

Furious, he gritted his teeth and said, "Boy, you are looking for death yourself, don't blame me for being rude to you!"

After finishing speaking, the heavy fist swung at Charlie.

But Charlie was not afraid at all, let alone dodge, but looked at him provocatively, and said lightly, "You fight, I will let you know what it means that a strong dragon can't overwhelm a local snake, believe it or not Just one phone call can make you a wanted target in Aurous Hill, black and white?!" As soon as Charlie said this, Hong Tianshi's expression suddenly became astonished!

Immediately afterwards, he subconsciously stopped the fist he had swung.

It wasn't that he was afraid of Charlie, but he understood a truth from Charlie's words, "This kid must be a local snake in Aurous Hill. Although I am not afraid of him, I am new here and I don't have any connections. What if I call him today?" Without him, the police will arrest me everywhere, and I'm afraid it will be difficult for me to stay in Aurous Hill any longer. In that case, my most important purpose of coming to Aurous Hill will be delayed!" Thinking of this, he gritted his teeth and said to himself, "Forget it!

Little If you can't bear it, you will make a big conspiracy! Let this boy spare his life today!"

At this point, Hong Tianshi withdrew his fist, stared at Charlie, and said with tearing eyes, "Boy! Today is your fate, Hong doesn't want to be here Otherwise, based on your disrespectful words to me just now, I would have sent you to see the Supreme Sanqing!"

Charlie spat and continued to taunt, "Bah! You old man! The mouth is still quite hard, it's not that I look down on you, but fortunately you didn't do anything! Otherwise, I'll punch you out on the spot! Then don't hold your crotch and say that I don't respect the old and love the young!"

"F*ck you!"

At this moment, Hong Tianshi almost gritted his teeth!

He didn't expect that the kid in front of him was so cheap, so cheap that it made people want to kill him!

Obviously he was the one who spared his dog's life and let him go, but instead of acknowledging her, she even said such disrespectful words to herself, it was simply 'tolerable, which can't be tolerated'!

However, the more Charlie angered him, the less he dared to fight Charlie.

This is not true, he was afraid of Charlie, mainly because he was afraid of causing public security incidents here, or even criminal cases.

If that happens, the police will be involved. Although I am an eight-star martial artist, I would definitely not dare to confront the police in a metropolis like Aurous Hill.
