

Originally, according to the ancient Chinese system, the British Lord of the Poqing Society established five ranks of titles in the Poqing Society: Duke, Marquis, Bo, Zi, and Male.

However, since the Duke and the Marquis were both high-ranking officials and princes who dominated one side in ancient times, and the Poqing Society had never divided them into enfeoffments, so so far, in the Poqing Society, these two levels have only been established but not established.

Because of this, in addition to the British Lord, the Poqing Society now has four Earls.

However, the British Lord had also promised that if someone could help him find Lin Wan'er (Alani) and the ring, and if he got his wish, he would be made a Marquis immediately.

Once you become a marquis, you will have the opportunity to choose a place in this world as your own fiefdom, and cultivate your own power on the fief. At that time, the marquis will only need to obey the orders of the British lord when he needs it, and he can be free at other times play.

At this moment, Yun Ruge smiled self-deprecatingly, and said, "If I can really find LinWan'er, if I find Yingzhu's ring, I will never be granted the title of Marquis. "

Ou Bojun smiled and said, "Why?" Are you afraid of the master of high power? "

Yun Ruge waved his hand, "I'm just taking it lightly. No title is as important as strength. If I really win the first prize, I will be satisfied if the British Lord rewards me with a few pills. "

Ou Bojun nodded, and said with a smile, "Come on, Uncle Dingyuan, there are two directions, you should choose one first. " "

Yun Ruge thought for a while, and said, "Let me check the line of the cavalry guards, Lin Wan'er (Alani) is too cunning, I may not be as smart as her. "

Ou Bojun was a little disappointed, but still nodded and said, "Okay, then I will choose Lin Wan'er (Alani) as a route. "

Actually, Ou Bojun is more inclined to choose the line of the Xiaoqiguards (Bickford guards). After all, this line is relatively fast. If you can't find the clues of the missing Xiaoqiguards (Bickford guards) in Northern Europe, you can go to Cyprus to try your luck. But

, Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s (Alani) line, there is really nothing to rush.

Lin Wan'er (Alani) has disappeared from the world here, and she may have gone to any place in the world. It is really difficult to find this clue. And he The reason why Yun Ruge was chosen first was actually because he had always had some thoughts about Lin Ruge, and wanted to have fun with her as a partner for double cultivation. A woman as powerful as Ge is still a good deal.

Because of this, even though he didn't want to choose Lin Wan'er (Alani), seeing that Yun Ruge chose another one first, he had no other choice but to accept it

. At that time, Yun Ruge suddenly sighed, and said, "Forget it, let's leave the line of Xiao Qiwei (Bertrand) to Uncle Jiangong, and I will check Lin Wan'er (Alani).

Ou Bojun asked in surprise, "Why did Uncle Dingyuan change his mind? " Lin Wan'er (Alani)'s (Alani) line is the most difficult to check! "

Yun Ruge chuckled, and said casually, "It's not easy to check, and there are no clues to base on, but because of this, I can go to places I want to go, just take it as a chance, and try my luck , Traveling while traveling, it's very good. "

Mr. Ou Bo was overjoyed, and immediately gave a thumbs up, and praised, "You are tall! Uncle Ding Yuan, you are really tall! If that is the case, let me check the line of Xiao Qiwei (Bertrand)!"
