Chapter 6641:

Although what just happened is very annoying, after all, this is Qingyun City, forcing the city lord to be in a hurry, and it is not good for his side.

“You...”

Seeing that Yue Feng was still helping the city lord to speak at this time, Qingyu stomped his feet in a hurry and finally sat back in his position.

The Shaoyang King was clever, seeing that Yue Feng had first let the city lord dispose of his subordinates, and now he was kind enough to comfort him, and at this time he also understood that things were not as simple as they seemed, and immediately said, “Well, even if what happened just now is over.” Whew

Hearing this, the lord of the city quickly arched his hand at the Shaoyang King: “Thank you so much Wang Ye for understanding the great righteousness.” Although he controlled Qingyun City, his status was not as honorable as that of the Shaoyang King, and he naturally spoke respectfully and politely.

The Shaoyang King nodded, smiled and said, “The city lord doesn’t need to be so polite, whether he can defeat Ji Beiye’s army this time still needs your Qingyun City water army.”

Hearing these words, the city lord was not only a little fluttery.

Because the Shaoyang King said it well, the Qingyun Water Army was famous all over the world, fighting on the water, invincible, and in the past few years, the water thieves near Qingyun City had been eliminated, and more than a dozen battles had not been defeated. Although Ji Beiye had hundreds of thousands of troops, the soldiers were all northerners, and none of them understood water.

If we really want to fight, who will win and who will lose is still unknown.

However, at this time, the Shaoyang King did not know that the city lord in front of him had secretly allied with Ji Beiye.

“Lord of the City.”

At this moment, Yue Feng stood up and asked the city lord, “There is one thing I want to ask, does the city lord know Xing Tiance, the commander of the Forbidden Army?”

At this time, Yue Feng's eyes were filled with some anticipation.

Swish!

At the same time, King Shaoyang and Win Kuang also looked closely at the city lord.

Xing Tiance left the Hu tribe one step ahead of Yue Feng, and it was reasonable to say that it had arrived now, but now there was no news, and people had to worry.

It's time to come, or it's coming.

At this moment, in the face of Yue Feng's inquiry, the city lord was shocked in his heart, and then nodded: "Of course, I know, Commander Xing and I can also be regarded as old friends." With his mouth shut, the city lord's mind turned quickly, thinking about countermeasures.

Hearing the answer, Yue Feng nodded, and then sighed, "Commander Xing and I really know the Hu people..." After a few minutes, Yue Feng explained the situation.

At the end of the conversation, Yue Feng looked at the city lord and said, "Now that I have arrived in Qingyun City, Commander Xing has never heard from him, and I would like to ask the city lord if he has received any news from Qingyun City recently." Whew

At this moment, the city lord's mind turned rapidly, knowing that the paper could not contain the fire, at that time, he took a deep breath and said slowly: "Don't hide Mr. Xing, late last night, Commander Xing had already arrived in Qingyun City." We were chatting happily, and at the end I instructed the guards to put him in the inn to rest..."

Hearing these words, both Yue Feng and Shaoyang Wang and Win Kuang were immediately excited.

The next second, Yue Feng took the lead in reacting, looking at the city lord with burning eyes: "What about the others?" Alas

The city lord sighed and said falsely, "Unfortunately, Commander Xing was assassinated last night, and when the guards arrived, Commander Xing was already out of breath, assassin... The Assassins also fled.

After saying this, the city lord bowed his head and pretended to be sad.

What the?

Yue Feng was shocked, thinking that he had heard wrongly.

Xing Tiance is dead? This.... How could this be.

At the same time, Shaoyang Wang and Yingkuang were also shocked, and they couldn't believe this fact, you know, Xing Tiance was superior, walking the rivers and lakes alone, there was no problem at all, and there were very few people who could kill him.

Unless... Someone deliberately set up an ambush.

Finally, Win Kuang also eased up, and looked at the city lord very unhappily: "Why didn't you tell the first time about this matter?" In his words, he could not hide his anger.

Poof.....

Feeling the anger of Win Kuang, the lord of the city quickly knelt down and said with trepidation: "Your Majesty is angry, I also just got the news in the morning, so I hurried to report it, even thought of being delayed by Mr. Yue Feng's affairs..."

Seeing him say this, Win Kuang was inexplicably irritable in his heart, and said without anger: "Okay, you get up." "

Chapter 6642: The Shaoyang King next to him also has a gloomy face and is thinking about something.

