

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 941

The trio returned through the same path.

In an attempt to find a signal, James held up his phone while walking. Unfortunately for them, mobile phone signals were non-existent where they were.

After walking for what felt like an eternity, they finally reached the car.

Since James was still unable to find a phone signal, they had no choice but to drive back.

It was eight in the evening when they reached Harvin City.

Afterward, the three had dinner and checked into a five-star hotel.

Hotel reception.

James looked at the young woman working as a receptionist at the front desk and said, "We need three rooms."

Thea quickly corrected him. "Two rooms."

James turned to Thea with a look of confusion on his face.

affectionately. "We're husband and head, looked at James and double-confirmed. "Sir, may I confirm many rooms you'd be

“Three.”

need your social

receptionist his

also took out their social

the receptionist could not help but mutter,” James Caden...

dwell on it, she simply registered them and gave them their

from her computer screen and looked at James’

her heart

“Ahh!”

struck by lightning, she gave

the

She was a stunning young woman had her hair in a neat bun and was with shock and disbelief. James took the room cards without acknowledging her question and handed one each to the two ladies. Then, he turned Black Dragon Army, James! He's so much cooler in person!" The receptionist looked at James, heading upstairs who I saw today!

attention to her and directly