

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2976

Novel Chapter 2976 -Joanna took the gift: "Hazel, why are you being so polite. I like whatever you give me. You don't need to buy me a special gift next time you come over."

"Sister Joanna, it's just a small gift, not very valuable." Hazel smiled, "I have no classes this afternoon, so I've come to take a look. I won't disturb your work, will I?"

"Of course not, I have hired a few more employees in my store now, and I'm not as busy as before." Joanna said, "Your brother's company is near our dessert shop, do you want to go and see your brother later?"

"I can see him every night, so I won't make a special trip to see him." Hazel didn't dare to disturb his elder brother's work, "Sister Joanna, you met my brother last Saturday, how did you feel about him?"

Hazel came to chat with Joanna today with the hope of the whole family.

They need to confirm Joanna's attitude towards Hayden.

"He's good!" Joanna said without hesitation, "Your whole family is good. I'm really relieved that Dorian is taken care of by you."

Hazel nodded: "It's our responsibility to take care of Dorian. Sister Joanna, you shouldn't be in a relationship now, right?"

"No!" Joanna felt that Hazel's question made her more and more flustered, "Hazel, what exactly do you want to say?"

"Sister Joanna, don't be afraid. We want to know if you like my brother or not. Because we really want you to be with my brother, but we are afraid that you don't like my brother. If we match you up, it will affect you."

Joanna's face suddenly turned red.

Joanna: "Hazel, do you really think your brother would like an ordinary woman like me?"

This question, if it was Layla or Avery on the opposite side, she would be too embarrassed to ask.

Knowing that Hazel lived a hard life since she was a child, she may understand her feelings better.

"Of course it's possible. You are fine, except that your family is not that rich, everything else is fine. Whether or not your family has money is beyond our control. My parents don't value this, and my brother probably doesn't care either." Hazel said with a smile, "Sister Joanna, you probably like my brother a little bit, right? Don't worry, I won't tell my brother."

Joanna was a little embarrassed, but also sober.

Although Hayden's family members liked her very much, the most important thing was Hayden's attitude.

"Hazel, for a man as brilliant as your brother, there shouldn't be any woman who can't be tempted, right? I think he should find a better one. And I don't plan to fall in love for the time being. The business of the dessert shop has just started on the right track, so I can't take it lightly." Joanna told Hazel her thoughts truthfully.

Hazel nodded: "Sister Joanna, I understand what you mean. Don't worry, my family and I will still treat you as a member of our family in the future. The matter between you and my brother depends on the fate of the two of you."

"Hazel, thank you! In fact, I really like your family. Being able to know you is already the greatest luck in my life. I dare not ask for more." Joanna said sincerely.

Hazel: "Sister Joanna, don't say that, your good fortune is yet to come!"

After the two chatted for a while, Hazel left.

She was afraid of affecting Joanna's work.

Originally, she didn't plan to go to her brother's company, but after she came out of the dessert shop, she suddenly wanted to visit her brother's company.

She asked the driver to take her to the Dream Maker Group building.

After getting off the car, she took a photo with the building, and then got on the car to go home.

On the way home, she sent a group photo to the family group: [My brother's company is whiter than mine.]

Hayden liked white, so the exterior wall of the company was white.

Hayden saw the news and immediately called Hazel: "Are you here? Why didn't you tell me in advance? I'll go down to pick you up."

"Brother, I just passed by, I'm gone now." Hazel laughed.

"Why did you pass by here?" Hayden asked.

Hazel didn't intend to hide it from her brother, "I don't have class this afternoon, I just went to play with Sister Joanna."

"What are you looking for her for?" Hayden asked.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

Read Novel When His Eyes Opened Chapter 2977

Novel Chapter 2977 -"I like Miss Joanna, I'll take a look at her shop." Hazel didn't intend to tell her brother the content of the chat with Joanna.

The relationship between the two of them still depended on their own development.

"Her shop is relatively small, just an ordinary dessert shop, nothing fancy." Hayden said.

"Brother, you are too direct." Hazel smiled, "I believe that Sister Joanna's shop will grow bigger and bigger in the future."

"I'm just telling you that, I won't hit her in front of her." Hayden chuckled softly.

Hazel: "That's good. Brother, you are busy! I plan to go home and take a nap."

"Yeah. Next time you come here, you're not allowed to take a picture and just leave. Anyway, come in and see me." Hayden confessed.

Hazel: "Okay! I'll see you next time."

After talking on the phone, Hayden looked at the phone screen, hesitated for a while, and sent a message to Joanna: [My sister is looking for you?]

It happened that Joanna was not busy, so she quickly replied: [Yes! How do you know?]

Hayden: [She told me. What did she talk to you about?]

Joanna: [She told you that she came to see me, but didn't she tell you what we talked about?]

If Hazel didn't say anything, Joanna naturally wouldn't say anything either.

She still trusted Hazel very much.

Hayden: [It seems that you don't plan to tell me either.]

Joanna: [You want to hear topics between girls!]

Hayden: [Didn't you talk about me?]

Joanna: [I was talking about you and your whole family!]

Hayden: [...]

When there was a knock on the door, Hayden immediately said, "Come in."

Hailee walked in and put the documents on Hayden's desk.

"Boss, the information you asked for is on your desk." After finishing speaking, Hailee said again, "Someone wants to chase Ms. Picard."

Hayden raised his eyebrows: "Which Ms. Picard? You mean Joanna?"

"That's right! The only Ms. Picard you know is Joanna!" Hailee said, "I just met the director of the planning department. According to him, there is a man in their department who resides in the same city as Joanna. Their primary and junior high schools are in the same place. That man is single, and the family is in a hurry, so he plans to chase Ms. Picard."

"He only searches for Joanna because his family is pressuring him, right?" Hayden enquired, "Does he really believe that he can get married simply because his family is pressuring him to do so?"

"Boss, most people are like this. Now everyone is very busy with work, and there is little time to slowly fall in love. Many people get married after meeting a few times. They all get along slowly after marriage." Hailee replied.

"I didn't hear Joanna talk about it." Hayden had dinner with her yesterday, so he didn't hear her talk about it at all.

"That man plans to follow her, so I think he's about to start taking action." Hailee said, "Boss, if you're interested in Ms. Picard, I can go to the Planning Department to remind them."

Hayden: "..."

Hayden almost couldn't bear to let Hailee go.

But after calming down, he felt that this was also a test for Joanna.

"Let that man to follow her! If Joanna agrees so easily to someone else's proposals, it means she is not right for me." Hayden's face was a little darker than before.

Most of the readers are now reading this novels:-