"Your Majesty."

The city lord quickly wiped his sweat, stood up, made a look of righteous indignation, and said fiercely: "I have sent someone to track down the whereabouts of those assassins, and daring to assassinate Commander Xing is really abominable, and it must not be spared easily." Win

Kuang nodded and did not speak.

Call!

At this time, Yue Feng took a deep breath, eased up from his sadness, and his brain gradually calmed down, and the more he thought about it, the more wrong it was. Xing Tiance was able to safely reach Qingyun City all the way, which was enough to prove that he was strong. Something happened at the caravanserai.

With Xing Tiance's strength, ordinary assassins were not opponents at all. Unless ambushed....

Thinking of this, Yue Feng asked, "Where is Commander Xing's corpse?" When he inquired, Yue Feng was very anxious in his heart, and Xing Tiance carried the covenant letter written by Queen Yi himself.

It didn't matter if the Covenant Book was lost, but if it fell into the hands of Himekitano and let him have a defense in advance, it would be trouble.

"Where is Commander Xing's corpse now?" At this time, the Shaoyang King couldn't help but ask.

The lord of the city quickly responded, "Just park in the backyard of my house." Yikes!

At this moment, Yue Feng quickly stood up and asked, "Has anyone moved the body?" "May the Book of Covenants not be lost."

"Nothing!" The city lord shook his head, very affirmatively: "I specifically ordered at that time not to move the body of Commander Xing at will, and the people below did not have the guts."

When he spoke, the city lord had a sincere face, but his heart was secretly sneering.

This Yue Feng must have been worried about the Book of Covenant, but unfortunately, the Book of Covenant had already been sent to Ji Kitano by me, and now I just had to pretend not to know.

"Quick!"

Yue Feng didn't have time to think much about it, and hurriedly said, "Take us quickly." Shaoyang

Wang and Win Kuang also quickly stood up.

The city lord answered, led the way in front, left the palace, and went to the backyard of the city lord's palace.

Call!

At this moment, looking at the scene in front of him, Yue Feng was still stunned even though he was mentally prepared, and then the anger in his heart rose.

I saw that Xing Tiance's corpse was temporarily placed in the gazebo in the backyard, although it was covered with a white cloth, but the blood oozing out of the donation completely penetrated the white cloth, and the exposed arm was full of knife wounds...

It was hard to imagine what a fierce battle Xing Tiance had suffered at that time.

At this time, the Shaoyang King was also indignant, and said fiercely: "Abominable assassins, after catching them, you must slash them with a thousand knives." Yue

Feng did not speak, but slowly walked over, lifted the white cloth, and examined Xing Tiance's body.

Mader!

After checking it again, Yue Feng's face became more and more difficult to see, at this time Xing Tiance's body was empty, and the covenant book was gone.

Seeing Yue Feng's expression, Win Kuang couldn't help but ask, "How?"

Yue Feng shook his head, "The thing is gone."

Hearing this, Shaoyang Wang and Win Kuang glanced at each other, and at this time they both realized that this matter was not simple.

"Mr. Yue Feng!"

At this moment, the city lord took a step forward and asked Yue Feng knowingly, "What are you talking about?" While asking, I smiled darkly in my heart.

Ha ha....

Does this Yue Feng still want to find the Book of Covenants? What a pipe dream.

Yue Feng looked at him and said lightly, "A very important thing." At this time, Yue Feng had already begun to suspect the city lord, and at this time, he deliberately did not say it, just to see his reaction.

The city lord looked stunned, and then said angrily, "Those assassins must have taken it."

"Is it?"

Yue Feng laughed lightly and looked at the city lord complexly, "How do you know that it was taken by the assassins?" "Xing Tiance was assassinated last night, and in the morning I was treated as a traitor, maybe it was all related to the lord of this city."

Belch.....

Leng Buding was asked by Yue Feng, and the city lord was suddenly a little flustered, but he quickly calmed down, squeezed out a smile and explained: "Isn't it obvious, my people haven't touched the body, isn't it the assassin who took it?" Saying that, the city lord did not look at Yue Feng, but looked down at Xing Tiance's corpse and said falsely, "It is really sad and lamentable that such a bright and upright person as Commander Xing has suffered such a fate." "

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6643

Chapter 6643: "Commander

Xing, you can rest assured that I will definitely catch the murderer and execute him before your spirit to comfort your spirit in heaven."

