

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2908

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2908 -Juliette's words shook Joanna's heart.

Hayden was so exceptional that he had no idea what his child would be like.

It's just that without a good living environment, it was also a painful torture for children!

If the child could choose, he or she would not want to be born and live a difficult life with Joanna.

If Joanna gave birth to the child, the child would be Hayden's illegitimate child.

"Look, you're confused." Juliette stared at Joanna's face and said, "Joanna, think about it again!"

"I've been thinking about it for days. I really can't raise a baby. I don't have the money, I don't have the time. There's no way I'm going to work and have a baby at the same time...Even My mother is not in good health and cannot be affected, and my younger brother is only in college..." Joanna was a little emotional when she said this, "I really can't raise a new life in this situation."

"Joanna, your psychological burden is too heavy. Isn't your mother already recovering? Isn't your father going to work soon? As long as your father is at work, your family doesn't need your money." Juliette knew that Joanna was under a lot of pressure, and seeing her under such pressure made Juliette a little stressed.

"I have already told my parents that I want to start a business. Maybe they can give me a sum of money and let me try. When I get the money, we will open a store together. Then, your child can be placed in the store, where everyone will assist with his or her care!" Juliette put forward her own thoughts, "Joanna, don't be too pessimistic! My parents started from scratch, and when my mother was pregnant with me, she ran outside with my dad every day. It's not as difficult as we thought."

Joanna: "If I want to give birth to this child, I have to tell my parents. My parents will definitely not agree to let me have a child."

Juliette: "You didn't tell your parents, did you? Why don't you tell them now and see how they react."

Joanna was so frightened that sweat broke out in her palms, "I dare not say. I cannot possibly imagine how disappointed my parents are, Juliette... Since I was a child, I have never done such a deviant act; I'm afraid they can't tolerate..."

"But life doesn't go according to people's imagination! Then if you resign and start a business with me, won't your parents be able to bear it?" Juliette picked up the chopsticks on the table and picked up some vegetables into her mouth, "Maybe your parents are not as fragile as you think!"

"I don't know...I'm not sure. I started boarding in junior high school, and I didn't spend much time with them when I grew up." Joanna rubbed her hot face, "I don't want to make them sad."

"Did your parents always praise you for being good, so you have never done anything to disappoint your parents, right?" Juliette analyzed, "It's easy for you to suffer like this. Joanna, you are not a child anymore, be good. What can you get if you are not good? Now TV dramas don't need to be bullied by female leads, so don't always be so scruples."

No one had ever said such things to Joanna.

Joanna felt that her thoughts had been subverted.

In fact, she understood many truths, but her life had been very peaceful all this time.

Meeting Hayden was like a thunderclap on the ground, turning her life upside down.

"Juliette, in fact, apart from worrying about my parents, I'm also afraid that if I go my own way and give birth to a child, the child will blame me in the future. After all, I can't give him or her a good life."

"How do you know that you won't be able to give him or her a good life in the future?" Juliette asked back, "What if we can make money as a partner? Besides, if you educate your child well, how can they dislike you? Do you dislike your parents? Are you poor? I didn't see it! I think you are very filial."

Joanna: "Of course I don't dislike my parents."

"That's right. Your child won't dislike you either!"

Joanna: "..."

10 months later.

Foster family.

Today was the coldest day since winter.

After the bodyguards cleared the snow from the yard in the morning, within an hour, there was another thick layer of snow in the yard.

“Let’s clean it up at noon! The snow will fall less at noon.” A maid came out and said to the bodyguard.

“If there are children at home, it will definitely be much more lively. This kind of heavy snow is the most suitable for making snowmen.” The bodyguard chatted with the maid, “It is also suitable for snowball fights.”

“Robert still liked to make snowmen a few years ago! Once he turned eighteen, he became more mature.” The maid sighed, “Hazel went to University again. If Hazel was at home, it would be lively Quite a few!”

After the two chatted for a while, the maid saw a car stop at the gate of the courtyard.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2909

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2909 –

The weather was bad today, and there were no people outside at all.

So after a car stopped at the door, the maid immediately walked towards the courtyard door.

“I never heard that there will be guests coming today!” The bodyguard also followed to the gate of the courtyard.

It’s a taxi.

After the car door was opened, the bodyguard and maid were stunned by the sound of a baby crying.

The Foster family hadn’t heard a baby cry for many years.

The bodyguard immediately pushed open the courtyard door and went out to check the situation.

The maid followed closely.

A middle-aged woman with a baby got out of a taxi.

Because it was snowing outside, after getting out of the car, the middle-aged woman first wrapped the baby in a quilt.

“Who are you?” The maid was too curious, so she asked, “Do you know our master?”

The middle-aged woman holding the baby shook her head, and then asked, "Is this Elliot Foster's home? I'm here to drop off the child. This is the child of Elliot's family."

bodyguard and maid: "....."

This baby was a child of Elliot's family?!

At such an age, Elliot actually gave birth to another child outside.

It's over!

Avery would definitely divorce him!

The maid was so frightened that she lost her mind, turned around and ran towards the villa.

Both Elliot and Avery were at home today... The maid could already predict that a storm would happen next!

The maid opened the door, entered the villa, and staggered to Avery.

Avery put down the book in her hand and asked, "What's wrong? What happened?"

"Ma'am, a woman came outside with a baby in her arms. She said it was Mr.'s child." After the maid finished speaking, Avery made a 'swish' and strode outside.

"Ma'am, put on a coat! It's cold outside!" The maid took Avery's coat and immediately chased her out.

Upstairs, Elliot heard the movement and immediately went downstairs. When he got to the first floor, there was no one in the living room.

The gate of the courtyard.

The woman holding the baby kept clamoring to see Elliot, but the bodyguards stopped the woman and wouldn't let her in.

The baby in the woman's arms seemed to have heard their argument, so it kept crying.

After Avery came over, she immediately lifted the quilt from the woman's arms a little, trying to see the baby's face clearly.

The child's facial features had not yet developed, indicating that the child was recently born.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

