

The taxi driver's concerns and questions made Hong Changqing even more aggrieved.

In the Chinese circle in North America, he is really a famous number one person. I don't know how many people will pay homage to him when they see him, and there are many high-ranking officials and nobles among them.

But he never dreamed that after coming to Aurous Hill, he would be bullied by charlie to the point of crying. This kind of gap made him feel even more sad.

And what made him suffer the most was not the grievances he suffered just now, but even after he had suffered so many grievances, he had to bite the bullet and take a taxi to find charlie to atone for his sins with tears in his eyes.

This is the consequence and end that one must bear after offending someone who should not be offended.

Hong Changqing also understood in his heart that the reason why charlie wanted to punish him like this was mainly because his little thoughts made him angry.

Now think about it carefully, the elixir that charlie gave him was priceless, it could even be said to be a priceless treasure, and the reason why he wanted to give himself this elixir was also very obvious, that is to make himself serve him wholeheartedly .

But on the surface, he agreed very well, but he still had a lot of small things in his heart, and even wished to say goodbye to charlie, and returned to the United States to continue to be his Hong Tianshi.

Thinking of this, Hong Changqing couldn't help but scolded himself in his heart, "Hong Changqing, Hong Changqing, you are really unsatisfactory, and charlie is so strong, how could it be possible to suffer from your dumbness? You flatter him superficially and have three hearts Two meanings, it's really strange that he can let you go back to the United States! In the whole world, how can there be such a good thing?" After realizing how shameless and stupid he was just now, Hong Changqing regretted it in his heart.

He thought that anyway, he had already eaten the pill given by charlie, and it was impossible for him to spit it out and return it to him. In addition, he was an old friend of his grandmother. Imprisoned in Aurous Hill, right?

But who would have thought that there is a waterfall under the boat when you push the boat along the water, and a cliff under the donkey on the slope?

So, he silently made up his mind in his heart that when he arrives at the Champs Elysees Hot Spring Hotel, no matter what charlie's attitude towards him is, he must be firm, and from now on he will be loyal to him, let himself understand himself, Never go west, let yourself face south, and never go north yourself! Only in this way is it possible for charlie to forgive himself and restore his cultivation base.

This moment.
