

charlie's words made Hong Changqing, who was still a bit condescending, immediately dumbfounded!

Originally, charlie said that the "Taizhen Hunyuandao" of Taizhen Tao was not the complete version, and he was still very upset. After all, for thousands of years, the successive heads of Taizhen Tao all thought that this sect could have a complete set of martial arts heart. It is not appropriate to be proud of the law, or even think highly of yourself because of it.

However, after listening to charlie's analogy, he suddenly realized that charlie probably wasn't talking nonsense! Taizhen Dao's "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" is likely to be just a small part of the real "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" as charlie said.

Thinking of this, he asked in surprise, "Master Wade, the reason why you say that must be because you have a more complete mental method of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao", right?

" "Why are you so sure that I have a more complete version?"

Hong Changqing blurted out subconsciously, "Master Wade, you just said that the real "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" is like "The Principle of Power Generation in a Thermal Power Plant". And what Taizhendao holds is just to teach people how to dig coal, so it proves that you have at least read this "Principles of Power Generation in Thermal Power Plants"..." charlie didn't hide it, nodded and smiled, "

Guess That's right, I have indeed read the original version of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao", and I can tell you clearly that the whole "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" has three volumes and 27 chapters. The copy Master got was just the first chapter."

"What?!" Hong Changqing's eyeballs almost fell out of the sunken eye sockets, he stammered and asked, "... Master Wade...you...are you serious?!"

charlie asked back, "I have teased you before, what do you think I am lying to you now?"

Hong Changqing swallowed, and blurted out, "We ...Our Taizhen Dao... For thousands of years and dozens of generations, have we been practicing the first chapter of "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao"?!"

charlie nodded very firmly and said, "Yes! That's right! That's right! That's what happened!"

Hong Changqing sat on the spot as if he was mourning his concubine, and his expression became extremely lonely and melancholy. His eyes were out of focus and he said blankly, "A person who started studying in kindergarten and went all the way to graduate with a Ph. D. is only a mere twenty years. You said that "Taizhen Hunyuan Dao" has three volumes and twenty-seven chapters, so we, Taizhen Dao, are equivalent to studying in K1 class of kindergarten for so many years..."

Kindergarten K1 in the United States is basically equal to the small class in domestic kindergartens.

charlie was amused by Hong Changqing's analogy, but he also felt that his analogy was very reasonable, so he praised, "Your conversion method is indeed very reasonable. Strictly speaking, you are too truthful. I have been studying kindergarten K1 textbooks repeatedly, which is basically equivalent to the stage of learning 26 English letters."

Hong Changqing said with a sad face, "Master Wade...the subordinates are not questioning you...but if it is true as you said, we have learned 27 chapters In the first chapter of the book, there are already masters who can enter the dark realm. The dark realm is the second most important realm for a warrior, but there are only four realms for a warrior. Could it be that the remaining three realms require the remaining two realms? Can all the contents of the sixteenth chapters be broken through?!"
