahaha! Thousands of people!” Robert said, “Only some executives have seen me. Dad is very protective of my sister and me. If you don’t believe me, you can only find it when you search on the Internet. The dad-son relationship between dad and brother cannot be searched for my sister and me.”

“I did a search.” Hazel did a search when she was in Thopiavelle, and indeed only found her elder brother Hayden, “But my sister was seeking marriage all over the world, and everyone knows her identity.”

“Because my sister is already working, it doesn’t matter if she reveals her identity now.” Robert looked at the road ahead. After the red light in front turned on, he stopped the car slowly, “Society is actually quite complicated. The people we usually come into contact with seem to be good people, right, but in fact there are also many bad people and they are very close to us. The anonymity is also to protect us.”

Hazel: “I know. I’m afraid of being kidnapped.”

Robert: “Actually, in a society ruled by law, law and order are much better than before. There are quite a lot of rich people.”

“Brother, is it possible that because you’re rich, you are surrounded by rich people?” Hazel said, “There are quite a lot of poor people, but most of them are busy with making ends meet.”

Robert turned his head and took a deep look at Hazel.

“Brother, did I say something wrong?” Hazel was afraid that he would make Robert unhappy.

“Of course not. You’re right. Ever since you came home, I’ve become more impulsive.” Robert spoke from his heart, “I really want to try it out, what it feels like to be an ordinary person.”

“You should be very uncomfortable.” Hazel explained to Robert in detail the difference between ordinary people and their current life, “Ordinary people have to do everything by themselves. There is no driver to pick you up every day, and you can’t afford a car at your age. Every day to go to school, you have to take the bus, squeeze the subway, or live on campus. Ordinary people basically live on campus. If you live on campus, there may be four people in a dormitory, or six people and eight people in a dormitory. Brother, can you accept that? Do many people live together?”

Robert went quiet and began to think.

“This is just one aspect. There is also food. The University has a cafeteria, so it’s okay. If you graduate, you can’t eat takeaway every day! You don’t have money to hire a babysitter, so you have to learn to cook by yourself. Cooking is troublesome. It is very cumbersome to buy vegetables, prepare vegetables, chop vegetables and stir-fry vegetables. After that, you have to wash the pots and dishes. In addition to food, housing, and transportation, there are also consumption. Brother, you can buy whatever you want to buy now by swiping your card. But if you are an ordinary person, you count almost everything you buy even a bag of toilet paper.”

Robert: “Are ordinary people really working so hard? Buying toilet paper has to be counted?”

Hazel: “Maybe because I used to be too poor. I used to go to school, and the classmates around me were not rich. Meals have to be counted as living expenses every month. You can’t spend too much on each meal. If you spend too much, it may cost you money at the end of the month.”

Robert: “Little sister, hearing you say that, I feel very lucky.”

“I’m also very lucky.” Hazel said, “I’m so lucky. After I graduate, I will have my own business and be able to make money. I hope I can help people at the bottom.”

“Little sister, it’s good that you have such an idea. But there is a saying that it is better to teach people to fish than to give them fish. There are many poor people, and you can’t help them alone.” Robert was afraid that Hazel would be too tired in the future.

“Brother, I know. When I help, I also help the old, the weak, the sick and the disabled.” Hazel was very sober.

“It seems that my worries are unnecessary.” Robert said, and began to think about how he could try to be an ordinary person.

More than an hour later, the car stopped at the entrance of Sterling Group Building.

It's evening time at 6:40. Everything was pitch black.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2777

Chapter 2777

The building was brightly lit.

Hazel believed that nobody in the company should be present at this time. She assumed that everyone went home after getting off work at the typical hour of six.

“Brother, what time does Dad's company get off work?” Hazel asked innocently, “Doesn't Dad come home at 6 o'clock at evening?”

“Dad is the boss. Dad can leave work at any time he wants, but the employees have to come on time. Dad's company has two working hours. One is 9 o'clock in the morning and 6 o'clock in the evening, and the other is 10 o'clock in the morning and 7 o'clock in the evening. You see now The lights in the office building are all on, because there are still many employees who haven't gotten off work yet.” Robert explained.