I have to say that the city starred very similarly, hearing these words, Shaoyang Wang and Win Kuang both silently nodded their heads in approval.

However!

Yue Feng knew that this was not a simple assassination, and at this time, he paid close attention to the change in the expression of the city lord, and saw that he seemed to be sad, but his eyes were wandering left and right, obviously his heart was weak.

Mader!

Discovering this, Yue Feng immediately concluded that Xing Tiance's death was related to the city lord.

For a moment, Yue Feng secretly clenched his fists, and he wanted to kill the city lord with his own hands, but considering the situation in front of him, he still resisted.

After all, this is Qingyun City, all of them are each other's people, and it is not good for them to really fight.

More importantly, the safety of the Shaoyang King and the Little Emperor should also be considered....

Call!

Thinking of this, Yue Fengshen took a deep breath, suppressed his anger, and then said to the city lord, "Then trouble the city lord and catch the assassin as soon as possible."

After speaking, Yue Feng turned back to Win Kuang and said, "Your Majesty, let's go back to the palace first." Hmmm

Win Kuang nodded and said to the city lord, "Bury Commander Xing well." "After saying that, I will return to the palace with Yue Feng."

"Congratulations to Your Majesty!"

The lord of the city stood there, shouted respectfully, saw Win Kuang and Yue Feng three people leave, a smile suddenly appeared on his face, haha, rumors said that this Yue Feng was resourceful and far-sighted, using soldiers like gods, was a rare wizard in a hundred years, and now it seems that it is just so.

On the other side, Jiangbei camp.

The Red Flower Mother-in-Law and several killers fought fiercely with Ji Kitano for several hours, during which Ji Kitano wanted to mobilize soldiers and line up to kill several people in the Red Flower Mother-in-Law.

However, the Red Flower Lady and several killers were extremely powerful, and several times the soldiers had just formed a formation, and they were rushed by them.

Until dawn, the red flower mother-in-law no longer loves the war, beckoning several killers to leave, leaving a mess.

In the face of a mess, Ji Beiye was very angry and immediately ordered the soldiers to clean up the battlefield.

Then Ji Beiye thought of something, and ordered at the soldiers around him: "Just now this red flower mother-in-law said that she wants me to hand over someone, who is that person?" How to provoke the other party? This

Hearing the inquiry, the generals present looked at each other with a puzzled face.

The next second, a soldier couldn't help but say, "Back to the Great General, after that man entered the camp, he never showed his face again, and it was dark at that time, and no one saw his appearance..."

Mader!

Hearing this, Ji Beiye scolded darkly, almost exploded, and scolded loudly: "Waste, all waste." Inexplicably

, there was a fight, and now even the initiator does not know who it is, and it is difficult to calm down who it is.

"Search!"

In anger, Ji Beiye almost roared out: "The whole camp is under martial law, even if you dig three feet into the ground, you must find that person for me."

"Yes, General!"

Hearing the order, the soldiers present responded in unison and began to search the camp carefully.

Ji Beiye went to the commander-in-chief's tent with a sigh of relief.

"General, someone asked to see you." As soon as he sat down, a soldier shouted outside the ledger.

Ji Beiye was originally in a bad mood, and when he heard someone disturbing, he immediately scolded: "Please see a fart and let him roll." "

Great General!"

The soldier stood outside the tent and said very nervously, "Yes... It's from Qingyun City..."

Hearing that it was Qingyun City coming, Ji Beiye immediately calmed down, took a deep breath, and said, "Let him come in."

"Yes, General!"

More than ten seconds later, a man dressed in civilian clothes walked in and said to Hime, "I have seen the Great General, and our city lord specially asked me to send a secret message, saying that it is a matter of great importance." With that, the man respectfully handed the secret letter to Himekitano in front of him.

Matters?

Hearing this, Ji Beiye frowned, and after receiving the secret letter, he smiled: "Good, you have worked hard, go to the outside of the account to receive the reward." "

Thank you General!" The man thanked him and turned and walked out of the big tent.

As soon as the front foot left, Ji Beiye unfolded the secret letter, and after reading the contents inside, he was immediately overjoyed: “Haha, this city lord has some ability, and he actually got out of Xing Tiance, good, very good.” ”

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6644

Chapter 6644:

Speaking of which, Ji Beiye had fought with Xing Tiance, even the other party's strength, and now that he knew that Xing Tiance was dead, how could he not be happy?

Well?

