

Chapter 3758

The sound of Senior Oswald's sword unsheathing could be heard.

Not only was he extremely agile, but his movements were also fierce and decisive.

Slap!

Harvey swung the back of his palm forward without even saying anything.

Senior Oswald felt a sharp pain on his face when a loud slap could be heard. He instantly blacked out when he was sent flying for approximately three hundred feet.

He stumbled a few steps back with a horrible look as he landed back on the ground again.

When he saw Harvey slapping the Indians around in the footage, he did not feel impressed at all...

But after taking the slap himself, he was starting to think otherwise.

Naturally, in Senior Oswald's mind, Harvey was just a little stronger than him.

"Who the Hell are you, you b*stard?! You..."

Senior Oswald gritted his teeth before pouncing forward again without caring about the palm print on his face.

He could not believe that he would be inferior compared to a greenhorn like Harvey.

Harvey wasted no time swinging his palm forward again.

Slap!

Senior Oswald was sent flying once again. A mouthful of blood spurted out of his mouth when he crawled back off the ground.

While the disciples intently watched everything that happened, Senior Oswald gritted his teeth.

“Don’t make me use my killer move, Harvey!”

He clapped his chest and screamed toward the sky the next moment.

He quickly charged ahead while thrusting his sword forward nine different times.

Obviously, Senior Oswald was using his full strength for this attack. It was quite a spectacular sight.

At the moment, it seemed like Harvey was being attacked in every direction.

The move originated from the Golden Palace’s inner palace. It was a terrifying and powerful sight.

It could easily dazzle the opponents and make it impossible to dodge.

Many lives had also been lost by this very move.

Senior Oswald had been an experienced man for many years. With this very move, he had taken down many opponents in his lifetime.

A few female disciples were covering their faces out of fear while looking at Senior Oswald through their fingers. All of them were patiently waiting for Harvey to be completely ripped apart at that moment.

That said, Harvey did not even try to dodge such a ruthless attack when he swung his palm forward.

The move was not flashy at all. It was a simple and direct attack.

More importantly, his attack managed to land first!

After all, speed is the only way to long success!

The moment Senior Oswald saw Harvey’s incoming slap, a thought came to his mind.

Before he could even do anything else, he was already hit across the face.

Pfft!

Blood spurted out of Senior Oswald's mouth while he was spinning midair before he slammed into the water feature in the main hall.

The disciples of the Golden Palace felt sluggish yet again.

'Senior Oswald lost just like that?'

'He couldn't even dodge a single slap? He lost just like that?'

They were in utter disbelief. Senior Oswald was a top talent of the Golden Palace, after all!

Even the previous so-called experts were inferior compared to him! How did he even get defeated this way?

Nobody could believe what was actually happening in front of them...

But no matter how much they did not want to believe it. No matter how hard their eyes twitched, the cold hard truth was displayed right in front of them.

'He lost! He actually lost!'

The disciples of the Golden Palace were completely distraught.

Chapter 3759

Not even a single disciple would dare to stand out at this very moment.

The people blocking the exits instinctively moved aside, so they did not seem like they were going against Harvey York.

Simply put, even though the Golden Palace was strong and prominent...

They still believed that raw power meant everything.

And since Harvey slapped aside everyone who opposed him with domineering strength, they were obviously afraid of him.

Even though they had the numbers, even though they were strapped to the teeth and even though Harvey was fighting alone with people dragging him down.

Nobody would be insane enough to go against him.

After all, they did not want to perish.

"Kneel outside," said Harvey as he glanced at the crowd indifferently.

"Kneel?"

The disciples were utterly enraged when they heard those words.

They were high and mighty disciples of the Golden Palace, yet Harvey was blatantly insulting them, demanding them to kneel outside!

What a joke!

"Go together!"

"You'll pay for insulting us like this!"

"He can't fight us all!"

A few disciples were showing utter resentment before standing up.

"We outnumber you!"

"Even you can't take us all of us down!"

"How are we supposed to report back to the Golden Palace if we don't cripple him now?!"

The fearful disciples were slowly moving forward while gritting their teeth.

"You're not kneeling then?" Harvey calmly asked while taking a step forward.

Bam!

The tiles on the floor shattered into pieces before they flew everywhere.

The disciples in front were blasted by the tile shards before they could even react. They were lying on the ground, paralyzed, with their punctured heads covered in blood.

The faces of the other disciples completely lost color after seeing the sight.

Then, someone instantly slammed their knees on the ground.

Soon after, another followed. And then another...

In the end, only one man was standing in the main hall.

Harvey calmly walked toward Pedro Benett, who was barely keeping himself up. Then, he made a gesture, signaling a higher-up to bring over a contract.

"Are you accepting my conditions now or what?" Harvey said while slapping the contract documents in Pedro's face.

"I am! I'll do whatever you say!"

Pedro's stubbornness was all gone. Only pure fear could be seen on his face at this moment. His pride and spirit were already crushed as soon as he saw Senior Oswald all beaten up.

"Rachel Hardy, call Layne Naiswell and Kayden Balmer over to deal with this.

"Finish up the transfer this afternoon.

"Get these people to kneel in front of the entrance."

Then, Harvey smiled at Mandy before leaving the place.

After all, he still had a fight to win at Flutwell's Peak.

At three o'clock in the afternoon, Harvey walked into Flutwell's Peak with Rachel accompanying him.

As soon as he showed up, Axel Garcia and the group of Indians came to greet him after waiting for a long while.

"Sir York, I heard you were taking advantage of some people in your wife's company. I'm also pretty sure they were people of the Golden Palace!

"How arrogant can you get?!

"I have to say. I'm pretty impressed!

"That said, you're still planning to participate in the fight after hurting so many people?

"Do you think you even have the right for that?"

Chapter 3760

"I don't think you have a say in that, Axel Garcia," replied Harvey York calmly.

Axel showed a faint smile before looking at the Martial Arts Alliance representatives.

"I have a report, representatives!

"Harvey went to his wife's company to cause trouble and injured eight people! There are people kneeling outside his wife's company right now!

"I suspect he was taking advantage of the people outside using his fame as a fighter of Country H!

"I ask of you to remove Harvey from the fight!"

"Remove him! Remove him!" exclaimed the group of Indians in unison.

Even the Indians who were watching from the side also cheered.

If Harvey were to be removed from the fight, they would be the ones winning without breaking a sweat!

Even if they could not remove Harvey, they would have an excuse not to admit defeat.

"You knew that this fight was crucial, Harvey! Longmen and Country H's reputation depend on this, yet you were running around causing trouble instead of resting up!"

"You even used your fame to take advantage of people at large! At this point, you've crossed the line!"

In the crowd, the representative of Country H's Martial Arts Alliance of the southwest region, Rhea Osborne, stood up while letting out a cold chuckle.

"You'll get Longmen's fighters in trouble doing that! How do you not understand this?"

"Because of you, India will have the authority to state their complaints!"

"Even if you win your fight later, the Indians probably wouldn't admit defeat!"

"You're a flawed fighter, after all!"

"If Longmen loses because of your recklessness, you'll have to take responsibility for everything!"

The people from Country H looked at each other after hearing Rhea's comments.

Fisher Benett, Damian Steele, and the others did not even know what to say at that moment.

Picking a fight during the break could potentially be detrimental.

If the Indians were dead set on this problem, the fight would probably end without Harvey participating.

Clyde Osborne heaved a sigh after seeing the sight.

"How can you be this reckless, Sir York? Don't you understand just how important the next match is?"

"We didn't ask you to run around causing trouble during the break! You were supposed to rest up for your next fight!

"What do you want us to say now?"

Harold Bauer showed a bitter look.

"We were looking forward to you fighting in the ring! We know you have a pretty good chance of winning..."

"But there's nothing you can do if your opponent doesn't admit defeat because of you being a flawed fighter!"

"Did you even read the regulations, Harvey?" asked Elliot John.

"Your actions are clearly forbidden!

"Let me tell you something! Unless your opponent ignores this and fights you normally..."

"You already lost!

"Throughout five thousand years of the country's civilization, the Indians had never won against us!

"If we lose today because of you, you'll be condemned by history!"

"That's right!"

Clyde, Harold, and Elliot were going against Harvey simultaneously.

Even Bryce Kennedy was frowning after seeing the sight.

"I'm afraid you'll have to explain this to the representatives, Harvey!

"If not, you might just be disqualified from the fight for good!"

Chapter 3761

A few princes and young masters were going against Harvey York after seeing the infighting. The Indians were all showing mischievous looks on their faces

Harvey causing trouble outside was probably not a big deal.

It could be considered trivial even.

But because of the listed regulations, it would be extremely troublesome if anyone were to raise the question.

And since everything had escalated to this point...

It would be best for the Indians if Harvey were removed from the fight with just a few words.

Out of the entire crowd, only Zoe Garcia remained silent.

She only frowned when she looked at Harvey, as if she wanted to see how he would break out of the situation.

After all, Harvey would not get a chance to fight in the ring if he did not.

Harvey glanced at Clyde Osborne and the others before finally shifting his gaze toward Axel Garcia.

"You're pretty informative, I see," spoke Harvey with a faint smile.

"You already know pretty much everything when I just went to do all that this afternoon!

"You must have a good relationship with the Golden Palace!

"No wonder Cody Garcia was previously an elder of the Golden Palace!

"You claim I'm flawed and have no right to participate, and my win wouldn't even count...

"But I don't think you have the right to decide that, do you?"

Axel's smile froze after hearing Harvey's words.

Zoe's eyes twitched. She was starting to lean toward Harvey at this point.

"Both of us have no say in the situation.

"Instead, why don't we get someone involved from the Golden Palace to explain the entire thing?" suggested Harvey with a faint smile.

"If anything at all points toward me taking action against the people of the Golden Palace, I'll admit defeat immediately!

"But if not, I'd like you to shut your damn mouth.

"Maybe it's a little bothersome to do that. Why don't we let Young Master John explain the situation himself?

"If he can tell us the Golden Palace was causing trouble to my wife to be in the Indians' good grace, forcing my hand in the process...

"I'll admit defeat and even leave without making a fuss. How about that?"

Harvey faintly smiled in front of Elliot John.

At the same time, he gestured to Rachel Hardy so she could record the entire conversation with her phone.

The crowd all looked at Elliot simultaneously

Elliot's expression instantly changed after hearing Harvey's words

Other than quietly cursing Harvey in his heart, Elliot was infuriated because of Rhea Osborne and the others' foolish behavior.

Rhea and the others had an opportunity to talk Harvey down, but they still gave him a chance to speak

Harvey easily shifted all the blame to Elliot with his sharp mouth.

At this point, if Elliot admitted that Harvey fought with the Golden Palace...

He would be held responsible for Harvey's disqualification and the country's loss.

'That b*stard! That heinous b*stard with a sharp tongue!'

Elliot wanted to strangle himself so badly.

Harvey calmly looked at Elliot with a faint smile

"Well? We're all waiting for you. You can't just turn mute right now..."

Chapter 3762

Elliot John looked around the place before finally forcing out a smile worse than a crying face.

"You must be joking.

"Why would the Golden Palace even have a conflict with you?

"These are just false rumors! Please don't misunderstand us, Harvey York!

"Also, don't get us wrong, everyone!"

"Oh? Is that so?

Harvey showed a calm look on his face.

"Since the young master of the John family said so..."

"I think there should be no concerns, right?

"Or rather, do you people have something to prove otherwise?

"Even Young Master John himself doesn't have anything to say about me fighting against the Golden Palace. What are you going to use to prove him wrong?"

"Your own life?"

Harvey's playful words were filled with double meanings. Not just Elliot, Clyde Osborne and Harold Bauer were also showing horrible looks.

Axel Garcia's prideful smile instantly dissipated after hearing those words.

After glaring at Harvey for a long while, he forced out a chuckle before saying, "Since Young Master John said so, then I'm sure it's all just a small misunderstanding!"

"We're only speaking for fairness' sake. Please don't take this to heart."

Naturally, Elliot did not want to be targeted for being the witness.

No matter how resentful Axel was, he had no choice but to give up.

After all, nobody expected Harvey to break through the situation with just a few words.

At this moment, even the people of the Golden Palace would not dare to accuse Harvey of anything.

Nobody wanted to be condemned for the rest of their lives anyway.

"Should I give thanks to you, honorable people, for giving me a chance to fight then?" said Harvey with a playful smile.

"If you're really that terrified of me taking out your final participant, you should just tell me right now.

"Maybe you can also kneel before me, Axel. I might just remove myself from the fight if I'm in a good enough mood.

"Want to give that a try?"

Axel showed a horrible look on his face after hearing Harvey's words.

"You're crossing the line, Harvey!"

"Don't be so cocky! Do you think you're invincible or something?!"

"Let me tell you something!"

"We'll pay you back for everything you've done to the Indians and more!"

"I do want to see you run your mouth when you lose this fight!"

Axel waved his hand before leading the others back to their resting area.

Harvey smiled without saying a word before returning to his resting area for some tea.

This final match was crucial.

Other than prominent figures like Harold and Sienna Wright, Colton Torres also showed up, even though he was rarely to be seen in public.

After greeting Colton, Harvey quietly sat down in his seat.

Everyone knew just how important this fight was.

After all, the fight alone was going to decide the overall victor.

Soon enough, it was already three o'clock.

The host walked into the ring with a stern expression before announcing Harvey and Zoe's names.

"This fight will decide the final victor! At the same time, this is by far the most anticipated fight!"

"That was why the representatives of the Martial Arts Alliance have decided to add some handicaps to the two fighters!"

Chapter 3763

"Since you're both expert martial artists, it'll be too much of a waste for you to fight without a purpose.

"That was why we decided to let you choose between twelve traditional weapons.

"The rules are simple. You're only allowed to fight using your chosen weapons. You are not allowed to fight barehanded.

"You'll also lose the right to fight if you lose your weapon.

"Understand?"

Then, the host waved his hand before a group of workers brought over a few weapon racks.

Every single form of cold steel could be seen on the racks at that moment.

Harvey York frowned before he calmly replied, "Got it."

Zoe Garcia also nodded lightly.

"What the f*ck? What is the meaning of this?"

"They're only allowed to use weapons to fight?"

"Did they do this intentionally to restrict Harvey after previously seeing the power of his slaps?"

"They're not actually this shameless now, are they?"

"But the representatives are allowed to change the rules however they please! Nobody can do anything about it!"

The crowd was gossiping up a storm.

The people of Country H were all showing odd looks.

All of them believed that Harvey would be affected by the limitations.

After all, Harvey had been using his bare hands to slap his opponents away during the previous matches. Not even once had he used any sort of weapon to help him.

This meant that Harvey was probably better at fighting bare-handed than using weapons.

Zoe, on the other hand, was clearly the opposite.

Under those circumstances, the restriction alone was enough to put Harvey in a tough spot.

Fisher Benett, Damian Steele, and the others frowned after hearing the new regulations.

Nobody thought that someone would announce such a thing in the first place. 1

Clyde Osborne and Rhea Osborne were showing profound looks on their faces at this moment.

They were dead set on stopping Harvey from rising to power.

In actuality, Rhea was the one who requested the limitation.

Not only would Harvey's strength be limited, but she would also be in India's good graces.

Clyde felt proud. He truly believed he was completely different from Elliot John, who only knew how to run his mouth.

This was the prime example of going under the belt!

The Indians were starting to show their confident smiles after seeing the sight.

Axel Garcia let out a cold chuckle

"Aren't you supposed to be strong. Harvey? You're impressive, aren't you?"

"Let Zoe pick a weapon first, then!"

Harvey calmly glanced at Axel before shifting his gaze toward Zoe

"Please, Maiden."

Zoe showed an odd expression before she picked up a longsword from the weapons rack.

Harvey tried picking up a sword under everyone's gaze.

Clink!

The moment Harvey grabbed the sword, the sword that looked nothing out of the ordinary snapped in half.

The sword was clearly made out of broken copper and rusted iron. There was no way the sword was even usable.

Harvey's expression slightly changed after seeing the sight.

"Oh my! How are you this clumsy?" screamed Rhea from the resting area.

"The Martial Arts Alliance prepared for all this! How could you just break something like that?"

"This is war, but you're still going to compensate for the public property if you're still alive after the fight!"

"Of course, if you die in the ring, we'll forget about the debt."

"How's that? We're pretty generous, right?"

Chapter 3764

Sienna Wright looked back at Rhea Osborne.

She could not believe that Rhea had nothing to do with the situation.

Simply put, Rhea was the one who was restricting Harvey while forcing him to run out of weapons to use.

Typically speaking, Harvey's strength would be slightly held back because of this...

But he was not even mad about it at all. All he did was smile at Rhea.

"Thank you for your concern, but it doesn't really matter whether I have a weapon or not."

"Heh heh! Then, I hope you can keep this up! If you lose, you'll have to take the responsibility yourself!" exclaimed Rhea coldly.

Harvey shrugged before casually picking up a longsword and dragging it across the ground as he walked toward the middle of the ring.

Axel Garcia coldly chuckled after seeing the sight.

"You can't use your hands anymore! You also broke the weapon that you use the most!

"You probably can't use all your strength to fight anymore, can you?

"I suggest you stay out of this fight. Get down from the ring already! Stop embarrassing yourself!"

Harvey cracked a smile.

"You're right about that. I'm not too good with this thing too."

Then, Harvey threw his sword outside the ring.

Everyone stood frozen. Nobody understood what Harvey was doing.

After all, throwing his weapon would mean admitting defeat.

The host froze before he exclaimed, "Do you understand what you just did?"

"You can't fight back anymore! At this point, you can only dodge!

"If you fight back, you'll lose automatically!

"Are you sure about this?!"

After hearing the host's kind warning, the crowd from Country H's side froze before bursting out in anger.

"What the Hell is Harvey doing?! Why did he throw away his weapon like that?!"

"What's the point of fighting anymore?! He already lost!"

"The rumors were true after all! He really did get bought off by the Indians!"

"He's leaving us no way out of this! He's admitting defeat at the most crucial moment!"

"We're finished! This one man ruined five thousand years of Country H's civilization!"

"The Indians will probably brag about this internationally too!"

"We can't talk about Harvey like this either! He won two whole matches in the morning! It's only natural he'd give up now! Those representatives were clearly going against him!"

"Who cares about that?! He lost now! He's letting the entire country down!"

"Right! He is a traitor: We can't let him off the hook! We'll beat him till he's dead when he gets outside!"

"Doesn't he have dozens of Budokans under his name? We're smashing it all down!"

"Yeah! He needs to take responsibility for the loss! How dare he get this much praise without any consequences?"

The crowd was furiously demanding Harvey to give them a fair statement.

If it were not for the security guards on site, they would have pounced right toward Harvey already "Shut up already!"

Clyde Osborne clapped his hands with a dreary smile.

"Sir York must be absolutely confident of winning the fight for doing this. Am I right?"

The crowd burst out in anger after hearing Clyde's words.

'Is he testing everyone's bottom line? Is he looking down on us?'

"How is he going to win without a weapon?"

Chapter 3765

Harvey York merely smiled at Clyde Osborne after hearing his words.

"I didn't expect Prince Osborne would understand me the best.