Hazel obediently followed behind Robert and walked towards the gate of Sterling Group.

Hazel had seen this building before. When she was playing in the summer vacation, she drove past here. If it wasn't for Robert who took the initiative to bring her here, she probably wouldn't have dared to come here.

First, she didn't want to expose her relationship with her dad. Second, this was a place of work, so it's not suitable for her to come.

And dad didn't come to work in the company every day, even if he did, he won't stay for too long.

“Brother, let's come to Dad's company, will Dad know?” Hazel put on a mask and followed Robert into the company.

The security guard at the gate and the lady at the front desk stared at them for a few seconds as they passed through the gate.

“Isn’t Dad on the plane now? We just come to the cafeteria for a meal, maybe we won’t run into any acquaintances.” Robert said confidently, “I just bring you to experience it. In fact, Dad’s company is not as scary as you think.”

Hazel: “Brother, you think Dad’s company is scary, right? I’m not familiar with Dad’s company, so I never thought it was scary.”

Robert blushed instantly: “Okay! You’re right.”

Hazel: “Brother, are you putting too much pressure on yourself? In fact, don’t think so much, and don’t compare yourself with Dad. Dad wasn’t so good at the beginning.”

Robert: “Thank you for comforting me. I’ve been adjusting my mentality. I plan to go to my dad’s company for an internship this winter vacation.”

The two entered the elevator arm in arm.

After the front desk saw the two of them enter the elevator, they immediately reported the situation to the administrative supervisor.

——Director, the boss’ youngest son is here! I’m sure he’s the boss’ youngest son! He also brought his girlfriend! The two of them just got into the elevator!

When the administrator saw the news, he immediately became nervous.

He didn’t receive a notice that Robert was coming!

So the administrative director made a phone call to the vice president and explained the situation.

The vice president was a little confused.

At this point, Robert had come to the company? And he brought his girlfriend?

The vice president hurried out of the office, planning to find Robert.

Chapter 2778

The vice president knew that Elliot had gone to Bridgedale today, so he didn’t tell Elliot immediately.

The vice president waited outside Elliot’s office for a while, but Robert didn’t arrive, so he dialed the phone to Elliot’s assistant.

“Do you have Robert’s number? If so, send me Robert’s number.” The vice president said, “I heard that Robert came to the company. I waited for him in the office for a while but he didn’t come. What’s the matter?”

The assistant immediately found Robert’s phone number, edited the text message, and sent it to the vice president.

“Are you sure he’s in the company now?” The assistant asked.

“Director told me. He must have come!” The vice president continued, “I heard that he brought his girlfriend here. I haven’t even heard that Robert is in a relationship. Have you heard of it?”

The assistant said without hesitation: “No! Last time the boss talked to me about Robert, and said that Robert is not very good at handling private life. Oh, it seems that a girl came to Layla’s place last time, which made Layla very angry.”

Vice President: “Robert has a good temper, so he attracts girls. I think it’s a real talk this time. Otherwise, he won’t bring the company. Robert usually doesn’t like to come here. Before the boss asked him to come to the company for an internship, he would rather go to Bridgedale to his brother.”

Assistant: “That Robert brought his girlfriend to the company tonight, is it possible that he didn’t want us to know?”

Vice President: “The front desk recognizes him, and many people in the company know him. Since he brought his girlfriend here, he probably wants to show off to his girlfriend. Let’s give him face.”

After the vice president finished speaking, he hung up the phone and called Robert.

Robert brought Hazel to the cafeteria.

There were so many employees in the canteen right now.

Because the food in the company canteen was better than many restaurants outside, the employees basically ate in the canteen.

Even if they don’t have to work extra hours at night, they still chose to eat in the cafeteria before going home.

Seeing the call from the vice president, Robert immediately stopped and answered the phone.

“Robert, I heard that you have come to the company. Where are you now? I waited for you in the office for a while, but I didn’t see you, so I called you to ask.” The voice of the vice The president was very gentle, “I heard that you brought your girlfriend here, let me invite you to dinner! Don’t worry, if you don’t want to tell your parents, I promise to keep my mouth shut and I won’t say anything.”

Robert: “...”

