

A vintage Porsche 911 with the top of the roof whizzed down the country road and pulled to the side of the road where the farm ruins were.

The driver was a middle-aged Asian man who looked to be in his thirties, and the passenger sitting in the co-pilot was a charming Asian beauty who looked to be in his thirties.

After the car stopped, the man who drove the car looked at the burnt wreckage, sighed, and said helplessly, "The British Lord is too hot-tempered. If it wasn't for the old man who insisted on blowing up the scout who came to the scene to investigate, this place would have been destroyed." It won't be burned like this, it's almost burnt to ashes, what other clues can we find..."

The beauty on the co-pilot curled her lips, "You've been serving the Lord of England for so many years, and you still don't know about his old man's identity. Temper? Lin Wan'er (Alani) left those eight words, not only to mock his old man, but also to tell him that the ring is no longer on her body. This is what the lord is most angry with! What the lord wants most is the ring, Lin Wan'er (Alani) Losing it means that even if you find Lin Wan'er (Alani), you may not be able to find that ring!" "

Hey..." The man looked depressed, "There are no clues at the scene, and the whereabouts of the ring are gone. I really don't want to come out here." Wading in the muddy water, can't I practice in seclusion with this time? I think Willie's mastery of spiritual energy has improved to a higher level. If you don't work hard, you will be thrown farther and farther away by him!" The beauty said lightly, "I also If you don't want to come, why don't you let Uncle Willie look it up yourself, I'm too lazy to claim the first credit..."

After finishing speaking, she said helplessly, "But who told Willie to go to China... The British Lord recently felt that Lin Wan'er (Alani) might not really be in China, maybe she was in the Far East of Russia, or near the Arctic Circle in North America, so she let her go to China." The two of you and I came to Northern Europe to trace the origin, so we can check and make up for Willie."

The man stretched his waist and sighed, "You are still a smart Zhongyongbo. People say that he went to New York to investigate the failure of the last attack on Anjia. In fact, it must be to go to New York's Huahua World to relax, and the two of us are going to do some investigation."

Then, he pointed to the burnt ruins, and said dissatisfiedly, "Check it out, check it out. Ah check, it's all like this, what else is there to check."

The woman hugged her shoulders and said, "Since the Lord has spoken, you and I must pay attention."

She sighed and said, " How about this, Uncle Jiangong, there are two ways now, either, find out how Lin Wan'er (Alani) left Northern Europe, or find out how the Xiao Qiwei ( Bertrand ) we sent disappeared in Northern Europe. These two directions, the two of us One for each person, I'll be more generous and let you pick first."

The man in the driver's seat is Jiangong Bo, one of the four Earls of the Qing Dynasty, whose real name is Ou Bojun.

Ou Bojun touched the steering wheel, smacked his lips and said, "Women are first, let's choose Uncle Dingyuan first!"

As he spoke, he couldn't help teasing, "By the way, if Uncle Dingyuan can become Marquis Dingyuan or Duke Dingyuan in the future, don't Forget about Oumou!"

The woman on the co-pilot is Uncle Dingyuan among the four Earls, Yun Ruge.

Although Yun Ruge is a girl, her strength is very strong, and in the early years she fought for the British lord, so she was named Uncle Dingyuan by the British lord, and she is the only woman among the four counts.
