

Hearing charlie's voice, Hong Changqing froze nervously.

After seeing charlie stepping in, he immediately went forward, plopped his knees and knelt down at a distance of two or three meters from charlie, and then said gratefully to Dade, "Subordinate Hong Changqing, thank Master Wade for his guidance." En!"

After receiving the elixir given by charlie, Hong Changqing successfully entered the Dzogchen realm of Mingjing after a short period of retreat.

So, seeing charlie again, he was as grateful as seeing a savior.

Hong Changqing's kneeling really attracted many patients who were seeing the doctor. They didn't know why the old man knelt down to a young man, so they all looked sideways.

charlie shook his head helplessly, took a step forward, stretched out his hand to help him up, and told him in a low voice, "From now on, don't call me Master Wade in front of outsiders, let alone do this big gift to me." Hong Changqing thought charlie was following him He was polite, and quickly said, "Master Wade, you have the grace of rebuilding your subordinates. Isn't it only natural for your subordinates to worship you?"

charlie said with a straight face, "Then you can wait until there are no outsiders. At that time, you can worship as much as you want, and I will never stop you!"

Hong Changqing had no choice but to nod and said, "Okay, Master Wade, my subordinates obey..."

charlie hummed with displeasure, and then said, " Alright, I don't think you will get in the way here anymore, go somewhere with me now, I have something to communicate with you."

Hong Changqing nodded quickly and said, "No problem, Master Wade, everything under your command!"

charlie hummed, Then he said to Dr. Simmons and Xyla, " Miracle Doctor, Xyla, I have something to do with Tianshi Hong, I will visit another day." Xyla didn't expect charlie to leave just after he arrived, so he subconsciously stood up and said with a face full of reluctance: Master Wade, you just came and are leaving?"

charlie nodded and said, "I'll take Hong Tianshi out for a while, and I'll come to see you and Miracle Doctor Shi some other day."

Xyla was helpless, and said with a disappointed expression, "Okay, then I'll take you out!"

After

charlie and Hong Tianshi bid farewell to Xyla at the gate of Jishi Hall, charlie drove him all the way out of the city, toward Xiangxiang Xieli Hot Spring Hotel drove to.

Hong Changqing sat in the co-pilot with an excited expression on his face. Although he still didn't know where charlie was going to take him or what to do with him, he couldn't help but feel happy and at ease in his heart.

After all, he is now a master of Dzogchen Dzogchen, and this kind of excitement is like a motor that is always powered on, and naturally it keeps spinning.

From charlie's point of view, Hong Changqing looks like a fairy, with long beard and long hair, tied in a Taoist bun, and wearing a Taoist gown. When he is serious, he really looks like a celestial master, but As he is now, he keeps grinning and laughing non-stop, the temperament of that teacher suddenly disappeared, leaving only wretchedness.
