

Deana nodded and said, "Yes, that's it, so you must not have any other thoughts, if you let him down again, he may never give you any chance again."

Fitz Bank said without hesitation, "Mom, don't worry, I am no longer the one who still wanted to inherit the Banks family. The pilgrimage during this period of time made me understand that I must not let my relatives down in my life. As long as Zara needs me, I will do my best and die. If she doesn't need me, I won't fight for the assets of the Banks family. Even if it's just the money in my own account, it's enough for me to live a carefree life. For a lifetime."

Seeing that Fitz Bank said these words from the bottom of his heart, Deana nodded in relief, and said to Zara banks, "Zara, as the head of the Banks family, even if charlie allows your brother to return to the Banks family Group, let him go back or not, it is up to you to decide, you can consider this point completely independently, Mom will not interfere, but Mom has only one request for you."

Zara banks hurriedly said, "Mom, just say it!"

Deana seriously "In a family business, it's normal to use your own family members for important positions, but you must be objective and fair. Don't take special care of him just because you know he's your real brother. Don't give others the feeling that if you say he can do it, he can do it if he can't."

Zara banks nodded heavily, "Don't worry, Mom, I'll make a note of it!"

Three o'clock in the afternoon.

A direct flight to Hong Kong Island took off at Aurous Hill Airport.

Mia (Liu Manqiong), who was full of thoughts, was sitting on the plane, looking at Aurous Hill which was getting farther and farther out of the window, and couldn't help but think of the details of the acquaintance with charlie in Hong Kong Island.

Today I happened to see charlie and Nanako walking together, although it made her feel inferior for a while, it didn't affect his deep love for charlie at all.

Right now, she just thinks that the time will pass faster in the future. She can't wait for the day when Aurous Hill University starts school. She has even decided to call charlie after school starts and tell him that she is coming to Aurous Hill University. To do business, ask him out to meet, and tell him when we meet that I have joined Aurous Hill University.

And Mia (Liu Manqiong) is also prepared for the worst. Even if charlie is not happy after knowing it, and even wants to leave Aurous Hill, she doesn't care. This is the first time for her to experience life in this world. He is closer, and no one can persuade him.

Just as her plane was gradually leaving Aurous Hill, another plane slowly landed on the runway of Aurous Hill Airport.

The plane took off from Madagascar in Africa and flew 10,000 kilometers all the way to Aurous Hill. The passenger on the plane was Lord Banks, the old man of the Banks family who had become a big landlord in Madagascar.

He had received an invitation from his son Zayne, and had come all the way from Madagascar to attend the wedding.

Knowing that his son was going to marry Kairi, Lord Banks's first thought was surprise, and his second thought was relief.

The relief is not because he is satisfied with Kairi, but mainly because he has not been used to his son licking the dog in front of Deana for so many years.

Everyone knows that Deana agreed to marry Zayne because he begged Bruce but he couldn't. At the beginning, he also wanted to prevent his son from marrying Deana. Also as a treasure.

However, in the end, Zayne, who couldn't help but only want to marry Deana, could only acquiesce in their marriage.

Acquiescence is acquiescence, but the old man's knot has not been untied for so many years.

Now, his son finally ended his marriage with Deana for more than 20 years, and married Kairi who loved him wholeheartedly. In the eyes of the old man, this is the best destination for Zayne right now.
