

Married at First Sight Chapter 2590-Kiera ate her food calmly. When her mother wasn't paying attention, she secretly poured a little wine and drank it all in one gulp. When her mother looked over, she had already put down her wine glass and ate her food calmly, unable to tell that she had just had a drink secretly.

Julian looked funny.

But he didn't dare fill up Kiera's wine glass. His future mother-in-law was very strict and didn't allow the young and old men in the family to drink more. Even if he had two drinks with his guest, he couldn't drink more. Of course, he couldn't break his future mother-in-law's rules.

So as not to ruin his mother-in-law's good impression of him.

"Well, he is the son of her colleague. Let us meet him tomorrow at the well-decorated milk tea shop near our martial arts gym."

Mrs. Caron handed her mobile phone to her husband and asked softly, "Look, that man looks like this. Do you want to meet him? He's a little fat. It seems he lacks exercise."

Mr. Caron took the mobile phone, and Kendrick came over and took a look at it, then said with disdain, "It's like a pig; how can he be worthy of my sister? Mom, how can Matchmaker Foley introduce such a man to my sister and ask her to introduce a high-quality man to my sister?" When a man comes over, he must at least be good-looking. If he is so ugly, if my nephew follows his behavior from now on, wouldn't he be extremely ugly?"

Mrs. Caron said to him, "You are a good man from Matchmaker Foley. I have introduced you to so many girls. Why don't you like one? You have eyes on the top of your head. I don't know what kind of girl you want to find. If you continue to choose, you will get older, and when you get older, you can only choose the second marriage."

Kendrick turned around and asked Julian, "Julian, you are two years older than me. Will your parents urge you to get married? As soon as you get home, you will talk about it."

Julian smiled and said, "Yes, my parents are also very anxious to get married. I am a little older, so it is normal for them to urge marriage. I can understand them."

Kendrick immediately found his soulmate, and while eating with Julian, he complained about his parents, who urged him to get married, completely ignoring the looks his parents gave him.

Being so angry with her eldest son, Kendrick, Mrs. Caron kicked him under the table, which made everyone worry.

Neither of her two sons fell in love and got married. As for the only daughter, the matchmaker introduced many men to her but canceled them without meeting them. Didn't they see that Kiera didn't react? She had no hope of dating at all.

"Kiera, go to the milk tea shop tomorrow to meet this gentleman, the son of Matchmaker Foley's colleague."

Mrs. Caron handed the phone to Kiera and asked her to see the man's appearance.

Kiera glanced at it and said, "Mom, let's wait until they actually come to meet. Maybe they will cancel it an hour before the meeting."

Wasn't it like this every time?

None of the marriage agencies in Yonsburg wanted to do her business. The matchmakers, who were not affiliated with the company, introduced her several times but failed every time.

Julian cursed in his heart: A big living person like him was sitting here, young, handsome, and successful in his career, yet no one in the Caron family would turn their attention to him?

If he and Kiera fell in love, wouldn't there be no need for a matchmaker?

The Caron family really didn't have such an idea.

The last time Julian came over, they misunderstood and thought Julian was Kiera's boyfriend. Kiera explained and found out that Julian was the president of Bucham Group, and the Caron family had no idea at all.

In their eyes, Julian was older, he lived in a different place, his family was too rich, and he was very different from their Caron family.