However, seeing the content behind, Ji Kitano suddenly frowned darkly.

What's the situation? Nuriha is dead, and the Hu people have a new queen? Moreover, he also wrote a covenant to the little emperor?

Muttering, Nuriha unfolded the Book of Covenant, and after reading it, his face suddenly changed.

Worst!

If the Hu people had united with the little emperor, wouldn't they have been enemies in the belly and back?

However, after a short period of nervousness, Ji Beiye quickly calmed down, this covenant book had not yet reached the hands of the little emperor, and he still had enough time to prepare.

As long as you break through Qingyun City as soon as possible and capture the Little Emperor and the Shaoyang King alive, what bullshit covenant is empty talk...

On the other side, Qingyun City, the palace.

Yue Feng and Shaoyang Wang, as well as Win Kuang, returned to the Great Hall.

Alas!

As soon as he sat down, Yingkuang couldn't help but sigh and said with great regret: “Commander Xing has been assassinated, and we have one less general on our side.” With that, Win

Kuang looked at Yue Feng, "Mr. Yue Feng, did you say that the assassin was sent by Ji Beiye?"

Yue Feng took a deep breath and pondered, "It must be related to Ji Beiye, and besides, this matter is not only Ji Beiye, the city lord is probably too unrelated." What?

Hearing this, whether it was Win Kuang or Shaoyang Wang, his face changed.

What does it have to do with the city lord?

The next second, the Shaoyang King reacted and looked closely at Yue Feng: "Sir means, the city lord and..."

Before he could finish speaking, Yue Feng interrupted, "Before I came to Qingyun City last night, I deliberately took advantage of the night to inquire about Ji Beiye's camp, and I encountered the city lord sending someone to talk to Ji Beiye about cooperation..."

Subsequently, Yue Feng said what he saw and heard last night, the original version.

Swish!

Upon learning of these circumstances, Win Kuang's face changed and he said angrily, "This scum, my royal family is not thin on him, he actually betrayed Yuan, and vainly tried to collude with Ji Beiye's rebellious thief, which is really abominable." The Shaoyang King was also very angry, so he slapped the table and stood up, and said to the moon wind, "Since Sir knows that he is a traitor, why didn't he say it just now?" The more the Shaoyang King thought about it, the more angry he became: "I will now take someone to eradicate this traitor." The last word fell, and the Shaoyang King grasped the sword and was about to summon the people to the city lord's palace.

"Wang Ye!"

Seeing this situation, Yue Feng quickly blocked it and patiently persuaded: "Don't be reckless, this is Qingyun City, whether it is the water army or the defenders in the city, they are all people from the other side."

"And the people and horses brought by Wang Ye from Qi Prefecture, but a few thousand, really want to tear their faces, victory or defeat is unpredictable, and more importantly, His Majesty's safety will also be threatened."

When he said this, Yue Feng had a sincere face.

Call!

Hearing the consolation, the Shaoyang King took a deep breath, gradually calmed down, and said, "Sir, I am right, I am reckless.

At this time, Win Kuang also calmed down and said to Yue Feng, "Sir, did you endure until now, do you already have a countermeasure in mind?" "Although young, Win Kuang is very smart.

Moreover, he had been escorted all the way by Yue Feng before, and he somewhat understood, so Win Kuang knew in his heart that Yue Feng naturally had his reason for doing so.

That's right!

Hearing Win Kuang's words, Shaoyang Wang's eyes also lit up, he didn't expect anything, Mr. Yue Feng was acting unpredictably, and he must have already taken countermeasures.

Hehe...

At this moment, Yue Feng smiled slightly, and praised Win Kuang: "Your Majesty is indeed talented, I guessed it at once, yes, I already have a rough plan in mind, but I haven't thought of the specifics." With that, Yue Feng looked at the sand table in front of him and said, "Actually, as long as we are unexpected, we can also restrain this traitor, but after we can restrain him, it is difficult to say whether we can completely control the situation in Qingyun City."

"So, the best way, let's not fight the grass snake for the time being, isn't this traitor going to cooperate with Himekita?" We can make a fuss out of it. Whew

Hearing these words, Shaoyang Wang and Yingkuang looked at each other, and they couldn't express the excitement of each other, and sure enough, Yue Feng was there, and no matter how big the difficulties were, they didn't have to worry.