Girlfriend?

Robert looked at Hazel.

Hazel was wearing a mask, and her big eyes were staring at the cafeteria window.

Robert guess Hazel’s hungry and wanted to eat.

“We’re in the cafeteria, so we’ll go to the cafeteria and have a meal before leaving.” Robert said, wanting to quickly end the call.

When the vice president heard that they were in the cafeteria, he immediately got into the elevator and planned to go to the cafeteria to find them.

After Robert hung up the phone, he said to Hazel, “The vice president knows we’re here.”

“Oh...isn’t he off work yet?” Hazel saw that the time was almost 7 o’clock in the evening.

“Maybe he’s not off work! He said he came to the cafeteria to see us, and he still wants to treat us to dinner.” Robert scratched his head in embarrassment, “You haven’t seen him yet, have you?”

Hazel nodded: “But it’s okay to see him. I just don’t want people in my university to know my identity. Because that will affect my going to university.”

Robert: “Then let’s wait a while! He should be here soon.”

Robert and Hazel sat down at an empty table.

After a while, the vice president, the assistant to the president, and the administrative director all came.

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2779

Chapter 2779

Seeing that a group of them had come, Robert froze immediately.

Hazel was also stunned when she saw so many people walking towards her and her brother.

Hazel stretched out her hand under the dining table and pushed Robert's arm to bring him back to his senses.

Robert took a deep breath, and before they walked in front of him, he quickly introduced to Hazel, "On the left is the vice president, in the middle is Dad's assistant, and on the right is the supervisor of the administrative department. "

Hazel nodded: "Then what should I call them?"

Robert: "Uncle! Everyone is called uncle."

After Robert finished speaking, the three walked up to them.

"Robert, let's go eat outside! I just reserved a table outside, we can eat there, no need to wait." The vice president said with a smile, and at the same time his eyes fell on Hazel's face, "Is this your classmate?"

Because Hazel looked young.

When Robert was about to answer, Hazel took off her mask.

"Hello, uncles. I am his younger sister. My name is Hazel Foster." Hazel said politely.

The three executives took a deep breath.

In fact, after Hazel took off her mask, they realized Hazel's identity.

"Hazel, I've heard about you a long time ago. I'm so happy to see you today! It's a pity that I didn't prepare a meeting ceremony... Let's go out to eat!" The vice president grabbed Hazel's hand and made out with each other, said, "After dinner, let's go shopping, I have to buy you a meeting gift."

Hazel felt that she was being held hostage by someone, and she couldn't help herself.

Hazel didn't know how to deal with it, so she looked back at Robert, hoping that her brother could help her.

As a result, Robert and his dad's assistant didn't know what they were talking about in the back, and they couldn't take care of themselves at all.

Of course, Hazel knew that the vice president had no malicious intentions, so after a brief panic, she quickly calmed down.

“Uncle, let’s go to the cafeteria to eat! Brother said that the food in the cafeteria is delicious...so we came here to taste it.” Hazel didn’t want the vice president to spend money, and he didn’t want to be taken by him later Go and buy a meeting gift by force.

How embarrassing!

“The food in our cafeteria is indeed okay, but after all, it is a big pot meal, and it is still incomparable with the top restaurants outside. I will take you to have a big meal. If you really want to try the food in the cafeteria, you can. I will call someone now Go pack it.” The vice president said, winking at the administrator, “Go pack the signature dish of today’s cafeteria, Hazel wants to try it.”

Administrator: “I’m going!”

Hazel: “...”

Hazel couldn’t hold back anymore, so she stretched her neck and shouted to Robert, “Brother!”

Robert heard Hazel’s voice, and immediately strode up to her.

Hazel quickly grabbed Robert’s arm and breathed a sigh of relief.

Robert felt that Hazel was shocked, and said to the vice president: “We won’t go out to eat. I brought my sister here today just to taste the cafeteria here. My sister still has a lot of homework to do at night, so I can’t delay too much outside.”

The vice president looked regretful: “Okay! Since Hazel still has to do homework at night, I don’t dare to waste your time. But, are you really just here to try the tentative food? If you like it, I can ask someone to pack it and send it to you.”

