

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2928

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2928 -“This... the employees in our guest room department are actually quite ordinary in appearance. There is no particularly ugly one, nor is there any particularly beautiful one.” The manager was a little worried, “Mr. Tate, the details of the employees who left the company before Deleted. Because our staff turnover is relatively frequent...how about I ask in the group to see if anyone remembers who entered your room that night!”

“Ask now.” Hayden’s tone was calm and firm.

This made the manager more certain that something big happened.

Hayden’s company was headquartered in Bridgedale, but now he came here specifically to ask about what happened ten months ago.

It must have been ten months ago that the employee provoked Hayden.

After the manager posted the question in the small group of the room department, he mobilized all the members.

“Mr. Tate, I’ve already asked in the group.” The manager showed Hayden on the phone screen.

After a glance, Hayden asked, “Is it possible that we can’t check the surveillance records from ten months ago?”

“I can’t check it. Our monitoring can only be kept for fifteen days at most.” The manager replied, “Even the bank can only keep it for three months at most. I haven’t heard of it being able to keep it for as long as ten months.”

Hayden: “Just because you haven’t heard of it doesn’t mean you haven’t.”

“Okay! Our hotel really can’t be kept for that long. Mr. Tate, why did you find an ordinary employee who doesn’t know his name and looks? Did she offend you at the beginning?”

Hayden: “Not sure.”

It would be best if the child in the family wasn’t his, and if the child was his, then the mother would be the waitress!

When he thought of his child’s mother as a waitress, his mind burst into pain.

This was just ridiculous!

He wasn’t sure how the family would respond if he told them.

in the evening.

Hayden hadn't found the whereabouts of the waitress back then.

The woman seemed to disappear out of thin air.

He had seen the pictures of all the night shift workers on the night of Layla's wedding.

He was sure that the woman he was looking for was not there.

So the manager found all the photos of the employees who worked the day shift that day and showed them to Hayden.

Strangely, Hayden was also dissatisfied when he saw the photos of the day shift employees.

The woman he was looking for did not know who it was.

The cell phone rang suddenly.

Hayden took out his mobile phone, saw his mother's call, and immediately answered it.

"Hayden, where are you now?" Avery asked, "Come back as soon as possible! The paternity test results of your father and that child are out."

Hayden raised his throat: "What is the result?"

Avery: "The results show that your father and that child are intergenerational relatives. That is to say, your father is the grandfather of that child."

Avery was shocked when she got the result. She never expected that she would become a grandma in a daze.

After all, Robert was still young and hadn't found a girlfriend yet. Although Hayden was not young, Hayden had always shown an attitude of not being interested in the opposite s-e-x, so she suspected that Elliot had never doubted his two sons.

"Hayden, why don't you talk? Your father has called the staff of the paternity testing agency to come to the door. He wants you and Robert to have a test with that child to see which of you is the child's biological father." Taking a breath, Avery continued, "That child may not belong to your brother. Your brother said that he has never had an intimate relationship with a woman. Hayden, can you tell your mother what's going on?"

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2929

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2929 -Hayden felt as if he was being roasted on the fire.

This taste was really uncomfortable.

“Mom, let’s do a paternity test when I go back!” Hayden wanted to see a definite result before accepting this situation.

“Alright.”

After Avery hung up the phone, she looked at Elliot, Layla and Robert.

“Mom, what does brother say?” Layla asked.

“Your brother said to do a paternity test first. He doesn’t want to say more now.” Avery expressed her inner feelings, “I feel that your brother must have had a woman outside.”

“Oh... isn’t that good? That way you don’t have to suspect that there is something wrong with him.” Layla couldn’t help laughing, “Ah! I’m an aunt! I’m so happy!”

“Mom, will you take this child with you in the future?” Robert asked, “Should this child be sent by the child’s mother? It means that the child’s mother is unwilling to raise the child.”

Avery glanced at Elliot.

Elliot was holding the child at the moment.

After the identification results showed that he was the child’s grandfather, he held the child in his arms.

“I think your father is quite willing to take care of children.” Avery teased, “Whether it’s your brother’s or yours, can’t both of you take care of children?”

