

I'm A Quadrillionaire Chapter 1583

Chapter 1583

David held the eight leading space pirates at partial Eternal Realm in his hands and watched the fear on their faces.

A smile curled up at the corner of his mouth.

He did not kill these guys immediately.

Instead, he wanted them to experience the feeling of their fate being in the hands of others.

In truth, David did not like controlling other people's fates, but unfortunately, he also did not like being controlled by others.

If he did not control others, he would be controlled by others.

Therefore, David would eventually choose to control others.

"Weren't you just dividing the spoils? If I remember correctly, it seemed to be 70-30, right? If this is the case, then I will try it too. There are eight of you, so what do you think of killing six of you and leaving two alive?" David looked at the eight leading space pirates in his hands and asked with a grin.

"We didn't think you were on this merchant ship, my Lord. Please calm down and spare us," the effeminate man said, pretending to be calm.

"Please calm down, my Lord! Spare us!" The others also hurriedly said.

They were restrained by David's Eternal Golden Body, unable to move an inch.

At this moment, if David exerted some strength in his hands, they would die.

They were no different than ants in front of the strong Eternal.

"As space pirates, didn't you disregard life and death a long time ago and expected this day to come? Why are you still pleading in front of me? And I believe that many people have pleaded in front of you over the years, right? Did you spare them? If you knew this would happen today, why did you do all that in the past? Just like what Marlee said just now, you scumbags will face your retribution sooner or later. Since God won't punish you, then I will."

David still kept smiling, but his voice was a bit chilly.

“My Lord, calm down! My Lord, calm down! What do you want? Money? Resources? Treasures? As long as I have them, I will give them all to you. From now on, I will work hard to repay your kindness for not killing me. I just hope you will let me go,” someone could not bear the pressure and yelled as he broke down.

In the face of death, all normal people would feel fear.

Even space pirates were no exception.

If David killed them before they could react, they would have accepted their fate.

However, since they were still alive, who did not want to fight for a chance at survival?

“Me too! Me too! As long as you spare my life, I will be your slave from now on. I can do anything for you. I can even go through hell and do whatever you want!”

“Oh? Can you do anything for me? Then will you unconditionally carry out what I say?” David asked.

“Yes! Yes! I can do anything for you, my Lord! I will carry out all your orders unconditionally.”

“What about you?” David looked at the others.

“So do we!” The person who was caught by David’s gaze immediately replied.

He was afraid that if he spoke too slowly, he would be crushed to death by David.

“I, David, am not a bloodthirsty person. Since you have all said so, then I will not kill you,” David said slowly “Thank you for your grace! Thank you for your grace!” The eight leading space pirates shouted excitedly

If they were not in David’s grip, they would have knelt in front of David and kowtowed to him.

Originally, they thought they would surely die since they ran into an Eternal today, but unexpectedly, the Eternal did not kill them.

No matter what, a living dog was better than a dead lion.

No one wanted to die.

As long as there was life there was hope.

David’s words not only excited the eight leading space pirates, but hundreds of other space pirates also showed joy at the same time.

Since this Eternal did not kill the leaders, he certainly would not kill them either. After all, the leaders were the core and the masterminds, and they were the ones who committed all those crimes.

Chapter 1584

They were, at best, accomplices.

Compared with the ruthless and inhumane leaders, the others were far less evil.

"Thank you for not killing us, my Lord!

"Thank you for not killing us, my Lord!

"Thank you for not killing us, my Lord!"

Hundreds of space pirates all knelt in the air and kowtowed three times to David.

Then, they said three deafening thank you's in succession.

The space pirates were excited while Marlee and the others were a little depressed.

The space pirates were notorious throughout Star Kingdom, especially the kind that would kill everyone in their way.

If a party ever ran into one, almost no one would be left alive.

Even if a woman could survive temporarily, she would face hell until she was raped to death.

If the merchant ship of the Jung family did not run into David halfway and let David stay with them, they would have been attacked by space pirates and followed in the footsteps of other ill-fated crews.

If a decent person ever encountered these kinds of space pirates, if they had the ability, they would definitely kill them all and leave no one alive so they would not continue to harm others.

Now David was saying he was going to spare them. Wasn't he helping the evildoers by doing this?

Marlee originally had a very good impression of David.

He was young, handsome, good-tempered, powerful, and certainly not weak in his background.

It could be said that Eternal Realm might not be the end for David.

This kind of chosen one with unlimited potential was almost every girl's dream lover.

Even a middle-aged woman like her was a little moved, but after hearing David say he would not kill these space pirates, Marlee's affection for David plummeted.

However, even if she was upset, she would not say it.

After all, David saved their lives.

David actually just wanted to tease these space pirates. He wanted to give them some hope and then make them feel even greater despair.

He did not know that his casual words made Marlee and others extremely uncomfortable.

Of course, even if he knew, he would still insist on his plan and not change it in the slightest.

"I won't kill you, but you said that you will carry out all my orders unconditionally, right?" David said casually "Yes, yes, yes! Just tell us what you need and we will do our best to carry it out without slacking." This time, the boorish man was the one who spoke.

He was also the leader of the first group of space pirates.

"Then what if I want you to die? Will you do your best to carry it out?" David teased 'Um...

The excited space pirates were a little confused.

They did not expect David to tell them to kill themselves.

At this moment, they all understood as they looked at that sarcastic smile on David's face again.

It turned out that David had no intention of letting them go.

He was just teasing them.

"My... My lord, y-you are joking with us, right?" the boorish man asked nervously.

“Do I look like I’m joking?” David asked with a gloomy face after wiping his smile off his face.

“My lord, going back on your word doesn’t fit your status!”

“Am I going back on my words? I did say I wouldn’t kill you, and I kept my promise. I just want you to commit suicide. You can’t blame me if you can’t do it.”

