Chapter 1629

“So what can I do for you?” Marlee asked.

She gave up persuading David.

“You should first learn the process of establishing a trading company. After I come back from the auction, I will give you full responsibility over this matter,” David said.

“Me? No! No! No way! David, this matter is too important. I have absolutely no experience in this field so I definitely can't do it and I might affect your plan. You should find someone else! I can help you do anything that's within my power,” Marlee quickly refused.

Let her take full responsibility for the establishment of the trading company?

How would she know anything about these things?

The establishment and operation of a trading company involved too much capital and contacts.

Marlee was just someone from a small place.

Although she had come out and gained some experience, it was also very limited.

She was just a country bumpkin in the eyes of these people in the Central Sacred Continent.

How could she be responsible for such an important matter?

If David entrusted this matter to her, she would surely fail.

“Marlee, you have to believe in yourself. You can do this. I'll provide you with the funds and I'll solve your problems. You just need to follow the normal process, and you don't need to think about other issues.”

“Um... I can't! No way! David, I don't even have a little experience, leaving it to me will only ruin your plan! You should find others! I really can't do it,” Marlee begged.

She should be happy about David handing such an important thing to her

However, Marlee had no idea about trading companies.

She was worried that if she agreed and failed to do well, David's plan would be ruined.

If David gave her something within her power, Marlee would definitely agree without hesitation.

“Marlee, I can’t rest assured if I have to entrust this matter to other people. I have a principle when it comes to employing staff and it is that I will only use people I trust. If I don’t trust someone, no matter how capable they are, I won’t use them. This is the first time I am coming to the Central Sacred Continent and you are the only one I can trust, so please do me this favor!”

“No way! David, don’t force me, okay? If I can help you, I wouldn’t even hesitate it’s just that this matter is too huge. With my ability and knowledge, I can’t see any chance of success. I really want to help you, but I’m even more afraid that if I don’t do well, I will ruin your plan.” Marlee was so anxious that she was about to cry

She even scolded herself in her heart, ‘Why didn’t I educate myself at the beginning? I should have learned more about trading companies and studied them thoroughly

“If that happened, I could complete the important task that David is entrusting to me now

‘I can even help David share some of his burden.

“However, I have already missed the boat, and it is too late to regret it now.

I can’t turn back time.”

Besides, how would Marlee know that she would meet a man like David in the future?

Not only did he save her life, he even wanted to entrust her with such an important matter.

If only she knew, she would definitely not go anywhere and stay at home every day to study. Then, she would quietly wait for the day to meet David.

you

Seeing that Marlee refused to agree, David had no choice but to retreat and said, “Marlee, why don’t slow down and not reject me so quickly? You should learn about this slowly and then we will discuss how to proceed after I come back. What do you think of this?”

“A-Alright. I can learn about it first, and if it really doesn’t work, you can’t force me!” Marlee agreed after thinking about it.

She would feel embarrassed if she refused again.

It was a blessing for her that David was doing this.

“Okay, it’s decided then. Marlee, study hard. Don’t put too much pressure on yourself. Don’t worry, I won’t force you.”

“Alright. Thank you, David! Then I’ll go back first.”

“Okay, I’ll ask Treasure Trove to find someone to teach you so you can learn faster.”

The two then left together

David then went to find Alba to explain his intentions.

He hoped she would arrange for someone who knew more about this to teach Marlee.

“David, did you say you want to set up a trading company?” Alba asked in surprise. She was surprised to hear David’s request.

Chapter 1630

Unexpectedly, David actually wanted to get involved in business in the Central Sacred Continent.

Although David’s background was strong, which one of the trading companies on the Central Sacred Continent that had flourished had not achieved its current status through long-term accumulation? The most junior among the top five trading companies had a history of nearly 100 thousand years. The longest one could be traced back hundreds of thousands of years ago.

It was easy to set up a trading company, but it was difficult to achieve results.

Furthermore, from Alba’s point of view, if David was able to be accepted as a disciple by that powerhouse, so needless to say, he must be more talented than those geniuses in Star Kingdom.

‘Shouldn’t such a person cultivate hard?’

“Why does he still have the energy to run a trading company?”

‘Wouldn’t David’s master punish him if he finds out?’

'For a powerhouse of that level, even if David grows the trading company to the level of the top five trading companies, David's work would still be irrelevant.

'Only his strength is the most important.

"Everything else is a waste of time.

"I don't know whether David just wants to have fun, or he really wants to grow a trading company.

"It's okay if he just wants to play around.

"If he wants to make it bigger and stronger.

"Even with David's strong background, he still has a long, long way to go.

'It will even delay his cultivation."

Alba figured David's master would not agree to his tomfoolery.

"Yes! When I come back from the auction, I plan to set up a trading company," David replied honestly.

He required Alba's help for this matter, and he did not hide it.

"Are you just fooling around? Or do you want to manage it well and grow it?" Alba asked again.

"Miss Fellowes, if you are afraid that I will steal Treasure Trove's business in the future, then don't worry. I just want to fool around and I won't threaten Treasure Trove's business," David joked with a smile.

"Pfft!"

Alba laughed at David's words.

She had not heard such a funny joke for a long time.

'Did David say that he was afraid that his newly established trading company would steal Treasure Trove's business?

Is this even possible?"

Treasure Trove could only achieve what it was today after tens of thousands of years of painstaking efforts

A newly established trading company was claiming to steal Treasure Trove's business.

What a hilarious joke.

On the Central Sacred Continent, countless trading companies closed down every day due to poor management.

It was hard to say whether a newly established trading company could survive.

Running a trading company had little to do with strength.

It would be different if David's master disregarded his prestige to come out to back David's trading company and make everyone support David for his sake.

However, this was not possible.

Saints, especially those above True Saint Rank and even Sacred Saint Rank, valued their prestige very much.

They would become a laughing stock if they needed to come forward for this kind of trivial matter. Even after learning that David was joking, Alba still found it funny.

In any case, what did it have to do with Ava if David's company achieved such (power after tens of thousands of years of development)?

She was the third young mistress of Treasure Trove, but she was not the heir. As a woman, she did not have the qualifications to take over the company.
