

Hong Changqing realized that he was being tricked by Charlie again, but at this moment, even if he was Charlie was playing tricks, and there was no anger in his heart, only fear.

Because Hong Changqing has deeply realized that Charlie's strength is no longer in the same rank as him, not even in the same world.

The ancients said that the gnat may shake the tree, which perfectly interprets his mood at this time. Hong Changqing took a step back subconsciously, like a three-year-old child who has made a mistake, and said in fear, "I don't know Taishan, I offended Master Wade... I hope Master Wade will be merciful..." Charlie looked at Hong Changqing and said calmly "Come on, I'll give you a chance to ask your question again."

Hong Changqing was stunned for a moment, then quickly bowed and said, "Master Wade, I am like an ant in front of you, how dare I commit an offense and ask you about your identity?" ..."

Charlie smiled and said, "Look, when you are not given a chance, you just try to act forcefully, but when you are given a chance, you are timid again, it's useless, Hong Tianshi." Hong Changqing was frightened all over . Trembling, he knelt on the ground with a thud, and said in a flustered trembling voice, "Master Wade calm down...I really dare not be presumptuous in front of you..."

Charlie smiled and said calmly, "I heard that you came to Aurous Hill to find Clues to Rejuvenation Pill?"

Hong Changqing's heart skipped a beat after hearing this!

At this moment, he finally understood, "It turns out that I have been targeted by this Master Wade for a long time... I naively thought that I had set up a trap for Dr. Simmons, but I didn't expect that I was put into a trap by this Master Wade instead!"

At the same time, he couldn't help but wonder in his heart, "Few people know about the fact that I came to retrieve! Except for the people in the An family, only Stefanie Sun who brought the magic medicine to save An Qishan in the An family that day... Could it be this Charlie, do you know them?!"

Thinking of this, a flash of lightning suddenly struck Hong Changqing's mind, he suddenly realized, and tremblingly said, "Master Wade...you...you are the one who made the Rejuvenation Pill?!"

The corner of Charlie's mouth hearing

this, Hong Changqing bowed his head and said with great reverence, "Hong Changqing, the thirty-ninth generation descendant of Taizhen Dao, pays homage to his master!"

Charlie curled his lips, "I am not one of your sects!" A person, let alone a guru."

Hong Changqing was amazed, "You...you are not from the Taoist sect?! But...but the art of alchemy is the secret of the Taoist sect! You can refine the magic medicine like Huichun Pill, must have won the Taoist true biography, how could you not be a Taoist..."

Charlie snorted, "Alchemy is not a Taoist patent, who said that only Taoists can refine it? What's more, although you are a Taoist, is the alchemy you made reliable? If it is reliable, I'm afraid I won't be able to save the old man of An's family that day, right?" Hong Changqing was ashamed, bowed his head and confessed, "

Master Wade's words are very true, sit down and watch the sky , but I don't know that there is a higher and wider world outside the door, and I still look at Master Wade Haihan..." Ye

Charlie nodded, "Don't say, although you are not young, this attitude of admitting mistakes is quite good."

Hong Changqing's old face was embarrassed His body was hot and red, but he could only keep saying, "The sage said, knowing your mistakes can make a big difference.
