

Yun Ruge is very aware of Ou Bojun's ways, and talks about what seems like a gentleman's priority, such as "ladies first" in front of her every day, but in fact she doesn't want to take any losses in her heart.

And Yun Ruge didn't bother to talk to him, let alone owe him favors, since he wanted to check the line of Xiao's cavalry guards, let him do it, and he didn't bother to take any first credit, so why not take this opportunity to travel around, Learn a lot.

So, she said to Ou Bojun, "Since Uncle Russell has chosen Xiao Qiwei (Bertrand), let's stay here and wish you good luck." After finishing speaking, she was ready to push the door and get out of the car.

Ou Bojun hurriedly said, "Uncle Nakul, there is no way to go here, no way to go to the village, no shop behind, why are you getting off the car here, why don't we go to Bergen together, then I will go to the Bergen airport to look for clues, you can go to the port to look for clues, The British Lord speculates that Lin Waner (Alani) probably left by boat, and you may find something by checking along the port."

Yun Ruge ignored him, instead, she directly opened the door and walked down, then stroked her long hair that was full of flair. He casually laughed, "Going to the port to check the whereabouts of a ship is different from going to the port to find out where a fish has swum

. What good idea?"

Yun Ruge laughed and said, "I don't have any good ideas, but I just think that since Lin Wan'er (Alani) disappeared here, maybe I can find some clues nearby, so I will find a small hotel nearby to stay for a few days. Since Uncle Russell is going to Bergen, let's hurry up and leave, don't waste your time here."

Auber-jun said helplessly, "Okay, I'll go to Bergen Airport to look for clues, the plane took Xiao Qiwei (Bertrand) directly It was sent to Bergen Airport. I plan to go back to the source from Bergen Airport to see what Xiao Qiwei (Bertrand) has experienced all the way here. If Uncle Nakul doesn't leave Bergen in a short time, we can still be together for a few days. Son."

Yun Ruge said seriously, "I don't suggest that you waste too much time in Bergen, why not go to Cyprus to find the families of those Xiaoqiguards (Bickford guards) and ask about the situation." "Don't worry." Ou Bojun knew that Yun Ruge might not want to get in touch with him too much, but he wanted to take this opportunity to cling to Yun Ruge for a few more days, so he said, "I think the Xiao Qiwei (Bertrand) who came to Bergen last time, There shouldn't be any problems in itself, and there is a high probability that the enemy discovered it in advance, so the entire army was wiped out, just like in New York, so more clues should still be here, and going to Cyprus should not make much sense." Yun

Ru Ge shrugged and thought to himself, "It's hard to have such a long time of free time, what are you doing sticking to me like a dog's skin plaster? Isn't it good for everyone to say goodbye and go about their own business? I plan to part ways with you. , just go to Eastern Europe and have a look, what do you insist on doing here?"

Although Yun Ruge disliked Ou Bojun, but seeing that Ou Bojun did not plan to leave Northern Europe in the next few days, she could only stay in Northern Europe temporarily to deal with it. She knew Auber-jun's character very well, if he knew that he would leave Northern Europe directly, maybe he would go to the Lord in the future and sue him for being perfunctory, and it would not be worth the loss if he would offend the Lord for no reason.