"He's right. I did that because I'm confident I'll win!

"Rather, I already won!"

Before Clyde could even say anything, the Indians were already laughing their stomachs off.

Axel Garcia could not help but show a derisive expression on his face.

"How can you be so cocky, Harvey?"

"You threw your weapon away, yet you're telling us you can win?"

"Are you overestimating us? Or are you looking down on us Indians?"

"Let me tell you something! Not just Zoe Garcia, one of the top three talents from India...

"Any top talent with a sword can take you down!"

Axel believed that Harvey was only good at fighting barehanded and did not know how to wield any weapons.

With the representatives' arrangement, Harvey was sure to lose

The wealthy ladies were crossing their arms while disdainfully glaring at Harvey.

They thought that Harvey was just a show-off.

But before they could even open their mouths, a calm voice could be heard before the smiles on their faces disappeared.

"I admit, I'm no match for Sir York," said Zoe while looking at Harvey. 1

"That's why I admit defeat!"

The crowd froze before countless gasps could be heard all over the place.

'The Maiden herself admitted defeat?'

Everyone's jaw dropped instantly. They could not believe what they had just heard.

Some of them even slapped themselves to make sure they were not dreaming right now.

Harvey was already barehanded. He had no choice but only to dodge.

Zoe would definitely win no matter how she fought...

And yet she admitted defeat on her own.

This meant that Harvey won without even lifting a single finger.

Everyone was completely shocked.

Clyde's mouth was wide open, as if he had been slapped around a hundred times. An extremely horrible look was showing on his face at the moment.

Rhea Osborne's face immediately darkened before cold sweat ran down her back.

She paid a heavy price to put Harvey in this spot...

But after putting in so much effort, it was still useless against him.

Rhea wanted to strangle Zoe so badly at this point.

'Why would she admit defeat?'

'Why did this happen?'

The Indians were downright sluggish.

Axel's face froze instantly. He could not even keep his mouth closed then.

Even Fisher Bennett, Sienna Wright, Colton Torres, and the others gasped in shock.

Only Harvey showed a calm look on his face, as if he had already anticipated this would happen.

The host's entire face was twitching at this moment.

After a long while, he finally came back to his senses.

"Are you sure you want to do that, Zoe?" he asked with his trembling hand holding the mic.

"Are you really sure?"

"Nobody is forcing you to do this?"

"That's right. I can't go against Sir York," replied Zoe with her back straight.

Chapter 3766

"I know how strong he actually is!"

"Not just the sword; even if I have a firearm and he's just standing there, I'm still no match against him!"

"I'd be more embarrassed if I lost that way! My pride and dignity will be crushed instantly!"

"That's why I've decided to forfeit right now!"

"My skills are completely inferior! I'm totally fine with losing against Sir York!"

Zoe then turned around and bowed in front of Axel and the other Indians.

"I'm sorry I disappointed you, everyone."

"You b*tch! You damn b*tch!"

Axel finally came to his senses.

He was jumping around furiously, anger had completely taken over his entire being.

"You're forfeiting before you even try!"

"Harvey can't even throw a punch at you! Just squash him like a damn bug already!"

Zoe!"

"Who gave you the courage to admit defeat like this?"

"Who gave you the right?!"

"You better win this fight, Zoe!"

"This is war! War, I tell you!"

"If you take it easy on Harvey, I'll make sure you die for it!"

"Your entire family will die without a grave!"

"Even your ancestors will be dug up from their resting grounds and be burnt to a crisp!"

Axel looked like a raging beast craving to rip Zoe's body apart, even though Zoe still had the aura of a Demon Monk on her.

Not only would the outcome of the fight involve multiple countries' fates, but many people's interests were tied to it as well!

If Zoe were to lose, not only would India's reputation be completely tarnished, but even Axel would be taken in for questioning by his own country.

Thus, Axel couldn't accept the fact that Zoe forfeited.

"I'm really sorry, Master Garcia!"

"I know you hoped for us to win. I know you want me to keep fighting..."

"But even if I win like this, how would the media see this incident?"

"How would the history books view this?"

*India won a war using mere schemes?"

"I can't risk being hated by the people!"

"I can't stand that!"

"Since this fight was already unfair from the very beginning. I can only fight for my own glory!"

"Even if I'm on par with Harvey now, I'd still do the same thing."

Zoe then took a step forward and exclaimed righteously, "I'm forfeiting this fight!"

"Shut up!"

"You shut your mouth!" Axel screamed, filled with unbridled rage, after hearing Zoe's righteous exclamation.

"Kill Harvey right now! Right now, I say!"

"I'll f*cking kill you if you don't!"

Axel jumped out of his seat and leapt toward Zoe, trying to slap her in the face before the security guards hurriedly stopped him.

Zoe's expression turned colder when she heard his words. She slowly walked out of the ring.

Harvey watched calmly as she walked away

"You b*stard! You b*tch! I want you dead! I'll make sure of it!" Axel yelled, furious.

"You f*cking traitor!"

"Your family will pay for this!"

Chapter 3767

"Kill that b*tch! Kill that traitorous b*tch!"

"You call that a Maiden? She's just a coward!"

"We'll beat up that traitorous b*tch!"

The Indians were all showing righteous fury, and every single one of them tried to pounce Zoe.

But a large group of security guards swarmed in, stopping the Indians from making any move.

The fierce Indians had no choice but to stop moving, stunned to see the firearms in the security guards' hands.

Longmen was in charge of the security, after all.

They didn't have an excuse before, but now, they did.

If the Indians were to do anything reckless, it would be natural for security to take them all out at once.

"The Maiden has already admitted defeat and left the ring."

"What are you still waiting for? Announce it already."

Harvey had a small smile as he looked at the host. Meanwhile, the representatives were completely stunned.

"The rules state that leaving the ring or admitting defeat would count as a loss."

"Of course, if you're planning to change the rules right now, you can do it right now. I'm listening."

The crowd immediately started gossiping after hearing those words.

No matter the reason, Zoe had already admitted defeat and walked out of the ring.

Harvey was the only person left on the ring.

Looking at it from this perspective, he should've been the winner.

Country H should've won.

"My host and representatives, I don't think we should count this fight at all! Zoe's clearly bought off or being threatened!" Axel suddenly shouted.

"I want India to have a fair chance!"

"Because of that, we'll send out another top talent to fight!"

"That b*stard is using underhanded tactics against us! This is unfair to India! He's insulting every single representative here, too!"

"We won't admit defeat if he wins like this!"

"I think this is odd too, representatives. If Harvey wins this way, the crowd will never be pleased!"

Rhea stood up, her face grim.

"We have a good relationship with the Indians. We're allies!"

"I think we should give the Indians another chance."

"You need to investigate Zoe, too!"

"As a civilized country, we need to give them a chance."

"After all, we need to show our generosity in order for them to accept defeat willingly."

"The fight would be completely meaningless otherwise! Am I right?"

Rhea had a bright smile, as if she was standing on the side of justice.

She looked as though this was the only way to show the country's generosity.

"I disagree!"

Suddenly, Sienna stood up with a cold expression.

"The rules were set from the very beginning! Admitting defeat or stepping outside the ring would mean losing!"

"There's no reason for anyone to add another person to the fight just because someone forfeited."

"If Zoe really was bought off or threatened, the Indians should be the ones to show evidence!"

"If not, then this is pure slander!"

Chapter 3768

"If we're going to give them another chance because of this, we can also assume that all the provincial champions from our side lost because they were bought off."

"We'd be able to get more people to join if that's the case, right?"

"But what's the point? We won't be able to finish the damn fight even after three whole years!"

"Zoe is the Maiden of India too!"

"Since she thinks she's inferior compared to Harvey and admitted defeat, then that should've been it."

"That's her choice!"

"We can't just rob her of that!"

"Besides, if we're really going to investigate anything, shouldn't we start with the young talents' poisoning first?"

"If there's not even an order to this, how do you suppose we can remain impartial?"

Sienna's words weren't that powerful, but they dealt a huge blow.

Not only did she suppress the Indians, but she also made it so that the representatives wouldn't dare cross the line, even if they were already biased.

Just like Sienna said, the young talents' poisoning should've been the priority...

But if this continued, on top of the situation being never-ending, some of their reputations would be completely tarnished as well...

It was just too risky!

After seeing the crowd convinced by Sienna, Rhea's eyes twitched. Then, she forced a smile.

"But at the end of the day, India's still not happy about Zoe forfeiting"

"In my eyes, our relationship with them is definitely more important than the outcome of the match."

"Don't be mistaken, everyone. Friendship comes first!"

"That's right! The Indians have given us a lot of benefits. We can't possibly ruin our friendship!" Clyde added, shouting as well.

"Besides, this fight is completely anti-climatic! What will happen if outsiders hear of this?"

"This is a martial arts fight!"

"If someone forfeits the way Zoe did, people will think that the fight was only just for show. They'll assume that Country H won through immoral means!"

"Not only will everyone question us, but our image internationally will also suffer!"

"Who said that the fight needed to be intense? You think someone admitting defeat is considered fishy?"

Sienna's gaze shifted toward Rhea and Clyde.

"Besides, Harvey won the fight in front of everyone."

"He slapped his opponents away with ease during the past two fights. Everyone acknowledged it too!"

"Are we going to talk about the rule to prevent fighters from using their bare fists too?"

"The audience and the Martial Arts Alliance from every single country aren't all idiots who'll listen to whatever rubbish you have to say!"

"Harvey won fair and square! So what if the Indians don't approve of it?"

"We're already generous enough to not talk about the rules being changed on the spot!"

"Is this not enough for the Osborne family?"

"Are we only generous if we betray our own country's interests?"

Rhea scoffed coldly and walked forward.

"That's completely different. We're in a great country with five thousand years worth of history! Why would we even argue about such a trivial matter?"

"So what if we give away something for our dear allies?"

"It's a blessing for us to suffer a little if the Indians get something out of this, right?"

"You..."

Sienna's chest heaved in anger once she heard Rhea's shameless words.

Chapter 3769

"Right as Sienna was about to say something in response, Harvey slowly walked toward the VIP guests with a smile on his face.

"Princess Wright, there's no point talking to Representative Osborne."

"Hmmm?"

Sienna and the crowd froze, and looked at him oddly.

'Can't he tell that Princess Wright was trying to reason for his sake?'

Harvey ignored everyone's gaze and said, "Some people just can't stand on their own two feet after serving others."

"They wouldn't understand why our great country doesn't need other people's approval."

"You think they're allies?"

"What a damn joke!"

"Of course they'll say that when we're strong. As soon as we're weak, they'll stab us in the back instantly!"

"This is the only acknowledgment we'll get."

"For example, Representative Osborne has been looking down on me the entire time. She has no choice but to do that, right?"

Harvey slapped Rhea aside before she could react.

He then looked around him and said, "Ask her if she's satisfied now."

"Aaagh!"

Rhea screamed in pain before falling to the ground.

A bright red palm print could be seen on her face and her hair was all messed up; she looked extremely miserable.

She wanted to fight back so badly, but then she remembered that this was the second time Harvey had slapped her in the face.

She was no match against Harvey, she would end up horribly if she went against him!

Clyde and the others froze at the sight.

They didn't think that Harvey would actually slap Rhea in the face in front of everyone.

Even Clyde's eyes were frantically twitching; he could feel his breath gradually being taken away.

He frowned; he wanted to speak up, but his heart instantly sank after seeing the people of Country H happily cheering from the corner of his eyes.

If he said anything, he would probably end up being beaten up like a street rat.

Elliot and Harold were both expressionless.

Though they all came together, they weren't on the same side as Clyde.

After seeing Rhea suffer, they would naturally stay out of it.

Bryce had a good relationship with Rhea, but he would be disrespecting his own people if he stood up for her.

He didn't want to bear the responsibility for that.

Since these people wouldn't dare speak up, the others would naturally do the same.

Upon realizing this, Rhea was filled with despair.

She knew she had angered the crowd.

Nobody would dare go against the entire world for her sake.

"I'm sorry for using up so much of your time, everyone."

After slapping Rhea aside, Harvey smiled at the host and shrugged.

"If you think this match doesn't count, I can fight another person again.

A few representatives looked at each other, and then gathered together.

Axel and the others stopped lashing out; they glared daggers at Harvey, desperately wanting to rip the man to shreds.

Axel couldn't understand how Harvey managed to get Zoe on his side.

Harvey and Zoe only met once, and that happened under his surveillance.

What could've possibly happened that one time?

Axel knew Harvey definitely bought Zoe off, but he had no solid proof to back his claim.

Chapter 3770

"According to the rules, Harvey wins!"

Ten minutes later, a few members of the Martial Arts Alliance and the host walked into the ring.

"The fight between Longmen and India has come to an end!"

"After days of fierce battles, the Indians were completely defeated-Longmen wins!"

"According to the rules, every Martial Arts Alliance will be informed of Harvey and Country H's win!"

Loud applause could be heard, and the crowd was in an uproar.

The people of Country H were thrilled.

This meant that the talk about India having superior martial arts was just utter nonsense.

At the same time, this meant that the martial arts of Country H was on a higher level on a global scale.

"No! We won't accept this!" the Indians cried.

"This is rigged! Rigged!"

"I won fair and square. You clowns have no right to say things like that."

Harvey glanced calmly at the Indians.

"The three greatest Martial Arts Alliances in the world are in charge of this fight. The entire process is completely impartial, to boot."

The host had no choice but to stay quiet, even though he had been going against Harvey from the very beginning.

"If you people have no evidence, the Martial Arts Alliances wouldn't mind blacklisting India globally for slander."

The Indians instantly gave up after hearing those words. They glared furiously at Harvey.

"You didn't even fight for this, you b*stard!" they all yelled.

Harvey shrugged without care; he took the gold badge the host brought over before happily taking pictures as commemoration.

"I won't accept this, Harvey! I'll challenge you on behalf of India! I want to fight you!"

Axel pushed a few security guards aside, screaming at Harvey.

"Right here, right now!"

"If I can't win against you, I'll slam my head to the ground!"

"But if you lose, I don't want the outcome of the war to change either..."

"I only want you to tell everyone that you're inferior compared to me!"

"Do you dare?"

Axel knew he had no way to fix the situation at this point.

No matter how much he provoked Harvey, Harvey was still the only champion.

If Axel continued screaming at Harvey, the three great Martial Arts Alliances that had a good impression of the Indians would start to think badly of them.

His actions weren't worth it at all.

That was why Axel had no choice but to challenge Harvey himself.

If he could crush the champion, the Indians would be able to reclaim their reputation even slightly.

"Are you shameless, Axel?!"

Fisher stood up with righteous fury.

"As one of the three Demon Monks, you're one of the best martial artists in India!"

"You're a senior as well!"

"You're taking advantage of the situation, forcing a junior to fight you like this!"

"Besides, you have no say here!"

"What gives you the right to fight him?!"

"He's already the champion!"

Naturally, Fisher knew that Axel was desperate.

Harvey was already the champion; he was already in line to become the young lord of Longmen.

Under these circumstances, why would Harvey play by Axel's rules?

Chapter 3771

Harvey smiled faintly while he watched Axel jumping up and down in anger.

"I've already crushed you people."

"As the person who challenged Longmen with so many people and tricks under your belt, not only did you not win, but you also didn't manage to kill me either. How are you supposed to report this to the royal family?"

"If I'm guessing correctly, you probably have to smash your head open right in front of the royal palace to keep your family alive."

"Since you're already a dead man, why would I fight you?"

"Are you even worthy?"

"You b*stard..."

Axel didn't think that Harvey would have seen through him completely.

"Well, you'll be famous if you win against me!"

"You can tell the whole world that you beat me with your own strength, and not through petty tricks!"

"If I can't beat you in one move, I'll slam my head on the ground right now!"

"You don't think you can actually defend yourself against me, do you?"

"Or do you think you'll embarrass your entire country if I actually do beat you?"

"If you're not willing to accept the challenge, then you're clearly guilty!"

"People will think that you only became the champion through underhanded tricks!"

Axel glared fiercely at Zoe; everyone clearly knew what he was thinking.

"To be honest with you, I don't think you can beat me with just one move. Actually, I don't think that you can block my one move either," Harvey said with a small smile.

"I'll play with you, but here's the thing: you have nothing left to wager."

Axel's eyes were about to pop out after hearing those words.

"What do you want?!" he hissed.

"If you can't beat me in one move and I beat you instead, you'll have to tell me how you poisoned the young talents. You have to tell me who you worked with to set me up too," Harvey whispered to Axel.

"If you swear to your royal family that you'll tell me everything that happened, I'll play with you."

Axel was breathing rapidly, his eyes a vengeful gaze; he initially assumed that Harvey wanted his life or money. He didn't think that Harvey was planning to torture his heart.

If Axel spilled the beans, all of the Indians' arrangements in Country H would be completely exposed.

Even if nobody were to hunt Axel down in India, there would probably be people in Country H willing to take him out

"Go back home. You're on your own."

"You can't leave! I'm in!"

Axel gritted his teeth and pulled out his phone.

"Everything you want is in here! If I lose, this is yours! Everything you want to know is right here!"

He couldn't be bothered to think of the consequences of his actions.

After all, he was a dead man anyway.

"Why would I believe you?" Harvey asked calmly.

"Do you take me for a fool?"

"I swear to God! The entire royal family will die without a burial spot if I lie about this!"

Chapter 3772

"Fine. A gentleman never goes back on his word."

Harvey smiled calmly. Then, he turned around and clapped in front of everyone.

"Please, everyone. Be quiet."

"Just now, one of the three Demon Monks, Master Axel Garcia, struck a deal with me."

"He wants to trade a single move with me."

"If he wins, I'll have to announce that I'm completely inferior against him."

"But if he loses, he'll have to give me his phone that's filled with his little secrets."

"Please don't leave the ring for the time being. Let's all witness this fight together!"

The people who were about to leave were exhilarated.

Every single match that happened on this day was more intense than the last.

Even though Harvey and Zoe's fight was a little anticlimactic...

The fights were still exciting overall

Everyone grew interested when Harvey announced that there would be another match.

On one side, the champion of Country H...

On the other side, one of the three Demon Monks...

Everyone wanted to see who was stronger.

The representatives and the host came back soon after.

Rhea turned around, hiding the fury on her face; she desperately wanted to see Axel crush Harvey in a single move.

"That's right! Since I'm a senior, I wouldn't take advantage of Harvey!"

"I'll only be using one move!"

Axel slowly pulled up his sleeves before releasing his aura.

"I want you to see just how scary India's martial arts really is!"

"You people are all too ignorant and shallow!"

"I'll let you know that India's martial arts are the greatest there is!"

"We can't be stopped just because someone used underhanded tricks!"

"Everyone! It's time for you to witness a miracle..."

Axel took a deep breath before throwing a punch right at Harvey.

He used all his strength for the attack; even if he couldn't kill Harvey, he still wanted to cripple Harvey and make sure that Harvey had no chance to show off ever again!

Axel believed he would be unstoppable if he used everything he had in the punch.

As he threw his punch, a wretched look on his face, Harvey calmly swung a palm forward

‘He’s too late!’

“But he did the same thing before!”

‘How does he do it that easily?!’

