Married at First Sight Chapter 2617-Callum continued: "Evan, what have you done to offend her? She came here."

Evan: "...Girl? What's her name?"

Callum: "She didn't say. Did you steal other people's things? Or took advantage of them? I think her teeth were itching when she mentioned you. She wants to settle a score with you, right?"

Hearing that the girl didn't tell Callum the reason for looking for him, Evan said, "Brother, am I that kind of person? Our family lacks everything, and I need to steal other people's things? Others won't steal our family's things. That's pretty good.

It's impossible for me to take advantage of others. She must have recognized the wrong person. I don't even know a few young girls. The people I usually deal with are all aunts."

Those strong women who were strong enough to do business with him and Evan were generally over forty years old.

Callum said, "Is it the goal grandma set for you?"

Evan said with a guilty conscience, "No, absolutely not; I haven't even taken any action. The target grandma gave me was a wealthy daughter and a famous lady, but the woman I always dream about is not the same as the target grandma gave me.

I was afraid that I would be the first man in our York family to get divorced in the future, so I didn't dare to take action. I also asked my grandma to help me change my goal. Grandma was not happy and asked me to solve it myself. How should I solve it?

Anyway, I'm mentally prepared that I won't be able to go home for the New Year in a year. Grandma is just being tough. When the New Year comes, she won't be able to see me, so she will soften her heart and ask me to go home for the New Year."

Evan said confidently, "The older grandma gets, the more she likes to have a house full of children and grandchildren. Without a grandson to celebrate the New Year at home, her New Year's Eve dinner will not be delicious."

Callum chuckled, "Don't be like Kevin. He delayed it for half a year and finally had to take action. And now he has not become Hayden's legitimate boyfriend. He is just a rumored boyfriend. Hayden is not willing to reveal her true identity for his sake.

It would be great if he could bring Hayden back to celebrate the New Year. I guess he doesn't have the ability yet. Hayden is a very calm and serious person, and I won't impulsively come back with him to celebrate the New Year.

Evan, you are my biological brother. We are from the same mother. I will never cheat you. As long as you fall in love with the girlfriend your grandma introduced to you, you will feel that getting married is not scary at all. Look at me now. It's quite happy.

Grandma is partial to you all. She has chosen daughters from famous families for you. Although your second sister-in-law is also from a wealthy family, your second sister-in-law was blind at the time and could not see. There are still so many people talking about me and your second sister-in-law that it's not a good match.

But I did not hesitate at all. I believed in grandma's vision and went straight to approach your second sister-in-law and pursue your second sister-in-law. After contacting her, I gradually understood grandma's intentions and felt that your second sister-in-law is very suitable for me, and I suit her too.

Although Kevin muttered for half a year before taking action, he and Hayden can be considered to complement each other. They are a perfect match together. We are much luckier than the eldest brother. At least Grandma did not directly force us to get a marriage certificate. She gave us a year to develop a relationship."

In the past, they would have thought that Serenity's status was a bit ordinary, but later they knew that Serenity was a descendant of the Farrell family in Jensburg; her status was not that ordinary.

Serenity has always been self-respecting, self-loving, self-reliant, and self-disciplined. Now she is raising the baby at home after becoming pregnant.

After she gives birth to the baby, she will slowly run her own business, which will always make people feel that she is really worthy of her eldest brother.

Life is so long, and some people are late bloomers.

In fact, they are not very good, but they have a better fate than everyone else, and they can be reincarnated into the richest man in York's family.

If they hadn't been born into a good family, it would be impossible for them to have such a career at their current age.

"Brother, you don't have to help Grandma persuade me. I'm not in a hurry anyway. Brother, I'm still busy. Let's get busy first. Let's eat together when we have time."

After Evan finished speaking, he quickly hung up the phone.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2618-He was afraid that Callum would continue to ask questions.

He just saw the person he was entangled with in his dream and then did something to make the other person angry. In fact, he didn't even know the other person's name, but he didn't expect that the other person would know his name and find him. When she came to the city, she even found the York Corporation.

A thief would always feel guilty. Although Evan felt that what he did was not bad, he felt very guilty and was afraid of being tricked by Callum.

Zachary accompanied Serenity into the inpatient department. Serenity was holding a bouquet of flowers, and Zachary was holding several bags in his hands.

The couple kept a low profile and did not bring any bodyguards.

He even wore black sunglasses and a mask to avoid being recognized.

The couple took the elevator to the floor of the obstetrics and gynecology inpatient department. When they got out of the elevator, Serenity quickened her pace.

Zachary followed suit and reminded her softly: "Honey, don't walk so fast. There are only a few steps left. Why are you in such a hurry?"

Serenity: "My cousin is discharged from the hospital today."

Zachary smiled lowly: "She is discharged from the hospital, and we can also go to her home to see the baby."

Serenity liked babies. She was always a person who loved children. After she became pregnant, her maternal love overflowed, and she became even more fond of children.

"I can watch it, but you have to wait until the full moon to watch it."

Serenity slowed down. She turned to her husband and smiled: "I can go and see it every day."

"That's Clive's son, and he's not my son. I can't see him for a month, so it doesn't matter. If it were my son, I would want to see him every day. When you are in confinement next year, I will also take forty days off, stay with you at home during confinement, and watch our children grow up, one day at a time."

Serenity: "It's not like you are in confinement. You don't need to take such a long leave. There are so many people in the family, and there is no need for you to take a long leave to serve my mother and son."

Zachary: "I want to be with you. You worked so hard to give birth to my child. I just put down my work to accompany you. Compared with your efforts, this is nothing."

The topic successfully made Serenity slow down. Zachary naturally held his wife's hand, and the couple talked while walking.

Alice gave birth naturally and could have been discharged earlier. Clive insisted that Alice stay in the hospital for two more days. The doctor repeatedly said that she could be discharged, so he agreed that Alice would be discharged and go home.

Then, the Stone family and the Lafayette family came to pick up Alice and her son from the hospital, and the room was full of people.

Alice also received many bouquets.

Seeing Serenity coming in with a bouquet of flowers, Alice smiled and said, "Seren, I received a whole room of bouquets this morning. The baby also received a lot of new clothes and a lot of gold locks and bracelets."

Her son was born with a silver spoon in his mouth.

He will grow up to love thousands of people because he is the oldest grandson of a businessman.
