

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2571

Married at First Sight Chapter 2571-Hayden said honestly, "When I grow up, I have no time to travel. I am so busy every day; how can I have time to play? But I have been to many places because I often travel on business."

"Honeymoon, where do you want to go?" Kevin asked her.

Hayden thought for a while and said, "I like places with beautiful mountains and clear waters and relatively quiet places."

Kevin: "I will do some research and find a place with beautiful mountains, clear waters, and quiet places to live for a month and have a good time together."

It turns out that she liked places with beautiful mountains and clear waters.

Their Wildridge Manor was not only beautiful, with beautiful mountains and clear waters, but it was also very quiet at ordinary times.

Kevin: "Do you like Wildridge Manor?"

Hayden: "Yes. Do you want to spend your honeymoon at Wildridge Manor?"

Kevin said with a smile, "That's not the case. That is our future home. If you want to have a honeymoon, we must go out."

Hayden: "I haven't even decided whether to marry you yet, but we're talking about our honeymoon!"

Hayden laughed and said, "As long as I'm with you, it's easy to be led into a trap by you. My shrewdness and self-control are of no use in front of you."

Kevin said, "Hayden, you are still thinking about this matter. Is there something I haven't done enough?"

Kevin felt that he had been pursuing her for a long time and had shown her his heart in various ways, but he had not been able to convince her to marry him. This meant that he had not done enough and was not good enough, so he wanted to know where he fell short.

Hayden said, “No, you’ve done a good enough job. But I think we don’t date much. We are usually busy with work. I always feel that our relationship is not deep enough to get married. Others say I can’t even understand the feeling of not seeing you for one day, as if it were three autumns.

They said that they can’t feel this kind of lovesickness, which means that I don’t love you enough. Anyway, I don’t love you enough to get married. I just want to stay together for a while. Let me think about it slowly. This will not affect your return home. New Year’s Eve, right?

If Grandma York really doesn’t let you go home for the New Year, then go to my house for the New Year. I think my parents will welcome you to stay at my house for the New Year.”

Her parents particularly appreciated him.

After comparing herself to others, Hayden knew in her heart that it would be best for her to marry Kevin.

But, in her words, she didn’t love him deeply enough to want to marry him and spend the rest of her life with him.

Kevin: “That means I haven’t done a good enough job.”

Hayden had never experienced the feeling of not seeing each other for one day, like three autumns apart. Didn’t Kevin just want to leave Jensburg and give her peace?

He thought he was too tight.

However, occasionally, he could also stay apart for a while to see if Hayden went crazy, missing him.

“Kevin, it’s not that you’re not good enough; I just like you.” Hayden admitted that she liked him.

“I don’t have particularly good friends. I can’t even find someone to talk to. Alas, I don’t know what to do. Give me some time to think about it. Let’s go to your hotel for dinner. I admit that the food is even better there than at Our Greenrest Hotel.”

Fortress Hotel could compete with Greenrest Hotel based on its strength, not the reputation of the York Corporation.

“Okay.”

Hayden changed the topic, and Kevin wisely stopped talking about this topic.

When they arrived at the Fortress Hotel, Kevin parked the car, got out of the car ahead of Hayden, walked around the car to the passenger side, thoughtfully opened the car door for her, and extended his hand to help her get out of the car.

Hayden couldn't help but smile and say, “I'm not a seventy- or eighty-year-old woman who needs help getting off the car.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 2572-Kevin: “I am considerate and gentlemanly.”

Hayden smiled and took her man out of the car, letting him show off.

However, Kevin wanted to hold her hand and enter the hotel together, but she refused and withdrew the hand he held.

Kevin's eyes dimmed slightly.

In public, Hayden was never willing to act like a lover with him.

As she said, she didn't love him deeply enough.

The two walked side by side. After a few steps, Hayden suddenly stopped.

“What's wrong?” Kevin asked her concernedly.

Couldn't it be those suitors who met her?

Kevin looked ahead and did not see her suitors.

“Holden Janzen.”

Hayden whispered, and then she pulled Kevin away and hid behind a car.

The bodyguards thought they were in danger, so their instinctive reaction was to rush to Hayden's door as quickly as possible.

They got ready to help their eldest young master stay out of danger's way.

"Everyone hide; don't block me!" Hayden whispered to the bodyguards.

Bodyguard: "..."

It turned out that their eldest young master wanted to read someone's gossip.

Hayden pointed at an old man wearing sunglasses and dressed in black. The old man was holding a young woman in his arms. The woman had an angelic face, a devilish figure, and was dressed sexily.

As long as the men walking by her could not help but turn their heads to look at her a few more times.

"That's Kathryn's biological father, Holden Janzen, the husband of Matriarch Farrell. I don't know the woman next to him. He actually dares to cheat outside. If Matriarch Farrell sees this, she will be stripped of his skin."

Hearing that he was the husband of Matriarch Farrell, Kevin immediately took out his mobile phone and took the time to secretly record the video.

He said, "Matriarch Farrell is still staying in Wiltspoon after attending the wedding of my eldest brother and sister-in-law. Her husband probably wants to sneak food while she is away in Jensburg."

Hayden said, "Matriarch Farrell is in charge of her husband. She's so strict that Holden probably wouldn't dare steal it. At most, he would just cuddle and take advantage, like he is doing now. He doesn't even have the money to satisfy the woman's various requirements."

That woman's appearance was so good. Tall with a hot figure, she was the type that most men would like. No wonder Holden, who had always been tightly controlled and did not dare to have the slightest intention of cheating, couldn't help it. While his old wife was not in Jensburg, Sneakly found a young woman to come to the hotel for dinner.

Kevin whispered above her head, "You don't understand the bad nature of men. Matriarch Farrell will come back sooner or later. How can Holden not eat secretly while she is away?"

Do you think he brought this woman to the hotel just for dinner? Should you inform Kathryn to come over and help her mother catch the traitor?"

Hayden said, "Kathryn is having a hard time in the Farrell family. Let her come to help Matriarch Farrell catch the traitor. Instead, if the Farrell family questions her as the culprit, this kind of thing needs to be seen by Matriarch Farrell inadvertently, so that she can catch her husband cheating on her personally."

By the way, the Farrell family has been very uneasy recently.

Kathryn's brothers all had mistresses outside, and her sisters-in-law had serious quarrels with her brothers, and everyone in the upper class knew about it.

It is said that everyone in the Farrell family, except Kathryn, had long known that Young Master Farrell and others had women outside.

They just helped hide it from a few young ladies.