Robert was afraid that the vice president would take it seriously, so he quickly found an excuse: “In addition to tasting the food in the cafeteria, we also came to take my sister to see where Dad works, so that my sister can experience it.”

“Let me just say it! Although our cafeteria is not bad, it is far from necessary for you to make a special trip. Then we will eat in the cafeteria. I’ll take you to the various company departments after dinner. Do not worry; it won’t take long.” The vice president said, and invited them to sit down in a dining chair, “Let me tell you about our company’s development direction and plan for this year.”

When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2780

Chapter 2780—Two hours later, Robert and his sister returned home.

Robert felt that his whole being was hollowed out.

Hazel was no better than Hayden. The main reason was that the vice presidents were too good at talking.

Hazel didn't know Sterling Group at all at first, but after nearly two hours of hot chat with the vice president, Hazel's mind was full of Sterling Group's future development direction and plans.

"Brother, actually Uncle and the others are quite nice." Seeing Robert sitting on the sofa and letting himself go, Hazel sat down beside him and chatted with him.

"It's very good, but it's unbearable. They always show us that they are elders to instill something in us, which makes me feel a little depressed. But the atmosphere in my brother's company is different. Next time I will take you to my brother's company." When Robert talked about Hayden's company, his eyes suddenly lit up.

Hazel said: "Brother, I don't feel like you. I think the uncles I met tonight are very nice people. They are very enthusiastic and willing to share their experiences and insights with us. Maybe it's because I was more Lack of love, so I don't think there is anything wrong with them."

Robert sat up straight after hearing what Hazel said.

"Little sister, do you want to go to Dad's company for an internship during the winter vacation?"

Hazel: "Brother, I want to try what it's like to be a host first."

Robert: "Don't worry. Try being a host first. You can try going to Dad's company in the future. If you like the atmosphere of Dad's company, then you can go to work in Dad's company. If this is the case, Dad will be very happy."

Robert didn't say anything later, that is, he would be very happy too.

"Brother, It's still early to go to Dad's company and you can try to go first! Maybe you will get used to it soon." Hazel persuaded.

Robert: "Actually, I'm still early, and I'm only one year older than you."

"Well. Actually, if you don't want to work so early, you can tell Dad to wait until you graduate." Hazel said, "Dad respects us very much. He will definitely not force you."

Robert: "That 's true."

"Brother, did mother say when Uncle Eric will have surgery?" Hazel suddenly thought of this.

“Mom didn’t tell me this. I guess we’ll have to wait for my sister and the others to go!” Robert picked up his phone and looked at the time. “Little sister, it’s already past eight o’clock. Are you still training tonight?”

“Hmm.” Hazel got up from the sofa, “Teacher Joly said that when he was in college, he trained every day when he had free time. If talent is not as good as others, then you can make up for it with hard work. I think what Teacher Joly said is very reasonable, I admire him more and more now.”

Robert: “Little sister, don’t work too hard.”

Hazel: “I know, I will pay attention to the time. Good night, brother.”

Robert: “Good night.”

Bridgedale.

Avery repeatedly confirmed the operation plan with the chief surgeon at the hospital, and after confirming that the risks were minimized, Elliot arrived at the hospital with Layla and Eric’s parents.

After Avery explained Eric’s current situation and operation plan to Eric’s parents in detail, the two nodded.

“Avery, with you here, we feel very at ease.”

“During the operation, I will watch Eric inside.” Avery said, “Go to the hotel to rest first, and I will notify you when the operation time is confirmed.”

Mrs. Santos hesitated: “Avery, can you let me see Eric? I haven’t seen him for a long time... In case something happens to him during the operation, wouldn’t I never see him in the end?”

Avery was taken aback for a moment, then agreed to her request.

Mr. Santos, along with his wife, also wanted to visit Eric.

Seeing that the two of them could go to see Eric, Layla wanted to go with her physically.

Elliot held her back.

“Didn’t you say you believed he could survive? Wait a little longer!” Elliot said, “If he could choose, he probably wouldn’t want his current appearance to be seen.”

To some extent, the patient didn't choose dignity. Especially critically ill patients.

Elliot once talked about this issue with Avery.