Chapter 1585

David’s expression changed in an instant.

Before, he was smiling, but in a blink of an eye, his face became extremely gloomy.

It was faster than turning the pages of a book and the space pirates did not even have time to react.

He just said that he would not kill them.

Now he changed his mind and asked them to commit suicide.

Wasn’t he taking all of them as fools?

“My Lord, you can’t do this! Just now you clearly said that you wouldn’t kill us. As an Eternal, you can’t go back on your words. If you do this, you will lose your dignity!”

“Yes! My lord, if you do this, you will lose your status as an Eternal, and if word about this gets out, you will be laughed at by others.”

Several leading space pirates were desperately trying to get David to change his mind.

They did not want to die right now.

It was nonsense to say that they had put their lives and deaths aside.

As a partial Eternal, as long as they could take half a step forward, they would become an Eternal.

By then, they would be on a new level.

If that happened, they would not have to wander this barren land.

They could go to a more prosperous area to claim new riches.

How much lifespan did a partial Eternal have?

Once they stepped into Eternal Realm, they would all have lifespan of at least one epoch.

That would be 129600 years.

Many planets in the universe could not even live for such a long time.

“I don’t want to kill you, but I don’t want to let you go either. You are clear about this. I just don’t want to get my hands dirty. If you do it yourself, you can die decently. But since you are not willing, then I can only do it for you, but it’ll be a bit cruel, so you must endure it.”

After David finished speaking, he lightly squeezed his left hand, and the five leading space pirates at partial Eternal Realm in his hand turned into a puddle of blood with terrified expressions. Then, they disappeared from the world, unable to continue to do evil.

The other three leading space pirates who were being held by David’s right hand were stunned.

The hundreds of space pirates around were also dumbfounded.

Marlee and others on the merchant ship were stunned.

“The five partial Eternals just disappeared?”

That’s a total of five partial Eternals!”

In Marlee’s hometown, five partial Eternals were considered a very powerful force.

Is this the strength of an Eternal?

‘It’s indeed as terrifying as the legends say “Even the partial Eternals are like an ant in his hands.

‘No wonder the forces with Eternals and the forces without Eternals are totally different.”

The boorish man and his two men stared blankly at David’s left hand, which still had some remnants of the five people on them.

They were horrified.

“Is there really r-retribution in this world?” The boorish man muttered to himself.

After the three men became space pirates, they had been using inhumane methods to get what they wanted Whenever they ran into merchant ships, no one on board could survive, no matter if they were old, weak, women, or children.

They adopted a kill-all policy that included, burning, killing, and looting.

They had been villains for so many years and they never believed in retribution before.

When talking to Marlee just now, the boorish man also said that if there were retribution, he hoped it would come soon and that he could not wait

Now, he believed it.

However, it was too late.

After David casually crushed the five leading space pirates at partial Eternal Realm to death, the three men already knew that they would surely die today They thought that although they were not as powerful as the five who just died, they had done no less evil than the other party.

Today, they even ran into an Eternal who hated everything evil.

The lives of the three men had already entered a countdown.

As for when they would die, it all depended on David the Eternal's mood.

Chapter 1586

At this moment, the three men felt as if the energy in their entire bodies had been drained, and they slumped against David's hand.

If David let them go now, they would all fall straight to the ground.

The three men did not continue to beg for mercy.

Since things had escalated to this point, so it was useless to say anything more.

David would not let them go.

“How? How does it feel to have someone else dictate your life and death? It's horrible, isn't it? Are you scared? Are you terrified? That's right, this is the effect I want. Those innocent people who have been killed by you all these years felt like this at the time, so can you understand it now? Since you can disregard other people's lives, then I can also do the same with you. Remember to be a good person in the next life.”

After David finished speaking, he closed his right hand forcefully without hesitation. The boorish man and his men also followed in the footsteps of the five just now.

They were directly crushed to death in the hand of David's Eternal Golden Body.

Not even their corpses were left.

Only a puddle of blood remained.

The eight space pirates at partial Eternal Realm did not even have the slightest resistance and they were completely annihilated.

They had been committing crimes for many years, and this could be regarded as atonement for what they have done.

Although it was far from enough compared to what they did, they were all dead and all grievances and graces would also dissipate.

David could see that the three of them were scared stupid and they did not even have energy left, and he would not achieve anything if he continued, so he just killed them directly. The hundreds of space pirates around looked at David blankly.

"Our leaders died just like that?"

They wanted to escape, but their legs were a little weak and they could not use any strength at all, so they could only stand there blankly.

David glanced at the space pirates around him and immediately made them shudder in fright.

Everyone knew that after the leaders died, it would be their turn next.

It was useless to say anything at this time, so they could only accept David's judgement.

"Although you guys are not the masterminds, you are the accomplices. Helping the evildoers is just as abhorrent, and the blood on your hands is no less than that of the masterminds. Since I met you today, I will purify you and help you atone for your sins. Remember to follow the right person in your next life."

After David said that...

Boom!

An invisible airwave directly appeared and spread around the Eternal Golden Body.

In an instant, it arrived in front of hundreds of space pirates.

All space pirates showed fear as they felt an unmatched force approaching “Ah! No! Help!”

Countless terrified cries sounded one after another The space pirates died among their screams.

They paid the due price for the evil they had done all these years.

Facing David, the Eternal, not even the leading space pirates at partial Eternal Realm could resist, let alone them, who were at Universe Realm.

Boom boom!

There were two loud bangs.

The two battleships piloted by the space pirates also collapsed under David’s attack.

The space pirates left inside disappeared with the battleship before they could escape. After a while, the entire void fell silent.

All space pirates were completely wiped out, and not a single one remained.

Each of these guys had blood on their hands, so death was the lightest punishment for them.
