

Hong Changqing became excited when he heard this.

He thought to himself, "I was bullied like this by Charlie, and I was worried that no one would make the decision. If Mrs. An came, she might be able to help me uphold justice. Even though Charlie didn't approve, I didn't dare to leak Charlie's identity, but I can take advantage of her coming to Aurous Hill to walk around more with An's family, right? Charlie won't look at the monk's face and the Buddha's face at that time, so he can't treat me too much!" Thinking of this, he quickly asked, "Madam, when do you plan to leave?"

Mrs. An said, "An's family has a lot of things to do, and many things need to be arranged in advance, but it will definitely be as soon as possible. When do you plan to return to the United States?"

Hong Changqing hurriedly said, "Go back to the old lady, Hong will not leave Aurous Hill for the time being, so when you come to Aurous Hill, Hong will definitely be there." "

That's great!" Old lady An said with a smile, "Then I also want to ask Hong Tianshi to come and make a fortune for us, to see if we are in Aurous Hill, whether it is a blessing or a curse, and whether we can get what we want."

Hong Changqing said without hesitation, "Don't worry, old lady, Hong will definitely come to the door and do the math for you at that time. Let's do the math!"

"Okay!" Old Madam An said happily, "Then I will thank Tianshi Hong first!" "

Where is it." Hong Changqing said with trepidation, "Hong Mou has always respected you, old lady, and can serve you like a dog. It is Hong's blessing!"

Mrs. An hurriedly said, "Master Hong is serious! You are a master of Taoism, and it is a blessing for the An family to have your help!"

The two exchanged a few words, hung up the phone, Hong Changqing put away the phone, and sighed in his heart, "Old lady...you say that now because you don't know your grandson's ability, if you know that I was pushed to the ground by your grandson like a dog. If you rub against each other, you will know what kind of master I am... You are waiting for me to give you advice, and I am waiting for you to bring justice for me..." On the other side at this time, Champs Elysees Hot Spring Hotel .

Don Albert took Charlie to walk around the hotel, and also shared his ideas with Charlie about how to transform the hotel in the future.

Don Albert's idea was to be as low-key as possible, so he put all the venues indoors in the hotel. Although the hotel also has a large square and green space, it is very easy to transform it into a standard sports venue, but Charlie is here after all. For secret training, if some people find out that there are a group of people practicing on the internal playground every day, they will definitely have doubts.

Therefore, at that time, the life and training of all personnel will be kept indoors, which will be relatively hidden.

And Don Albert also has a very practical suggestion. He thinks the hotel has a lot of rooms. If there will not be too many people staying at a time, he should give priority to living on the first floor. In the state of being closed for renovation, if the building of the guest room department is brightly lit at night, it may give people a very strange feeling. If only the first floor has lights, and all the above floors are dark, it is relatively more reasonable.

charlie found that although Don Albert looked like an old man with little education, he considered the issues relatively comprehensively, and his execution ability was also in place, so he said to him, "Don Albert, I think you are very thoughtful. I will leave it to you to be fully responsible for the renovation work here, I only have one request, and that is as soon as possible."

Don Albert immediately said, "Don't worry, Master Wade, I will definitely go all out and work overtime!"

"Okay." charlie Nodding in satisfaction, he smiled and said, "It's getting late, I'll go back to the city first, let's call if we need anything."