“No...!”

Axel felt a sharp pain on his face before he could even let out a shriek. 1

He was instantly sent flying, and slammed painfully to the ground...

Despair took hold of him.

“You people are just no good.”

Harvey smirked when he saw Axel’s twitching body.

He then walked up and tapped Axel mockingly on the face.

“You want to beat me with a pathetic single move like that?”

“How can you be so ignorant?”

“I could’ve killed you if I wanted to...”

“But since this is a big day, that won’t be any good.”

“Get out of here while you still can. If you keep causing trouble in this country..

“I won’t be holding back any longer.”

Harvey threw Axel’s phone on the table to Rachel.

She would be able to handle everything smoothly.

Everyone froze when they saw what had taken place. A second later, they came back to their senses and started gossiping.

Chapter 3773

"He won?"

"Harvey won again?"

"That Demon Monk's no good either! He couldn't even take a single hit against Harvey!"

"And now, he's telling us that India's martial arts are superior? What a joke!"

"I used to think they were good! Now that I look closely, they're just useless filth!"

Upon hearing the gossip, Axel's eyes twitched. He finally got back off the ground; there was an extremely horrible look on his face.

"Who are you?! How did you just slap me like that?!" he asked, glaring furiously at Harvey.

Axel knew he had the strength of a God of War.

The only reason he was slapped aside that easily was because Harvey was also one!

But... When did Country H even get such a young God of War?

"It's not that I'm strong. You're just weak," Harvey replied calmly.

"Do you really think India's martial arts are superior?"

"Do you really think you can just come out here and show off after practicing your lame moves?"

"Let me tell you something right now..."

"There will always be someone better than you!"

"In front of Country H, you'll always be inferior!"

"It'll be great if you can safely send this word back to India, won't it?"

Axel was starting to doubt everything in his head.

Maybe India's martial arts weren't as strong as he thought; maybe he was being ignorant the entire time...

Maybe he was just weak!

His eyes twitching frantically, Axel quickly suppressed his thoughts and glared at Harvey.

"Don't cross the line, Harvey!"

"I want to know how you managed to buy off Zoe!"

"My men had been trailing her the entire time; I've been constantly watching her too. Other than the meet-up at the hotel, you had no chance to be alone with her!"

"I don't understand just how you managed to get her to your side!"

"You should know, she'd be India's hero if she won against you!"

"She'll be flooded with glory and riches!"

"Don't tell me that she actually fell in love with a man like you?"

"To us noble people from India, people like you have no right to even talk about love!"

Axel was gritting his teeth he wanted to get the situation straight before he died

"Zoe's a Kshatriya," Harvey said "Even if she wins the fight and gets all the glory and riches, can she even become a Brahmin?"

"Of course not!" Axel replied without hesitation.

"Unless she becomes a servant for the king, there's no chance for that to happen."

"Can India give her 1.5 billion dollars?"

"No!" Axel exclaimed.

"As a Kshatriya, she should be doing her best to complete her duties, especially after getting so many benefits!"

"If she won the fight, she would've received a hundred and fifty million dollars and expanded her family's land, she could also raise her family's ranking within the Kshatriyas."

"Other than that, fame would be the most important thing..."

Axel's expression changed slightly as realization dawned upon him.

"It can't be... You gave her 1.5 billion dollars? That's impossible! I've been checking her bank account the entire time, but nothing has changed!"

Chapter 3774

Harvey looked at Axel as if he was looking at a complete idiot. He sighed.

"Do you think I'm as dumb as you? Why would I even do something so obvious in the first place?" he said.

"All I did was get another card with the money inside."

"I already gave Zoe the card when we met inside the restaurant."

"I wrote the password when I was holding her hand, too."

"All she needed to do was to check on her phone to see the money inside."

"You people said that you wanted to give me this and that, but what happened? All you have are empty promises."

"I was different; I gave her money she'd never be able to make her entire life."

"Tell me, don't you think she'd be moved after having so much money in her hands?"

Axel sighed.

"I'd be moved too..."

"So-called loyalty only happens when the price to betray isn't met yet," Harvey said calmly.

"Not only did I give her the money, I promised to give her half of the Martial Hall's shares as well."

"It'd be surprising if she didn't come to me."

"She can enjoy the rest of her life in glory and riches by selling out you people! How easy is that?"

Axel remained silent for a long while before sighing.

"It's a lot of money, but I don't think she'd betray us just for that."

"She knows the consequences of doing such a thing, after all."

Harvey smiled.

"Zoe told me that too."

"That's why I decided to get rid of her troubles first."

"Speaking of which, I have to thank you for your little tricks; you poisoned the young talents while also forcing me out of the fight for a good few days."

"Because of that, I had quite a bit of time for myself."

"During the past four days, I sent my men to India. I couldn't take Zoe's entire family out of that place, but

"Some of her closest relatives are now staying here safely."

"You people can never find them!"

"Since you're so smart, do you know how Zoe reacted after I brought her family here?"
Harvey asked

Axel had a horrible look on his face.

"Rage, shock, regret, all this means nothing."

"She needs to accept the truth"

"As soon as she took the money without giving it to me, she was already on the path of no return.

"From the very beginning, there was no point playing tricks against you."

"Zoe must've been the one who told you about Danny's plan."

"After all, she would at least have some time to text you, no matter how closely we've been watching her."

Axel let out a sigh of regret

If the Indians weren't using such underhanded tricks, maybe they would've had a chance to win the fight...

But as soon as they did, their fate had already been sealed.

"Smart!"

"That said, we're done with this talk."

Harvey stood up and clapped his hands.

"Admit defeat, Axel!" he exclaimed.

Roaring cheers could be heard all over the place.

The Indians were all completely depressed.

They were filled with anger and sorrow as they glared at Axel.

Naturally, they didn't know how they were supposed to report this to the royal family.

Chapter 3775

"I've lost! I've lost completely!"

After seeing the Indians filled with utter despair...

After seeing his allies with horrible expressions...

After seeing Zoe sitting quietly in the east resting area with the people who bought her off...

Axel burst out laughing.

He finally knew what it meant to be forced into a corner!

He looked at the sky facing India's direction, before slamming his head on the ground.

He then raised his hand before swinging it right on top of his head.

Bam!

The crowd fell into an uproar when they saw Axel fall.

The Indians began to panic.

Harvey ignored Axel's sorry state and covered his face with a piece of tissue. After leaving Axel with the last bit of dignity, he then turned around and left.

After heading back to the Martial Hall, Rachel, Layne, Kayden, and the other instructors, along with everyone else, started cheering happily.

They already had a banquet prepared as a celebration; a lot of students from the Martial Hall were invited as well. It was quite a bustling sight.

When they were halfway done with their food, Fisher, Damian, Colton, and Sienna arrived to congratulate Harvey as well.

Harvey greeted every single one of them with respect.

Over the next three days, the entire Martial Hall was filled with cheers and laughter.

Since Harvey was the champion of the Longmen Summit, he had become the next young master of Longmen after the Elder Group made their decision.

Even the seventh young master of the Bauer family, Harold, wouldn't be able to take that title away from

Harvey.

Under such circumstances, the Martial Hall would naturally be extremely well-known.

Many people were using their connections just to send their kids there,

After all, they would become Harvey's students.

Harvey understood what these people were thinking as well.

That said, he didn't reject the students. Instead, he got Layne to pick a new batch of students.

The ones who didn't meet the criteria were either put in line or outright rejected.

In any case, the matter was solved rather nicely.

After everything was set and done, five days had already passed.

The poisoned young talents were finally saved by Rudolph and his team.

But since they had been lying in bed for weeks, they were all extremely weak.

Their organizations wouldn't dare let them stay out any longer, so they had to leave one after another.

Rudolph and his team left soon after, the bustling place felt a little quieter.

Harvey finally had some time to rest. He sat in the gazebo of the courtyard, trying to find time to remarry Mandy

Suddenly, frantic footsteps could be heard from outside at this moment. George showed up right in front. of Harvey after a long time.

Compared to before, he seemed quite a lot thinner and he had pronounced eye bags. It had been quite a stressful few days for him.

"What's the matter? Did you get weaker after hanging out with your girlfriends too much?" Harvey asked curiously.

George had no other interests aside from having intimate relationships with a few of his so-called friends.

Kayden, Tyson, and the others would scoff at people like him...

But Harvey didn't say much about it. It was George's personal problem, after all.

George chuckled bitterly.

"Enough joking about me, Sir York..."

Chapter 3776

"I came because something big happened."

"Talk. What happened?"

Looking at George, Harvey knew it wasn't a simple matter.

"Did the Indians start calling us out internationally because they're unhappy with the outcome of the fight?"

"It'd be easy if it was just them."

George seemed a little anxious.

"This is really bad, Sir York."

"This is what happened."

"The top talents you crushed brought Axel back to India and announced their loss."

"After investigating the matter, the Indians said that they weren't willing to accept the outcome because the entire situation seemed very fishy."

"The Indians are now planning to get Zoe to question you."

"But because of your arrangements, they didn't even know where to find Zoe in the first place."

"The situation was going to end up unresolved..."

"Until someone from Country H decided to help the Indians!"

"They're planning to get the Martial Arts Alliance involved!"

"Just before, India, the South Sea, the Far East, and the Island Nations' Martial Arts Alliance along with other organizations got together..."

"And announced that the outcome of the fight isn't going to count!"

"They're now holding you accountable for being unfair!"

"They demand you to apologize to India's royal family as well!"

Harvey frowned.

"They think they can just drag me wherever they want me to?"

"What a joke."

George had a horrible look on his face.

"You can ignore them, but they said that they'll go to war if you don't go."

"Go to war?"

Harvey revealed an amused expression.

"Do they have the courage to do something like that?"

George sighed

"They don't, but they can definitely blacklist every single Budokan we have outside of Country H, chase out the people from our country who're living abroad, and also rob them of their valuables."

"They can do whatever they want to those people."

"More importantly, people from the Martial Arts Alliance are all impressive fighters! Ordinary people wouldn't be able to do anything against them."

"If the government turns a blind eye to the situation, things will get real hairy soon enough."

"Besides, if they sway the people even just a little bit, this will become your responsibility to bear."

"I have to admit, their methods are disgusting, but they're pretty damn effective..."

George felt extremely pressured; he had no idea how to get out of the situation.

They couldn't possibly let Harvey kneel in front of India's royal family...

If that were to happen, Country H's reputation would be completely tarnished.

On the other hand, not doing so would promise more disastrous things to happen.

"Slow down. There's no rush."

Harvey calmly took a sip of his tea and comforted George.

"The Martial Arts Alliance wouldn't just get together for no reason. They're not as powerful as they think."

"Ordinary people wouldn't be able to come up with heinous tricks like these, either."

"Right now, I need to know who gave the idea for the Martial Arts Alliance to come to me."

"They're forcing my hand, after all!"

George's eyes twitched, and his face was grim.

"You know him, Sir York."

"It's Clyde Osborne..." 2

Chapter 3777

'Clyde Osborne?'

Harvey's pupils shrank.

He didn't expect Rhea and Clyde to continue going against him, even after he had taught them a lesson during the Longmen's Summit.

More importantly, Clyde sold out his own country just to screw with Harvey!

"Is that b*stard not scared of the top ten families and the four hidden families banding together against him?"

"After all, he isn't just going after my interests at this point," Harvey said while narrowing his eyes.

George sighed

"I have word that most of those families wouldn't take any action on this."

"The Wright family and the York family, among others, would be restrained by them as well."

"Simply put, we're in a bad situation right now."

"Of course, other than Clyde getting the four great Martial Arts Alliances to go against us, Rhea and the others had done quite a bit against us as well."

George coughed.

"Other than squashing us, they have plans to band together and go against Country H too."

"After the Euro-American battle, not a lot of people dared to talk back at us when the Head Coach completely crushed the five great countries on his own."

"Even the so-called police of the United Nations can at most run their mouths in front of us!"

"Since the four great Martial Arts Alliances are banding together to go against us to the point of deporting. Country H citizens in other countries, they must be trying to test our limits."

"If Country H reacts poorly about the situation, the Martial Arts Alliance will only cross the line even more.

"It's a shame our Martial Arts Alliances are being controlled by sacred martial arts training grounds."

"Besides, Golden Palace and the Osborne family are one of the few in Flutwell who have a say in the situation. Yet, they're the main perpetrators..."

"Other than the four great Martial Arts Alliances, we might need to keep an eye on the Martial Arts Alliances here as well."

"Aren't they scared of what the people would think of doing something like this?" Harvey asked coldly.

George chuckled bitterly.

"Your rise has threatened so many people's interests, Sir York."

"Nobody knows if the current master of Longmen is alive or not. If he really passes away, according to Longmen's regulations, you're one of the few who have the right to inherit the position. Even Harold would be in a bad spot if he goes against you."

"Under these circumstances, to prevent you from taking the position and the people's interests, they decided to band together with the enemy to stab you in the back."

"Other than that, Country H citizens who are currently abroad have no clue about what's actually happening."

"These people will be influenced by the outsiders and that you're just a heinous man ruining their livelihoods."

"I even heard that someone's trying to start an event online just to stand up against you..."

George shook his head.

There were very few who knew the whole truth, but there were too many people who cared for their own interests.

Harvey gazed into the distance.

"What a mess..."

George hesitated for a moment before speaking up again.

"The Torres family isn't doing so well either..."

Chapter 3778

"The Torres family?"

Harvey froze.

"What does this have to do with the Torres family?"

"There's something you don't know, Sir York," George said quietly.

"After Elder Colton retired, he became a nominal leader of Country H's Martial Arts Alliance. This was why his status was still exceptionally high in Flutwell after his retirement."

Harvey was surprised; he didn't think Colton would have a title like that.

"That said, Country H's Martial Arts Alliance is just an alliance for the sacred martial arts training grounds. It seems like an organization on the outside, but in reality, the sacred martial arts training grounds have control of it."

"Elder Torres barely has any authority. The authority is split up between the vice leaders of the sacred martial arts training grounds here."

"Now that this is happening, there are a lot of people in the Martial Arts Alliance with their own motives. This had led them to conspire with our enemies from outside."

"Everyone is now dragging Elder Torres back for him to take control of the situation.

"On the one hand, everyone's hoping to use his fame and reputation to stabilize the situation."

"On the other hand, they want you to give up by using your relationship with the Torres family."

"After all, if you admit to the Indians that you only got this far using underhanded tricks, the position as the young master of Longmen would have nothing to do with you anymore."

"These people thought of everything!"

"That said, Elder Torres is an honest man. He knew you were wronged and schemed against."

"Even though he's under immense pressure, he never came here to ask for your help."

"That said, I don't know how long he can hold out. The vice leader, Dane Benett, had been constantly pestering Elder Torres for the past few days."

"Dane is the elder of Golden Palace's outer circle, Emily's father, and also Koen's father-in-law."

George quickly explained Colton's situation and Dane's identity.

"In any case, Dane's been demanding Elder Torres to deal with the situation quickly and give an explanation to the four great Martial Arts Alliances and everyone involved."

"Interesting. Really interesting."

Harvey clapped.

"I didn't think that there would be more problems after such a calm few days."

"Everyone's preparing for me to screw up before taking me down."

Harvey put down his teacup and stood up.

"Where's the office building of the Martial Arts Alliance?"

"Let's go take a look."

Half an hour later, Harvey arrived at an office building at the center of Flutwell.

This was one of the Martial Arts Alliance's branches and also Colton's place of work.

Since Colton was just a nominal leader, he would only show up a few times every single year. That said, he had been visiting a lot the past few days.

George easily navigated the building with Harvey. They soon arrived at an office room on the ninth floor.

After knocking on the door, they saw Colton inside. He was wearing a tunic suit; even though he looked quite old by then, an impressive aura of an elite was still exuding from him.

He was talking to a few workers, and froze when he saw Harvey.

"Sir York! Come on in. It's just about lunchtime. Come have a meal with this old man," Colton said with a faint smile.

Chapter 3779

Colton told his secretary and assistant to lead the way to the Underground Eatery downstairs.

The receptionist smiled after seeing Colton.

"Welcome, Elder Torres. You look as vigorous as usual!"

"Same thing today?"

Colton smiled.

"That's right. I'll take the Heavenly Box. Bring me your signature dish and wine too."

Colton then smiled at Harvey.

"There aren't a lot of dishes here, but all of them are the best of the best! You should try them."

Harvey smiled; he was about to say something when he heard a faint chuckle from behind.

"Aren't you Elder Torres?"

"What a coincidence! You're a little late though."

"I'm sorry, but we've already booked for the Heavenly Box."

Harvey instinctively turned around. He saw a man in a yellow robe, surrounded by several people. An old familiar face was right beside him as well.

It was Clyde!

Harvey stared curiously; he didn't think Clyde would dare show up in front of him.

Since Harvey wasn't the main attraction and Clyde didn't say anything stupid yet, Harvey decided to stay passive for the time being.

Clyde seemed a lot more prideful compared to before.

He glared coldly at Harvey, as if Harvey was already a dead man.

In Clyde's mind, Harvey was finished.

"What do you mean by that, Vice Leader Benett?"

Colton's secretary took a step forward with a stern look on his face.

"The Heavenly Box is always reserved by the Martial Arts Alliance for Leader Torres's use."

"He has a guest to attend to right now as well. I don't have anything to say if you're using it any other day

"But aren't you being a little rude to speak to Leader Torres in this manner?"

Naturally, the secretary knew there were some things Colton wasn't able to say. That was why it was the best time for the secretary to speak up about this.

"Shut up!"

The female secretary beside Dane had a disdainful look on her face.

"This is a public space! Who do you people think you are?"

"Who said that the Heavenly Box is only reserved for you people?"

"You can't be so overbearing about such things! Don't you think so, Leader Torres?"

"We booked the box ahead of time, yet you're stopping us from using it?"

"Besides, I don't know if we can talk about this either..."

"We're still not done dealing with the four great Martial Arts Alliances' situation right now."

"As the nominal leader, why don't you think of a way to solve the problem right now instead of eating and drinking your heart out? How will people see us if word about this spreads?"

"Or are you saying that our people outside the borders should just die instead?"

"Another thing! Leader Torres said he's just a nominal leader, but doesn't he know what kind of status and identity he has in the Martial Arts Alliance?"

"A puppet without authority has no right to show off here!"

"How dare he try to go against a man with authority like Vice Leader Benett?"

"Does he have the right?"

The secretary ran her sharp tongue, even though she sounded like she was insulting Colton's secretary, she was actually going for his boss's throat.

Chapter 3780

"Enough! Do you think you have the right to speak here?" Dane exclaimed, taking a step forward.

"Where are your manners?"

"Did you forget everything I've taught you?"

"Leader Torres wouldn't dare fight us for the Heavenly Box if we just say so!"

"However, you don't have to say it like that!"

"How is Leader Torres going to feel about this?!"

"You'll reflect on this when we get back!"

After scolding the secretary, Dane looked at Colton with a small smile.

"Sorry, Colton. My secretary's just a little too straightforward. Please don't mind her!"

He then glared coldly at the secretary.

"Are you still not apologizing?"

The secretary crossed her arms after hearing those words.