“Hmm. It was a false alarm.” Robert sighed, “It doesn’t matter if it’s mine or elder brother’s, as long as it’s not Dad’s.”

“Should you give me an explanation?” Although Elliot was very happy to be a grandfather, he did not forget the grievances he suffered yesterday.

“Dad, I’m sorry!” Layla admitted her mistake very quickly, “Dad, I wronged you. I made you wronged. Tell me how to comfort your hurt heart, and I will do it right away.”

Elliot didn’t expect his daughter to admit her mistake so quickly and kindly, which made him a little overwhelmed. Of course he would not remember his daughter’s revenge.

"I'm mainly angry with your mother." Elliot looked at Avery.

"We'll talk about the two of us when we go back to the house." Avery said in a low voice, "Aren't you embarrassed to say this in front of the children?"

"I'm not embarrassed. When you taught me yesterday, it didn't matter the occasion!" Elliot was confident.

"Okay, I blamed you wrongly. You can make a request, as long as it's not too unreasonable, I promise you, okay?" Avery compromised.

"Then I have to think about it." Elliot sat down on the sofa with the child in his arms, "It's like a dream. In the blink of an eye, we both became grandparents. This little guy doesn't have a name yet! We need to get him a name first."

Avery: "Let's talk about it after the paternity test is confirmed and who is the father of the child!"

Elliot: "I'm the child's grandfather, no matter whether the child belongs to Robert or Hayden, I can name the child, right?"

Avery: "If it's Hayden's child, don't you ask Hayden's opinion?"

Elliot was defeated: "I don't know if Hayden will like this child. What if Hayden doesn't want this child? We must have our grandson, right? It's not like our family can't afford children."

Avery: "Hayden is not so cold and heartless. But it's hard to say... This child should be born in Aryadelle, and the child's mother should also be from Aryadelle. Hayden has been in Bridgedale all year round. How can he have s-e-x with women in Aryadelle? Having a child is really puzzling."

Elliot: "I should say this. I didn't do anything back then, didn't you also get pregnant with my child? One child with two, and you kept it from me..."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2930

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2930 -"I'm also a victim, okay?" Avery sat down beside him, touched her little grandson's little hand, "It was your family who forced me to do the test tube."

Elliot: "Okay! It's not easy for you, my wife."

“Let’s not talk about this. It’s all over.” Avery changed the subject, “I have to hire a nanny to take care of the children.”

“Can’t we take it ourselves?” Elliot felt that there were maids at home, and the maids were good at taking care of them, and the two of them could help out at ordinary times, so it shouldn’t be a big problem.

“It’s very tiring to take care of the baby at night. We are not young anymore. If we stay up late to take care of the baby, we will definitely not be energetic during the day.” Avery knew that Elliot was now passionate, so he didn’t know how tiring it was to take care of the baby at night, “Find a nanny who is a little younger.”

Elliot nodded: “Listen to you. You can try to sleep with your grandson tonight.”

Avery: “Okay! If you want to try, then try.”

About an hour later, Hayden returned home.

The whole family was in the living room and every one of them looked happy.

That child became the absolute protagonist, and everyone surrounded the child.

Hayden entered the living room and changed his shoes.

“Brother, you’re back!” Layla saw her brother, and immediately trotted up to him, “Brother, where have you been? You lied to me that you’d be back soon, it’s getting dark now.”

Hayden: “Aren’t you going home?”

Layla: “This is my home! I’ll be staying here for a few days. After the paternity test results come out, I’ll go back to Eric’s place.”

Hayden: “You want to watch the excitement!”

Layla was exposed to her small thoughts, so she didn’t pretend at all.

“Brother, is that child yours? When did it happen? If the child was just born, then sister-in-law was conceived ten months ago...Ten months ago, just after the New Year...”

“Don’t call sister-in-law.” Hayden knew that he couldn’t hide the matter, so he decided to face it bravely.

“Oh, you broke up with that woman? Brother, what’s the matter? Who is that woman? Why did she give birth to a child and send it to our house? She doesn’t want a child, so does she want money? Why did she send the child here, you don't seem to know? She didn't ask you for money?" Layla kept asking like a small trumpet.

