Chapter 885

After leaving, Maxine headed to the closed-door meditation sanctuary in Tobias' backyard

She knew that Tobias True Energy was depleted and that he would need to meditate to recover them.

There was an independent wooden house in the backyard of the Cadens' mansion.

Maxine came to the wooden house and knocked lightly on the door.

"Come in," A voice sounded from inside the room.

Maxine pushed the door open and walked inside the wooden house. She looked at Tobias. He was sitting in a lotus position, circulating his energy to replenish his depleted strength.

"Grandpa," She called out for him.

"Yeah? What's the matter?"

"Grandpa, I'd like to request some rejuvenation pills."

Tobias turned to Maxine and questioned, "You didn't exhaust your True Energy, so why do you need rejuvenation pills?"

Maxine lowered her head and uttered embarrassedly, "I forcibly tried to exercise the meridian diagram, and my True Energy retrograded, causing a severe depletion"

Tobias did not pursue the matter further. He took out a small bottle from his pocket, took three red pills out, and threw them to

Maxine, saying. “They’re hard to refine, so use them sparingly”

Maxine took the pills and said, “Thank you, grandpa.”
“Leave me.”

She returned to her room and immediately took a pill. After consuming it, a warm current spread through her throat, and the depleted True Energy rapidly recovered.

Although her True Energy had recovered, she still had injuries all over her body. However, she did not think about them and quickly rushed to James’ room to heal his wounds with acupuncture.

She continuously used her True Energy for the next few days to heal James’ injuries.

The Crucifier had miraculous effects. Along with the infusion of True Energy, it could even bring the dead back to life. Naturally, with its use, the injuries on James’ body gradually improved.

Five days passed in the blink of an eye

The injuries on James’ body were almost fully recovered. However, he had not regained his True Energy. Maxine was once again helping James heal his injuries.

After having the Crucifier's needles removed from his body, James started looking better. Maxine could not help but ask, "James, how do you feel now?"

James said, "I feel much better, but it'll take a few more days for me to recover my True Energy."

"Incredible." Maxine's pretty face was in a daze.

James' injuries were undoubtedly fatal. However, he managed to regain his energy back in just a few days.

"James, what exactly are these needles? How are they capable of such a miracle?"

James simply smiled and did not answer.

Suddenly, the door opened, and Tobias walked into the room.

Looking at James' vibrant complexion and how he was chatting energetically, He could not help but say, "Not bad. It's only been a few days, and you've already made a great recovery."

"Grandpa," Maxine bowed her head and greeted respectfully.

"Mhm." Tobias nodded slightly to acknowledge her.

His eyes were fixed on James. He walked over, sat down, and said, "Give me your hand. I'll check your pulse."

James waved his hand gently and said, “There’s no need for that. I’m a doctor myself and know my physical condition very well.

I’m almost completely recovered.”

“That’s a relief. By the way, can I have some of your blood?”

James nodded.

He understood that to get the Cadens’ protection, he would have to obey Tobias.

Tobias took out a syringe.

James took it from him and drew a generous amount of his blood for Tobias.

Tobias was curious how James recovered in just a few days.

He had the urge to ask Maxine, but he could not wait to study the Moonlit Flowers on Cliffside’s Edge. Hence, he pushed his curiosity aside for the time being and left with James’ blood.

After Tobias left, Maxine sighed in relief.

“By the way, have you looked at the cultivation method I gave you?” Asked James.

Maxine had stayed by James’ side for the past few days to care for him. During that time, he had written down the ancient characters that he saw on the painting for her.