"I'm so sorry, Leader Torres."

"It's fine. Don't worry about it."

"It's not your fault you weren't taught well. A filthy mouth can't utter decent words, after all.

"Of course you wouldn't know how to behave when you've been living in the gutter your entire life."

Colton's face was expressionless; he was completely calm.

After sitting in such an important position for so many years, he naturally wouldn't be scared by a few words.

"I haven't been working recently, causing our people from outside to suffer. Sure, I need to reflect on that situation..."

"But that shouldn't stop me from eating, should it?"

"Since I'm taking the Heavenly Box, I won't let anyone else have it, even if it's that person from the Golden Palace."

Colton smiled faintly at Dean.

"I suggest you find another box."

Naturally, Colton knew this wasn't just a simple meal; this was in truth a fight for authority.

If he let Dean have his way, his title as the nominal leader would be a joke within the Martial Arts Alliance.

"Why are you still acting like a child? You're an old man now."

"Don't you understand that there are priorities here?"

Dean smiled back, unperturbed.

"My mission today is to treat Prince Osborne."

"You should know that he has a good relationship with India's royal family."

"With him here, maybe he can negotiate with the royal family and calm the four great Martial Arts Alliances as well."

"This guest here might just decide Country H's fate."

"Well? Are you still going to make me find another box?"

"If we offend Prince Osborne today and he decides not to help, our Martial Arts Alliance will burn."

"Should I be the one taking responsibility for the situation? Or should you be the one doing it instead?"

"Can you do that?"

"Rather, do you have what it takes to resolve the matter and push the four great Martial Arts Alliance away, reopen the Budokans we have abroad, and compensate for the country's losses?"

Dean instantly shifted all the blame to Colton.

At the same time, he looked at Harvey with a small smile.

Naturally, he already knew all about Harvey; he was just keeping quiet about it for the time being.

He was patiently waiting to have a word with Harvey too.

Harvey smiled wordlessly; no matter what, it'd be better if he didn't do what his enemies wanted.

"It's just a meal, Dean. Are you grilling me for this?"

Colton's eyes were cold. 2

Chapter 3781

"Since Clyde is the prince of the Osborne family, then he's naturally a citizen here."

"Will he do anything bad to the country just because he can't have a simple meal?"

"Maybe the rumors are true after all. Maybe the four great Martial Arts Alliances banded together against us because of him."

"If that truly is the case, then I'll make sure to investigate the situation further."

"I'm not afraid to tell you this either, Dane."

"You people from Golden Palace are getting a little close to the Indians right now. Best make sure you don't let me find anything."

"If I do find anything, you won't get away with it!"

Colton turned around and made a gesture to invite Harvey into the box.

"We're taking this box," he exclaimed coldly.

"I'm sorry, Leader Torres. This box is already occupied!"

A beautiful woman with a slender body, clad in a black uniform, walked out and stopped Colton in his tracks

"What's the meaning of this, Sophia?" Colton demanded, his tone ice.

The woman was the manager of the establishment, Sophia Lee.

Upon hearing Colton's words, Sophia smiled.

"Since the Martial Arts Alliance didn't pay for some of the fees last month, the restaurant had already removed your privileges of keeping this box."

"Simply put, anyone can have the Heavenly Box if they're early enough."

H

"Coincidentally, Vice Leader Benett is a minute earlier than you this time."

"That's why, you really can't use it right now..."

"We can pick a table for you in the main hall, though."

"Of course, to show my apology, the meal's on the house."

Sophia flashed him a warm smile; even though she seemed neutral in her stance, everyone could tell that she had already picked a side.

Dane burst out laughing. Then, he wrapped his hand around Sophia's thin waist.

"You're joking! I can't just let you do that!" he said, narrowing his eyes in amusement.

"I'd say you should put the tab on me instead!"

"This is your way of treating your customers, Sophia?"

A hint of anger could be seen in Colton's eyes.

"I've always treated this as a special place..."

"Thank you for that."

Sophia showed a sweet smile.

"That said, we have rules in our restaurant. We can't just do whatever you want here, Leader Torres."

"If you're unhappy about this, you can leave right now."

"If you think we did something wrong, you can file a complaint as well!"

"But no matter the case, you won't be getting inside the box today."

Sophia gestured to Dane and the others with a smile.

"This way, please."

She then took them inside the Heavenly Box.

Clyde flashed a mocking look at Harvey before leaving.

In his eyes, Harvey was only good at fighting.

He firmly believed that his authority alone could go against ten Harveys at once.

Even though he was slapped in the face twice by the same person, he still thought he was someone impressive.

Colton's expression changed; he was about to lash out, but Harvey stopped him.

"No need to be like this, Leader Torres. We can eat anywhere else."

"Besides, they're clearly trying to get us worked up."

Chapter 3782

"But we can't just let this slide!" Colton exclaimed.

"Of course."

Harvey smiled, and then looked at the receptionist.

"You heard what Sophia said; the meal's on the house."

The receptionist had a disdainful look on her face; she didn't think that Harvey and the others would still eat here after being utterly disrespected.

Even so, she still gave them a faint smile.

"If you're still willing to eat here, please come this way."

"No need!"

Harvey smiled at her before making a call.

"Get ten pickup trucks here. I'm taking all the food away."

An hour later, Sophia walked out of the Heavenly Box with Dane and Clyde, whose stomachs were full of wine and food.

Judging by their appearances, they had quite a lot to drink.

When the receptionist saw everyone come out, she hurriedly jogged over and handed over a receipt

"This is Leader Torres's spending, Vice Leader Bennett. They thanked you for your hospitality before they left."

The receptionist was sweating profusely

"They actually stayed here to eat?"

Dane had an amused look on his face.

"Colton really is getting old. He's starting to lose his touch."

"I didn't think he'd be shameless enough to eat the food I spared for him."

"When we get back..."

Dane froze instantly after taking the receipt; he couldn't utter a single word after looking at the piece of paper.

"F-Four million and three hundred thousand dollars?!"

"They ate this much?!"

"Harvey called ten pickup trucks here."

"He took all of the alcohol, a few hundred abalones, the Abba white truffles that just got imported here. and a lot of caviar along with other high-grade ingredients."

The receptionist was still sweating profusely

"I wanted to inform you, but the gentlemen outside didn't let me in.."

"You said you were going to pay for them"

"So."

"I did say that, but when did I ever say that I'll pay this much?!"

Dane was on the verge of coughing out blood.

"That b*stard"" he yelled at the entrance.

"I'll get him back for this!"

Clyde's face darkened in an instant. He wasn't feeling as confident anymore.

He got disrespected by Harvey yet again.

His eyes twitching, he snarled coldly, "We can't just let them off the hook for this!"

"Of course not! You should leave first, Prince Osborne."

"I'll get them back on my own!" Dane exclaimed, furious.

Half an hour later.

Dane brought a group of people and kicked the door to Colton's office before marching inside.

"How can you be so shameless, Colton?!" Dane shouted, pointing angrily at Colton.

"As a nominal leader of the Martial Arts Alliance, how can you do something so despicable?!"

"Four million and three hundred thousand dollars? Do you think money grows on trees?"

"Don't you know that your actions are no different than outright robbery?"

"Because of you, I turned into a joke in front of Prince Osborne!"

"You need to explain your actions to me, right now!"

Dane was completely infuriated.

After all, he was the one who said that he'd treat Colton to a meal...

But after seeing the receipt, he desperately wanted to die.

He had hundreds of millions of dollars worth of savings, but the meal alone made him suffer a terrible setback.

Chapter 3783

Even though they had successfully disrespected Colton, they had to pay four million and three hundred thousand dollars for it.

It would be hard to actually tell who was being disrespected here!

More importantly, Dane felt that he was the one who asked for this.

'This is embarrassing! This is unforgivable!'

Many were shocked to see Dane inside Colton's room.

Several workers from the Martial Arts Alliance came over nosily.

"Calm down, Vice Leader Benett. You have a pretty high blood pressure, so please don't get angry."

"If you get a stroke and die, it'll be bad luck for everyone here."

"Leader Torres likes this office a lot. He won't be able to use it if that's the case."

Harvey looked calmly at Dane while he sipped his tea.

"Another thing. What happened before had nothing to do with Leader Torres. I was the one who got the workers to take everything."

"I was thinking of a way to reward them, too. Thank you for your generosity, Vice Leader Benett."

"My subordinates were very happy with it."

Since the warehouse of the restaurant was quite large, everyone from Longmen's Law Enforcement and the Hatchet Gang was rewarded with a few bottles each. Safe to say, it was quite a big treat for everyone.

involved.

As for the high-grade ingredients, a world-class banquet could even be held if a few chefs were hired to prepare the dishes.

At Harvey's words, Dane's eyes couldn't stop twitching.

He glared furiously at Harvey; he had never seen such a shameful man in his entire life.

However, Harvey completely ignored him and was smiling.

"You can get angry at me. You can say that I'm shameless, too..."

"But you can't blame Leader Torres for this."

"After all, none of us forced you to treat us."

"We only accepted your kindness and took a little more. Why would you get so angry at us for it?"

"If that's the case, you could've just said you're too poor to treat us!"

"We didn't have to eat there, anyway."

"That said, you might need to make an announcement on how you couldn't afford to treat Leader Torres to a meal."

"If not, it'll be bad if you get us in trouble while your ego gets boosted, right?"

"Besides, aren't you supposed to show off your authority in front of Clyde, Vice Leader Benett?"

"You invited him here to deal with the four great Martial Arts Alliances, right?"

"What do you think you can do if you can't even treat someone to a simple meal?"

Harvey walked forward and tapped Dane in the face.

"You... You're shameless..."

Dane was on the verge of coughing up blood.

"At the end of the day, you're the one who caused this!" he yelled furiously.

"Not only are you not kneeling in front of India's royal family, but you're still here running your mouth non-stop! Do you want the country to fall?!"

He was holding back from talking about Emily as well.

Harvey smiled calmly.

"Of course I know that.

"That's why I'm here to talk about it with Leader Torres."

Chapter 3784

"That said, you kicked the door down and started jumping around the place before we could even talk about anything."

"People who know understand you're angry because you can't afford to treat us to a meal..."

"But people who don't might just think that you're on the Indians' side."

"Let me warn you, Vice Master Benett. You better keep your voice down."

"If not, all the responsibility might just shift toward you."

Harvey flashed Dane a playful look.

"You sharp-tongued b*stard! What else can you do besides talk?!"

Dane was furious. He wanted to slap Harvey to death so badly.

That said, he knew that he was no match against Harvey. He couldn't simply lash out in public either.

Dane took a deep breath to calm himself down.

He would've had a stroke if he didn't.

"Vice Leader Benett, there's no point running your mouth over such a trivial matter."

"Why don't you talk about your deal with Clyde instead?"

"We gave you the Heavenly Box. Don't tell me you two haven't talked about anything the entire afternoon?" Colton spoke up to mediate the situation.

"If you can deal with this situation, I'll pay you back for the meal tenfold."

"Fine! Your words!"

Dane chuckled coldly.

"I didn't force you or anything!"

"As for the deal, I can tell you about it too!"

"Prince Osborne called the four great Martial Arts Alliances right in front of me. They also listed their conditions for peace."

"Number one: Harvey needs to show everything he learned about martial arts in written form for the Martial Arts Alliance to investigate. That way, they'll know if he broke the rules or not."

"Number two: Harvey has to apologize to India's royal family. Either he kneels in front of the royal family, or he pays them fifteen billion dollars."

"Number three: Country H will find Zoe and bring her to India."

"Number four: to prevent such unfair circumstances in the future, the four Great Martial Arts Alliances will send representatives to Country H as supervisors."

"Every single document within the country's Martial Arts Alliance will be public to the supervisors, no matter the reason."

"All members of the Martial Arts Alliance will abide by the supervisors' orders!"

Dane glared pridefully at Harvey

Other than the fourth condition, the rest were only targeted at Harvey. Dane didn't believe that Harvey could get out of the situation unscathed.

The crowd fell into an uproar.

Nobody expected the four great Martial Arts Alliances to be so powerful. They were clearly trying to take out Country H's Martial Arts Alliance!

If they really accepted these conditions, it wouldn't matter if the country's Martial Arts Alliance existed or not.

"No!"

"Even if there's something wrong with Harvey, we will not accept this!"

"What would happen to our country's sacred martial arts training grounds? What would happen to the country's reputation?"

"If we lose the Martial Arts Alliance, we wouldn't be able to uphold the justice of the underworld!"

Colton almost flipped his table over in his anger.

"What kind of conditions are these? How dare they ask this from us?!"

Chapter 3785

"Don't you think the demands are a little too cruel, Vice Leader Benett?"

Harvey nodded.

"If we accept those conditions, all martial artists in Country H will lose their dignity."

"How are we supposed to stand up straight in the future?"

"They're even bringing in supervisors to get a hold of every single one of the Martial Arts Alliance's files and documents..."

"How are we supposed to function on our own in the future?"

"Besides, if I actually give them everything I've learned, they'll use it against the Martial Arts Alliance. Next thing we know, they'll get everything from the sacred martial arts training grounds."

"You're a smart man, Vice Leader Benett. Can't you see that the four great Martial Arts Alliances are trying to break us?"

Harvey slowly revealed the risks of the demands calmly.

There were three conditions targeted toward Harvey, but in actuality, this was just a test.

If Country H were to surrender, then the four great Martial Arts Alliances would have ways to make the country do the same again.

"What's the point of telling me that, Harvey?"

Dane chuckled coldly.

"I'm not one of the representatives, anyway. So what if you tell me all this?"

"I only managed to contact the four great Martial Arts Alliances through Prince Osborne."

"They told us that they'll stop all attacks toward the citizens of Country H as long as all conditions are met!"

"They'll even compensate for the shops that were destroyed or robbed because of the incident..."

"However, they'll let their subordinates do whatever they want if we don't abide."

"When that happens, the four great Martial Arts Alliance wouldn't be able to control it if anything disastrous were to happen."

Dane laughed coldly, crossing his arms.

"You'll see for yourself if you want to accept the conditions or not."

"Don't worry. I'll never accept them no matter what."

Colton's expression was icy as Dane was relentlessly pressuring him with such heinous tactics.

"The people of Country H will never be pushed around!"

Teil those people that we're living in modern times now."

"We will never kneel in front of the likes of them!"

"Tell them to suck it up and forget about taking over Country H

Clap, clap, clap!

Dane clapped his hands, showing admiration.

"Impressive! I'm sure your words will be highlighted in the country's brochure!" Dane exclaimed coldly.

"But is there a point?"

"Absolutely not!"

"I'm only telling you this to remind you this: we cannot stall the situation any longer," Dane continued.

"The situation hasn't escalated yet, but the country's Budokans abroad will all be burned down if we keep stalling!"

"Our people will probably be removed from existence too!"

"You're the high-and-mighty Leader Torres! Even if you don't care about their interests, you should at least care for their well-being."

"Harvey, or millions of citizens of Country H. You should know which one's more important..."

Dane's eyes were cold.

"As your friend, I'll tell you this one thing: I hope you know what's best for everyone!"

Chapter 3786

Colton's expression was as icy as he exclaimed, "This is completely unjust!"

"How can I possibly accept it?!"

"I completely understand you, but so what?!"

Dane chuckled coldly.

"The four great Martial Arts Alliances have the authority right now. Since they have a chance to act so unjustly, what can you do about it?"

"Are you planning to end this by taking a group of people and challenging the four great Martial Arts Alliances in their Budokans?"

"Wake up! Do you think you're the Head Coach himself or something?"

"Do you think you're invincible?"

"Besides, the Head Coach was only able to crush the five strongest countries because the Martial Arts Alliances weren't involved!"

"If they did, there probably wouldn't be a Head Coach in our country!"

"You think we can just show off however we please because we have a Head Coach in our country?"

"What a joke!"

"Besides, he belongs to the royal court!"

"We're trying to fix the underworld!"

"The royal court has no say in this! Do you not understand?"

"We have no chance against them! What do you think we can do?"

"We have no choice but to kneel!"

"It wouldn't be our first time anyway! What's one more?"

Dane laughed coldly before stepping on the tea set.

"Do you hear me? Do you understand now?!"

The crowd exchanged wary glances after hearing those words.

Dane's words were harsh, but they knew that this was reality.

Country H was the world's greatest country because of the Head Coach....

Even so, they were still in a tough spot after being attacked by the four great Martial Arts Alliances.

Besides, this was an underworld affair. The royal court had no power to step in if not, things would surely escalate.

Nobody would be able to take responsibility for this.

"You're right about that"

"But even if the royal court wouldn't take action, it doesn't mean we should be scared of a few outsiders." Harvey calmly replied

"Besides, the Island Nations and India have already been trampled on by us."

"Who gave them the right to demand something like this?"

"They're not worthy."

"Not worthy?!"

Dane chuckled coldly while glaring at Harvey.

"Let me tell you something! Everyone in this entire world has the right to say that..."

"Besides you, of course!"

"You were the one who started it, of course!"

"Since you're talking this big, why don't you do something about it?!"

"You deal with the four great Martial Arts Alliances yourself, then!"

"Show us what you can do!"

"Look at you, hiding behind Colton! Who knows just how much you begged just for him to keep you safe?"

"Do you think you have the right to say things like this?"

Dane had a disdainful look on his face.

"Of course, I know that you're a pretty capable young man with some accomplishments..."

"But don't you understand? You're completely outnumbered! You're no match against them!"

"Besides, you're not a hero!"

"Wake up!"

"It's okay to be bold, but don't you dare drag others down with you!"

Chapter 3787

"I don't know what you mean by that "

Harvey had a stern look on his face.

"I only know that nobody has the right to make us kneel!"

"We'll never kneel!"

"This is the pride of the country's five-thousand-year history!"

"Five-thousand-year history?"

Dane laughed again, and sized up Harvey.

"I've told you everything I wanted to say. Leader Torres should decide what we should do next."

That said, if you can really do as you say without giving in, I'll bury the hatchet between us immediately. Hell, I'd mop the floors of your Martial Hall too!"

"But if you kneel, I'll make sure to pay you back for my daughter and son-in-law's legs..."

Harvey watched curiously as Dane left.

He shut the door and smiled at Colton.

"You've been in this position for a while, Leader Torres. I'm sure you've seen everything by now."

"This is nothing at all."

"Nothing at all?"

Colton sighed, a horrible look on his face.

"This is more than that, Harvey

"Dane's words were a little harsh, but he was right."

"Our country did get a lot stronger, but we're completely outnumbered now."

"Plus, we can't use the royal court's help. If we won that way, people would criticize us!"

"Not to mention, it'll be hard to depend only on the Martial Arts Alliances."

"Even if we don't talk about the people in the organization dragging everyone else down, the sacred martial arts training grounds are completely independent. It'll be difficult to go against the four great Martial Arts Alliance this way."

"After all, they're coming at us with the might of many countries."

Colton sighed.

The sacred martial arts training grounds were all too powerful. None of them would bow in front of anyone else

Under these circumstances, it'd be hard for them to work together in such a short time.

Because of a common enemy, the four great Martial Arts Alliance were already united.

It'd be difficult for Country H's Martial Arts Alliance to deal with them.

