Married at First Sight Chapter 2648-Pedro added, "Miss, you don't need to call the driver over. I'll take you home. I do not want to drink."

"what ever."

Kathryn wanted to drink two drinks to celebrate the success of her revenge plan.

Kathryn returned to work. By the time she finished her work, it was already 11 o'clock in the night.

The employees who work overtime in the company have already gotten off work.

When she walked out of the company, she saw Pedro sitting at the front of the car, waiting for her. When she came out, Pedro stood up straight and walked quickly towards her.

"How long have you been here?" Kathryn asked him while getting into the car.

Pedro said, "It didn't take long. I waited for about 10 minutes."

Pedro put on his seat belt, and after Kathryn also put on her seat belt, he started the engine.

Kathryn told him where to go to the food stall, and Pedro smiled: "Miss, I also like to go to the food stall for late-night snacks."

"I used to go there often."

Pedro stopped talking.

He knew that Kathryn's life was not good before she returned to the Farrell family.

As the car moved forward, Kathryn leaned back on the car seat, pressed down the window a little, and looked at the street scene outside the car window.

Jensburg was a big city, just like Wiltspoon. Even though it was 11 o'clock at night, there were still many people outside.

For those who liked nightlife, this time period was at its peak.

There were also people walking in a hurry, probably overtime workers like Kathryn who had just gotten off work. They were either riding bicycles or electric cars and hurried by.

In the house they rented, their families were waiting for them.

Kathryn was actually a little envious of them. No matter how hard and tired they were, there were people at home who cared about them, loved their families, and had lovely children.

She had money, but what awaited her back home?

She had parents, brothers, and sisters-in-law, but no one treated her sincerely.

Her adoptive father was still in jail, and the adoptive mother and others had no sincerity towards her.

She seemed to be someone who was not liked.

If the butler had not changed children more than 20 years ago, maybe she would have been loved by her parents, brother, and sister-in-law, just like Shiloh.

Shiloh's standing in the Farrell family had declined as a result of her plot, and her sisters-in-law had disliked her. However, she had to admit that Shiloh had gained more than her in terms of family affection.

The people in the Farrell family really loved Shiloh.

"What are you thinking, Miss?" Pedro asked gently.

"nothing." Kathryn stopped looking outside and pressed the window.

She didn't want to say what was on her mind. She didn't want people to know that she actually lacked love.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2649-The night was getting darker.

As time went by, the night passed quietly in people's dreams.

The sun rose, and a new day arrived.

Wiltspoon, Wildridge Manor.

Serenity came down from upstairs.

"sister."

When Serenity heard that her sister was coming, she went downstairs.

Tania was chatting with Liberty.

Hearing Serenity's voice, both Tania and Liberty looked at her, who was walking down.

Serenity came over, called her mother-in-law, then sat next to Liberty and asked, "Sister, why do you have time to come and see me today?"

As soon as the sound fell, Liberty poked her forehead with her finger.

"Sister, don't you welcome me to see you?"

Serenity immediately hugged one of Liberty's arms and said with a smile, "Sister, I don't see you very often because you're always busy. You always say that there are too many people in the restaurant when I come to see you. You don't want me to stay there for too long because you're afraid I'll accidentally bump into someone. Sister, I'm also worried about you; it's not that you won't let me stay there. Sister, Sonny hasn't come back yet?"

Yesterday afternoon, Serenity and Zachary picked up Sonny and sent him to Brown's house. Hank tried his best to keep Sonny at home for dinner, and Sonny finally stayed at Brown's house.

Hank told Serenity and Zachary that he would send Sonny home after dinner.

"He's back. It was very late last night. His dad sent him to my restaurant. His dad didn't enter the restaurant. He left him at the door of the restaurant and left. Now he has gone out to play long ago. He came to the villa. How could he be there? Quiet time."

Serenity smiled and said, "That's what children are like. I thought he would spend the weekend at Brown's house."

"It's good to stay for one night. He won't stay at Brown's house for two days."

Since Sonny was born, Liberty and Serenity had been taking care of him. He didn't have deep feelings for the Brown family.

Tania stood up and walked away. After a while, she brought some food over and put it on the coffee table. She said to the two sisters, "Seren, you talk to your sister while I go out to look for Sonny. I don't know if the little guy is crazy again. Where has he gone?"

She smiled again and said to Liberty, "Liberty, please stay here for lunch."

Liberty did not refuse: "Then I'll excuse you."

"No need to interrupt; if you are willing to stay for dinner, Seren can have an extra bowl of rice."

