

Read Married at First Sight Chapter 2631

Married at First Sight Chapter 2631-Kevin continued: "This makes it easy for you to pick it up and hit me. It doesn't matter if I break my head and bleed. If I am hospitalized, you have to be responsible for me."

Hayden: "You are shameless!"

Kevin chuckled. "I thought you would say that I love you without any limit."

Hayden said, "You're shameless and have no limits."

Kevin smiled.

Hayden said, "Sit further away. Don't sit across from me and interfere with my work."

Hayden chased him and prevented him from sitting across from her. Kevin was a chatterbox and could easily find topics to chat about with her. Even if he could sit quietly, it would affect her work.

Because he would always stare at her intently, admiring her as a rare treasure.

Kevin said, "If I don't say anything, it won't affect your work."

Hayden said, "Your gaze affects me too."

Kevin was proud. He asked with a smile, "Hayden, do you love me very much, but you are just thin-skinned and embarrassed to admit it? Look, I am sitting opposite you, and I don't say anything. You say it affects you. Affecting your mood and disturbing your work shows that you care about me and are always paying attention to my actions."

Hayden glared at him and warned, "If you don't get out of here, I will call the security to come up and ask you out. You will not be allowed to step into the Queen Enterprise in the future!"

"Hayden, your punishment is too harsh. Okay, okay, I'll get out of here and hurry up and process the documents. I won't disturb you anymore. I'll go find Hugh to brag. I'll come upstairs to pick you up from work in twenty minutes."

With that said, Kevin stood up, pulled out his chair, and left.

After taking two steps, he turned back, walked around the desk, came up to Hayden, and bit Hayden's lips regardless. Hayden wanted to kick him, but he was already satisfied and left.

Hayden was so angry that her eyes were like flying knives, and the knives flew towards his back, turning his back into a hornet's nest.

After Kevin left Hayden's office, Hayden could calm down and process the documents.

Hugh, on the other hand, had to eat snacks with his future brother-in-law, Kevin.

Kevin plundered all the snacks in his office and then opened them and tasted them all. If they were delicious, eat more of them. If they are not delicious, just taste them and discard them.

"Future brother-in-law."

Hugh poured two glasses of warm water and placed one in front of Kevin. He sat down while drinking water and asked Kevin, "Did I offend you? Or did I suffer it from my sister? Are you angry? You came to me to eat snacks to vent your anger?"

I've known you for such a long time, but I didn't know you liked snacks so much. No wonder you gave so many snacks to my sister, but my sister didn't like it, so she gave them all to me."

As he spoke, Hugh suddenly came to his senses.

He said to Kevin, "Kevin, I understand. Are you angry that my sister gave the snacks you gave her to me? So you came to me to search for my snacks, and then you took apart everything. Come and have a taste, and don't let me give it to my confidante again."

Kevin picked up the cup of warm water, drank half of it, and said, "What I gave to Hayden is Hayden's stuff. She can give it to whoever she wants. I'm not that stingy. It's just some snacks. I would only be angry if your sister gave away the diamond engagement ring I gave you."

“Did you propose to my sister?” Hugh asked in shock.

The volume had increased a lot.

Realizing that this was still a company, Hugh quickly covered his mouth, lowered his voice, and asked, “When did you propose to my brother? Why didn’t I know?”

He still called Hayden ‘brother’ in the company.

Married at First Sight Chapter 2632-Hayden had no plans to resume her identity as a woman yet.

“No grand proposal yet.” Kevin answered honestly.

Hugh smiled and said, “I thought you proposed. It’s such a big deal. How come our whole family doesn’t know about it? It turns out that you haven’t proposed in a grand way yet. When will you propose to my brother in a grand way?”

It must be grand, and you must choose a place with many people to propose. The people watching may shout in unison, My sister will marry you.”

There would undoubtedly be a lot of people watching Kevin’s grand proposal as long as it was public, and nobody would help him ask Hayden to marry him. On the contrary, many people may scold him or even throw eggs at him.

Someone would also remind Kevin that he and Hayden could become a legal couple.

Unless Hayden regained her identity as a woman, Kevin’s proposal would receive everyone’s blessing.

Kevin also knew this.

He said, “When Hayden is willing to marry me, I will definitely propose to her grandly, hold an engagement banquet grandly, and give her a grand wedding. She will have what others have, and what she has, others will not. I will never let her suffer any injustice.”

“I believe you! You can say that you have shown your heart to my sister, but my sister’s love for you is still not deep enough. You still need to keep working hard.”

Hugh encouraged Kevin with a smile.

“I’m always working hard.” Kevin sighed. “I will be very happy if I can hold her next year.”

Hugh comforted him again: “Actually, you are already very good. You and my sister have only been together for a few months, but my sister already has feelings for you. Since she took over our company, she has met many young talents, but you only touched her heart. You are the first and only man who can make my sister open up to her.”

Hugh said this, and Kevin thought about it and felt that he was very powerful.

He should be the first man besides his family to know that Hayden is a woman since she disguised herself as a man.

But it was through his grandma that she found out that Hayden was a woman.

Hayden was so successful at pretending to be a man.

Kevin said, “Oh, twenty minutes are up. I’ll go upstairs to pick up your sister from work.”

Hugh looked at the time and said, “Isn’t it time to get off work?”

Kevin: “Do you have any objections to Hayden getting off work early? The Queen Enterprise should be left to you to manage. Hayden has been tired for so many years, so why does she occasionally get off work early?”

Hugh: “What does it mean that the Queen Enterprise should be left to me to manage? I am also a child of the Queen family, and she also has a share in the Queen family’s property. The two of us should take over the Queen Enterprise together. But you can’t put it all on me personally.

Kevin, even if you are married, you can’t restrict my sister’s freedom. You can’t let her be an idle young lady at home. If she wants to go to work, you should respect her decision.”

Hugh was afraid that Kevin would not let Hayden go to work after her sister got married. In that case, the Queen Enterprise would really fall on his shoulders.

“Anyway, my sister also has a share in the Queen Enterprise. After you get married, my sister will still be the head president of the Queen Enterprise. I don’t have that much ability to run up the Queen Enterprise on my own. The most I can do is help.

I am just a dissolute second-generation ancestor, a prodigal son. If the Queen Enterprise is left in my hands, it will be ruined. Therefore, I am suitable to be an idle second-generation ancestor.”

In order not to be the president of Queen’s, Hugh tried his best to discredit himself.