

At this time, charlie touched his trouser pocket subconsciously.

The ring that Lin Wan'er (Alani) gave him, he still hasn't figured out what is the use of it, but he always wears this ring close to his body, for fear that it will be lost in any accident or lost by himself. The reason why charlie values this thing so much is not how precious it is, but because he has invested too much spiritual energy in it. If the spiritual energy is converted into labor force, it is almost equivalent to three years of hard work for this thing, and then it is still used by it. I didn't pay a cent in arrears of wages.

Therefore, he naturally couldn't let this thing get out of his control.

charlie breathed a sigh of relief after confirming that the ring was still there through his trouser pocket, but he couldn't help thinking of the girl named Lin Wan'er (Alani) in his heart.

He couldn't figure out what was so special about this ring and that girl that the Lord of the Qing Dynasty could pay so much attention to it.

charlie couldn't help regretting that he didn't ask Lin Wan'er (Alani) carefully in Northern Europe. At that time, he had already given her a psychological hint with spiritual energy, and he should take her to a safe place first, and then give her a thorough questioning.

Now, Lin Wan'er (Alani) did not know where she had gone, and trying to solve this question right now would be as difficult as climbing the sky.

Feng Zidong (Dax) didn't know that the ring that Po Qinghui (Benn) had racked his brains up and down to get was now in charlie's jeans pocket.

In his eyes, charlie is the son of an old friend, and both parents died, so naturally he has a more caring attitude, so he said to charlie, "charlie, I have received news that there will be a big crisis in breaking the Qing recently." Action, you have had friction with Poqing, and Poqing will definitely try its best to find you out, so you must keep a low profile and keep a low profile." charlie asked curiously, "Uncle Feng, what big moves will Poqing have in the near future? "

Feng Zidong (Dax) said, "I don't know the details, but my father told me that the four Earls of the Qing Dynasty have come out one after another. This is unprecedented in the history of the Qing Dynasty. And the strength has already far surpassed that of warriors, who can take the head of an enemy general among thousands of armies, if anyone is targeted by them, I am afraid it will be more or less unfortunate!"

"Taking the head of the enemy general among the ten thousand armies?" charlie frowned and repeated in a low voice, thinking to himself, "These four earls must be as proficient in aura as I am. If they only focus on me, I still have the confidence and confidence." But if I focus on the people around me, I'm afraid I won't be able to separate myself..."

So, charlie asked him, "Uncle Feng, did the four earls come out from the Qing Dynasty to find that girl and that ring?" Is it?"

Feng Zidong (Dax) said, "It should be, my father doesn't know much, and his level is too far behind these people."
