

But the ruin lies in the fact that what he got was only the first chapter of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao".

charlie couldn't help thinking to himself, "If I hand over the second chapter of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" to Hong Changqing, his cultivation base will definitely improve by leaps and bounds, and he can enter the dark realm with his own strength. It's a pity that this Hong Changqing has too many thoughts. Otherwise, he might have started to practice the second chapter of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" in the Champs-Elysees Hot Spring."

However, this also strengthened charlie's determination to take Hong Changqing under his command.

This is because Hong Changqing has practiced the first chapter of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" for so many years, and he is already familiar with this mental method. If he is to pass this mental method to others, he will definitely be able to pass his own experience for so many years. , summed up the fastest way for people to master "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao".

If there is no him, and I just hand over the mentality of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" to the Elms family and the warriors of the Wanlong Palace, then they may at least need it. It takes a few years to get familiar with this mentality little by little, and then you can make some achievements.

In comparison, with Hong Changqing connecting the past and the future, it will save a lot of time.

And as long as Hong Changqing can work for him in a down-to-earth manner, charlie will not treat him badly. At that time, he will not only be able to get the follow-up "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao", but also cultivate a large number of masters in "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao". "The martial arts master.

However, charlie didn't tell Hong Changqing these words, he just threw back the few pieces of paper written by Hong Changqing, and asked him casually, "It's in the wilderness, where did you get the paper and pen?" Hong Changqing quickly said, "

Return Master Wade, the little brother on the side of the road helped me run errands from the Internet..."

charlie snorted, his expression gradually became serious, and he said, "Your "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" is not complete at all, but it is It's just the beginning."

"How come..." Hong Changqing subconsciously said, "In Taizhen Dao, there are also some collected martial arts methods, but they are all fragments without exception. Only this "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" has a beginning and an end. The complete mentality!"

charlie smiled contemptuously, and asked him, "What is the essence of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao"?"

Hong Changqing blurted out, "Of course it is the martial arts mentality!"

charlie curled his lips in disdain Said, "Let me tell you, the essence of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" is Hunyuan, do you know what Hunyuan is?"

Hong Changqing frowned, and after thinking for a long time, he said, "It seems to be a relatively general saying in Taoism. There is no particularly clear meaning..."

charlie shook his head, and said lightly, "Hunyuan is the chaotic qi when the world is not divided, and this is the beginning of vitality! Its ultimate goal is to make people enter the Tao with martial arts. Finally master the power of Hunyuan."

After that, he pointed to the paper in Hong Changqing's hand, and jokingly said, "You have written all about how to breathe and how to break through meridians, and not a single word has anything to do with Hunyuan. It's as if you have a book in your hand, the title of which is "The Principles of Power Generation in Thermal Power Plants", but you only have the content that teaches you how to dig coal, do you think this thing, can it be the whole article?"
