

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1654 –

Chapter 1654

“Magus, money is nothing to me, it’s just a number, but it’s different for you. If I’m not wrong, your father Mosi should have been deceived and framed, leading to him mortgaging the tavern as a last resort. I think he was too ashamed to come home after this. Maybe he has been caught by debtors and is being abused. As his son, will you help him?”

Magus was stumped by David’s few simple words.

If his father was really being abused by creditors like Black Water, could he do nothing?

If he wanted to save him, what should he do?

Continue to mortgage the tavern?

Not only was Magus stumped, but both Marigold and her mother were also stunned.

Even if Mosi was a scoundrel, he was still their family and the father of the siblings.

They could not just ignore him.

Back then, Mosi also loved Magus and Marigold very much.

However, he had went down the wrong path in recent years.

David knew that what he said had an effect as he looked at the family of three.

Thus, he took advantage of the victory and continued, “If you sell this jar of wine to me, you will get a lot of money. After you have this money, you can pay off Mosi’s debt and have him return to the family with peace of mind. In this way, your family can live together again just like before. Isn’t this what you have been pursuing?”

Magus, who was originally planning to resolutely reject David, fell into a dilemma at that moment.

He was moved by David’s words.

Although they had paid off the debts they owed to Black Water and they got the tavern back, who knew if Mosi still owed money to other parties?

If so, how would they pay for it?

Companies like Black Water that wandered in the gray area would genuinely resort to cruel methods if they did not pay up.

Magus could not stand by and watch his father getting abused.

When that happened, the Allen family would be in a desperate situation again.

However, accepting David's suggestion and taking his money would make Magus feel injustice. He had agreed to give the wine as a gift, but in the end, it became a business deal. "Magus, maybe you don't care about money, but you have to admit that it is very important to you now, and the Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits is also very important to me. We are not trading, but instead, we're helping each other. We became friends after drinking just now, so we should support each other, don't you think so? Unless you think that I, David Lidell, am not worthy of being your friend."

David's last words completely reassured Magus.

He was right.

They did not know how Mosi was, and money was really very important to the Allen family right now.

"Master David, thank you! It is my honor to have a friend like you," Magus thanked him sincerely.

Magus knew that David said so much to make him accept David's money to ease his father's troubles and relieve the family from worrying about the future.

It was indeed an honor for the family to meet a big shot such who truly valued friendship and righteousness.

"That's right! Magus, you should know that we're not doing business, we're just helping each other as friends!" David smiled.

David was thrilled that Magus was able to think this through.

This meant he could spend 3 trillion Star Dollars and get 30 thousand lavish points soon.

Ever since breaking through to Eternal Realm in the Milky Way and reaching beginner Ruler Rank, David's strength had not changed for a long time.

This was because he had no place to spend his Star Dollars and could not get lavish points, which meant he was unable to improve his strength.

Now, it was finally time to spend the money.

He was also spending three trillion in one go.

As soon as he got 30 thousand lavish points, David's strength could immediately rise from beginner Ruler Rank to Sovereign Rank, directly skipping past Immortal Rank.

This was a staggeringly big leap.

If the outside world heard about it, they would certainly be shocked.

Even those in Saint realm would be shocked because they had never heard of anyone who could cross two realms at once when they broke through.

Was this even human?

Even the legendary galaxy beasts were not so amazing.

"Master David, I know you're saying that to help our family. I sincerely thank you. I must have done something good in my previous life and have accumulated enough karma to have met such a benevolent friend," Magus said with reddened

Marigold and her mother also had tears in their eyes.

They could all understand what David was doing.

eyes.

There were very few big shots who possessed David's affection and righteousness.

Which one of those powerful people cared about the lives of ordinary people?

David was rendered speechless by what the family of three was doing.

In reality, he cared more about whether he could spend 3 trillion to get those 30 thousand lavish points, which could then be used to improve his strength which had not changed for a long time.

Otherwise, he would not have persuaded Magus and his family so earnestly.

Of course, if the Allen family was in need, he would not hesitate to help.

“Magus, you don’t have to do this. Since we are friends, let’s stop talking about this, okay? Give me the account number of your tavern and I will transfer the money to you. Then, you can go to your father tomorrow with the money and pay off all his debts so you can live a good life as a family.”

