

Wendy's strength shocked the old lady Wilson, and at the same time, she couldn't help but feel a chill down her back.

She was startled because she did not expect that Wendy, who has always been led by her own nose, has become more and more powerful since she became the manager of the etiquette company. She has even made it clear that the family People will listen to her from now on; as for the chills on her back, it is because she just realized today that Wendy has never forgiven what she did back then, and the reason why she doesn't care about herself is that she doesn't want to think about it. Take revenge on yourself, mainly because you are old.

However, the meaning in Wendy's words was already very clear, if she relied on the old to sell the old, then she would really be old and have nothing to depend on.

Old lady Wilson is not a fool. She knows that in a family, whoever has the right to speak about money has the right to speak for the whole family.

I am old and have no assets, and even supporting myself has become a problem. In this case, it is impossible for me to continue to run the Willson family.

And if he wanted to live without worrying about food and clothing, he naturally couldn't anger Wendy, the granddaughter.

So, she could only honestly say, "Wendy... Don't worry, grandma is no longer the grandma she used to be... From now on, grandma will never do things that are good or bad again. From now on, everything in this family will be up to you." It's..."

Wendy saw that the old lady's attitude was sincere, and the anger on her face dissipated a lot. She nodded and said, "Grandma, I'm going to send my father and brother to the hospital first. The hospital asks you to take care of them. It's unrealistic, you should rest at home for the next few days, and I will ask the nurses to take care of you at the hospital, and after mom comes out, I will ask mom to go to the hospital to help." Mrs. Willson also knows that in her own situation, let alone go to the hospital After taking care of my son and grandson, even if I cook for them, I'm afraid I'm a little powerless, so as long as I don't make any trouble, I'm making a contribution to the family.

So she nodded without thinking and said, "Don't worry, Wendy, there is still a lot of firewood, rice, oil and salt at home. Your mother also bought a lot of chicken, fish, meat and eggs earlier, which is enough for my old lady's temporary living needs." What did Harold think of , quickly said, "Wendy, you have to drive away our mother's big Mercedes-Benz! That car is still parked in front of charlie and Claire's house!" Wendy said blankly, "I want to drive you!

" Drive, I won't go."

Harold was in a hurry, and hurriedly said, "You drive that car to our house first, and when I recover later, I will naturally drive that car..."

Wendy turned her head and looked contemptuously Glancing at him, he said in a cold voice, "You may not have watched the news. The short video platform where Mom live broadcasted the goods has already issued a statement, asking Mom to return all the live broadcast income, and is ready to start legal proceedings. In other words, Mom live broadcasted Every penny earned from bringing the goods must be returned. Including the Mercedes-Benz big g, that car is already second-hand, and there will definitely be a gap between the discounted amount and the purchase amount, and the mother The money she wasted on time and the money she spent on ordering Rolls-Royce Cullinan will all be big holes that she will fill in in the future, and if she can't make up for these holes, she will probably become a douchebag in the future."
