

I'm A Quadrillionaire chapter 1651 –

Chapter 1651

David was stunned.

Based on past experience, items that could make the system automatically give a pop up were all amazing treasures.

He continued to read the introduction of the Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits below.

[The Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits is made from a collection of hundreds of precious flowers and fruits. The final product is only formed after tedious brewing and its specific efficacy depends on the number of raw materials and their preciousness. The top wine is brewed from 999 kinds of precious flowers and 999 kinds of precious fruits. Ordinary people can rise to the top with just one sip. Even the worst wine can improve the consumer's physique and enhance the consumer's talent, not only that...]

David looked at the introduction about the wine given by the system.

He was extremely shocked.

“This is not f*cking wine.

“This is something from heaven!

‘The top wine can make ordinary people rise to the top after just one sip?

‘What does that mean?

‘Doesn't it mean entering Eternal Realm?

“That is to say, ordinary people can rise to the top and become Eternals by taking a sip of the top Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits.

‘Isn't this too damn exaggerated?

‘This top Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits is much more powerful than any top treasure of heaven and earth!

‘Even the worst Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits can improve the consumer’s physique and greatly improve their talent.]

David hurried to see the final evaluation given by the system.

[This jar of Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits is brewed from 47 kinds of flowers and 54 kinds of fruits, a total of 101 kinds of precious materials. The storage time is sufficient, and the quality is well preserved. It is one of the best low-quality wines. Those who consume it will see their physique improve and their talents enhanced. It is worth three trillion Star Dollars.]

“Three trillion Star Dollars?

‘Isn’t that 30 thousand lavish points?’”

David was excited at this moment.

His eyes sparkled with excitement.

With these 30 thousand lavish points, he could go directly from Ruler Rank to Sovereign Rank, directly skipping past Immortal Rank.

Once he was at Sovereign Rank, he could be regarded as having a certain right to speak in the Central Sacred Continent.

The point was that this Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits was of great use to David.

Celia and the women were somewhat lacking in talent.

Therefore, it would be tough for them to become Eternals.

With the Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits, which could improve their physique and talent, they would have a greater chance of becoming Eternals after taking a sip.

If he had the chance, David wanted to reach his goal in one fell swoop.

He wanted to get a jar of top Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits and let Celia and the others take a sip so they could directly step into Eternal Realm.

It was a pity that this thing was hard to come by.

Since he could not buy it with money, he could only proceed step by step.

It would still be good to increase the chances of them breaking through Eternal Realm by even a little.

After David touched the wine jar with his hands, he did not take it away. Instead, he stayed in the same position, puzzling Magus.

He looked up and saw David looking straight at him excitedly.

'What's going on?'

Magus was a little confused.

In reality, what David was looking at was the system panel that appeared in front of him, but Magus could not see it.

All he could see was David staring straight at him, his eyes filled with excitement.

"Master David, what's wrong with you?" Magus could not help asking.

His voice also made Marigold and her mother look up.

The family of three looked at David inexplicably.

Chapter 1652

At this time, Magus' voice also brought David back to reality.

He put away the panel, sorted out his excited emotions, and asked, "Magus, where did you get. this jar of wine from?"

Magus obviously did not know that this jar of wine was Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers. and Fruits, nor did he know the value and efficacy of this jar of wine.

Otherwise, their family would not have fallen to where they were today.

If he sold this jar of wine, ten million Star Dollars would just be a drop in the bucket for them.

David wanted to know the origin of this jar of wine. Was this the only one or was there more?

If so, were there any top Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits?

David wanted to get some of this good stuff that could make ordinary people Eternals with one sip for Celia and the others no matter the cost.

He would be willing to pay for it no matter how high the price was.

“Master David, the Allen family have been winemakers for generations. This jar of wine has been handed down by the ancestors of the Allen family for many years. My grandfather told me before he died that this can change the fate of the Allen family. It might make us rich and powerful, or it might destroy the family, so I shouldn’t take it out unless I absolutely have to. You not only saved my mother, but also my whole family. Therefore, I will present it to you today. I hope you will like it,” Magus replied honestly.

Marigold and her mother were a little puzzled when they heard that.

‘Our family had such a secret?’

‘Why didn’t we know?’

Especially Magus’ mother.

She had married into the family for decades and she never heard the old master mentioning this.

At the same time, she could be sure that her husband Mosi did not know about it either.

Otherwise, he would have already taken it out.

“Then did your ancestors leave just one jar? Or are there others? Don’t get me wrong, Magus, I’m just curious so that’s why I’m asking. If you don’t want to talk about it, you don’t have to. It’s okay.”