Serenity smiled and answered, "Mom, I usually eat well."

She was a foodie.

Tania smiled and said, "Yes, yes, you can eat it. Mom's favorite thing is that you can eat it."

At that time, Serenity had pregnancy symptoms, and she vomited after eating. Tania was worried that Serenity would not want to eat because of the discomfort of vomiting. Fortunately, she was overly worried, and she still had a good appetite.

"You guys chat; I'll go out and look for Sonny."

Tania went out quickly and let the two sisters have a good chat.

She saw that Liberty came here because she wanted to talk to Serenity about something.

"Sister, was Zachary in the house when you came?" Not seeing her husband, Serenity asked.

Liberty: "Sonny didn't run out by himself; Zachary took him with him."

Serenity said “oh” and called Liberty to eat.

Liberty smiled and said, “I won’t eat snacks, so as not to gain weight again. It’s easy to gain weight, but it’s too difficult to lose weight.”

Married at First Sight Chapter 2650-It took Liberty a year to lose weight.

After successfully losing weight and starting her own career, Liberty regained her confidence.

She would no longer eat as hard as she did before, becoming fat and losing too much.

Serenity: “Sister, you have lost a little weight now, and you need to eat back some meat.”

Liberty smiled and said, “I’m not thin at all. Seren, there is something I want to tell you.”

Serenity: “Sister, tell me.”

Liberty: “My flight to Jensburg is at 3 o’clock in the afternoon.”

Serenity was stunned for a moment and asked, “Are you so anxious?”

She knew that Liberty was going to fly to Jensburg recently.

She didn’t expect to be in such a hurry.

Serenity: “Is the Farrell family in chaos?”

“Chaos or not, I will fly to Jensburg often. Not to mention competing with Kathryn for the position of matriarch, it is just the cause of the deaths of our grandparents. As descendants, we must also find ways to find out. We cannot let them die inexplicably.”

Serenity nodded, then asked, “Auntie arranged it, or did you arrange the time yourself?”

“I made my own decision. The Farrell family has been in trouble recently. I went over to take a look. I also went there to inspect the market and expand my business there. This way, even if I stay in Jensburg, it won’t hinder my ability to make money.

Auntie has already made a list for me of the industries that the Farrell family is involved in. Let's start with the business."

Serenity felt itchy after hearing this. She wanted to follow her and help, but she knew that no one would let her go to Jensburg.

She had a baby in her belly.

Serenity said, "Sister, Where's Sonny? Does Sonny know that you're going away? Why don't you wait until Monday? Sonny will go to kindergarten on Monday. I don't know that he won't cry when you go out."

Liberty said, "I told him, and I also told him to send him to you, and he stopped crying, and I just told him to come back early. He will feel sad if I go out without telling him."

Although Sonny was only a little over three years old, he was becoming more and more naughty, but he was also becoming more and more sensible.

Fortunately, Sonny and Serenity were also very close. She heard that when Serenity took care of him, he didn't even cry.

Liberty said, "The honeymoon between you and Zachary is about to end. Zachary should go back to work in the company. You will be back in the city by then. It will be more convenient to pick up and drop off Sonny. During my absence, Sonny will trouble you and your husband."

Serenity smiled and said, "Sister, why are you being so polite to us? Sonny is my nephew. I brought him up every now and then, and he is now more than three years old. You are not in Wiltspoon. It is natural for me to take care of Sonny. If you don't entrust Sonny to my care, I will still be in a hurry with you. Don't worry and go do the work; Sonny has us."

Not only would Serenity help take care of Sonny, but Audrey, Elisa, and others would also help.

Liberty was a little worried about Duncan.

She looked at Serenity and said, "Seren, while I'm away in Wiltspoon, ask Zachary to spend more time watching Duncan and ask him not to overdo his rehabilitation, not to be impatient, and to take his time. Also, don't let him work overtime all the time."

Serenity said, "Sister, don't worry; Zachary will help you keep an eye on Brother Duncan. They are close friends, and Zachary also cares about Brother Duncan."

Liberty and Duncan looked like a couple.

They supported each other and encouraged each other to move forward boldly.

Their relationships were cultivated in companionship.

It is said that companionship is the longest confession of love.

Liberty said: "When I went to Jensburg this time, Duncan really wanted to go with me, but I was on business and couldn't find the time to take care of him. He felt that he was dragging me down. When I needed help, he couldn't help me. There is no way to stay with me. He knew I was leaving this afternoon, so he was trying to get into trouble. He didn't answer my calls or reply to my messages."