“Thank you!”

The thousands of words in Magus’s heart turned into a thank you in the end.

David did not say how much money he would transfer to them, as he was afraid of scaring the Allen family if he told them.

Furthermore, if Magus knew, he definitely would not accept.

For the sake of his 30 thousand lavish points and Sovereign Rank strength, David decided not to tell them as he secretly transferred the money.

By the time the Allen family found out, the money would have been transferred and the transaction would have been completed. Furthermore, he would also have gotten his lavish points.

It would be too late for them to return the money then.

After he took the Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits from Magus and put it on the table, David asked Magus for the account number of the Allen Tavern.

Then, David used the system to transfer three trillion Star Dollars.

After the transaction, David glanced at the system panel.

[Host: David Lidell

[Balance: 9996999990000000 Star Dollars.

[Combat: Eternal Realm Beginner Ruler Rank

[Combat Skills: Void Punch (Perfection), Air Crushing Slap (Perfection), Evil-Splitting Sword Technique (Perfection)

[Lavish Points: 30000]

David was excited when he saw the number behind lavish points.

Indeed, 30 thousand lavish points were in his account the moment the transaction was completed.

David did not feel so nervous after he got the 30 thousand lavish points.

He had achieved his goal.

To prevent any accidents, David found an excuse and bade farewell to the Allen family.

Then, he took the Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits and disappeared from the sight of the family of three.

Marigold still stood in place until David completely disappeared as she stared in the direction of David's back, unwilling to leave.

Magus patted his sister on the shoulder and said with a sigh, "Mari, stop looking. Master David is destined to be from a different world than us."

"I know, Mag. I'll just pretend this was all a dream. Tomorrow I will try my best to forget. Master David," Marigold replied.

Of course, she also knew that it was impossible for her to have a relationship with David.

However, David's figure had left a deep imprint in her heart.

It would not be so easy to forget him.

"Sigh."

Magus sighed again before he turned to enter the tavern.

The mother of the siblings also shook her head and followed Magus inside.

Marigold remained at the door for a while.

After confirming that David was not coming back, she finally accepted the reality, turned around, and returned to the tavern.

As soon as she returned to the house, Marigold saw her brother and mother sitting there in a daze.

“Mag, what’s wrong?” Marigold asked.

No one answered her.

Marigold walked up to Magus, shaking her hand in front of his eyes.

Marigold was quite frightened by his brother’s behavior. Hence, she grabbed his shoulders. with both hands and began to shake violently.

Her movement finally snapped Magus back to reality.

He quickly stopped Marigold from shaking him and comforted, “I’m fine, I’m fine, Mari, we’re okay.”

“Mag, what’s the matter with you guys? Why didn’t you move just now? You scared me a lot.” Marigold patted her chest and asked.

“We were just looking at the money Master David transferred to us, and we couldn’t recover for a while,” Magus replied.

“The money transferred by Master David? Is it a lot?”

“Yes, it’s a lot! More than we can imagine.”

“How much?”

“Three trillion!” Magus replied.

“H-How much?” Marigold thought she had heard wrong.

“Three trillion Star Dollars!” Magus confirmed again.

He had recounted this number no less than ten times.

At first, Magus also thought he was seeing things, but after counting it over and over again, he was sure he had counted correctly.

What David transferred to them was indeed three trillion Star Dollars.

Three trillion!

How could Master David have so much money?

Magus could not think of anyone who could casually spend so much money on the Central Sacred Continent, except for the top five trading companies.

'Is Master David an heir of the top five trading companies?

'Otherwise, how could he spend so much money so freely?'

Marigold stared at her brother in shock.

"Yes! Mari, you heard that right, it's three trillion. Master David transferred us three trillion Star Dollars, which is enough to buy a large piece of land around us."

"H-How is it possible for him to have that much money?" Marigold stammered.

"If I'm not mistaken, Master David is likely to be the heir of one of the top five trading companies."

"T-the heir of one of the top five trading companies?"

Marigold finally realized how large the gap between David and her was.

One of the top five trading companies!

They were a mythical existence on the Central Sacred Continent!