“I have nothing to hide. Since I gave it to you, I naturally believe in you, Master David, but I’m afraid I will disappoint you. Grandpa told me that this is the only one. We don’t have more,” Magus shook his head and replied..

“I see!” David felt a little disappointed in his heart.

However, he recovered in an instant.

Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits was such a precious item.

The fact that he could even get one of low quality meant that he already needed to thank all of the gods above.

He would not even dream of getting one of top quality.

That would take 999 kinds of precious flowers and 999 kinds of precious fruits as raw materials to brew successfully.

It was hard to say whether it even existed in the entire Star Kingdom.

After all, there was a high probability that the system was something from the God Tier Civilization while Star Kingdom was only a level 7 civilization.

There were still the level 8 civilization and the level 9 civilization after it.

Many raw materials might not be available in Star Kingdom, a level 7 civilization.

If he wanted the top Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits, he needed to wait for the opportunity to go to a level 8 or 9 civilization to see if they had it.

David certainly would not go to a God Tier Civilization.

It was because he might expose the system if he went there.

“Magus, you may not know the effect and value of this jar of wine. If you knew, you might not have been willing to give it to me,” David thought for a while and said.

David was not going to hide from the Magus family too.

Firstly, David wanted to spend money to buy it to get 30 thousand lavish points.

Secondly, David was not willing to take advantage of the Allen family.

The Allen family treated him with sincerity, so he would not be despicable.

Even if he would not get any lavish points, David would not hide the truth about the wine from the Allen family and simply take it away.

This was simply not his character.

David's words immediately upset Magus.

Although he was just an ordinary person living at the bottom of the Central Sacred Continent and he could not compare to a big shot like David, he had his dignity as an upright pillar of the Allen family.

He was a man of his word.

No matter how much this jar of wine was worth, he would give it to David and would never regret or ask for it back.

"Master David, what do you mean? I, Magus Allen, am just a commoner, but I am also a man of indomitable spirit. There is absolutely no reason to take back what I said. Since I said that I will give you this jar of wine, I will give it to you no matter how much it is worth. I won't go back on my word," Magus said solemnly.

"Master David, Magus is right. The Allen family was a big family thousands of years ago. Although we have declined, we will never do something as despicable as going back on our word. We have already given this jar of wine to you, so it belongs to you now," Magus' mother also said.

Her husband was completely hopeless, so her family would have to depend on her son in the future.

No matter what Magus did, she would support him unconditionally.

"I'm sorry I can't see the wood for the trees, but the value and efficacy of this jar of wine is beyond your imagination, and it's something inherited from your Allen family so even if you give it to me, I can't take it," David said seriously.

"Master David..."

David reached out to interrupt Magus the moment he spoke. Then, he continued, "Listen to me, this jar of wine is called Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits. It is brewed from hundreds of precious flowers and fruits, and it can improve the physique of the consumer and enhance their talent. It is of great value, so your ancestors must have gone through great painstaking efforts to brew it. The reason why it survives to this day is because they hoped that their descendants would use it to change their destiny. I, David Lidell, cannot seize this object of their painstaking effort and love."

"Master David, no matter how high the value is, it is just a jar of wine to us. The tavern is our life. You helped us pay off the debt and prevented our family from sleeping on the streets. Therefore, this kindness is not something that can be offset by a jar of wine. You have to accept it no matter what, otherwise, we won't be able to sleep at night.”

“That's right! Master David, you must accept it, otherwise, we will all live in condemnation,’ Marigold also chimed in.

Naturally, David did not want to reject the Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits.

It was of great use to him.

People like Celia needed it to have a greater chance of breaking through Eternal Realm in the future.

However, David could not take it without giving something back.

How could he miss such an excellent opportunity to get 30 thousand lavish points?

With these 30 thousand lavish points, David's strength would undergo a quantitative leap and reach the Sovereign Rank.

Although he was still far from Sacred Saint Rank, at least for now, Sovereign Rank was enough. for him to do many things on the Central Sacred Continent.

He would also do his best at the auction to raise his strength to the peak Sovereign Rank or partial Saint Rank.

Then, he could boldly carry out the next phase of his plan.

“If you really want to give me the Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits, I can accept it, but ultimately, it was brewed with great effort by the ancestors of the Allen family, so I can't take it for free,” David said reluctantly.

“What do you mean?”

“I can only take it away with complete peace of mind if I spend some money.” David expressed his true thoughts.

Spending three trillion Star Dollars to buy the Exquisite Wine of Hundred Flowers and Fruits was David's ultimate goal.

However, as soon as he said that, Magus was enraged. He said angrily, “Master David, you are looking down on us. Although we are only civilians, we are not the kind of people who care about money. We have nothing to pay back your great kindness, so how can we ask for your money? I can't do this kind of thing."