Hayden's temples suddenly ached from his sister's series of questions.

He walked up to Robert, looked at his face, and asked, "Robert, have you never touched a woman?"

Robert's cheeks flushed: "No, brother! I go home to sleep every night. I didn't spend the night outside."

Hayden: "When your sister got married, didn't we spend the night in a hotel outside?"

Robert: "Ah... But that was spending the night outside with everyone!"

Layla caught the clue: "Brother! Did you sleep with another woman when I got married?! That's when we all spent the night outside."

Hayden: "..."

Avery saw that his son acquiesced, so she asked: "Who is the other party? Is it a relative of our family or a relative of Eric's family?"

Hayden: "Mom, they are not relatives."

Avery: "Oh...not a relative, who is that? Why don't you tell us! Have you not contacted that woman? Otherwise, they sent their child to our house without advance. Let me tell you.. .ah, you don't know that woman is pregnant, do you?"

"I don't know." Hayden replied truthfully, "I went to look for that woman this afternoon, but I couldn't find her."

"Why can't I find her? Tell me about that woman, and I'll find her for you." Elliot wanted to help his son.

"I don't know that woman's information. If I knew, I wouldn't be able to find it." Hayden replied, "She didn't ask me for money. She never contacted me."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2931

Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2931 -"How is it possible that you don't know any information? Then how did you get on with her?" Elliot asked.

Hayden took a deep breath: "She was a hotel waiter."

Elliot, Avery, Layla, Robert, Hazel: "..."

Seeing that his family members were all speechless, Hayden walked towards the dining room on his own.

He was now physically and mentally exhausted and very hungry.

Layla came to her senses first, and followed Hayden to the dining room.

Soon, Elliot and Avery also came to their senses.

The two looked at each other.

"What do you think?" Elliot asked.

Avery: "I don't know. This is a bit ridiculous."

Elliot: "It's ridiculous too! I thought I was the only one who thought it was ridiculous! Why did our son, such an excellent son, find a waitress?"

Avery: "Aren't they together? Aren't they not in touch?"

Elliot: "Even if it's a romantic relationship, it's not enough to find a waiter, right?"

Avery: "It's all about love, and you have to emphasize that you are right? Forget it, it happened, just accept it!"

"He went to find the child's mother in the afternoon. What is he going to do? Compensate that woman? Or give her a title?" Elliot could accept a grandson, but he couldn't accept a waitress as his daughter-in-law.

He was actually a very open-minded person, and he was not so particular about being well-matched.

But it's ridiculous for Hayden to find a waitress.

"As long as the son likes her, as long as the son is willing, we don't care." Avery whispered, "She can let Hayden choose her, which shows that she has her uniqueness."

"Our son has no experience in this area, what if he is cheated?" Elliot was a little stressed, "We can't ignore it completely!"

Avery: "Don't worry. Hasn't he contacted that woman yet? I don't think that woman is what you think. She didn't ask Hayden for money. The child was sent to our house for free..."

Elliot: "Play hard to get."

Avery: "Okay, let's not worry so much for now. A waitress can fool Hayden, but it is impossible to fool so many people in our family. Let's take one step at a time!"

Elliot: "Yes."

A little later, people from the paternity testing agency came to take samples from Robert, Hayden and the child respectively.

After sampling, Elliot and Avery took their children back to their room to rest.

The two of them decided to take the child to bed tonight.

Hayden saw his parents carrying the child upstairs, with mixed emotions in his heart.

Now the whole family had acquired that the child was his.

"Brother, please plan carefully! You can't completely ignore your child. Although parents can help you, children also need father's love. Have you forgotten when we were young?" Layla said solemnly to Hayden, "Can't you move your company to Aryadelle? Or you set up a branch in Aryadelle, and you go to work in the branch."

"I don't want to be responsible for my children." Hayden did not forget his childhood experience.

If that child was really his, he might think about his work on Aryadelle in the future.

"That's good. The mother of the child... what do you think?" Layla continued. "Honestly, I don't want you to marry a waiter."

Hayden: "That woman is not the kind of person you think."

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-