"The so-called great Martial Arts Alliances are just for show, anyway."

Harvey smiled calmly.

"It's all just a title. They don't actually have anyone good enough to fight for them."

"Our enemies this time are most probably from India and the Island Nations."

"After all, the Island Nations have been desperately trying to destroy the country. They suffered quite a bit during their time in Hong Kong and Las Vegas, too."

"They wouldn't dare go against us themselves, so they asked for India's help."

"Even though the four great Martial Arts Alliances seem quite terrifying, they're completely useless in my eyes."

"Is that so?"

Colton chuckled bitterly.

"In reality, it's already hard enough to deal with India's Martial Arts Alliance. The Island Nation's Martial Arts Alliance will usually band together with others against a common enemy."

"When they're showing such dominance, the South Sea, the Far East, and other smaller countries would probably join them as well."

"How can we fight them?"

"Maybe we wouldn't need to."

Harvey smiled, still calm.

"If two Martial Arts Alliances were to quit, what are India and the Island Nations going to do?"

Chapter 3788

"You're saying you want the South Sea and Far East Martial Arts Alliances to step off?"

Colton froze. Then, he sighed.

"This sounds like a good plan, but is it as easy as it sounds?"

"The South Sea has been worried about how strong our country is. We'll swallow them whole."

"The Far East has ties with America as well..."

"They'll stop at nothing to force the Far East against us, in order to prevent their position as the police of the United Nations."

"Simply put, this plan will be hard to pull off."

Naturally, Colton had never thought of such a plan. However, he believed that there was no way to approach it after he did.

"We can't deal with the Far East yet, but the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance shouldn't be a problem."

Harvey smiled

"I know Dean Cobb. I have a pretty good relationship with him."

"With his status in the country, it shouldn't be a problem for him to convince his country."

"If I use this opportunity to make the Far East stay back..."

"Our plan will be a success."

"We still have a chance."

Colton was in high spirits after hearing those words. He sprung up immediately before laughing.

"You really are extraordinary, Harvey!"

"Good! I'll listen to what you have to do. Whatever you need, just ask."

"I don't need anything from you. Just let me do my thing." Harvey replied, smiling.

Right as Harvey was dialing a number, another call got through.

The leader of the South Sea gang, Katy Cobb's panicked voice could be heard.

"Sir York! My grandfather's in trouble!"

"The leader of the Demon Monks, Julio Garcia, suddenly showed up in the South Sea to challenge my grandfather!"

"My grandfather accepted, but he lost soon after!"

"The man's strength is just terrifying!"

Harvey took a deep breath.

"How's your grandfather now?"

It wasn't that Harvey was worried about his plan. Instead, he was genuinely worried about Dean's safety. The two were quite close to each other after all.

Katy took a deep breath and said, "I received word that he was unconscious after suffering heavy injuries I need to go back to the South Sea and help my grandfather"

Harvey let out a sigh.

“Good. I’ll get Rudolph and his team there first. When I’m done with my business here, I’ll go there myself.”

I’ll make sure to take revenge for Dean too!” 1

As one of the three strongest families of the South Sea, the Cobb family had immense authority. Even the country’s leaders would have to pay their respects to them.

This was only possible because of Dean.

But after his defeat against Julio, despite only being unconscious, Katy’s generation in the South Sea would definitely turn for the worse.

Even if Katy went back to the South Sea immediately, she probably wouldn’t be able to deal with the situation.

If it weren’t for the four great Martial Arts Alliances, Harvey would’ve already visited the South Sea on his own

Harvey put down his phone and took a deep breath. He decided to use the quickest way to deal with the entire situation.

Chapter 3789

While Harvey was thinking of a way to deal with the four great Martial Arts Alliances...

Inside the Osborne family courtyard

Clyde was sitting in a chair, looking at the Holy Mountain far away with a calm expression.

For him, the Holy Mountain or the Holy Lake was only good for symbolism’s sake. Aside from that, there were no other uses for them.

But if he wanted to rise to power as the master of the Osborne family, he’d need to rely on these things.

He had never cared for his country or his people.

All he wanted was authority-absolute authority.

He was a descendant of both the Osborne family and India's royal family, after all.

"Prince Osborne..."

The door behind him was pushed open.

Three men and one woman walked in. They were all Indians, and they were quite young as well.

They were the Brahmins, the people in India with the most authority.

More importantly, they were all trained by elites since childhood.

Not only were they gifted, but their fighting skills were extraordinary as well

Yet, the four young people who were destined to become prominent figures in India approached Clyde willingly.

From a certain standpoint, this was already enough to show Clyde's charm.

To prevent exposing their identities, Clyde decided to give them his surname and named them Azure, Ashen, Vermillion, and Ebony

Clyde's ambition was clearly apparent with this move.

The woman, Vermillion, walked forward and said quietly, "Prince Osborne, the Indians gave us a call. The mission's complete."

"To what extent?" Clyde asked calmly.

"Is Dean dead or crippled?"

Vermillion smiled.

"Just like you planned, to restrict the South Sea Gang and the Yorks of Hong Kong, Julio only needed to injure Dean heavily."

"The South Sea is probably in utter chaos right now."

"Even if Katy rushes back to her country, it'd be hard for her to deal with the mess."

"Harvey's plan to deal with the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance is done for!"

"Good! You did well"

Clyde had a smile, as if he had already won.

"That b*stard thinks he's in the lead after slapping me in the face and being a little smart?"

"He'll know he's been making all the wrong moves soon enough!"

After chuckling coldly, Clyde continued speaking.

"The four great Martial Arts Alliance must know about this by now."

"What are they planning to do?"

Vermillion grinned.

"Prince Osborne, they're already making a move after getting word. Other countries of the South Sea and a few areas from the Far East have agreed to join forces against Harvey."

"When we get enough people, we'll be able to launch our attack."

"When that happens, the Country H Martial Arts Alliance won't be able to stand against us, no matter how powerful they actually are!"

"More importantly, we bought off a few representatives of Country H's sacred martial arts training grounds."

"I'm sure they'll give Colton and Harvey quite a bit of pressure!"

Chapter 3790

"Good"

Clyde smiled

"They're finally repaying me for the benefits I gave them."

"My hard work's finally paying off!"

"But this isn't enough. The Northern Europe and American Martial Arts Alliances haven't joined us yet."

"Country H will be done for if they do! The country's martial arts will fall!TM

"Azure, get to New York and see if you can convince their Martial Arts Alliance to join our cause."

"Ashen, go to the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets. You'll talk to the Northern Europe Martial Arts Alliance about this."

"In any case, I want Harvey to die a horrible death!"

"Of course!"

The young people bowed before carrying out their mission.

Clyde picked up a glass of wine beside him, swirling it around.

For the next few days, everything seemed calm and peaceful.

While Harvey was pondering if he should go to the South Sea to help Dean out or not...

He received another phone call

It was the seventh young master of the Bauer family, Harold Bauer.

He called to invite Harvey to meet up at a nursing home under the family's name.

Harvey wasn't that interested in Harold, but he ended up accepting the offer since Samuel was in the same family.

Half an hour later, Harvey arrived at a nursing home in the suburbs of Flutwell.

The people there were either rich or powerful; simply put, those without an abundance of riches wouldn't be able to go inside.

Harvey saw Harold in a white suit frowning right in front of the entrance. The latter was extremely eye-catching even when he stood among the crowd.

Harold wasn't sure how to react when he saw Harvey show up.

He quickly walked toward Harvey and reached out his hand.

"Sir York... Or should I call you Young Master instead?"

Harvey looked at him curiously, not moving his hand

"We're at a very crucial moment here, Young Master Bauer."

"Did you call me here to make me hand over my position?"

"Or are you planning to stab me in the back instead?"

Harold's pupils shrank after hearing Harvey's words.

have to admit. Sir York. My actions in Flutwell's Peak aren't a good look."

"But you should understand that I'm on your side, no matter how much I don't like you."

"No matter what, I still belong to the Bauer family. I still belong to Country H."

"I'm different compared to Clyde, who has relations with India's royal family."

"I believe you can still trust me."

"After all, we don't have that much of a conflict between each other, right?"

Harold shrugged. He looked as if he actually wanted Harvey to be on his side.

Harvey narrowed his eyes, and then smiled.

"If that's the case, it'll be quite disrespectful of me if I don't bury the hatchet now.

"I'll have to do this for someone else's sake, after all."

Harold chuckled lightly. Then, he shifted his gaze to the villa behind him.

"You must be talking about him, then," he replied, tilting his head slightly.

"He asked me to call you today."

"Right this way, Sir York."

Chapter 3791

Harvey looked weirded out.

He came to Flutwell a long while ago, but he had never gotten a chance to see Samuel.

Yet, Harold called Harvey just for this purpose.

Harvey narrowed his eyes as he stared at the villa. Then, a few people showed up.

One of them was none other than the long-awaited master of Longmen and the Bauer family, Samuel Bauer.

Harvey frowned.

"Is the master of Longmen really sick?"

"He does have some health complications, but it's not as serious as people think. He won't die from it," Harold replied calmly.

"Rumors of him passing away soon had been spreading because he wanted to see which one of the family's young masters is more suitable to take his position."

"So, it's a misdirection?" Harvey smiled faintly.

Harold's face paled slightly at those words.

"It's only normal for big families like ours, right?"

"Only truly powerful people can keep the family from dying. This is the standard."

"This is why people say that big families are emotionless."

Harvey nodded; he didn't want to get involved with the Bauer family's affairs.

After nodding at Samuel who was standing from afar, Harvey slowly walked over.

"It's been a while, Sir York."

Samuel, sitting in his wheelchair, raised his head at Harvey before smiling faintly.

His voice still seemed a little weak, despite his appearance.

"Have you hurt yourself? Did you fail at uniting yourself with nature?" Harvey asked as he looked at the man.

He knew Samuel's strength quite well; even amongst the Gods of War, the man was still considered one of the best.

Those on the same level would usually have the same goals...

And that was to be one with nature!

The true peak of martial arts!

Yet since ancient times, not a single God of War had achieved such a feat.

Samuel's failure caused him to be internally injured; he needed at least a few months to recover.

"Master!" Harold exclaimed.

He didn't think Harvey would be able to tell Samuel's state with just a single glance.

"Leave me for now."

Samuel waved his hand, telling his subordinates to step away.

He then squinted at Harvey before smiling faintly.

"Looks like your reputation's plummeted a little compared to before, Sir York."

"I'm starting to think the Head Coach is turning weak after hiding behind the scenes for so long."

"Don't you want to deal with the situation as soon as possible?"

"What do you mean?" Harvey asked, looking at Samuel.

"The military sent word."

Samuel chuckled.

"If you just say the word, you can become the Head Coach of the nine strongest military forces right now."

"And when you retire after three years, you'll become the Elder of the Army."

"The Big Boss already has the letter of appointment ready."

"Just say the word!"

"When the legends of the Head Coach resurface, who else would dare go against Country H's Martial Arts Alliance?"

"Every problem will solve itself!"

"Do you accept, Head Coach?" 1

1.'

* Refuse," Harvey replied after a moment of silence.

"I would've been in that position already if I wanted to. Why would I wait till now?"

"Besides, you already know how I operate. I'm not interested in fame and money."

Samuel wasn't too surprised after hearing Harvey's blatant rejection.

"If that's the case, I can only send word back to the Big Boss and Gavin," he replied.

"I'm sure they'll be disappointed."

Harvey smiled, but he didn't say another word.

Samuel sighed and changed the subject.

"How are you planning to deal with the situation, then?"

"After all, it's not our style to be thrown around by a bunch of people from India and the Isla nd

Nations."

"We'll deal with it the same way they're planning to deal with me," Harvey replied calmly.

"They've put so much effort to band the Martial Arts Alliances together."

"Since they're confident they can take me out this way..."

"I wouldn't mind toying with them for a bit."

Samuel burst out laughing.

"If you're going to play with them, you'll have to be an official young master of the family first."

"After all, everything will fall apart if your position isn't solidified."

Samuel then handed Harvey a badge with "Young Master" written on it.

"You wouldn't reject this now, would you?"

Harvey looked at Samuel with a small smile.

"You told me all about the nine strongest military forces because you're scared of me rejecting you?"

"Don't worry, I'm already in the same boat as you. Another problem wouldn't be too much to handle."

"I'll gladly take the badge."

"Good!"

Samuel waved his hand before Harvey could even second-guess his decision.

After that, Harold and a few subordinates quickly walked over.

Samuel took a deep breath before giving his order.

"Send word!"

"From now on, Harvey will be granted the title of Longmen's young master as well as the head of Law Enforcement!"

"He'll be in charge of every single affair, including the Eight Inner and Outer Halls and the thirty-six branch leaders."

"He will have permission to take action before reporting back!"

"If I die or retire, Harvey will become the next master of Longmen!" 1

Young Master?!

'The next master?!'

Even Harold couldn't guess that Samuel would drop such a big bomb after getting Harvey here.

The rest of Samuel's subordinates were completely shocked as well.

They knew Samuel had always looked up to Harvey, the man who joined Longmen halfway. They also knew Harvey had the right to take the position as the young master after winning the Longmen's Summit.

However, they were still shocked when Samuel announced Harvey as Longmen's young master.

Harold forced a smile when he looked at Harvey.

"Sir York—no, Young Master! Congratulations!"

Harvey was frozen as well.

He thought he'd only have an honorary title at best...

'Great...'

'Now I'm in charge of every single thing, and I'll become the new master of Longmen if he croaks!'

'What the f*ck?!'

'This old man got me!' 1

Chapter 3793

Harvey thought that while he could still try to play his role as the young master...

Samuel would still remain as the master in charge of everything within Longmen.

Harvey believed he would be completely unaffected with just an honorary title.

Yet, with just a few words, all the responsibility was instantly shifted toward him!

Samuel chuckled upon seeing Harvey completely speechless.

"Since we had a deal, you can't go back on your word anymore, Harvey."

"This time, you're going against the four great Martial Arts Alliances!"

"Since this is an underworld affair, Longmen has immense power!"

"From now on, every single resource and connection of the organization will be yours to control."

"You don't represent just yourself anymore."

"You need to fight for Longmen's reputation!"

Harvey sighed.

"Enough, old man. Stop provoking me. It's just a few clowns that I have to deal with, anyway."

There were some connections Harvey didn't want to use before, and there were calls he didn't want to make...

In the end, it seemed this was unavoidable.

Samuel smiled after hearing those words. 1

"Right. I'll just wait for the moment you calm the four great Martial Arts Alliance."

"Oh my! Isn't this Young Master York?!"

"What's that? You're asking for a dying man's help, now that you can't do anything yourself?"

"Don't you know that Samuel's already half a cripple? He can't even stand on his own two feet!"

"How do you think he's going to help?"

"You think he can get you through this or something?!"

A faint yet disdainful voice could be heard not far away.

Not only did the speaker keep insulting Harvey, but he had no respect for Samuel either.

Harvey instinctively turned around. He saw Clyde strutting over, accompanied by a dozen people.

He was looking at Harvey with a disdainful glare.

Destiny would always make enemies meet, after all.

Harvey was completely calm. He wasn't at all surprised about Clyde's visit.

"It's useless, Sir York."

"In Flutwell, or rather the entire country, nobody else can save you other than me!"

"Nobody can find you an escape, either!"

Clyde ignored Samuel, who was sitting in a wheelchair, and Harold, who was crossing his arms. and had a horrible look on his face.

Murderous intent could be seen clearly in his eyes.

"If you kneel and accept the four great Martial Arts Alliances' conditions..."

"Maybe I'll even think of letting you go."

"If not, you won't even begin to imagine just how horrible you'll end up!"

"How about this? If you're too shy to kneel in front of India's royal family, you can just grovel here and apologize."

"If you do, I'll think about asking the Martial Arts Alliances to go easy on you a little."

Clyde had a prideful smile, as if he already had Harvey under control.

Several beautiful women behind him were cackling like stupid chickens.

'Trampling on people with Prince Osborne feels great!'

Slap!

Samuel suddenly stood up. The next second, he swung the back of his palm across Clyde's face.

"Do you actually think I'm a cripple just because I've been keeping quiet this entire time?"

Chapter 3794

"Prince Osborne!"

Samuel instantly sent Clyde flying without even giving the latter any time to react.

Several people hurried toward Clyde to lift him back up.

The beautiful women behind him were shocked.

They didn't expect a random old man to easily slap Clyde in the face all of a sudden.

Harvey stood on the side, poker-faced.

Samuel was still the master of Country H's cornerstone, Longmen.

Even the masters of the five hidden families were only on par with him at most.

Clyde must've had a death wish to actually show off in front of Samuel, especially before he was even in power.

"How dare you touch me, you b*stard!"

Clyde was blinded by rage; he didn't even care who Samuel actually was at this point.

He was being supported by India's royal family and the Osborne family, and was ordered to use the four great Martial Arts Alliances against Country H.

How could such an impressive man as him stand being sent flying by a mere old man?

Clyde was a prideful man, after all.

If he didn't fight for his dignity, how else was he supposed to flaunt his strength in Flutwell?

After hearing Clyde's orders, several fighters quickly stepped in front, screaming about taking down Samuel for Clyde's sake.

"Go!"

They were experts from the Osborne family.

Their attacks were vicious, and their expressions fierce; it was apparent they were used to blood on their hands.

Since they decided to take action, they were naturally prepared to deal a killing blow!

Harold was ready to step forward...

However, Harvey calmly stepped out and stomped on foot on the ground.

Crack!

The marble tiles shattered into pieces, flying right toward the Osborne family's fighters.

They lay on the ground paralyzed, clutching their injured limbs.

Clyde's pupils shrunk at the sight.

He roared furiously, and then punched a shard that was flying toward him.

Bam!

The shard didn't break and instead flew right back at Harvey at lightning speed.

Naturally, Clyde was under the impression that he could deal with Harvey with ease.

That said, Harvey didn't even need to do anything.

One of Samuel's followers took a step forward and waved his hand, taking the shard into his sleeve.

The people Samuel had were naturally all experts from Longmen.

Looking at their might, Clyde finally calmed down.

He took a deep breath, and then stood up with an icy laugh.

"Samuel Bauer, are you and your family actually going to stand with Harvey?"

"Don't you understand the consequences of doing such a thing?"

His gaze fell on Harvey.

"As you can clearly see, that old man is basically done for."

"If he was as powerful as before, he would've killed me for disrespecting him like this by now."

"I'm still standing here. Do you know what that means?"

"He wouldn't even do anything to me!"

"He can humiliate me and slap me around, but that's all he can do!" 2

Chapter 3795

"Is that so?"

Harvey smiled faintly.

"I'll do it for him, then."

"Ha! You think you're invincible just because you won a few matches in the ring?"

Clyde was snarling after hearing Harvey's words.

He was about to swallow a pill to boost his strength; he was ready to give Harvey a lesson the latter wouldn't forget

But at this moment, Samuel spoke up.

"Since this b*stard said I wouldn't dare touch him, I have to prove him wrong."

"If not, my reputation will be completely tarnished."

Samuel stood up from his wheelchair. He slowly stepped forward, although his face was oddly red.