The ultimate husband in Chinese chapter 6645

Chapter 6645: A few seconds later, Win

Kuang couldn't wait to ask, "What does Mr. Nayi mean, what should we do?" Whew

Yue Feng breathed a sigh of relief and thought for a moment, "After a while, Your Majesty summoned him and ordered him to take the initiative tomorrow to attack the Jiangbei camp and see how he reacted." "

Good!" Win Kuang nodded, and replied without thinking.

After getting along before, Win Kuang had full trust in Yue Feng, as long as Yue Feng said it, it was almost obedient.

After the discussion, Win Kuang ordered someone to summon the lord of the city.

A few minutes later, the lord of the city hurried to the front, knelt down and said, "Your Majesty is seeing Your Majesty, Your Majesty is summoning your subordinates, is there anything urgent?" "The expression is sincere, a loyal look."

Seeing the city lord, Win Kuang could not hide the anger in his heart, but in the end he resisted.

"I ask you!"

At this time, there was no expression on Win Kuang's face fluctuating, and he asked, "How are the funerals of Commander Xing prepared?" The lord of the city replied, "Everything is ready, just wait for the world to be buried." Hmmm

Win Kuang nodded, which cut to the point: "In the past few days, I have seen the water army on the riverside, and I have been practicing, and I should be almost ready." "

Yes!" The city lord replied cautiously, "At the moment of the great enemy, the soldiers do not dare to slacken off, and they step up their training every day, just waiting to go into battle and kill the enemy as soon as possible." When he said this, his heart was murmuring darkly.

Strange, how did the little emperor suddenly ask about this?

"Good value for money"

Just when the city lord was muttering darkly, Win Kuang said slowly, "Ji Beiye Chen Bing Jiangbei, looking at Qingyun City with a tiger's eye, is really arrogant, and I order you to lead your army to take the initiative to attack early tomorrow morning, defeat the enemy army, and capture Ji Beiye alive."

When saying this, Win Kuang's voice was still a little childish, but it was unquestionable and full of aura.

What the?

Hearing this, the city lord was stunned on the spot, looking at Win Kuang in a daze, thinking that he had heard wrongly.

Only two days ago, His Majesty said, don't act rashly, as long as you guard Qingyun City well, how can you change your mind in the blink of an eye, and suddenly ask me to attack?

Thinking about it, the city lord said cautiously, "Your Majesty, Qingyun City is in a special position, in my opinion, defending the city is the best choice, if it is..."

Before he could finish speaking, Win Kuang coldly interrupted: "At this time, at another time, although the defense of the city is good, I don't want to be too passive." This

Hearing this, the lord of the city hesitated.

Seeing him like this, Win Kuang and the Shaoyang King looked at each other, and immediately determined that Yue Feng's words were true, and the city lord in front of him was really in the same stream as Ji Beiye, otherwise he would not have pushed back and blocked it like this.

For a moment, Win Kuang was very angry, but he still restrained himself and said coldly: "You don't have to hesitate, tomorrow morning, attack immediately." "

Yes, Your Majesty!"

Seeing that Win Kuang insisted on his own opinion, the city lord was very bitter in his heart, and immediately nodded his head in agreement.

Subsequently, Win Kuang gave a few more explanations and let him leave.

"Mad!"

As soon as the city lord left, the Shaoyang King could not restrain his anger and couldn't help but scold: "This thing that eats inside and outside, looking at his performance just now, should not be wrong, he has secretly united with Ji Beiye." Win

Kuang took a deep breath and said slowly, "When Ji Beiye's army is defeated, he and Ji Beiye will be executed together in front of Commander Xing's spirit to comfort the loyal soul." With that, Win well...

Yue Feng smiled slightly, "Naturally, it was the first time to send someone to inform Ji Beiye so that the other party was prepared." In short, there will be a good play tomorrow, and when we finish watching the play, we are making the next plan. Hearing this

, Shaoyang King and Win Kuang nodded in unison.

Subsequently, the three of them chatted for a while, and Yue Feng got up and said goodbye and went to the next room to rest.

After resting for a few hours, Yue Feng came out of the room, and it was already afternoon.

In the afternoon, when people were sleepy, the palace was silent at this time, so Yue Feng did not bother Win Kuang and the Shaoyang King, but left the palace alone.

On the street outside, Yue Feng went all the way south to an inconspicuous courtyard.

This courtyard, from the outside, looks like it is similar to the homes of ordinary people, in fact, it is a secret stronghold set up in Qingyun City by the Heavenly Dao.
