

The Almighty Dragon General Chapter 953

Madelyn relayed a series of drastic decisions.

First, make efforts to resume their research as soon as possible.

Second, every other pharmaceutical group apart from Centennial Corporation must be eliminated.

Third, only one medical hospital could exist on Medical Street — Universal Hospital.

Madelyn gave out her orders with swift determination.

The process did not matter to her.

All she cared about was achieving the desired end result.

"Ms.Gabriel..."

Jonathan stood up anxiously.He chose his words carefully so as to not anger her.

"James is in Cansington and has established Messiah Corporation.His company has been fiercely competing with Centennial Corporation for market share.It's going to be an uphill battle to accomplish your goals.James is definitely going to get in our way and interfere with our plans."

"James..."

Madelyn murmured pensively.She had never left the Capital before, but she was keenly familiar with James' name.

with Messiah? We've got strong financial support. James, on the other hand...his money comes from Zane Dawn. Once he's Jonathan hesitantly pointed out.

meddle in our plans, it may be difficult for us to purge all the legal means. I'm sure you have...other ways of dealing with hindrances. Catch glanced at

"Okay. Understood."

and stayed

"That concludes our meeting."

walked out

Meanwhile...

dead of night. His urge to sleep eventually overcame him and he finally set down his medical book as he let out a tired yawn. He stood up sleeping appearance was incredibly endearing

graced her pretty

her neck and chest area.She

over and gently drew the covers back

sensation of the

opened her eyes groggily and saw James turning away from her.She softly

sleepy and breathy voice tickled

on the floor," James quickly distance from her while he still lived with Callahans, or her at that point.She rolled over and got up.Her eyes glistened with tears as she looked at

"That's not it."

in bed.What's