"Oh? Are you sure you want to go against me, Master Bauer?"

"Can you even stand up straight?"

"You touch me again, and I'll make sure to slam you to the ground."

"It'll be bad if you decide to blackmail with this in the future."

"You're old! Why don't you stop showing off already?"

"Nobody can save you if anything happens!"

To Clyde, Samuel was nothing to be scared of since the latter was heavily injured.

The only reason Clyde got slapped in the face was because he didn't have time to react.

He believed the same thing wouldn't happen after preparing himself for the attack.

He even assumed Samuel wouldn't win if they actually fought seriously.

Slap!

Before Clyde was even done talking, Samuel swung the back of his palm across Clyde's face. Clyde stumbled backward, a bright red palm print clear on his face.

Clyde was completely infuriated.

"Do you think I'm an easy target, Master Bauer?!"

"As a citizen of Country H, the blood of the country flows in you. The country gave you everything, yet your heart belongs to India!"

"How did the Osborne family raise such a b*stard like you?!" Samuel yelled harshly.

"Forget working for the country's interests, you're actually conspiring with the enemy against your own people! How can you take pride in that?! How dare you show off in front of my face like this!"

"You better get this straight, Master Bauer! Other than being the prince of the Osborne family, I'm also the rightful successor of India's royal family!"

"You'll pay for treating me this way!" Clyde exclaimed furiously.

"Is that so?"

Slap, slap, slap!

Samuel glared coldly and slapped Clyde around again, causing the latter to stumble. By then, his face was covered in blood.

"How will I pay for slapping a conspiring b*stard like you?"

"Let me tell you something. If it weren't for the doctor telling me not to move too much so I can recover faster..."

"I would've snapped your neck in half by now!"

Samuel had a disdainful look on his face.

"Not just you... I won't pay any respect even if the master of your family comes!"

"If you don't believe me, just ask him."

Clyde's face was icy. He instinctively considered making a gesture to get his people to pull out their firearms and shoot Samuel.

"What's that? You want to kill me here?"

Samuel looked at him mockingly.

"How many people are you willing to sacrifice? Are you using guns or explosions?"

"Come on! Do it!"

"You're just a coward if you don't!"

Chapter 3796

"You..."

Clyde Osborne was panting in anger...

But as soon as he was about to take action, he forced himself back.

He figured Samuel Bauer would probably have another trick up his sleeve since he dared to act.

If Clyde kept forcing his hand, Samuel would probably find an excuse to take him out then and there.

This would be the best way for him to solve the situation entirely.

Without a second thought, Clyde forced himself to calm down before he squeezed out a smile.

"I was just kidding, Master Bauer!

"I was just being ignorant!

"Please forgive me for being so rude.

"I won't make the same mistake again!"

Slap!

Samuel swung the back of his palm across Clyde's face again, causing him to stumble.

"What? Do you think you're a hot shot?

"You figured out that Master Bauer made a hole for you to jump in...

"That's why you're scared?

"Aren't you fearless?

"Aren't you the prince of the Osborne family?

"Aren't you the successor of India's royal family?

"What? You're giving up because you're scared of dying?"

"I can tell you this. If you even try anything on me, I can end your life right now and brand you as an assassin!

"After all, we can do whatever we want as long as it's within reason, right?"

Samuel's words were extremely blunt and domineering.

Clyde's eyes kept twitching. He figured that Samuel was an easy target because of his serious injuries.

He finally understood that he was utterly powerless in front of the all-powerful master of Longmen.

He still had a bright future and a lot of plans to carry out. He would not just give up his life here for no reason!

Clyde glanced at Samuel before shifting his gaze toward Harvey York and Harold Bauer.

"Fine! Fine!" exclaimed Clyde coldly.

"I admit defeat!

"I'll get out of here right now!

"That said, you can't keep Harvey safe forever!

"I do want to see who else will protect him!"

Samuel scoffed derisively.

"You're still trying to talk your way out of this, young man?"

"I was planning to let you go already..."

"But I changed my mind!

"You're going to slap yourself in the face twice and pay up for my mental loss fees!

"If not, don't blame me for what happens next!

"Of course, you don't have to follow my order anyway! You'll have to bear the responsibility yourself!"

"You..."

Clyde was boiling with anger.

He wanted to lash out, but, in the end, he could only hold himself back.

He finally took a deep breath before he said, "Fine! Fine! I lost!

"I'll admit defeat!

"That said, someone's going to pay for this!"

Then, Samuel showed a calm expression on his face.

"Ten."

"What?"

Clyde froze. He could not come to his senses at this moment.

"Ten slaps. I'll keep adding them if you keep on running your mouth," exclaimed Samuel annoyedly.

"You..."

Clyde choked instantly. He wanted to respond but could only take a deep breath while gritting his teeth.

"Fine! I'll heed your orders!"

He slapped himself around a dozen times before leaving a hundred-and-fifty-thousand-dollar check. Later, he walked away with his people following suit...

Chapter 3797

Harvey York could not help but glance at Samuel Bauer after seeing Clyde Osborne leave with such resentment. As expected from the master of Longmen himself.

Even after failing his training to connect himself with nature, he was still as dominant as usual despite his strength being halved.

His title as the master of the country's cornerstone was not just for show.

Clyde must have had a death wish for going against Samuel himself.

It was good that he knew when to quit.

If not, he would have been dead already.

He would also be accused of attempted assassination against the master of Longmen. "You see that, Sir York?"

"No matter how cunning the enemies are, they're still no match against pure strength."

Samuel showed a pitiful look as he watched Clyde walk away.

Harvey merely smiled.

"This was a pretty good lesson..."

"It was a shame that it's not bold enough. It's not quite ruthless either.

"I would've remembered your teachings if it was..."

Samuel sighed.

"I can't help it. I'm too old now. I don't have as many tricks as I used to. I'm also not as bold as before.

"There are too many things in my family that I need to worry about now.

"If this were before, you would've been satisfied with the lesson."

Then, Harvey glanced at Harold Bauer.

If this were before, Samuel would have been extremely ruthless with the three young masters of his family around.

After all, he could have used the situation to test their strength...

But since Harold was the only young master left standing in the family, it was only natural for Samuel to fear Harold being taken out. If that were the case, the Bauer family's legacy would have ended then and there.

Without a second thought, Harvey could not help but be impressed.

Even prominent figures like Samuel had weaknesses, let alone other people.

Bam!

"That old b*stard!

"How dare he?!"

"How dare he hit me in public?!"

Inside the Osborne family's courtyard hall, Clyde kicked a table down while smashing a few porcelain ornaments to pieces.

Even so, Clyde's rage was still unable to be quenched.

He was supposed to trample on Harvey at the nursing home after receiving word that he would be there...

But he did not expect that he would bump into Samuel. Not only was he constantly slapped around, but he also had to pay a hundred and fifty thousand dollars for it.

Money was not a big deal for Clyde, but he had a strong urge to assemble his men to ambush Samuel and rip him to shreds after being reminded of his derisive and playful gaze.

"Don't be rash, Prince Osborne!

After seeing Clyde lashing out of anger....

Ebony quickly rushed forward before speaking up.

"You can't be this rash!

"Patience is a virtue!

"Most of our plans against Country H have failed so far....

"Using the four great Martial Arts Alliance is our only hope!

"We need to make sure that this succeeds!

"Anything else is insignificant right now!

"You can deal with an old dog when everything's set in stone!

"Besides, the deal between the Golden Palace and us is getting a little vague. We should be careful about this...

"Think of the bigger picture!"

Naturally, Ebony was afraid of causing more problems.

Slap!

Clyde immediately slapped Ebony down with the back of his palm.

"Shut your mouth!

"Do you think you have the right to say that?!"

Chapter 3798

"Victory is right before our eyes!

"Other than agreeing to our conditions, they can't do anything else!

"What are we still scared of at this point?!

Clyde Osborne took a deep breath before he gulped his wine down.

"Send over India's experts right now.

"Find a chance to take that old b*stard out!"

"Prince Osborne!

Ebony stood up while showing an anxious expression.

"The people who've infiltrated Country H are all experts Julio Garcia brought up himself!

"There aren't many, and their identities were officially recognized.

"These people have been hiding in the country for ages. It isn't worth exposing their identities because of the situation...

"Especially against Samuel Bauer. No matter the case, he's still the master of Longmen.

"If he finds out about this, he might just have an excuse to wipe us all out.

"When that happens, every single plan we have lined up will crumble in pieces!

"Please listen to me, Prince Osborne! It's never too late to take revenge!"

Bam!

Clyde stood up and kicked Ebony to the ground with an icy cold expression.

"Are you lecturing me right now?!"

"Don't forget. The blood of India's most noble Brahmins runs in my veins! You're just a servant!"

"If it weren't for your loyalty, I would've crushed you by now!"

Ebony was sent flying for thirty feet...

But he would not dare lash out. He covered his stomach while he remained silent on the side.

"Prince Osborne, Ebony might sound a little pretentious, but now's really not a good time to go against Samuel!"

After seeing Clyde's anger dissipate, Vermillion walked forward before tenderly leaning toward him.

Then, she let Clyde place his hands all around her body while she whispered into his ear.

"Not only is that old dog formidable, but his status is also too extraordinary.

"It's said that he's also friends with the Big Boss himself.

"All Hell will break loose if anything happens to him.

"More importantly, Country H's royal court would probably use this as an excuse to drive the four great Martial Arts Alliances away.

"This would really throw a wrench in the works!"

"Don't forget. There's still a living legend of Country H, the Chief Instructor of Sword Camp himself.

"It's been years since he showed himself to the public, but someone got a glimpse of him while he was in Buckwood.

"It's said that he also has a good relationship with Samuel.

"It'd be bad if the Chief Instructor gets involved too...."

"When that happens, even Julio wouldn't be able to stop him..."

Vermillion tried to articulate her words delicately.

After all, judging from her speculation, the Indians would be crushed entirely if they went against Samuel at this moment. Their plans would crumble instantly if that were the case.

It would most likely lead to a disaster as well.

If the legendary Chief Instructor himself were to kill his way to India just to fix the whole situation, nobody would be able to stop him. 1

Chapter 3799

Clyde Osborne's eyes frantically twitched after hearing the Chief Instructor's name.

As a citizen of Country H, he knew exactly what that name represented.

He had never seen the Chief Instructor in person...

But he could already tell how powerful he actually was judging from the strength of Flutwell Police Station's first-in-command, Ansel Torres himself.

Vermillion's voice became softer after seeing Clyde's look on his face.

"Besides, Prince Osborne..."

"You're a treasure. Why even bother going against a dying man?"

"A man will never stand behind a collapsing wall."

"We have a strong force right now. You also have most of your family's forces under your command..."

"Safe to say that you're one of the few top talents in all of Country H."

"But even so, there's no point in fighting Longmen for such a trivial matter.

"After all, this will badly affect your grand schemes!

"We should wait until we're done crushing Country H's Martial Arts Alliance and Harvey York. When we return to India, then we can send people after Samuel Bauer.

"When that happens, everyone will know the consequences of going against you!"

Vermillion showed a respectful look, as if she was completely charmed by Clyde.

In reality, she already had a grasp of his personality after having a few heart-to-heart conversations.

She knew that Clyde would not actually take out Samuel...

But after enduring such humiliation, he would not be able to bear with himself if he did not express his dominance.

"Vermillion's right, Prince Osborne! We have the advantage right now! Country H's Martial Arts Alliance is forced into a corner!

"We have a plan!

"We shouldn't be pointing our weapons at anyone right now!

"Country H will definitely take advantage of the situation if we lash out!

"They have no way out after all. They wouldn't mind being a little reckless!

"But there's no need for us to do that!

"We can use the power of the four great Martial Arts Alliances to escalate the situation further!

"We'll make Country H's Martial Arts Alliance bow in front of us! They have no other choice!

"We can even spread rumors. We can say that Samuel and Harvey had been constantly humiliating Prince Osborne, who had been trying to serve his country, causing both sides to not come to an agreement!

"The people's hatred and resentment will all be directed at them!

"At that point, they might have to end their own lives just to satisfy the citizens!"

Ebony was trying to depict the bright future he had in mind.

"Prince Osborne, you can make them suffer just by talking! Why even do anything else if that were the case?

"There's just no point!"

Clyde took a deep breath to calm himself down after hearing Vermillion and Ebony's words.

He grabbed a glass of wine that Vermillion had brought over before saying, "Since Samuel's a tough nut to crack, we'll have to wait a bit longer before we take our revenge.

"That said, I'll never let go of that opportunistic b*stard, Harvey!

"I want him to suffer. I want him to know that he had made the worse mistake by going against me!

"This b*stard should've been dead already for crossing me repeatedly!

"Give the representatives of the four great Martial Arts Alliances a call!"

Chapter 3800

On the next day, while Clyde Osborne was still filled with utter resentment...

Harvey York called a cab to the Martial Arts Alliance's office building.

Other than seeing what sort of trouble Colton Torres was dealing with, he wanted to talk to him about what had happened the previous night.

After all, judging from Clyde's personality, Harvey believed that the prideful man would not just sit and do nothing after suffering such a big loss.

Samuel Bauer's actions seemed quite reckless, but he was actually forcing Clyde to pull out his trump card.

When the enemy is not fully prepared, it will be easier to take them out.

As soon as Harvey entered the office, Colton Torres furiously slammed his hand on the table.

"B*stards! Cowards!

"Are those vice leaders completely useless?!

"Or are those people from the sacred martial arts training grounds think that they're above others? Don't they care about their own country's glory?

"It's already bad enough that they're not standing on my side at such a crucial moment...

"They're even pestering me to accept the conditions as soon as possible!

"Don't they know I'll be branded a traitor to the country if I actually agree to those terms on behalf of Country H's Martial Arts Alliance?

"Tell them that I'll deal with this myself!

"If they're unhappy about it, then just tell them to remove me from my position!"

Colton waved his hand, gesturing his workers to leave the office.

"What's all this commotion about, Elder Torres?

"Just tell your subordinates to deal with this.

Harvey knocked on the door before heading into the office. Then he poured a cup of tea for Colton.

"I heard those so-called vice leaders who came from sacred martial arts training grounds are just elders of their respective outer circles.

"They only have the right to represent themselves at this point.

"If the actual leaders of the sacred martial arts training grounds caught wind about this, they'd definitely stand with you."

Colton was a lot more furious after hearing Harvey's words.

"These old b*stards only know how to train their hearts out! They wouldn't care about what happens in the outside world!" he exclaimed after sighing.

"Because of this, some of the scum from the inside have been flaunting their authority and ruining the reputation of the sacred martial arts training grounds.

"Just like you said, we both know they don't actually represent the sacred martial arts training grounds...

"But the people outside don't know that!"

Colton heaved another sigh. This was just extremely taxing for him.

After pouring himself a cup of Black Tea, Harvey casually leaned on the couch with a faint smile.

"I heard the four great Martial Arts Alliances added more conditions again.

"Now, they're targeting more Country H citizens from abroad. Even some of the bigger cities are getting involved..."

"That's right.

Colton massaged his temples.

"I saw the news online.

"That b*stard, Clyde even called me saying that he negotiated with the Martial Arts Alliances for us, but instead, they decided to add another condition!

"They want you to apologize at the four great Martial Arts Alliances' headquarters! They want everyone to know the kind of criminal they're dealing with this time!

"Where did that b*stard learn to do something like this?!

"He's trying to get everyone against you!"

Chapter 3801

"More importantly, that old b*stard, Dane Benett, has been saying that I'm the one stalling after getting the support of the four great Martial Arts Alliance!

"He told me to accept the conditions as soon as possible, or else the four great Martial Arts Alliances would add more!"

Colton Torres slammed the table again.

"That b*stard! Sometimes I really want just to quit!"

That said, Colton never did that.

He knew that with Dane's narrow mind and short vision, he would probably accept such humiliating conditions.

Country H's reputation would be tarnished entirely if that were to happen.

Colton would be hated by history itself.

Harvey York smiled after hearing those words.

"The four great Martial Arts Alliances didn't do this. Clyde Osborne did.

Harvey explained the entire situation.

Clyde was completely embarrassed by Samuel, yet he would not dare to take revenge. Other than going against Country H's Martial Arts Alliance, there was no other way to go against Samuel.

"The prince of the Osborne family.

"The successor of India's royal family.

"He does have the power and means to execute something like this."

Colton heaved a sigh.

"This b*stard is pretty damn despicable too!

"He was the one who instigated this, yet he's pretending to be the country's savior!

"He's playing both sides!

"The people who don't understand the entire situation are even looking at him as their last hope...

"While people like us are being ruthlessly insulted!

"Also, the deadline for the negotiation is coming up the day after tomorrow!

"The four great Martial Arts Alliances didn't mention specifics, but the citizens of Country H from abroad would probably be targeted on a bigger scale if we don't give them our statement!

"When that happens, the people will tear the entire building down out of rage.

"You and I will have to bear this responsibility even after the day we die!"

Colton let out another sigh.

"I'm an experienced man. I'm used to all the fire and flames but completely useless against such shameless people.

"I'm even thinking about letting Ansel Torres take out every single representative of the four great Martial Arts Alliances just to show them what we're capable of.

Harvey cracked a smile.

"There's no need for that. Why do something this direct when we can just stab them in the back instead?

"Since they want to play, we'll just play along.

"Don't worry. Leave this to me.

"Hang on for the next two days for me. Everything will be fixed after I make a few phone calls and meet up with a few people. 1

"I can guarantee that the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances will proudly stand behind us!"

"A few phone calls?

Colton froze before letting out a sigh.

"It's not that I don't believe you, Sir York. Even the Big Boss probably wouldn't be able to do anything with just a few phone calls!

"This is a problem for the underworld! Other than threatening them, how would the Martial Arts Alliances even let us off the hook?"

Harvey smiled and patted Colton's shoulder before leaving the office.

Soon after, he made a phone call.

"George Zabel, I need you to do something for me."

Chapter 3802

Time had gradually passed. It was already the afternoon before the deadline.

At four o'clock, Harvey casually came to the Martial Arts Alliance's office building.

Elanor Stanton followed beside him. She did not have her makeup on at that moment.

Her face was still just as beautiful, but a sense of professionalism completely replaced her allure.

Harvey wanted her by his side because of her connections and her self-control.

He hoped that she would be of use on this occasion.

"You're finally here, Sir York?"

As soon as Harvey's car was parked, Colton Torres and a group of workers walked up to welcome him after getting word.

Harvey just let out a smile.

"Did you wait long?"

"I just got here too, but those people upstairs have been waiting for a while now."

Colton curiously looked at Harvey.

"I thought those representatives would lash out and walk away judging from their impulsive behavior..."

"But they've been quietly waiting for an entire hour."

"Why would they even leave?" replied Harvey.

"What's the point of them doing all this if they don't trample on Country H's Martial Arts Alliance along with me?"

"They'd be doing all this for nothing."

"Clyde's also been waiting for this exact moment."

"He must be waiting up there too. He's probably still pretending to fight for the country.

"Even if the representatives want to leave, Clyde would probably stop them."

Colton let out a sigh.

"I'm impressed, Sir York. You haven't even seen anything yet, but you're describing the entire situation now

"Just like you said, the representatives have been trying to leave...

"But Clyde convinced them otherwise.

"Even so, they're all completely infuriated at this point!"

"Who are the people here?" asked Harvey

"The representative of the Far East Martial Arts Alliance, Rowen Caddel.

"The representative of the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance, Gordon Moreno.

"India's Martial Arts Alliance representative, Emilio Garcia.

"And Island Nations' Martial Arts Alliance representative, Haru Miyamoto.

Colton slowly named every representative before showing a serious expression.

"You need to be careful, Sir York!

"Not only are the representatives extremely powerful, but they also have sharp tongues! They won't be easy to deal with!

"They have the Martial Arts Alliances supporting them. Today's also the last day of the deadline they gave us...

"This'll be tough!"

"Yeah! Even Vice Leader Benett, who's serving them right now, was already yelled at a few times," said a worker on the side quietly.

"It's said that he said many things as well. He kept running his mouth about Country H being in the wrong..."

The worker was boiling with anger.

Harvey smiled.

"Large forces are banding together to crush Country H. It's not surprising that someone's already given up!

"Though these people are pretty despicable! They must have a death wish for showing off around here..."

Colton smiled.

"Since you said you have a way to deal with them, I didn't want to show up alone. I didn't want to get a stroke just by talking to those people..."

Harvey smiled.

"You're right. There's no need to go easy on them.

"I'll make them all grovel today!" 2

Chapter 3803

Harvey York waved his hand before walking to the meeting room with Colton Torres and Elanor

Stanton.

Before even pushing the door open, a loud slam on the table was heard inside.

Bam!

Soon after, a dominant and arrogant voice could be heard.

"Where's Colton?! Isn't he the leader of Country H's Martial Arts Alliance?!"

"Why isn't he here to see us yet?!"

"He thinks he's more impressive than us or something?!"

"Today's the last day of the deadline! Does he think he can actually hide from us?!"

"Let me tell you something! Your actions are infuriating! There will be consequences for this!"

"We'll raise your punishment to the highest level! Country H's Martial Arts Alliance will be crushed for sure! The people who train in martial arts here will be disgusted the moment they hear that name!"

"The people of Country H will hate you for all eternity!"

An Indian wearing traditional clothing was the one who slammed on the desk. He was the one yelling around the room.

The man was definitely Emilio Garcia himself.

He was furiously screaming at Dane Benett and the others at that moment.

Right beside him, some people were sitting around the table with nameplates right in front of them.

There was Haru Miyamoto, an Islander with a small mustache...

Gordon Moreno, an elderly man with white hair.

Rowen Caddel, a man in a suit from the South Sea...

Other than the four representatives, Clyde Osborne was also there.

He was crossing his legs while he happily watched the show at this moment.

There were also dozens of followers with their heads raised high. Clearly, they were all experts of their generation.

Dominant and fierce gazes could also be seen in their eyes.

They were disdainfully glaring at Dane and the others, as if they were no better than dogs.

Even though this was Dane and the others' turf, they would not even dare utter a single word in front of the representatives.

Not just the workers of the Martial Arts Alliance, even Dane had no choice but to force out a smile.

"Mr. Garcia, please don't worry!

"I called Leader Torres already! He should be here soon!"

Dane quickly gave a few looks toward the workers for them to call Colton.

Emilio stretched his fingers before placing them on the table.

"For Prince Osborne's sake, I'll give you people three more minutes!

"If he's still not here by then, we'll cancel the negotiation!

"We'll begin the sanction after that!

"I said so!"

"Sorry for being late, everyone," replied Harvey calmly as he walked inside with Colton and Elanor.

"Harvey?"

Clyde showed an indifferent gaze after seeing Harvey's face.

He then coldly chuckled before regaining his composure. He was prepared to make a joke out of Harvey as he sat leaning on his chair.

That said, the sharp pain on his face was still lingering until now. He was utterly furious because of it.

Chapter 3804

"You're the legendary Harvey York?"

Obviously, Emilio Garcia and the others had read Harvey's information beforehand.

After seeing Harvey show up, the representatives straightened their backs before they sized him

1.

Their faces were filled with utter disdain when they saw such an underwhelming look on Harvey. He did not seem like one of those prominent figures with dominant auras at all.

'So what if someone like this can win a few fights in the ring?'

'The true battle is always about smarts!'

'Just let the subordinates do the fighting and killing!'

Emilio did not even try to hide his disdain when he coldly chuckled.

"Do you think you can negotiate with us on behalf of Country H's Martial Arts Alliance?"

Dane Benett frowned.

"What's the meaning of this, Leader Torres? How can you be this reckless?"

"I've made my decision. From now on, Harvey will represent both me and Country H's Martial Arts Alliance.

"His words are my own.

"Whatever he agrees with, I'll do the same.

"I won't go back on my word," Colton Torres sternly declared.

Colton completely put his trust in Harvey despite not knowing what he had prepared.

Haru Miyamoto and the others curiously looked at Harvey after hearing those words.

Soon after, they coldly scoffed.

'The old b*stard, Colton, knows this is a tough situation. He knows he'll be hated throughout history if he even makes one wrong move...'

'That's why he got the troublemaker, Harvey, to take control. It would be better for everyone if he admits to his faults and agrees to the conditions.'

In the eyes of the representative, Harvey and Country H's Martial Arts Alliance were already doomed.

They had no other choice but to kneel and accept their punishment.

"I don't care who's leading the charge. I don't even care what you represent...

"But you made us wait this long.

"Don't you understand how precious our time is?

Emilio was the obvious leader of the representatives at this time.

"You need to give me a fair statement about this, or we'll cancel the negotiation right now!"

"A fair statement?"

Harvey let out a smile.

"I'm afraid you have no right to get that from me.

"But for the sake of you coming all the way here just to wait a few more hours, I'll give you a proper explanation.

"I got up a little late today. There was a long line to my breakfast shop, so I waited for another half an hour.

"Though, I got here immediately after.

"Please don't be too upset about it."

"You b*stard!"

Emilio slammed his teacup to the ground.

"You were the one who started this, Harvey! How dare you talk to us with this tone right now?!"

"Do you have a death wish or something?!"

"I've decided. Because of your attitude, the Country H Martial Arts Alliance will have to pay us fifteen billion dollars no matter how the negotiation goes!"

Haru and the others secretly looked at each other before showing faint smiles.

"We agree."

Dane and the others instantly changed expressions.

Chapter 3805

"You're insane! What kind of money do you think you're asking for?!" exclaimed a worker.

Slap!

"Who told you to speak up?"

Emilio Garcia slapped the worker aside before walking forward with a cold smile.

"Isn't Country H the world's strongest country?"

"Your country also has the world's largest economy judging from how fast you're developing..."

"If anything, you have the most money."

"So what if we take fifteen billion dollars from you?"

"This is nothing."

Emilio extended his hands toward Harvey York's face.

"Enough haggling, Harvey. If you even say a single word, I'll make your life a living Hell!"

Slap!

Harvey casually swung the back of his palm across Emilio's face.

"Country H has outstanding people, land with abundant resources, and money that grows on trees, but what does it have to do with you people?"

"Not just fifteen billion; we won't even give you fifteen dollars."

"Aaagh!"

Emilio stumbled backward while Harvey blatantly insulted him. His face was utterly swollen when he fell to the ground.

He could not even come to his senses at that moment. He was about to hit Harvey in the face, and yet he was the one with the sharp pain on his face.

Everyone was shocked as they stared Harvey in the eyes.

Even Clyde Osborne sat up straight after seeing the sight. He did not understand what Harvey was trying to do.

The occasion was just too extraordinary!

This was a battle of the four great Martial Arts Alliances against Country H!

A single word could decide the fate of the country!

Typically speaking, Harvey should have been indulging Emilio...

But he only slapped him in the face out of the blue.

Who in the right mind would do something like this?

Was Harvey getting desperate?

"How dare you hit me, you b*stard?!"

Emilio finally came to his senses.

He covered his face while he stumbled off the ground.

"Do you understand what you just did?!" exclaimed Emilio furiously.

Next, Haru Miyamoto immediately slammed the table.

"You're completely lawless, Harvey! Who do you think we are?!"

Daito was also boiling with anger.

"Don't you know what kind of situation you're in?!"

Rowen Caddel showed a faint smile.

"I wanted to say a few good things about Country H's Martial Arts Alliance. But since you're being this arrogant, you shouldn't blame us for what happens next!"

Dane Benett furiously stood up. He wanted to apologize, but Colton Torres immediately stopped him.

Clyde heaved a long sigh.

"Everyone, I came here because I wanted your respect for the sake of Country H's Martial Arts Alliance.

"I even have my people ready to sacrifice for the country along with my family's interests...

"But not only is the country this shameless, but they're also letting the instigator run his mouth and do whatever he pleases!

"To be honest, I'm extremely disappointed in Country H!

"That's why I decided to stay out of this from now on!

"I have no right to get involved anyway!" 1

Emilio and the others chuckled coldly after seeing Clyde fan the flames.

The plan was a little off, but they were still on track at the end of the day.

Chapter 3806

Emilio Garcia let out a cold chuckle.

"Fine! Since you don't want Prince Osborne's help, we'll just go all out then!

"Because of Harvey York's actions, you'll have to compensate ten times the previous amount!

"Other conditions will remain the same, but Harvey will have to kneel right in front of India's royal palace for three whole days!

"Make a choice, Leader Torres! Are you planning to accept our conditions, or will you endure the storm that's about to come?

"For now, only a few Country H Budokans from abroad were smashed up and robbed, along with a few people being deported!

"Even I wouldn't know what will happen next if things keep escalating!

"When that happens, I want to see just how you'll explain to your people!

Haru Miyamoto showed a faint smile.

"I suggest you accept the conditions right now.

"After all, Country H and the Island Nations have been in good relations. If it weren't for Harvey, we wouldn't be fanning the flames like this!"

"Stop pretending, you three! We came here to make Country H's Martial Arts Alliance pay!" exclaimed Gordon, showing a cold smirk.

"You either live under our total control, or we let the angry mob destroy you!

"The choice is yours!"

The subordinates playfully chuckled. They were looking at Harvey as if he was just a clown.

They thought creating such an opportunity would be tricky, but they did not expect Harvey to be this cooperative.

When everything was on the four great Martial Arts Alliances' side, Country H had no chance!

When they heard those words, the faces of Dane Benett and the others had utterly lost all color.

After all, it would be extremely disastrous for the country, no matter how they chose.

Dane wanted to give in and solve the situation quickly, but he never wished Country H's Martial Arts Alliance to fall like this.

He would not gain anything by doing this. It would also be hard for him to explain the situation to the Golden Palace's higher-ups.

While Dane was panicking about the situation, Colton Torres kept quiet when he sipped his tea.

He believed that Harvey could deal with the problem. Harvey would not act this way if that weren't the case.

"Not bad! Not bad at all! You guys make it sound like an actual opera!

"I'm terrified!

Harvey showed a calm smile.

"That said, I think you should accept my gift before anything else."

Harvey casually made a gesture before Elanor Stanton took a step forward. She calmly pulled out a few envelopes before setting them in front of the representatives. 1

"What's the meaning of this?

Emilio let out a scoff.

"Do you think you can just bribe or threaten us with this?

"Let me tell you something! We're all righteous people here. We will never be scared off, nor do we take threats kindly!

"Even if you give us a hundred and fifty million dollars each. Even if you dug up information about our ancestors, it'd still be useless..."

Emilio opened the envelope soon after. 2

Chapter 3807

Emilio Garcia was showing an expression of utter disdain as he opened the envelope.

He believed that he would never be moved no matter what was inside the envelope.

He was a noble Indian. He came here to reclaim his pride...

But there was another reason. Clyde Osborne had given him a lot for this occasion.

Harvey York would not be able to sway him just with a small treat. No simple blackmailing would work on him either.

But the moment he saw what was inside the envelope, his expression frantically changed.

He started reading the piece of paper out of disbelief, desperately trying to find anything wrong with it...

But the more he read, the worse his expression would get.

Haru Miyamoto

and the others wanted to take a peek, but Emilio instantly pulled the paper away.

"Look at what you have!" exclaimed Emilio while he was trembling uncontrollably.

Haru and the others froze for a moment before they opened up their respective envelopes.

Their faces instantly changed after seeing the letter's content.

"You're shameless!" they exclaimed in unison while furiously glaring at Harvey.

"You despicable scum!"

"Where did you get this?!"

The representatives were showing utter fear.

Even Colton Torres, Dane Benett, and the others were surprised.

They did not know what was inside the envelopes, but they could tell that Emilio and the others were so terrified of it that they kept it away from each other.

"What's the matter? You're all prominent figures here.

"This is no good.

Harvey smiled before he took a sip of the tea that Elanor Stanton had brought over.

"What you four have are pretty similar to each other.

"The biggest flaws of the killer moves from your respective Martial Arts Alliances are listed inside.

"Simply put, anyone who's trained could easily defeat you as long as they have what's in your hands.

"You know full well that you can never fix or perfect the moves further. This is your Achilles' Heel!

"Your Martial Arts Alliances would fall to whoever finds out this information!

"It doesn't matter if you're Gods of War, Kings of Arms, or just ordinary people trained in martial arts.

"Your weakness remains the same!

"Simply put, as soon as your enemies have the envelopes, you'll fall without even putting up a fight!

"You think you're so impressive, Emilio? Didn't you come all the way to Dean just to take him out?

"Believe me, you'll never be his opponent again once he gets the envelope!"

Harvey showed a calm look on his face.

"I'm not that impressive, but it wasn't hard for me to decipher the weaknesses in your moves either."

Colton and Dean gasped after hearing those words. They were filled with utter disbelief.

Nobody thought that Harvey could precisely point out the weaknesses of the Martial Arts Alliances!

After all, those were their killer moves!

Everyone felt completely sluggish at this moment.

'How did Harvey even get ahold of this information?'

Chapter 3808

Every single killer move of the respective Martial Arts Alliances was an untold secret.

Only the leader and the core disciples would be able to learn such secrets...

But not only did Harvey York manage to get ahold of that information, he even understood the weaknesses of the moves of the four great Martial Arts Alliances.

This was utterly terrifying.

"You b*stard! Where did you get this from?!"

Emilio Garcia held the paper in his hand while he trembled uncontrollably.

"How did you know India's Martial Arts Alliance's secrets and weaknesses?!"

"This is illegal!"

"Colton Torres! Dane Benett! You need to give me an explanation about this!

"If not, there'll be consequences for Country H to bear!"

After hearing Emilio's words, Haru Miyamoto and the others glared at Harvey fiercely, waiting for him to give a statement about the situation.

They also felt extremely guilty. With their identities, they naturally had the right to learn everything from their Martial Arts Alliances...

But people who were not core disciples would have never even known about this.

How did Harvey manage to get ahold of this information and decipher the weaknesses?

'This is impossible!'

'Besides, how did Harvey even manage to steal every Martial Arts Alliances' killer moves?!'

'This is insane!'

"Do you fancy an explanation?"

Harvey cracked a smile before sizing up Emilio.

"I can give you the simplest one.

"I don't know where you were born, but you must be mastering something similar to the Golden Shield, right?"

"That's why your weakness is your chest, your diaphragm, and..."

Emilio quickly rushed forward after hearing those words.

"Enough!"

"Please! Don't mention anything else!"

Emilio knew exactly where his weaknesses were.

He was already completely distraught the moment Harvey pointed out two of his weaknesses.

If he were to point out the most deadly weakness of all, Emilio would have no chance against anyone else after this.

Even people completely inferior to him would be able to kill him a dozen times over if they just went for his weaknesses!

His training for the past dozen years would be all for naught!

"Heh! Looks like you're pretty satisfied by my statement here."

Harvey reached out and patted Emilio's face.

"Of course, I can explain more if you're still unhappy about it.

"After all, there's no problem in enlightening the people."

Emilio was frantically twitching his eyes. He wanted to strangle Harvey so badly...

But he would not dare. Other than gritting his teeth, he had no choice but to tilt his head down.

"Gordon Moreno here must be into witchcraft from the South Sea. That's why your weakness is..."

Harvey whispered into Gordon's ear before his expression changed in an instant.

Soon after, he did the same to Rowen Caddel and Haru Miyamoto.

After hearing their respective killer moves being exposed one after another, the faces of the representatives darkened immediately.

They would not dare go against Harvey any longer. They were showing fearful expressions when they looked at Harvey, hoping he would stop talking.

Finally, Harvey shifted his gaze toward Clyde Osborne with a faint smile.

"Prince Osborne, I heard you're also a martial artist. Why don't I give you a few pointers too?"

Chapter 3809

Clyde Osborne's face darkened in an instant. He was gritting his teeth when he resentfully glared at Harvey York.

He never expected Harvey could easily point out such weaknesses in other people's martial arts.

Strength like this was just way beyond his comprehension.

In Clyde's mind, nobody was stronger than his dominant trump card, no matter how strong people were at fighting...

But Harvey exposed the representatives' weaknesses and made them fear him.

Then, who would dare go against them?

you

Clyde showed a horrible expression when he exclaimed, "What do you want?"

"So what if you can point out their weaknesses?"

"Other than proving that you stole their secrets, what else can you do?"

"Let me tell you something! These people won't be scared off like this!"

"The people who oppose you won't be scared off because of this either!"

"Your information is useless to these representatives!"

"They don't have to be scared of me.

Harvey showed a bright smile.

"They can even pretend that the information's completely useless...

"But I'll still show this to everyone on the internet. Not a single word about this will be missing.

"I'm sure most of you here have enemies who want you dead...

"I'm sure you've taken advantage of quite a number of people using the power of your respective Martial Arts Alliances.

"Nobody dared to go against you before...

"But I'm sure that'll change quickly once I reveal everything...

"I wonder, after destroying Country H's Martial Arts Alliance, do you think you'll be taken out before you can even head back to your own countries?

"After all, you'll probably find a way to deal with your weaknesses after a long time.

"Your enemies will definitely come for you as soon as possible. This would be the best way for them to do it, after all.

"Of course, if you people are honest and fair, you wouldn't have anything to be scared of," said Harvey with a curious look.

"If that were the case, then my threats are most likely useless against you.

"That said, are you people really that?"

Harvey smiled faintly while Emilio and the others looked like they had taken a bite out of a lemon.

They knew that Harvey was not just fearmongering at that moment.

The four great Martial Arts Alliances definitely had the strength to suppress Country H and escalate the situation further...

But Harvey could also disclose his information to the internet.

Before half an hour, the enemies of the Martial Arts Alliances would surely surface to snuff out the representatives as soon as possible.

One wrong move and the organization would crumble in an instant!

Harvey was prepared to die together!

If this were any other occasion, the representatives would have killed off Harvey no matter the cost just to prevent things like this from happening...

But they had no chance to do such a thing in Country H in broad daylight!

"You can't do this! You should know that the Martial Arts Alliances are united!"

"You'll destroy Country H's Martial Arts Alliance by doing this!"

Emilio barely managed to squeeze out those words.

Chapter 3810

"Nobody knows if the four great Martial Arts Alliances will fall even if you expose the information to the public..

"But we'll do everything in our power to kill you!" exclaimed Haru Miyamoto while gritting his teeth.

Rowen Caddel and Gordon Moreno showed horrible expressions without uttering a single word.

"Oh? You say that like you won't kill me if I don't expose the Martial Arts Alliances!"

Harvey York showed a playful expression.

"Weren't you the ones demanding me to reveal everything I learned before I kneel in front of India's royal family?"

"You're saying that you're being reasonable

"And I'm the one committing the sin?"

"If you don't want something done to yourselves, then you shouldn't have imposed it on others in the first place.

"Come! You clearly have something up your sleeves to fight me if you're still willing to threaten me right now," reasoned Harvey calmly.

"Then, use it all on me! See if I'll get scared!"

The representatives were all gritting their teeth after hearing those taunts.

Clyde Osborne instantly jumped out before he exclaimed, "Don't you dare cross the line, Harvey!"

"You'll end up destroying the entire country!"

"I will not allow you to do this!"

"You won't?"

Harvey showed a faint smile.

"What right do you have?"

"Are you just going to run your mouth at me? Or are you going to start throwing your punches?"

"Come! Come! You can hit me however you want! I promise I won't fight back!"

"But if you throw a punch, I'll announce India's secret..."

"If you throw two, I'll expose the Island Nations.

"And if you throw three, I'll drag everyone down with me!

"Come on!

"You want justice, right?!

"I'm right here! Come at me already!"

Harvey's arrogance had completely outmatched the representatives of the four great Martial Arts

Alliances.

"You..."

Clyde was boiling with anger. He raised his hand, ready to slap Harvey straight in the face.

Emilio and the others screamed as soon as they saw the sight.

"Don't do it, Prince Osborne!"

Clyde's eyes frantically twitched.

He was not scared of the representatives but could only swallow his hatred after thinking of the party's interests and the prominent figures supporting him.

Clyde would not dare act recklessly since he still needed people's support to rise to power.

"What? You won't do it?"

Harvey smiled faintly again.

"Aren't you a righteous man? Aren't you supposed to bring justice to the people here? You want to protect the country's interests, right?"

"Why aren't you moving?"

"Can you only run your mouth or something?"

"Though, I'm different. I'm a man of a few words."

Harvey stepped forward and swung the back of his palm across Clyde's face.

"Come on, you useless filth! Hit me!"

Slap!

"Come on! Aren't you going to fight for the four great Martial Arts Alliances?!"

"Aren't you?!"

Slap!

"Didn't you want to take revenge?! I slapped you in the face twice before, didn't I?!"

"Here's your chance! Then, do it!"

Chapter 3811

Slap!

"You're the prince of the Osborne family. The successor of India's royal family!"

"You've been acting all high and mighty, but who knew you have such a cowardly side too?"

Harvey York kept slapping Clyde Osborne around to the point where his face was swollen completely.

"You b*stard

Clyde stumbled backward after taking all those slaps. A horrible expression was clearly showing on his face at that moment.

He wanted to pull out his firearm and pull the trigger on Harvey desperately...

But as soon as he grabbed his firearm, Emilio Garcia and the others quickly exclaimed, "You can't, Prince Osborne!"

Naturally, they cared more about their interests than Clyde's own pride.

They came here to flaunt their strength, not to die horrible deaths.

"Shut up! Every single one of you!

Clyde was utterly enraged.

"Did you all forget who the instigator is?!

"I'll kill him! I'm going to kill him!"

After being continuously disrespected, Clyde wanted to strangle Harvey so badly.

He took off the safety of his firearm before pointing it right toward Harvey's head.

"We're telling you to stop! You hear me?!

Emilio's expression was icy cold when he spoke in a dominant tone.

"If you ruin the interests of India's Martial Arts Alliance, do you think the prince will forgive you for this?!

"Don't forget. A so-called successor like you is nothing before the prince!"

Clyde's hand trembled after hearing those words. His trigger finger also instinctively slowed down.

Without question, the prince's identity was extraordinary; his power was no less than terrifying as well.

Clyde would not dare lash out any longer.

"You're done?"

Harvey cracked a smile

He grabbed the firearm in Clyde's hand before slapping him once again.

"Come on! Come at me!"

"You pulled out your firearm already! Why are you still scared?! I'm embarrassed for my own country, seeing you like this! You're half a citizen of Country H, aren't you?!"

"There's no way filth like you is born here!"

Clyde's eyes were bright red. He covered his face while boiling with anger. It was clear that he was about to snap.

Emilio and the others quickly dragged Clyde back after seeing that sight.

"Enough!"

"Don't you dare cross the line! You're taking advantage of us here!"

"We're not going to die with the likes of you!"

"Do you think you can just threaten us like this?!"

"Let me tell you something! We're only trying to stop things from escalating further! We're trying to maintain world peace! Don't even think that we're scared of you!"

"World peace?"

Harvey let out a chuckle.

"At this point, might as well just say you're fighting for the entire damn galaxy."

Emilio's eyes twitched after hearing Harvey's words. He wanted to slap Harvey to death so badly...

But he knew that he had no chance against him.

After taking a deep breath to calm himself down, Emilio quietly said, "Tell me, Harvey. What do you want?"

"Name your conditions!"

"You still don't have an idea?" questioned Harvey calmly.

Emilio looked resentfully before coldly exclaiming, "We'll stop sanctioning Country H's Martial Arts Alliance.

"We'll also restore your reputation back.

"Happy?"

Chapter 3812

"No," replied Harvey York with a calm look.

Emilio Garcia showed a horrible expression.

"I guarantee similar incidents will not happen for the next five years!

"The attacks on citizens of Country H from abroad will also halt instantly!

Haru Miyamoto and the others felt resentful but had no choice just to nod in unison.

"That's right! From now on, we'll coexist peacefully. From now on, we won't get involved with affairs!"

Clyde Osborne gritted his teeth after hearing those words.

your

He only showed a cold expression without saying a word. Speaking out against this would mean going against the front he previously put up for the sake of the people.

He was already thinking of a million ways to end Harvey's life at this moment...

He was dead set on seeing Harvey getting ripped to shreds!

"Yeah!"

The workers of Country H's Martial Arts Alliance happily cheered.

The pressure of the four great Martial Arts Alliances was just too immense.

Everyone felt much more relaxed when they were finally relieved from all the pestering.

Even Colton Torres showed a bright smile. He was utterly impressed with Harvey's work.

"Thank you all for giving Country H's Martial Arts Alliance a chance.

Harvey smiled faintly, as if he was satisfied by the conditions...

"That said, I think that you should be doing all this in the first place.

"And in my eyes, this isn't even good enough. That's why I decided to come up with a few more conditions..."

"More?!"

"How is this not enough?!"

Emilio and the others froze when they were about to leave the room.

"Don't you dare cross the line, Harvey!" they exclaimed with horrible looks.

"We're giving you enough respect already!"

"Our country has five thousand years worth of history! Can't you at least act like you belong in it?!" exclaimed Clyde coldly.

"Why are you still haggling at this point?!"

'You're embarrassing the country here!"

Slap!

Harvey wasted no time slapping Clyde aside.

Emilio and the others were enraged.

"You're crossing the line, Harvey!"

"Crossing the line?"

Harvey showed a faint smile.

"Not quite. Now, this is crossing the line."

Harvey stepped forward and slapped Emilio and the others around to the point where their faces were completely swollen.

Harvey did not feel satisfied after all that, so he kicked all of them down soon after.

Then, he stepped on Emilio's face and coldly exclaimed, "How's this?"

"The four great Martial Arts Alliances banded together just to show off in front of the country. All of you act like you're kings of the world now. How come you didn't think that you were crossing the line then?"

"You're telling me that I'm crossing the line just because I slapped you people around and kicked you down?"

"Are you people really ignorant? Don't you know that you shouldn't do anything you don't want to happen to yourselves? Didn't your parents even teach you about this?"

"And you say that I'm crossing the line?"

"I'm only paying you back for what happened to my people outside the border. How is that unfair?"

"Let me tell you something. I'm already giving you people enough respect by keeping you alive!"

"If you keep on yapping, I'll break your necks right now!"

"The people supporting you wouldn't even dare make a sound after this."

Chapter 3813

Harvey York crossed his arms before disdainfully sending Emilio Garcia flying with a single kick.

When Harvey was wiping his fingers with some tissue, Emilio and the others were frantically twitching their eyes before they fearfully took a few steps back.

At this point, they knew that Harvey was right...

Even if Harvey killed them off, the Martial Arts Alliances would not even bat an eye.

After all, Harvey knew their biggest weaknesses.

Emilio and the others felt utterly resentful when they saw Harvey acting dominantly.

They were here to show off and boss around Country H's Martial Arts Alliance...

But they were no different than mere dogs compared to Harvey at this moment.

This was completely off from what they had in mind.

With a bitter look, Emilio took a deep breath and said, "It's better if you don't burn all your bridges right now, Sir York..."

Harvey swung the back of his palm across Emilio's face.

"I'd rather do just that."

Haru Miyamoto gritted his teeth and stepped forward after seeing the sight.

"It's always better to forgive, Sir York..."

Slap!

"I'll only forgive you when you're six feet under."

Gordon Moreno's mouth twitched after seeing the sight.

"We'll surely meet again in the future, Sir York! We all belong to the South Sea and the Far East. There's no need for us to fight! None of us will benefit from this..."

Slap slap slap!

"Are you threatening me?"

Harvey squinted before he kicked Gordon aside.

Then, he shifted his gaze toward Rowen Caddel before coldly exclaiming, "Since you haven't been running your mouth, I'll pay you some respect..."

Harvey then slapped Rowen aside!

'What the f*ck?!

Rowen was filled with anger as he covered his face.

'I said nothing!

'Didn't you say that you were going to show respect?!

'Were you just putting up a front?!

When the group of representatives stumbled off the ground again, they were utterly speechless.

'Doesn't Country H have a strong etiquette?'

'Aren't the people here supposed to be generous?'

'This b*stard isn't even holding back!'

The representatives were filled with resentment. They would usually be thanked by people who were in tears if they decided to stop flaunting their strength.

Though, Harvey did not even hesitate to make demands.

Clyde Osborne showed a righteous expression when he exclaimed, "What do you want?!

"Are you not scared of the representatives getting reckless?! Everyone'll fall if this continues!"

Clyde badly wanted to shoot Harvey, but he would not dare.

"You're right. That's precisely the plan."

Harvey walked forward and patted Clyde on the face with a faint smile.

Then, Harvey made a gesture.

Elanor Stanton calmly brought a few contracts forward and set them before the four representatives.

"Come. Come. Take a look at the contracts I have for you.

"As long as you agree to my conditions, your secrets and weaknesses will forever remain untold!

"Number one, apologize to Country H's Martial Arts Alliance and admit your mistakes!

"Not just the Far East. I also want the entire Northern Europe to see your apology!" exclaimed Harvey.

Emilio and the others looked at each other after hearing such a demand.

"We'll oblige," they replied while gritting their teeth.

Chapter 3814

"Number two, compensate for all the losses of Country H citizens abroad.

"Pay for their damages and punish the people who did it! Not a single dime less, and not a single person left out!

"Other than that, every single one of you will pay a hundred and fifty million dollars as pension and mental loss fees for the citizens of Country H!

"My assistant, Elanor Stanton, will decide how to proceed with the situation."

Emilio Garcia and the others frantically twitched their eyes.

Harvey York was going for the people's hearts.

That said, the conditions were still within their tolerable range. No matter how resentful they were, they had no choice but to nod their heads.

"We'll accept these conditions too."

"Number three, and also the final one..."

Harvey calmly said, "I don't trust the four great Martial Arts Alliances to keep their word.

"That's why I'm asking the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances to acknowledge Country H as the fifth permanent director of the World Martial Arts Alliance.

"After all, you wouldn't be able to pull off something like this anymore after that!"

After hearing those words, Colton Torres and Dane Benett's eyes lit up instantly.

Naturally, they knew this was infinitely beneficial to the country if it were to go through.

This would mean that Country H's Martial Arts Alliance would have immense authority over the martial arts world in the future.

The five great directors represented the highest order of the World Martial Arts Alliance.

"No chance!" exclaimed Emilio and the others in unison.

It would be hard for the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances to accept the condition, but it would not be impossible either.

But the same could not be said for India and the Island Nations' Martial Arts Alliances.

There was a vacant position for the World Martial Arts Alliance director. India and the Island Nations were both desperately vying for that.

How could they accept the conditions if that was the case?

They would essentially be supporting their enemies' rise.

"Give me a reason you won't comply," replied Harvey calmly.

"You can slap us around and make us apologize! You can even get us to grovel in front of you..."

Emilio took a deep breath with a serious expression on his face.

"But we will never band together and acknowledge Country H's Martial Arts Alliance as one of the five great directors!

"We'd be crazy if we actually went along with it!

"Give up, Harvey!

"Even if you expose our secrets, we'll never accept that condition!"

Emilio gritted his teeth with a decisive look. This was clearly his limit.

"Right! We won't go along with this either!

"If you really want to drag everyone down, then so be it!

"I do want to see whether Country H's Martial Arts Alliance goes down before us or not!" exclaimed Haru Miyamoto and the others coldly.

Clyde Osborne let out a cold chuckle.

"Don't be naive, Harvey! Do you want Country H's Martial Arts Alliance to be listed as one of the five great directors?

"This isn't about money. The representatives have no say in the matter either..."

"Even if everyone here agrees, even if the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances go along with this..."

"Do you think the current directors would do the same?"

"Think again!"

Chapter 3815

Clyde Osborne was not just spouting nonsense either. The four great directors would always side with America and the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets' Martial Arts Alliances.

Not only did they have the monopoly of the world's many martial arts resources, but they would also often band together to suppress the other Martial Arts Alliances of top countries. The cooperation between both sides would be considered near-perfect.

Safe to say that the world's Martial Arts Alliances would always follow the four great directors.

Because of the Far East and South Sea's complicated situation, the World Martial Arts Alliance would usually not get involved with them.

They already owned the rest of the martial arts world anyway.

Why would the four great directors even let Country H's Martial Arts Alliance rise to power under such circumstances?

Not only would there be another person in charge, but all the directors would also be on a different page again.

Then, how could they use their authority to exploit the people at large?

Harvey chuckled when he saw the righteous looks on Emilio's and the others' faces.

"Are you sure you're not going to accept it?"

Emilio and the others immediately shook their heads.

"Of course not!" they exclaimed coldly.

"No need to be so decisive.

Harvey calmly smiled.

"There are people supporting you behind the scenes, right? Why don't you ask them about this instead?"

"No! We can decide on our own!"

"Either you set another condition, or we'll leave this place right now!"

"Besides, Prince Osborne is right. Even if we go along with this, the four great directors will never acknowledge it!"

Harvey calmly smiled.

"I do think that they'll accept it, though.

"I'm only missing your recommendations at this point.

"With this, everything else will be smooth sailing."

"If Country H's Martial Arts Alliance manages to become one of the great directors, I'll kneel and even call you 'Daddy'!"

Harvey clicked his tongue.

"Just kneel. Don't call me that.

"I wouldn't want an idiot of a child like you for a son anyways.

"Besides, you have no say about this matter."

Voom!

Almost simultaneously, Emilio and the others' phones started vibrating.

After looking at Clyde, who was utterly sluggish at the moment, the representatives had a bad feeling about the situation.

"I apologize to the citizens of Country H for the outlandish conditions!

"You may leave now, representatives!

"I'll get my family to talk to Harvey.

"He will not expose your secrets. You have my word!"

Clyde could not help but speak up after losing himself a little.

"About Country H's Martial Arts Alliance being one of the great directors, that was just a joke!

"Even if the Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliance wants to recommend them, at least one of the great directors needs to do the same before they even have the right!

"Please ignore Harvey for his ignorance, everyone."

Emilio and the others' eyes lit up when they were about to say something...

"Are you sure you don't want to pick up the call first?"

"What if your bosses are calling you?"

Emilio and the others came to their senses before they quickly picked up their calls.

"What?! The World Martial Arts Alliance held a meeting just today! The Empire of the Sun that Never Sets recommended Country H's Martial Arts Alliance to become the fifth great director!

"Other than America's Martial Arts Alliance, the other two directors are in agreement!

"Only the South Sea and Far East Martial Arts Alliances' votes are left!"

Chapter 3816

Clyde Osborne's face instantly darkened.

He could not imagine how such a coincidence would even happen.

At such a crucial moment, the World Martial Arts Alliance held a meeting and nominated Country

H's Martial Arts Alliance as one of the great directors.

'How is this possible?!

'Everything happened exactly like that b*stard, Harvey York, said!

'Did he plan for all this?!

The thoughts came to Clyde's mind like a surging tide crashing onto the shore.

He quickly calmed himself, thinking that this would never be the case.

'A small fry like Harvey wouldn't be able to do anything to the World Martial Arts Alliance.

'All this is just a coincidence!'

"Don't be scared, everyone!" exclaimed Clyde.

"He must've known about this through his sources!

"That was why he would come up with such a condition!

"Don't give in to his terms!

"We, the people from Country H, know our limits. We have no right to sit in such a powerful position."

Even before Clyde was done talking, Emilio Garcia and Haru Miyamoto put down their phones.

They were showing horrible looks on their faces as they were gritting their teeth.

Rowen Caddel and Gordon Moreno quickly jogged toward Harvey before bowing respectfully.

"I'm sorry, Sir York. Please forgive us for being ignorant.

"The Far East and South Sea Martial Arts Alliances have made a decision.

"On behalf of our Martial Arts Alliances, we'll nominate Country H's Martial Arts Alliance to become one of the great directors!

"As for India and the Island Nations' Martial Arts Alliances, their decision will not affect ours in any way!

"We hope you can see our sincerity!"

Rowen and Gordon's arrogant attitude was immediately replaced by fear and humility.

Emilio and Haru's faces instantly darkened. They would not say a single word at this time.

India and the Island Nations would never accept Country H's Martial Arts Alliance to rise to power

But the Empire of the Sun that Never Sets, the Far East, and the South Sea's Martial Arts Alliances said otherwise.

At this point, the matter was already set in stone!

The representatives were already being pestered by the people supporting them, saying that this was too tricky of a situation and was not allowed to make any statement.

Even if this did not happen, they also would not dare say a single word about it.

Not only were the workers of Country H's Martial Arts Alliance completely froze, but even Dane Benett could not help but slap himself in the face to ensure he was not dreaming.

Clyde, on the other hand, was utterly shocked.

His words instantly came back to bite him.

Harvey took a sip of tea that Elanor Stanton had brought over before he calmly said, "Enough nonsense.

"When are you going to send over the recommendation?"

"Don't worry! The Far East Martial Arts Alliance will hold a meeting in three days! Two-thirds of the members will agree to the recommendation! You have my word!" said Rowen enthusiastically.

"Sir York, the South Sea Martial Arts Alliance will hold a meeting this afternoon! Ninety percent of the members will agree to this!

"With three out of four great directors' acknowledgment, all we need to do is to go through a collaborative process!

"Soon enough, Country H's Martial Arts Alliance will be able to send a representative to the World Martial Arts Alliance' headquarters!"
